F O R E W O R D

Since the first English-language liturgy, the Exhortation and Litany (1544), prayer has been offered to God Almighty in what is commonly termed “Elizabethan English.” Since that time, the Anglican Tradition has maintained use of this particular idiom in the public prayers and rites of the Church. This wholeheartedly patristic practice of hieratic-language liturgies has left an undeniable and permanent mark on the hearts of faithful Anglican Christians throughout the world who have been formed in the language of Thomas Cranmer, Miles Coverdale, and the historic Prayer Books of 1549, 1662, 1928, and 1962.

The Book of Common Prayer (2019), in the section Concerning the Divine Service of the Church, states that “any service contained in this book may have the contemporary idiom of speech conformed to the traditional language (thou, thee, thy, thine, etc.) of earlier Prayer Books.”

This edition of the Book of Common Prayer (2019) was composed with the intention of offering a consistently Anglican, historic, and pastoral response to that rubric. The Book of Common Prayer (1979), as well as the Book of Alternative Services (1985), offered only limited official traditional-language resources, consigning many key rites in the Christian life, such as Baptism, Matrimony, and Ordination, exclusively to the contemporary idiom.

Our guidelines in the composition of this book have been as follows:

1. Where possible, all texts and rubrics will reflect those of the authorized text of the Book of Common Prayer (2019).
2. Where possible, the language found in the historic Book of Common Prayer (1662), or that found in the historic Prayer Book tradition, will be used.
3. Where possible, responses and prayers already in use by traditional-language congregations in the Anglican Church in North America will be maintained.

This edition of the Book of Common Prayer (2019) is offered to the service of Almighty God with the hope that the language which, for centuries, has shaped and formed Christians in the Anglican Tradition will continue to produce good and faithful servants of Christ.

P R E F A C E

Christianity—the fullness of the good news about Jesus Christ—came very early to what would eventually be called Anglia (England) through the witness of soldiers, sailors, merchants, and missionaries. Legend holds that the biblical tomb-giver, Joseph of Arimathea, was among the first of those scattered evangelists.

The early Christian mission in the British Isles was an encounter with pagan tribes and societies. Converts banded together, and in this context communities of common prayer, learning, and Christ-like service emerged, living under agreed rules. Thus “monasteries” became centers of the evangelization of this remote region of the Roman world, and ever more so as the empire disintegrated. Early heroes and heroines leading such communities bore names that are still remembered and celebrated, names like Patrick, Brigid, David, Columba, Cuthbert, and Hilda. Haphazardly, and without a centralized hierarchy or authority, what emerged in Britain, by God’s grace, was a Church that saw herself, in each of her local manifestations, as part of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church: culturally attuned and missionally adaptive, but ever committed to and always propagating “the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints” (JUDE 1:3).

Reform came in various waves, based more in the Roman systems of Diocese and parish. At the end of the sixth century, Augustine, a Benedictine monk and first Archbishop of Canterbury, was sent out from Rome by Pope Gregory the Great with instructions that encouraged preservation of local customs when they did not conflict with universal practice. Dunstan, 25th Archbishop of Canterbury, great reformer of common worship, and Anselm, 36th Archbishop, early scholastic theologian, were among notable monastic successors of this far more hierarchical Roman mission. Closer connection to the continent and distance from the Patristic era also meant that from the seventh century onward, British faith and order were increasingly shaped by efforts to create a universal western patriarchate at Rome. The Norman Conquest of the 11th century also played a role in diminishing the distinguishing peculiarities of Ecclesia Anglicana. Liturgy also became increasingly complicated and clericalized.

All across Europe, the sixteenth century was marked by reform of the received tradition. So great was this period of reevaluation, especially concerning the primacy of the Holy Scriptures, that the whole era is still known to us as the Reformation.

Archbishop Thomas Cranmer, 69th Archbishop of Canterbury, who was martyred at Oxford in 1556, led the English phase of this reform of Church life and Church worship. Undoubtedly Cranmer's most enduring achievement was his replacement of the numerous books of the Latin liturgy with a carefully compiled Book of Common Prayer. This was a Prayer Book in the vernacular, one which brilliantly maintained the traditional patterns of worship, yet which sought to purge away from worship all that was “contrary to Holy Scripture or to the ordering of the Primitive Church.” The Book of Common Prayer, from the first edition of 1549, became the hallmark of a Christian way of worship and believing that was both catholic and reformed, continuous yet always renewing. According to this pattern, communities of prayer—congregations and families rather than the monasteries of the earliest centuries—would be the centers of formation and of Christ-like service to the world.

For a century, the Church of England matured and broadened as a tradition separated from the Church of Rome. Its pastoral, musical, and ascetical life flourished: Jeremy Taylor, Lancelot Andrewes, Thomas Tallis, William Byrd, and George Herbert are but a few of the names associated with this flowering. Also begun were three centuries of colonial expansion that exported the Book of Common Prayer to countless cultures and people-groups the world over.

The English Civil War of the seventeenth century drove the Church of England and her liturgy underground. Nevertheless, with the Restoration of the Monarchy, the Book of Common Prayer, authorized by Parliament and Church in 1662, became Anglicanism’s sine qua non. Great Awakenings and the Methodist movement of the 18th century, as well as adaptations necessary for the first Anglicans independent of the British Crown, challenged and re-shaped Prayer Book worship, as would the East African revival, charismatic renewal, and the dissolution of Empire in the 20th century. Similarly, the evangelical and anglo-catholic movements of the 19th century profoundly affected Anglican self-understanding and worship in different, often seemingly contradictory, ways; yet the Book of Common Prayer (1662) was common to every period of this development. For nearly five centuries, Cranmer's Prayer Book idea had endured to shape what emerged as a global Anglican Church that is missional and adaptive as in its earliest centuries; authoritatively Scriptural and creedal as in its greatest season of reform; and evangelical, catholic, and charismatic in its apology and its worship as now globally manifest.

The liturgical movement of the 20th century and the ecumenical rapprochement in the second half of that century had an immense impact on the Prayer Book tradition. The Book of Common Prayer (1979) in the United States and various Prayer Books that appeared in Anglican Provinces from South America to Kenya to South East Asia to New Zealand were often more revolutionary than evolutionary in character. Eucharistic prayers in particular were influenced by the re-discovery of patristic texts unknown at the Reformation, and often bore little resemblance to what had for centuries been the Anglican norm. Baptismal theology, especially in North America, was affected by radical revisions to the received Christian understanding, and came perilously close to proclaiming a gospel of individual affirmation rather than of personal transformation and sanctification.

At the beginning of the 21st century, global reassessment of the Book of Common Prayer of 1662 as "the standard for doctrine, discipline, and worship" shapes the present volume, now presented on the bedrock of its predecessors. Among the timeless treasures offered in this Prayer Book is the Coverdale Psalter of 1535 (employed with every Prayer Book from the mid-16th to the mid-20th centuries), renewed for contemporary use through efforts that included the labors of 20th century Anglicans T. S. Eliot and C. S. Lewis, and brought to final form here. The Book of Common Prayer (2019) is indisputably true to Cranmer's originating vision of a form of prayers and praises that is thoroughly Biblical, catholic in the manner of the early centuries, highly participatory in delivery, peculiarly Anglican and English in its roots, culturally adaptive and missional in a most remarkable way, utterly accessible to the people, and whose repetitions are intended to form the faithful catechetically and to give them doxological voice.

The Book of Common Prayer (2019) is the product of the new era of reform and restoration that has created the Anglican Church in North America. The Jerusalem Declaration of 2008 located itself within the historic confines of what is authentically the Christian Faith and the Anglican patrimony, and sought to restore their fullness and beauty. The Book of Common Prayer (2019) is offered to the same end.

Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, the Great Litany, the Order for Holy Communion, and the Orders for Holy Baptism and Confirmation, as set forth in this Book, are the regular liturgies appointed for worship in this Church.

Daily Morning Prayer and Daily Evening Prayer are the established rites (offices) by which, both corporately and individually, God's people annually encounter the whole of the Holy Scriptures, daily confess their sins and praise Almighty God, and offer timely thanksgivings, petitions, and intercessions. The Prayer Book tradition has historically expected clergy to pray the Daily Office morning and evening each day.

The Great Litany is commonly used before the Holy Eucharist on the First Sunday of Advent and the First Sunday in Lent, and may be used on other Sundays as needed or as the Bishop directs. The Great Litany is especially appropriate for Rogation days, other days of fasting or thanksgiving, and occasions of solemn and comprehensive entreaty. It can be used as an independent rite, or at the conclusion of Morning or Evening Prayer.

The Holy Communion, commonly called the Lord's Supper or the Holy Eucharist, is a chief means of grace for sustained and nurtured life in Christ. It is normally the principal service of Christian worship on the Lord's Day and on other appointed Feasts and Holy Days. Mindful of the admonition in 1 Corinthians 11:27-29, participation in Holy Communion requires a penitent heart and lively faith.

Holy Baptism is the initiatory rite of the Church, which seals adoption in Christ and is the means of grace for new life in him. Confirmation (or Reception) through the laying on of hands by a Bishop is the rite of public profession of faith that is expected of every adult member of the Church. In it the Holy Spirit gives grace to the believer for discipleship and ministry as a mature Christian.

In addition to these liturgies and the other rites contained in this Book, the Minister, subject to the direction of the Ordinary (Diocesan Bishop), may use other forms of occasional service set forth by authority within this Church. Special devotions taken from Holy Scripture, and other services consistent with the Scriptures, may be authorized by the Bishop.

The entire Congregation participates in the conduct of public worship. Laity, Deacons, Presbyters, and Bishops fulfill the functions of their respective orders. Because divine service should give the Lord the worship due his Name, the Church expects proper training of all who lead in the liturgies of the Church.

As pastoral need arises or local circumstance requires, all services may be translated into languages other than English for the sake of those gathered for worship. Similarly, any service contained in this Book may have the contemporary idiom of speech conformed to the traditional language (thou, thee, thy, thine, etc.) of earlier Prayer Books. Likewise, the ordering of Communion rites may be conformed to a historic Prayer Book ordering.

When nouns, pronouns, and their verbs are italicized because of their number, singular may be changed to plural and vice versa as the situation requires. A black line in the left margin of the page indicates that the material in that section may be used at the discretion of the Minister.

Hymns, anthems, and songs of praise must be in the words of Holy Scripture, or of the Book of Common Prayer, or congruent with them. The local Minister is responsible for maintaining this standard. Where rubrics indicate that a part of the service is to be “said,” it must be understood to include “or sung,” and vice versa. When it is desired to use music composed for them, previously authorized liturgical texts may be used in place of the corresponding texts in this Book. Throughout this Book, asterisks (*) are used to denote the responsorial, antiphonal, or musical break points in canticles and other texts frequently sung or corporately recited.

Quotations of Scripture in this Book Of Common Prayer (2019) normally follow The Holy Bible: English Standard Version (esv) except for the Psalms and Canticles, and for citations marked with the symbol (^t) which indicates traditional prayer book language. Similarly, the symbol (^v) indicates that verse numbers of a particular psalm of the New Coverdale Psalter found in this book differ from other translations. This Psalter is a renewal of the Coverdale Psalter of 1535, whose meter and turn of phrase remain embedded in the global Anglican heritage of language and music.

CONCERNING TRADITIONAL LANGUAGE

This Traditional Language Edition of the Book of Common Prayer (2019) employs the personal idiom (thou, thee, thy, thine, etc.) of historic Prayer Books, and uses the verb forms of Elizabethan English, as permitted in the section Concerning the Divine Service of the Church.

This edition also substitutes the historic Coverdale Psalter of 1535, as revised in the Book of Common Prayer (1928). All psalms appointed and psalm references in this Traditional Language Edition take this form.

All other quotations from Scripture are from the Authorized Version of the Holy Bible (KJV) of 1611, unless the Prayer Book tradition maintains an alternate version of the verse or verses.

The page numbers of this Traditional Language Edition mirror the page numbers of the Book of Common Prayer (2019), where possible.

DAILY MORNING PRAYER

The Officiant may begin Morning Prayer by reading an opening sentence of Scripture. One of the following, or a sentence from among those provided at the end of the Office (pages 27-29), is customary.

Grace be unto you and peace, from God our Father, and from
the Lord Jesus Christ.

PHILIPPIANS 1:2

or this

I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the LORD.

PSALM 122:1

or this

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be alway acceptable in your sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

PSALM 19:14

CONFESSiON OF SIN

The Officiant says to the People

Dearly beloved, the Scripture teacheth us to acknowledge our many sins and offenses, not concealing them from our heavenly Father, but confessing them with humble and obedient hearts that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy. We ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before Almighty God, but especially when we come together in his presence to give thanks for the great benefits we have received at his hands, to declare his most worthy praise, to hear his holy Word, and to ask, for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things which are necessary for our life and our salvation. Therefore, draw near with me to the throne of heavenly grace.

or this

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence is kept. All kneeling, the Officiant and People say

Almighty and most merciful Father,
we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep.
We have followed too much the devices and desires
of our own hearts.
We have offended against thy holy laws.
We have left undone those things which we ought to have done,
and we have done those things which we ought not
to have done;
and apart from thy grace, there is no health in us.
But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders.
Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults.
Restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord.
And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake,
that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life,
to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Priest alone stands and says

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, desireth not the death of sinners, but that they may turn from their wickedness and live. He hath empowered and commanded his ministers to pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all who truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that our present deeds may please him, the rest of our lives may be pure and holy, and that at the last we may come unto his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

A Deacon or layperson remains kneeling and prays

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INVITATORY

All stand.

Officiant O Lord, open thou our lips;

People And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us;

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Officiant Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

People As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Officiant Praise ye the Lord.

People The Lord's Name be praised.

Then follows the Venite. Alternatively, the Jubilate may be used.

One of these antiphons, or one from the seasonal antiphons provided at the end of the Office (pages 29–30), may be sung or said before and after the Invitatory Psalm.

The earth is the Lord's for he made it: *

O come, let us adore him.

or this

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: *

O come, let us adore him.

or this

The mercy of the Lord is everlasting: *

O come, let us adore him.

VENITE
O Come

O come, let us sing unto the LORD; *

let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; *

and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

For the LORD is a great God *

and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth; *

and the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it, *

and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship and fall down, *

and kneel before the LORD our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God, *

and we are the people of his pasture,

and the sheep of his hand.

The following verses may be omitted, except in Lent.

Today, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts *
as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness,

When your fathers tempted me, *
proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generation and said, *
It is a people that err in their hearts,
for they have not known my ways:

Unto whom I swore in my wrath, *
that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM 95:1-7, 8-11

or this

J U B I L A T E
Be Joyful

O be joyful in the LORD, all ye lands; *
serve the LORD with gladness,
and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the LORD he is God;
it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; *
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise; *
be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.
For the LORD is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; *
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

PSALM 100

During the first week of Easter, the Pascha Nostrum, without antiphons, is used in place of the Invitatory Psalm, and it may be used throughout Eastertide.

PASCHA NOSTRUM
Christ our Passover

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; *
 therefore let us keep the feast;
Not with the old leaven,
neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: *
 but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.
Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: *
 death hath no more dominion over him.
For in that he died, he died unto sin once: *
 but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin: *
 but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.
Christ is risen from the dead, *
 and become the first fruits of them that slept.
For since by a man came death, *
 by a man came also the resurrection of the dead.
For as in Adam all die, *
 even so in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

I CORINTHIANS 5:7-8; ROMANS 6:9-11; I CORINTHIANS 15:20-22

Then follows

THE PSALM OR PSALMS APPOINTED

At the end of the Psalms the Gloria Patri (Glory be...) is sung or said

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

One or more Lessons, as appointed, are read, the Reader first saying

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each lesson the Reader may say

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Or the Reader may say

Here endeth the Reading.

The following Canticles are normally sung or said after each of the lessons. The Officiant may also use a Canticle drawn from the Supplemental Canticles (pages 79-88) or an appropriate song of praise.

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS
We Praise Thee, O God

We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord. *

All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.

To thee all angels cry aloud,

the heavens and all the powers therein. *

To thee cherubim and seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth; *

Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.

The glorious company of the apostles praise thee. *

The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise thee.

The noble army of martyrs praise thee. *

The holy Church throughout all the world

doth acknowledge thee,

the Father, of an infinite majesty,
thine adorable, true, and only Son, *
 also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
Thou art the King of glory, O Christ *
 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, *
 thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, *
 thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God,
in the glory of the Father. *
 We believe that thou shalt come to be our judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, *
 whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy saints, *
 in glory everlasting.

The following verses may be omitted

O Lord, save thy people and bless thine heritage; *
 Govern them and lift them up for ever.
Day by day we magnify thee; *
 and we worship thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin; *
 O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us; *
 As our trust is in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I trusted; *
 Let me never be confounded.

During Lent the Benedictus es, Domine usually replaces the Te Deum, and it may be used at other times.

BENEDICTUS ES, DOMINE
A Song of Praise

Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou for the name of thy Majesty; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holiness; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths,
and dwellest between the Cherubim; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
 praised and exalted above all for ever.

SONG OF THE THREE YOUNG MEN, 29-34

BENEDICTUS
The Song of Zechariah

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, *
 for he hath visited and redeemed his people;
And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us *
 in the house of his servant David,
As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, *
 which have been since the world began:
That we should be saved from our enemies, *
 and from the hand of all that hate us;
To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers, *
 and to remember his holy covenant;
To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham, *
 that he would give us,

That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies *
 might serve him without fear,
In holiness and righteousness before him,*
 all the days of our life.
And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest,*
 for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord
 to prepare his ways;
To give knowledge of salvation unto his people *
 for the remission of their sins,
Through the tender mercy of our God,*
 whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;
To give light to them that sit in darkness,
and in the shadow of death,*
 and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

LUKE 1:68-79

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Officiant and People together, all standing

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord;
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, dead, and buried.
 He descended into hell.
 The third day he rose again from the dead.
 He ascended into heaven,
 and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
 From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

The People kneel or stand.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant O Lord, show thy mercy upon us;
People And grant us thy salvation.

Officiant O Lord, guide those who govern us;
People And lead us in the way of justice and truth.

Officiant Endue thy ministers with righteousness;
People And make thy chosen people joyful.

Officiant O Lord, save thy people;
People And bless thine inheritance.

Officiant Give peace in our time, O Lord;
People And defend us by thy mighty power.

Officiant Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
People Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.

Officiant O God, make clean our hearts within us;
People And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Officiant then prays one or more of the following Collects, always beginning with the Collect of the Day (usually the Collect of the Sunday or Principal Feast and of any of the weekdays following, or of the Holy Day being observed), found on pages 598–640. It is traditional to pray the Collects for Peace and Grace daily. Alternatively, one may pray the Collects on a weekly rotation, using the suggestions in italics.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

From the Collects of the Christian Year

A COLLECT FOR STRENGTH TO AWAIT CHRIST'S RETURN

Sunday

O God our King, by the resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ on the first day of the week, thou didst conquer sin, put death to flight, and give unto us the hope of everlasting life: Redeem all our days by this victory; forgive our sins, banish our fears, make us bold to praise thee and to do thy will; and steel us to wait for the consummation of thy kingdom on the last great Day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR THE RENEWAL OF LIFE Monday

O God, the King eternal, whose light divideth the day from the night and turneth the shadow of death into the morning: Drive far from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep thy law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that, having done thy will with cheerfulness during the day, we may, when night comes, rejoice to give thee thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR PEACE Tuesday

O God, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; Defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR GRACE Wednesday

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR GUIDANCE Thursday

Heavenly Father, in whom we live and move and have our being: We humbly pray thee so to guide and govern us by thy Holy Spirit, that in all the cares and occupations of our life we may not forget thee, but may remember that we are ever walking in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR ENDURANCE Friday

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the Cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR SABBATH REST Saturday

Almighty God, who after the creation of the world didst rest from all thy works and sanctify a day of rest for all thy creatures: Grant that we, putting away all earthly anxieties, may be duly prepared for the service of your sanctuary, and that our rest here upon earth may be a preparation for the eternal rest promised to thy people in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Unless the Great Litany or the Eucharist is to follow, one of the following prayers for mission is added. If the Great Litany is used, it follows here, or after a hymn or anthem, and concludes the Office.

PRAYER FOR MISSION

Almighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels: Send down upon our clergy and the congregations committed to their charge the life-giving Spirit of thy grace, shower them with the continual dew of thy blessing, and ignite in them a zealous love of thy Gospel; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

O God, who hast made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and didst send thy blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: Grant that people everywhere may seek after thee and find thee; bring the nations into thy fold; pour out thy Spirit upon all flesh; and hasten the coming of thy kingdom; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

Lord Jesus Christ, who didst stretch out thine arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of thy saving embrace: So clothe us in thy Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know thee to the knowledge and love of thee; for the honor of thy Name. Amen.

The Officiant may invite the People to offer intercessions and thanksgivings.

A hymn or anthem may be sung.

Before the close of the Office one or both of the following prayers may be used.

THE GENERAL THANKSGIVING

Officiant and People

Almighty God, Father of all mercies,
we, thine unworthy servants,
do give thee most humble and hearty thanks
for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men.

We bless thee for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all, for thine inestimable love
in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech thee,
give us that due sense of all thy mercies,
that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful:
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service,
and by walking before thee

in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time, with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and who hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

From Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost, "Alleluia, alleluia" may be added to the preceding versicle and response.

The Officiant says one of these concluding sentences (and the People may be invited to join)

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore.

Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS 13:14^T

May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen. ROMANS 15:13^T

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

The Confession and Apostles' Creed may be omitted, provided each is said at least once during the course of the day.

The Gloria Patri (Glory be...) in the opening versicles may be said in unison. The following form of the Gloria Patri may alternatively be used:
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Officiant and People may join in saying "Alleluia" (except in Lent) as an alternative to the versicles "Praise the Lord. The Lord's Name be praised."

If an offering is to be received, it is appropriate to do so during the hymn or anthem following the Collects.

A sermon may be preached after the lessons, after the hymn or anthem following the Collects, or after the conclusion of the Office.

At the end of the Psalms the Gloria Patri (Glory be...) is sung or said

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

One of the following, or some other suitable passage of Scripture, is read

Jesus said, "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." JOHN 12:31-32

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:17-18

From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts. MALACHI 1:11

At the end of the reading is said

The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

A meditation, silent or spoken, may follow.

The Officiant then begins the Prayers

Officiant I will bless the Lord at all times.

People His praise shall ever be in my mouth.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant O Lord, hear our prayer;

People And let our cry come unto thee.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Officiant then says one or more of the following Collects. Other appropriate Collects may also be used.

Blessed Savior, who at this hour didst hang upon the cross stretching out thy loving arms: Grant that all the peoples of the earth may look unto thee and be saved; for thy tender mercies' sake. Amen.

Almighty Savior, who at mid-day didst call thy servant Saint Paul to be an apostle to the Gentiles: We pray thee to illumine the world with the radiance of thy glory, that all nations may come and worship thee; for thou livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Father of all mercies, thou hast revealed thy boundless compassion to thine apostle Saint Peter in a three-fold vision: Forgive our unbelief, we pray, and so strengthen our hearts and enkindle our zeal, that we may fervently desire the salvation of all people, and diligently labor in the extension of thy kingdom; through him who gave himself for the life of the world, thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts; that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ announced by the message of an angel to the Virgin Mary, so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Silence may be kept, and other intercessions and thanksgivings may be offered.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

From Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost, "Alleluia, alleluia" may be added to the preceding versicle and response.

The Officiant may conclude with this, or one of the other concluding sentences from Morning and Evening Prayer.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore.
Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS 13:14^T

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

Other suitable selections from the Psalter include Psalms 19, 67, one or more sections of Psalm 119, or a selection from Psalms 120 through 133.

Either version of the Lord's Prayer may be ended with, "deliver us from evil. Amen." omitting the concluding doxology.

DAILY EVENING PRAYER

The Officiant may begin Evening Prayer by reading an opening sentence of Scripture. One of the following, or a sentence from among those provided at the end of the Office (pages 54–56), is customary.

Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

JOHN 8:12

or this

LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honor dwelleth.

PSALM 26:8

or this

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense; and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

PSALM 141:2

CONFESSIO N OF SIN

The Officiant says to the People

Dearly beloved, the Scripture teacheth us to acknowledge our many sins and offenses, not concealing them from our heavenly Father, but confessing them with humble and obedient hearts that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy. We ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before Almighty God, but especially when we come together in his presence to give thanks for the great benefits we have received at his hands, to declare his most worthy praise, to hear his holy Word, and to ask, for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things which are necessary for our life and our salvation. Therefore, draw near with me to the throne of heavenly grace.

or this

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence is kept. All kneeling, the Officiant and People say

Almighty and most merciful Father,

we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep.

We have followed too much the devices and desires
of our own hearts.

We have offended against thy holy laws.

We have left undone those things which we ought to have done,
and we have done those things which we ought not
to have done;

and apart from thy grace, there is no health in us.

But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders.

Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults.

Restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord.

And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake,
that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life,
to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Priest alone stands and says

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, desireth
not the death of sinners, but that they may turn from their wickedness and live. He hath empowered and commanded
absolution and remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all who truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that our present deeds may please him, the rest of our lives may be pure and holy, and that at the last we may come unto his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

A Deacon or layperson remains kneeling and prays

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INVITATORY

All stand.

Officiant O Lord, open thou our lips;

People And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us;

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Officiant Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

People As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Officiant Praise ye the Lord.

People The Lord's Name be praised.

The following or some other suitable hymn or Psalm may be sung or said.

P H O S H I L A R O N
O Gladsome Light

O gladsome light,
pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, *
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!
Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light, *
we sing thy praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Thou art worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, *
O Son of God, O Giver of Life,
and to be glorified through all the worlds.

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each Lesson the Reader may say

The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Or the Reader may say

Here endeth the Reading.

The following Canticles are normally sung or said after each of the lessons. The Officiant may also use a Canticle drawn from the Supplemental Canticles (pages 79–88) or an appropriate song of praise.

M A G N I F I C A T
The Song of Mary

My soul doth magnify the Lord, *
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded *
the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth *
all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, *
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him *
throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm; *
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination
of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, *
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, *
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

LUKE 1:46-55

NUNC DIMITTIS
The Song of Simeon

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, *
according to thy word;
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, *
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, *
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world

A COLLECT FOR RESURRECTION HOPE Sunday

Lord God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ didst triumph over the powers of death and prepare for us our place in the new Jerusalem: Grant that we, who have this day given thanks for his resurrection, may praise thee in that City of which he is the light, and where he liveth and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR PEACE Monday

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR AID AGAINST PERILS Tuesday

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thine only Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR PROTECTION Wednesday

O God, the life of all who live, the light of the faithful, the strength of those who labor, and the repose of the dead: We thank thee for the blessings of the day that is past, and humbly ask for your protection through the coming night. Bring us in safety to the morning hours; through him who died and rose again for us, thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR THE PRESENCE OF CHRIST Thursday

Lord Jesus, stay with us, for evening is at hand and the day is past; be our companion in the way, kindle our hearts, and awaken hope, that we may know thee as thou art revealed in Scripture and the breaking of bread. Grant this for the sake of thy love. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR FAITH Friday

Lord Jesus Christ, by thy death thou hast taken away the sting of death: Grant unto us thy servants so to follow in faith where thou hast led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in thee and wake up in thy likeness; for thy tender mercies' sake. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR THE EVE OF WORSHIP Saturday

O God, the source of eternal light: Shed forth thine unending day upon us who watch for thee, that our lips may praise thee, our lives may bless thee, and our worship on the morrow give thee glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Unless the Great Litany or the Eucharist is to follow, one of the following prayers for mission is added. If the Great Litany is used, it follows here, or after a hymn or anthem, and concludes the Office.

PRAYER FOR MISSION

O God and Father of all, whom the whole heavens adore: Let the whole earth also worship thee, all nations obey thee, all tongues confess and bless thee, and men, women, and children everywhere love thee and serve thee in peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give thine angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for thy love's sake. Amen.

or this

O God, who dost manifest in thy servants the signs of thy presence: Send forth upon us the Spirit of love, that in companionship with one another thine abounding grace may increase among us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant may invite the People to offer intercessions and thanksgivings.

A hymn or anthem may be sung.

Before the close of the Office one or both of the following prayers may be used.

THE GENERAL THANKSGIVING

Officiant and People

Almighty God, Father of all mercies,
we, thine unworthy servants,
do give thee most humble and hearty thanks
for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men.

We bless thee for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all, for thine inestimable love
in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech thee,
give us that due sense of all thy mercies,
that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful:
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service,
and by walking before thee
in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time, with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and who hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

From Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost, "Alleluia, alleluia" may be added to the preceding versicle and response.

The Officiant says one of these concluding sentences (and the People may be invited to join)

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore.

Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS 13:14^T

May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

ROMANS 15:13^T

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

EPHESIANS 3:20-21^T

ADVENT

Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

MARK 13:35-36

CHRISTMAS

Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

REVELATION 21:3

EPIPHANY

And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

ISAIAH 60:3

LENT and OTHER PENITENTIAL OCCASIONS

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us; but if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 JOHN 1:8-9

I acknowledge my transgressions:
and my sin is ever before me.

PSALM 51:3

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him.

DANIEL 9:9

HOLY WEEK

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

EASTER

Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:57

ASCENSION

Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

HEBREWS 9:24

PENTECOST

The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

The Confession and Apostles' Creed may be omitted, provided each is said at least once during the course of the day.

The Gloria Patri (Glory be...) in the opening versicles may be said in unison.

The Officiant and People may join in saying "Alleluia" (except in Lent) as an alternative to the versicles "Praise the Lord. The Lord's Name be praised."

If an offering is to be received, it is appropriate to do so during the hymn or anthem following the Collects.

A sermon may be preached after the lessons, after the hymn or anthem following the Collects, or after the conclusion of the Office.

C O M P L I N E

The Officiant begins

The Lord Almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen.

Officiant Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
People Who hath made heaven and earth.

The Officiant continues

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence may be kept. The Officiant and People then say

Almighty God and Father, we confess to thee, to one another, and to the whole company of heaven,
that we have sinned, through our own fault,
in thought, and word, and deed,
and in what we have left undone.

For the sake of thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins,
and by the power of thy Holy Spirit raise us up to serve thee in newness of life,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

The Officiant alone says

May Almighty God grant us forgiveness of all our sins, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us;

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Officiant Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

People As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Except in Lent, add Alleluia.

One or more of the following, or some other suitable Psalm, is sung or said.

P S A L M 4

Cum invocarem

- 1 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: *
thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.
- 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honor, *
and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after falsehood?
- 3 Know this also, that the LORD hath chosen to himself
the man that is godly; *
when I call upon the LORD, he will hear me.
- 4 Stand in awe, and sin not; *
commune with your own heart, and in your chamber,
and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness, *
and put your trust in the LORD.
- 6 There be many that say, *
Who will show us any good?

- 7 LORD, lift thou up *
the light of thy countenance upon us.
8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart; *
yea, more than when their corn and wine and oil increase.
9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest; *
for it is thou, LORD, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

P S A L M 3 I : 1 - 6

In te, Domine, speravi

- 1 In thee, O LORD, have I put my trust;
let me never be put to confusion; *
deliver me in thy righteousness.
2 Bow down thine ear to me; *
make haste to deliver me.
3 And be thou my strong rock, and house of defense, *
that thou mayest save me.
4 For thou art my strong rock, and my castle: *
be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Name's sake.
5 Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me; *
for thou art my strength.
6 Into thy hands I commend my spirit; *
for thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, thou God of truth.

Qui habitat

- 1 Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High, *
shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
2 I will say unto the LORD, Thou art my hope,
and my stronghold; *
my God, in him will I trust.
3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter, *
and from the noisome pestilence.

- 4 He shall defend thee under his wings,
and thou shalt be safe under his feathers; *
 his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
- 5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night, *
 nor of the arrow that flieth by day,
- 6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness, *
 nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.
- 7 A thousand shall fall beside thee,
and ten thousand at thy right hand, *
 but it shall not come nigh thee.
- 8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold, *
 and see the reward of the ungodly.
- 9 For thou, LORD art my hope; *
 thou hast set thine house of defense very high.
- 10 There shall no evil happen unto thee, *
 neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
- 11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, *
 to keep thee in all thy ways.
- 12 They shall bear thee in their hands, *
 that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.
- 13 Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: *
 the young lion and the dragon
 thou shalt tread under thy feet.
- 14 Because he hath set his love upon me,
therefore I will deliver him; *
 I will lift him up, because he hath known my Name.
- 15 He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; *
 yea, I am with him in trouble;
 I will deliver him and bring him to honor.
- 16 With long life I will satisfy him, *
 and show him my salvation.

PSALM I 34
Ecce nunc

- ¹ Behold now, praise the LORD,*
 all ye servants of the LORD;
 - ² Ye that by night stand in the house of the LORD,*
 even in the courts of the house of our God.
 - ³ Lift up your hands in the sanctuary*
 and praisethe LORD.
 - ⁴ The LORD that made heaven and earth*
 give thee blessing out of Zion.

At the end of the Psalms the Gloria Patri (Glory be...) is sung or said

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

One of the following, or some other suitable passage of Scripture, is read

Thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy Name. Leave us not, O Lord our God. JEREMIAH 14:9

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

MATTHEW 11:28-30

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

HEBREWS 13:20-21

Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:
whom resist, steadfast in the faith.

I PETER 5:8-9

At the end of the reading is said

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence may follow. A suitable hymn may be sung.

Officiant Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;

People For thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

Officiant Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of thine eye;

People Hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant O Lord, hear our prayer;
People And let our cry come unto thee.
Officiant Let us pray.

The Officiant then says one or more of the following Collects. Other appropriate Collects may also be used.

Visit this place, we beseech thee, O Lord, and drive from it all the snares of the enemy; let thy holy angels dwell herein to preserve us in peace; and may thy blessing be upon us evermore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thine only Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this life may rest in thine eternal changelessness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Look down, O Lord, from thy heavenly throne, illumine the darkness of this night with thy celestial brightness, and from the children of light banish the deeds of darkness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR SATURDAYS

We give thee thanks, O God, for revealing thy Son Jesus Christ to us by the light of his resurrection: Grant that as we sing thy glory at the close of this day, our joy may abound in the morning as we celebrate the Paschal mystery; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

One of the following prayers may be added

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give thine angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for thy love's sake. Amen.

or this

O God, whose unfailing providence sustaineth the world we live in and the life we live: Watch over those, both night and day, who work while others sleep, and grant that we may never forget that our common life depends upon each other's toil; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Silence may be kept, and other intercessions and thanksgivings may be offered.

The Officiant and People say or sing the Song of Simeon with this Antiphon

Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

In Easter Season, add Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

NUNC DIMITTIS
The Song of Simeon

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, *
according to thy word;

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, *
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, *
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world
without end. Amen.

LUKE 2:29-32

Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

In Easter Season, add Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Officiant concludes with the following

The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless us and keep us, this night and evermore. Amen.

These devotions follow the basic structure of the Daily Office of the Church and are particularly appropriate for families with young children.

The Reading and the Collect may be read by one person, and the other parts said in unison, or in some other convenient manner.

Appropriate Opening Sentences, Psalms, Readings, and Collects are provided in each service. When desired, however, the Collect of the Day, or any of the Collects appointed in the Daily Office, may be used instead. The Opening Sentences may be replaced by those appointed for various seasons in the liturgies for Morning and Evening Prayer.

The Psalms and Readings may be replaced by those appointed in:
the Sunday, Holy Days and Commemoration Lectionary; or the Daily Office Lectionary; or some other manual of devotion which provides daily selections for the Church Year.

A concluding sentence from Morning or Evening Prayer may be used at the end of any of these devotions.

FAMILY PRAYER IN THE MORNING

The following or some other verse of Scripture is said

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

PSALM 51:15^t

PSALM 51:10-12

- ¹⁰ Make me a clean heart, O God,*
and renew a right spirit within me.
- ¹¹ Cast me not away from thy presence,*
and take not thy holy Spirit from me.
- ¹² O give me the comfort of thy help again,*
and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world
without end. Amen.

Alternatively, Psalm 5:1-3 may be used.

A READING FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

I PETER I:3

or this

Give thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

COLOSSIANS I:12-14

or this

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

COLOSSIANS 3:1-4

A period of silence may follow.

A hymn or canticle may be used; the Apostles' Creed (page 75) may be said.

Prayers may be offered for ourselves and others.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

THE COLLECT

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Gladsome Light

O gladsome light,

pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,*

O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun,

and our eyes behold the vesper light,*

we sing thy praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Thou art worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices,*

O Son of God, O Giver of Life,

and to be glorified through all the worlds.

A READING FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE

For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

CONCLUDING SENTENCE

The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless us and keep us, this night and evermore. Amen.

When the Apostles Creed is included in Family Prayer, the text is as follows:

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord;
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, dead, and buried.
 He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Merciful Savior, who didst love Martha and Mary and Lazarus, hallowing their home with thy sacred presence: Bless our home, we pray thee, that thy love may rest upon us, and that thy presence may dwell with us. May we all grow in grace and in the knowledge of thee, our Lord and Savior. Teach us to love one another as thou hast commanded. Help us to bear one another's burdens in fulfillment of thy law, O blessed Jesus, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.

F O R R E L A T I V E S A N D F R I E N D S

O loving Father, we commend to thy gracious keeping all who are near and dear to us. Have mercy upon any who are sick, and comfort those who are in pain, anxiety, or sorrow. Awaken all who are careless about eternal things. Bless those who are young and in health, that they may give the days of their strength to thee. Comfort the aged and infirm, that thy peace may rest upon them. Hallow the ties of kindred, that we may help and not hinder one another in all the good works that thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR CHILDREN

O Lord Jesus Christ, who didst take little children into thine arms and bless them: Bless the children of this family, that they may grow up in godly fear and love. Give them thy strength and guidance day by day, that they may continue in thy love and service unto their lives' end. Grant this, O blessed Savior, for thine own Name's sake. Amen.

IN THE MORNING

O God, the King eternal, whose light dividest the day from the night and turnest the shadow of death into the morning: Drive far from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep thy law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that, having done thy will with cheerfulness during the day, we may, when night cometh, rejoice to give thee thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AT NIGHT

O Lord, support us all the day long through this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

FOR QUIET CONFIDENCE

O God of peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be our strength: By the might of thy Spirit lift us, we pray thee, to thy presence, where we may be still and know that thou art God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FAMILY RESPONSES BEFORE MEALS

Traditional

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord;
And thou givest them their meat in due season.
Thou openest thine hand;
And fillest all things living with plenteousness.
Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive from thy bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A GRACE BEFORE MEALS

Bless, O Lord, these gifts to our use, and us to thy service, and make us ever mindful of the needs of others, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ADVENT ANTIPHONS

In Advent, using the Antiphons found in the Calendar of Holy Days and Commemorations (page 712), families might consider singing the appropriate verse of the hymn “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” each night beginning on December 16.

MAGNA ET MIRABILIA
The Song of the Redeemed

Especially suitable for use in Advent and Easter

O ruler of the universe, Lord God, great deeds are they that thou hast done,*

surpassing human understanding.

Thy ways are ways of righteousness and truth,*

O King of all the ages.

Who can fail to do thee homage, Lord,
and sing the praises of thy Name?*

For thou only art the Holy One.

All nations will draw near and fall down before thee,*
because thy just and holy works have been revealed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;*
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

REVELATION 15:3-4E

SURGE, ILLUMINARE
Arise, shine, for your light has come

Especially suitable for use during the season after Epiphany

Arise, shine, for thy light has come, *
and the glory of the LORD has dawned upon thee.
For behold, darkness covereth the land; *
deep gloom enshroudeth the peoples.
But over thee the LORD will rise, *
and his glory will appear upon thee.
Nations will stream to thy light, *
and kings to the brightness of thy dawning.
Thy gates will always be open; *
by day or night they will never be shut.
They will call thee, The City of the LORD, *
the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
Violence will no more be heard in thy land, *
ruin or destruction within thy borders.
Thou wilt call thy walls, Salvation, *
and all thy portals, Praise.
The sun will no more be thy light by day; *
neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee.
The LORD will be thy everlasting light, *
and thy God will be your glory.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

KYRIE PANTOKRATOR
A Song of Penitence

Especially suitable for use during Lent

O Lord and Ruler of the hosts of heaven, *
 God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of all their righteous offspring:
 Thou hast made the heavens and the earth, *
 with all their vast array.
 All things quake with fear at thy presence; *
 they tremble because of thy power.
 But thy merciful promise is beyond all measure; *
 it surpasseth all that our minds can fathom.
 O Lord, thou art full of compassion, *
 long-suffering, and abounding in mercy.
 Thou holdest back thy hand; *
 thou dost not punish as we deserve.
 In thy great goodness, Lord,
 thou hast promised forgiveness to sinners, *
 that they may repent of their sin and be saved.
 And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart, *
 and make my appeal, sure of thy gracious goodness.
 I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, *
 and I know my wickedness only too well.
 Therefore I make this prayer unto thee: *
 Forgive me, Lord, forgive me.
 Do not let me perish in my sin, *
 nor condemn me to the depths of the earth.
 For thou, O Lord, art the God of those who repent, *
 and in me thou wilt show forth thy goodness.
 Unworthy as I am, thou wilt save me,

in accordance with thy great mercy, *
and I will praise thee without ceasing all the days of my life.
For all the powers of heaven sing thy praises, *
and thine is the glory to ages of ages. Amen.

PRAYER OF MANASSEH, 1-2, 4, 6-7, 11-15

QUAERITE DOMINUM

Seek the Lord while he wills to be found

Especially suitable for use during Lent

Seek the LORD while he willeth to be found; *
call upon him when he draweth near.
Let the wicked forsake their ways *
and the evil ones their thoughts;
And let them turn to the LORD, and he will have compassion, *
and to our God, for he will richly pardon.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts, *
nor thy ways my ways, saith the LORD.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth, *
so are my ways higher than thy ways,
and my thoughts than thy thoughts.
For as rain and snow fall from the heavens *
and return not again, but water the earth, Bringing forth life and giving growth, *
seed for sowing and bread for eating,
So is my word that goeth forth from my mouth; *
it will not return to me empty;
But it will accomplish that which I have purposed, *
and prosper in that for which I sent it.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

ISAIAH 55:6-11

CANTEMUS DOMINO
The Song of Moses

Especially suitable for use in Easter

I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; *
 the horse and its rider hath he thrown into the sea.
 The LORD is my strength and song *
 and he is become my salvation:
 He is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; *
 my father's God, and I will exalt him.
 The LORD is a man of war: *
 the LORD is his name.
 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: *
 his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
 The depths have covered them: *
 they sank into the bottom as a stone.
 Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: *
 thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.
 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? *
 who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?
 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, *
 the earth swallowed them.
 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: *
 thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.
 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them *
 in the mountain of thine inheritance,
 In the place O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, *
 in the Sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.

The LORD shall reign *
for ever and for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. EXODUS 15:1-6, 11-13, 17-18

DIGNUS ES A Song to the Lamb

Especially suitable for use after Ascension and in Easter Season

Thou art worthy, O Lord our God, *
to receive splendor and honor and kingly power,
For thou hast created everything that is,*
and by thy will they were created and have their being;
And thine by right, O Lamb that was slain, *
for with thy blood thou hast redeemed for God,
From every family, language, people, and nation,*
a kingdom of priests to serve our God.
And so, to him that sitteth upon the throne, *
and to Christ the Lamb,
Be worship and praise, dominion and splendor,*
for ever and for evermore. Amen.

CANTATE DOMINO Sing unto the Lord

Especially suitable for use in Easter and at any time outside penitential seasons

O sing unto the LORD a new song, *
for he hath done marvelous things.
With his own right hand, and with his holy arm,*
hath he gotten himself the victory.

The LORD declared his salvation; *
his righteousness hath he openly showed
in the sight of the heathen.
He hath remembered his mercy and truth
toward the house of Israel; *
and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.
Show yourselves joyful unto the LORD, all ye lands; *
sing, rejoice, and give thanks.
Praise the LORD upon the harp; *
sing with the harp a psalm of thanksgiving.
With trumpets also and shawms, *
O show yourselves joyful before the LORD, the King.
Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is, *
the round world, and they that dwell therein.
Let the rivers clap their hands,
and let the hills be joyful together before the LORD *
for he is come to judge the earth.
With righteousness shall he judge the world *
and the people with equity.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

PSALM 98

ECCE, DEUS

Surely, it is God who saves me

Suitable for use at any time

Surely, it is God who doth save me; *
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the LORD is my stronghold and my sure defense, *
and he will be my Savior.

Therefore shall ye draw water with rejoicing *
from the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say,*
 Give thanks unto the LORD and call upon his Name;
 Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
 see that they remember that his Name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the LORD, for he hath done great things,*
 and this is known in all the world.
Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy,*
 for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
 world without end. Amen.

ISAIAH 12:2-6

DEUS MISEREATUR
God be merciful

Suitable for use at any time

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,*
 and show us the light of his countenance,
 and be merciful unto us;
That thy way may be known upon earth,*
 thy saving health among all nations.
Let the people praise thee, O God; *
 yea let all the people praise thee.
O let the nations rejoice and be glad; *
 for thou shalt judge the folk righteously,
 and govern the nations upon earth.
Let the people praise thee, O God; *
 yea, let all the people praise thee.
Then shall the earth bring forth her increase; *
 and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us, *
and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

PSALM 67

 praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless ye the Lord, *
 praise him, and magnify him for ever.

DOXOLOGY

Let us bless the Lord: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; *
 praise him, and magnify him for ever.
In the firmament of his power, bless ye the Lord, *
 praise him, and magnify him for ever.

G R E A T L I T A N Y

T H E G R E A T L I T A N Y

To be said or sung, kneeling, standing, or in procession.

O God the Father, Creator of heaven and earth,
Have mercy upon us.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world,
Have mercy upon us.

O God the Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of the faithful,
Have mercy upon us.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, one God,
Have mercy upon us.

Remember not, Lord, our offenses, nor the offenses of our fore-fathers; neither reward us according to our sins. Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and by thy mercy preserve us for ever.
Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and wickedness; from sin; from the crafts and assaults of the devil; from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,
Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain-glory, and hypocrisy; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all want of charity,
Good Lord, deliver us.

From all inordinate and sinful affections; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all false doctrine, heresy, and schism; from hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word and commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempest; from earthquake, fire, and flood;
from plague, pestilence, and famine,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all oppression, conspiracy, and rebellion; from violence, battle, and murder; and from dying suddenly and unprepared,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of thy holy incarnation; by thy holy nativity and submission to the Law; by thy baptism, fasting, and temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine agony and bloody sweat; by thy Cross and passion; by thy precious death and burial,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thy glorious resurrection and ascension; by the sending of the Holy Ghost; by thy heavenly intercession; and by thy coming again in power and great glory,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our prosperity; in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God: That it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy Church universal in the right way,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, with true knowledge and understanding of thy Word; and that, both by their preaching and living, they may set it forth, and show it accordingly,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to send forth laborers into thy harvest; to prosper their work by thy Holy Ghost; to make thy saving health known unto all nations; and to hasten the coming of thy kingdom,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all thy people increase of grace to hear meekly thy Word, and to receive it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bring into the way of truth all such as have erred, and are deceived,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us a heart to love and fear thee, and diligently to live after thy commandments,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all thy people,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to rule the hearts of thy servant N., the President/Sovereign/Prime Minister, and all others in authority, that they may do justice, and show mercy, and walk humbly before thee,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all judges, giving them grace to execute justice, and to maintain truth,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep our armed forces by sea, by land, and by air, and to shield them in all dangers and adversities,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and protect all who serve their communities by their labor and learning,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so that in due time we may enjoy them,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to make wars to cease in all the world; and to give to all nations unity, peace, and concord,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to show thy pity upon all prisoners and captives; refugees, the homeless, and the hungry; and all those who are desolate and oppressed,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve all who are in danger by reason of their labor or travel,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to strengthen the bonds of those in Holy Matrimony; to uphold the widowed and abandoned; and to comfort all whose homes are torn by strife,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to protect the unborn and their parents, and to preserve all women in childbirth,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to care for those who have lost children or face infertility, and to provide for young children and orphans,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to visit the lonely and those who grieve; to strengthen all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit; and to comfort with thy presence those who are failing and infirm,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to succor, help, and comfort, all who are in danger, necessity, and tribulation,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all mankind,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance; to forgive us all our sins, negligences, and ignorances; and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to thy holy Word,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and to turn their hearts,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to strengthen such as do stand; and to comfort and help the weak-hearted; and to raise up those who fall; and finally to beat down Satan under our feet,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant to all the faithful departed eternal life and peace,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant that, in the fellowship of
[_____ and] all the saints, we may attain unto thy heavenly kingdom,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
Grant us thy peace.

O Christ, hear us.

O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

When the Litany is sung or said immediately before the Eucharist, the Litany concludes here, and the Eucharist begins with the Salutation ("The Lord be with you") and the Collect of the Day.

On all other occasions, the Officiant and People say or sing together

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

O Lord, show us thy love and mercy;
For we have put our trust in thee.

The Officiant says the following

Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of those who ask in thy Son's Name: We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ear unto us who have now made our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which we have asked faithfully according to thy will, may be obtained effectually, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant may add other prayers, and may end the Litany, saying

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

T H E S U P P L I C A T I O N

For use in the Litany in place of the Versicle and Collect which follows the Lord's Prayer; or at the end of Morning or Evening Prayer; or as a separate devotion. The Supplication is especially appropriate in times of war, or of great anxiety, or of disaster.

O Lord, arise and help us;
And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise and help us;
And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

O Lord, arise and help us;
And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ;
Graciously behold our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts;
Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.

Favorably with mercy;
O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Be thou pleased to hear us, O Christ;
Graciously hear us, O Christ; graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

The Officiant prays

Let us pray.

Look mercifully, O Father, on our infirmities; and, for the glory of thy Name, rescue us from all those evils we now endure; and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, serving thee in holiness and purity of life, to thy honor and glory; through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Supplication may end here, or may conclude with the prayer of St. John Chrysostom and the Grace (page 52).

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

The Great Litany may be used before the Eucharist, after the Collects of Morning or Evening Prayer, or separately.

It is particularly appropriate to use the Great Litany on the First Sunday of Advent and the First Sunday in Lent. It is also appropriate for Rogation days, other days of fasting or thanksgiving, and occasions of solemn and comprehensive entreaty.

Where local circumstance or pastoral need dictates, the Officiant may reduce the number of petitions and responses prayed.

CONCERNING THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Holy Communion is normally the principal service of Christian worship on the Lord's Day, and on other appointed Feasts and Holy Days. Two forms of the liturgy, commonly called the Lord's Supper or the Holy Eucharist, are provided.

The Anglican Standard Text is essentially that of the Holy Communion service of the Book of Common Prayer of 1662 and successor books through 1928 and 1962. The Anglican Standard Text is presented in traditional English and in the order for Holy Communion that is common, since the late twentieth century, among ecumenical and Anglican partners worldwide. The Anglican Standard Text may be conformed to its original content and ordering, as in the 1662 or subsequent books; the Additional Directions give clear guidance on how this is to be accomplished. Similarly, there are directions given as to how the Anglican Standard Text may be abbreviated where appropriate for local mission and ministry.

The Renewed Ancient Text is drawn from liturgies of the Early Church, reflects the influence of twentieth century ecumenical consensus, and includes elements of historic Anglican piety.

A comprehensive collection of Additional Directions concerning Holy Communion is found after the Renewed Ancient Text.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

The Celebrant prays (and the People may be invited to join)

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW

Then follows the Summary of the Law, or The Decalogue (page 100).

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

MATTHEW 22:37-40

THE KYRIE

The Celebrant and People pray

Lord, have mercy upon us. Kyrie eleison.

Christe, have mercy upon us. or Christe eleison.

Lord, have mercy upon us. Kyrie eleison.

or this

THE TRISAGION

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

THE GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

The Gloria or some other song of praise may be sung or said, all standing. It is appropriate to omit the song of praise during penitential seasons and days appointed for fasting.

Glory be to God on high,
and on earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ,
with the Holy Ghost,
art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Celebrant says to the People

The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Officiant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect.

People Amen.

THE LESSONS

One or more Lessons, as appointed, are read, the Reader first saying

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each Lesson the Reader may say

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Or the Reader may say Here endeth the Reading.

Silence may follow.

A psalm, hymn, or anthem may follow each reading.

All standing, the Deacon or Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according
to _____.

People Glory be to thee, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

THE NICENE CREED

On Sundays, other Major Feast Days, and other times as appointed, all stand to recite the Nicene Creed, the Celebrant first saying

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

Celebrant and People

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father [and the Son],[†]
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The text of the Nicene Creed according to the Book of Common Prayer 1662, as found on page 144, may be used.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Deacon or other person appointed says these prayers, or the Prayers of the People in the Renewed Ancient Text.

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Word hast taught us to make prayers and supplications and to give thanks for all men: Receive these our prayers which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord; and grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word and live in unity and godly love.

Silence

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

We beseech thee also so to lead the nations of the world into the way of righteousness; and so to direct and dispose the hearts of all their leaders, especially N., our President/Sovereign/Prime Minister, that thy people may enjoy the blessings of freedom and peace. Grant that our leaders may impartially administer justice, upholding integrity and truth, to the punishment of wickedness and vice and to the maintenance of thy true religion and virtue.

Silence

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and especially to thy servant(s) N., our Archbishop/Bishop/Priest/Deacon, etc., that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments. And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and especially to this congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, we may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

Silence

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Prosper, we pray thee, all those who proclaim the Gospel of thy kingdom among the nations, and strengthen us to fulfill thy great commission, making disciples of all nations, baptizing them and teaching them to obey all that thou hast commanded.

Silence

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succor all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity [especially _____].

Silence

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:

People Hear our prayer

We remember before thee, O Lord, all thy servants who have departed this life in thy faith and fear, [especially _____] that thy will for them may be fulfilled, and we beseech thee to give us grace to follow the good examples of [N., and] all thy saints, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom.

Silence

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Additional prayers may be added.

The Celebrant concludes with this or some other appropriate Collect.

Grant these our prayers, O Heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate; who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Celebrant may then say the Exhortation.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION OF SIN

The Deacon or other person appointed says the following

Ye who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins and are in love and charity with your neighbors and intend to lead the new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways: Draw near with faith, and make your humble confession to Almighty God.

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence

The Deacon and People kneel as able and pray

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
maker of all things, judge of all men:
We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness,
which we from time to time most grievously have committed,

by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty,
provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us.
We do earnestly repent,

and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings;
the remembrance of them is grievous unto us,
the burden of them is intolerable.

Have mercy upon us,
have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,
forgive us all that is past;
and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee
in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop or Priest stands and says

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen
you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COMFORTABLE WORDS

The Celebrant may then say one or more of the following sentences, first saying

Hear the Word of God to all who truly turn to him.

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you.

MATTHEW 11:28

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

JOHN 3:16^t

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

I TIMOTHY 1:15

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the perfect offering for our sins, and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world.

I JOHN 2:1-2^T

THE PEACE

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with thy spirit.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the Name of the Lord.

THE OFFERTORY

The Celebrant may begin the Offertory with one of the provided sentences of Scripture.

During the Offertory a hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung. The Deacon or Priest prepares the Holy Table for the celebration. Representatives of the Congregation may bring the People's offerings of bread and wine, and money or other gifts, to the Deacon or Priest.

The People stand while the offerings are presented. The following may be said.

Celebrant Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the Kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as Head above all. All things come of thee, O LORD,
People And of thine own have we given thee.

I CHRONICLES 29:11, 14

THE SURSUM CORDA

The People remain standing. The Celebrant faces them and sings or says

The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

The Celebrant continues

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Here a Proper Preface (pages 152-158) is normally sung or said.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee, and saying:

THE SANCTUS

Celebrant and People

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts:

Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.

Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.

Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

The People kneel or stand. The Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, Almighty God our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there, by his one oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his Holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice until his coming again.

Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee; and of thine almighty goodness, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify with thy Word and Holy Spirit these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ's holy institution in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood. †

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it, and here may break the bread; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing the wine to be consecrated.*

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it,* and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink, ye all, of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."‡

† This paragraph does not occur in the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, but ecumenical consensus expects its use.

‡ In the 1662 Order, the Distribution of Communion occurs here. The Lord's Prayer is then said. The remainder of the Prayer of Consecration follows the Lord's Prayer as an alternative Post Communion Prayer.

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Savior Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy divine Majesty with these, thy holy gifts, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this, our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ and through faith in his Blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins and all other benefits of his passion.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this Holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

And although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, through Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Celebrant then says

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Celebrant and People together pray

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

*If the consecrated Bread was not broken earlier, the Celebrant breaks it now.
A period of silence is kept.*

Then may be sung or said

Celebrant [Alleluia.] Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. [Alleluia.]

or this

Celebrant [Alleluia.] Christ our Passover Lamb has been sacrificed, once for all upon the Cross.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. [Alleluia.]

In Lent, Alleluia is omitted, and may be omitted at other times except during Easter Season.

THE PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

Celebrant and People together may say

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in thy manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy so much as to gather up
the crumbs under thy table;
but thou art the same Lord
whose property is always to have mercy.

Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body,
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

THE AGNUS DEI

The following or some other suitable anthem may be sung or said here

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
grant us thy peace.

THE MINISTRATION OF COMMUNION

Facing the People, the Celebrant may say the following invitation

The gifts of God for the people of God. [Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.]

or this

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him that taketh away the sins of the world. Blessed are they that are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb.

JOHN 1:29, REVELATION 19:9

The Ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the People.

The Bread and Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, [which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.]

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, [which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.]

During the ministration of Communion, hymns, psalms, or anthems may be sung.

The Celebrant may offer a sentence of Scripture at the conclusion of the Communion.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People together say the following, or the Post Communion Prayer in the Renewed Ancient Text

Almighty and everliving God,
we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us,
in these holy mysteries,
with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and dost assure us, thereby, of thy favor
and goodness towards us;
and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son,
the blessed company of all faithful people;
and are also heirs, through hope,
of thy everlasting kingdom.

And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father,
so to assist us with thy grace,
that we may continue in that holy fellowship,
and do all such good works that thou hast prepared
for us to walk in;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

T H E B L E S S I N G

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, gives this or an alternate blessing

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung after the Blessing (or following the Dismissal).

THE DISMISSAL

The Deacon, or the Priest, may dismiss the People with these words

Deacon Let us go forth in the Name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God.

or this

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

or this

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

or this

Deacon Let us bless the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

From the Easter Vigil through the Day of Pentecost, “Alleluia, alleluia” is added to any of the dismissals. It may be added at other times, except during Lent and on other penitential occasions.

The People respond

Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

THE ACCLAMATION

The People standing, the Celebrant says this or a seasonal greeting (pages 145–146)

Blessed be God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

In the season of Lent

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgiveth all our sins.
People His mercy endureth for ever.

From Easter Day until the Eve of Pentecost

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen!
People The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

The Celebrant prays (and the People may be invited to join)

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW

Then follows the Summary of the Law, or The Decalogue (page 100).

The text of the Nicene Creed according to the Book of Common Prayer 1662, as found on page 144, may be used.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Deacon or other person appointed says these prayers, or the Prayers of the People in the Anglican Standard Text. The reader pauses after each bidding, and the people may add petitions, either silently or aloud.

Let us pray for the Church and for the world, saying, “hear our prayer.”

For the peace of the whole world, and for the well-being and unity of the people of God.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

For N., our Archbishop, and N., our Bishop, and for all the clergy and people of our Diocese and Congregation.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

For all those who proclaim the Gospel at home and abroad; and for all who teach and disciple others.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

For our brethren in Christ who are persecuted for their faith.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

For our nation, for those in authority, and for all in public service [especially _____].

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity [especially _____].

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

For all those who have departed this life in the certain hope of the resurrection, [especially _____,] in thanksgiving let us pray.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Additional petitions may be added. Thanksgivings may also be invited.

The Celebrant concludes with this or some other appropriate Collect.

Grant these our prayers, O Heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate; who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Celebrant may then say the Exhortation.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION OF SIN

The Deacon or other person appointed says the following

Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Silence

The Deacon and People kneel as able and pray

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against thee
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

The Bishop or Priest stands and says

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy
hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen
you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In thine infinite love thou didst make us for thyself; and when we had sinned against thee and become subject to evil and death, thou of thy tender mercy didst send thine only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Ghost and the Virgin Mary, he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to thy will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to thy right hand in glory, that we might come boldly unto the throne of grace.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it, and here may break the bread; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing the wine to be consecrated.*

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks unto thee, he brake it,* and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks unto thee, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink, ye all, of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins: Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, with these thy holy gifts, which we now offer unto thee.

Sanctify them, we beseech thee, by thy Word and Holy Spirit, that they may be for thy people the Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under thy Christ, and bring us with all thy saints into the joy of thy heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through thy Son Jesus Christ: By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Celebrant then says

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Celebrant and People together pray

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

*If the consecrated Bread was not broken earlier, the Celebrant breaks it now.
A period of silence is kept.*

Then may be sung or said

Celebrant [Alleluia.] Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. [Alleluia.]

or this

Celebrant [Alleluia.] Christ our Passover Lamb has been sacrificed, once for all upon the Cross.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. [Alleluia.]

In Lent, Alleluia is omitted, and may be omitted at other times except during Easter Season.

THE PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

Celebrant and People together may say

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in thy manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy so much as to gather up
the crumbs under thy table;
but thou art the same Lord
whose property is always to have mercy.

Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body,
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

THE AGNUS DEI

The following or some other suitable anthem may be sung or said here

- O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
have mercy upon us.
- O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
have mercy upon us.
- O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
grant us thy peace.

Facing the People, the Celebrant may say the following invitation

The gifts of God for the people of God. [Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.]

or this

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him that taketh away the sins of the world. Blessed are they that are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. JOHN 1:29, REVELATION 19:9

The Ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the People.

The Bread and Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven.

The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation.

During the ministration of Communion, hymns, psalms, or anthems may be sung.

The Celebrant may offer a sentence of Scripture at the conclusion of the Communion.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People together say the following, or the Post Communion Prayer in the Anglican Standard Text

Heavenly Father,
We thank thee for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood
of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of thy Son, and heirs of thine eternal Kingdom.

And now, Father, send us out to do the work thou hast given us to do,
to love and serve thee as faithful witnesses
of Christ our Lord.

To whom, with thee, and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, gives this or an alternate blessing

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung after the Blessing (or following the Dismissal).

THE DISMISSAL

The Deacon, or the Priest, may dismiss the People with these words

Deacon Let us go forth in the Name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God.

or this

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

or this

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

or this

Deacon Let us bless the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

From the Easter Vigil through the Day of Pentecost, “Alleluia, alleluia” is added to any of the dismissals. It may be added at other times, except during Lent and on other penitential occasions.

The People respond

Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

ADDITIONAL DIRECTIONS CONCERNING HOLY COMMUNION

Before the celebration of Holy Communion, the Holy Table should be covered with a clean white cloth.

Rubrics indicating standing or kneeling imply “as able.”

Where the greeting “The Lord be with you” is used, the response “And also with you” may be used in place of “And with your spirit.”

A Penitential Order, for use at the opening of the liturgy, or for use on other occasions, may be arranged as follows:

The Acclamation

The Collect for Purity

Then kneeling as able:

The Decalogue or The Summary of the Law

[The Exhortation]

The Confession and Absolution [and Comfortable Words]

The Kyrie

The Collect of the Day

The Athanasian Creed (page 769) may be used in place of the Nicene Creed on Trinity Sunday and other occasions as appropriate.

The Prayers of the People in the Anglican Standard Text may be read straight through, omitting the silences and “Lord in thy mercy: Hear our prayer.”

In both the Anglican Standard and Renewed Ancient Texts, other forms of the Prayers of the People may be used, provided the following concerns are included:

The universal Church, the clergy and people

The mission of the Church

The nation and all in authority

The peoples of the world
The local community
Those who suffer and those in any need or trouble Thankful remembrance of the faithful departed and of all the blessings of our lives.

The Exhortation is traditionally read on the First Sunday of Advent, the First Sunday in Lent, and Trinity Sunday.

The Confession from Morning Prayer, or from either Eucharistic text, may be substituted for the one provided.

The Comfortable Words may be introduced with ‘Hear what comfortable words our Savior Christ saith unto all that truly turn to him.’ for the first two sentences, ‘Hear also what Saint Paul saith’ for the third sentence, and ‘Hear also what Saint John saith’ for the last sentence.

As the bread and wine are placed upon the Holy Table by the Deacon, Celebrant, or other appointed person, it is customary to add a little water to the wine.

In the Anglican Standard Text, the word “offering” may be substituted for the word “oblation.”

In the Anglican Standard Text, it is permissible to replace the paragraph that begins “Therefore, O Lord and heavenly Father,” with this memorial acclamation:

Celebrant

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

In the Prayer of Humble Access, "Apart from thy grace," may be inserted at the beginning of sentence: "We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table; but thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy."

The words used when the Bread and Cup are given to the communicants may be taken from either Eucharistic Text.

When the Priest is assisted by a Deacon or another Priest, it is customary for the presiding Priest to administer the consecrated Bread. The administration of consecrated Bread and Wine by Priests, Deacons and authorized laity shall be determined by the Ordinary.

If the consecrated Bread or Wine does not suffice for the number of communicants, the Celebrant returns to the Holy Table and consecrates more of either or both saying,

"Hear us, O heavenly Father, and with thy Word and Holy Spirit bless and sanctify this Bread [Wine] that it, also, may be the Sacrament of the precious Body [Blood] of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who took Bread [the Cup] and said, "This is my Body [Blood]."

If any consecrated Bread or Wine remains after the Communion, it may be set aside in a safe place for future reception. Apart from that which is to be set aside, the Priest or Deacon, and other communicants, reverently consume the remaining consecrated Bread, either after the Ministration of Communion or after the Dismissal. The consecrated Wine shall likewise be consumed, except as authorized and directed by the Bishop.

In the Eastertide Dismissal, "Alleluia, alleluia" is customarily added to the beginning of the Deacon's verse when spoken, or to the end of the Deacon's verse when sung.

In the absence of a Priest, the Bishop may, at his discretion, authorize a Deacon to distribute Holy Communion to the Congregation from consecrated Bread and Wine. In this situation, the Deacon may say all that is appointed through the Offertory, though the Deacon may not pronounce an absolution after the Confession. After the Offertory, the Deacon reverently places the consecrated Sacrament on the Holy Table. The Deacon then leads the people in the Lord's Prayer. Omitting the breaking of the bread, the Deacon proceeds with the rest of the liturgy. There is no blessing at the end of the liturgy.

The Blessing

C O N C E R N I N G D I S C I P L I N E A T H O L Y C O M M U N I O N

If the Priest knows that a person who is living a notoriously evil life intends to come to Communion, the Priest shall privately instruct that person not to come to the Lord's Table until he or she has given clear proof of repentance and amendment of life. The Priest shall follow the same procedure with those who have done wrong to their neighbors and are a scandal to the other members of the Congregation, not allowing such persons to receive Communion until they have made restitution for the wrong they have done.

When the Priest sees that there is enmity between members of the Congregation, the Priest shall speak privately to each of them, telling them that they may not receive Communion until they have forgiven each other. And if the person or persons on one side truly forgive the others and desire and promise to make up for their faults, but those on the other side refuse to forgive, the Priest shall allow those who are penitent to come to Communion, but not those who are obstinate.

In all such cases, the Priest is required to notify the Bishop as soon as possible (within fourteen days at the most) giving the reasons for refusing Communion.

THE NICENE CREED

According to the Book of Common Prayer (1662)

I believe in one God the Father Almighty,
 Maker of heaven and earth,
 And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten son of God,
 Begotten of his Father before all worlds,
 God of God, Light of Light,
 Very God of very God, Begotten, not made,
 Being of one substance with the Father,
 By whom all things were made:
Who for us men, and for our salvation came down from heaven
And was incarnate fby the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
And was made man,
And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried,
And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
And ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of the Father.
And he shall come again with glory to judge
 both the quick and the dead:
Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord and giver of life,
 Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son,
 Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified,
Who spake by the Prophets.
And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church.
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins.
And I look for the Resurrection of the dead,
And the life of the world to come. Amen.

REVELATION 4:11^T

T H E E X H O R T A T I O N

Dearly beloved in the Lord, ye who mind to come to the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Savior Christ, must consider how Saint Paul, in his First Letter to the Corinthians, exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament; (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his blood; then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us; we are one with Christ, and Christ with us;) so is the danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ our Savior; we eat and drink our own damnation, not considering the Lord's Body.

Judge therefore yourselves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord. First, examine your lives and conversations by the rule of God's commandments; and wherever you have offended, either by thought, word, or deed, there to confess yourselves to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. Be ready to make restitution for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other; and be likewise ready to forgive others that have offended you: for otherwise the receiving of the Holy Communion doth nothing else but increase your damnation. Therefore, repent you of your sins, or else come not to that holy Table.

If there be any of you, who by this means cannot quiet his own conscience therein, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other Priest, and open his grief; that he may receive the benefit of absolution, together with godly counsel and advice, to the quieting of his conscience, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulness.

And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Savior Christ, both God and man; who did humble himself, even to the death upon the Cross, for us, miserable sinners, who lay in darkness and the shadow of death; that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life.

And to the end that we should always remember the exceeding great love of our Master, and only Savior, Jesus Christ, hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death, to our great and endless comfort.

To him therefore, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, let us give, as we are most bounden, continual thanks; submitting ourselves wholly to his holy will and pleasure, and studying to serve him in true holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. Amen.

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”

ACTS 20:35

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

MATTHEW 5:16

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

MATTHEW 6:19-21

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

MATTHEW 7:21

He that soweth little shall reap little; and he that soweth plenteously shall reap plenteously. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver.

2 CORINTHIANS 9:6-7

While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith.

GALATIANS 6:10

God is not unrighteous, that he will forget your works, and labor that proceedeth of love; which love ye have showed for his Name's sake, who have ministered unto the saints, and yet do minister.

HEBREWS 6:10

To do good, and to distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

HEBREWS 13:16

Whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 JOHN 3:17

If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for so gatherest thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity. TOBIT 4:8-9

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. MATTHEW 25:40

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? ROMANS 10:14-15

Jesus said unto them, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. LUKE 10:2

Ye shall not appear before the Lord empty; every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee. DEUTERONOMY 16:16-17

Offer unto God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and make good thy vows unto the Most High. PSALM 50:14

Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Name;
bring offerings and come into his courts. PSALM 96:8

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

EPHESIANS 5:2

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

ROMANS 12:1

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

2 CORINTHIANS 8:9

But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

T H E L O R D ' S D A Y

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

A T A N Y T I M E

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is thy living Word from before time and for all ages; by him thou didst create all things, and by him thou makest all things new.

or this

For thou art the source of light and life, who hast made us in thine own image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

A D V E N T

Because thou didst send thy beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing.

C H R I S T M A S

Because thou didst give Jesus Christ thine only Son to be born for us; who, by the Holy Ghost, was made very man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother; and that without spot of sin, that we might be cleansed from sin and given the right to become thy children.

EPIPHANY

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who, in substance of our mortal flesh, manifested forth his glory; that he might bring us out of darkness into his own glorious light.

PRESENTATION, ANNUNCIATION, and TRANSMISSION

Because in the Mystery of the Word made flesh, thou hast caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of thy glory in the face of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

LENT

Who dost bid thy faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by thy Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which thou hast prepared for those who love thee.

HOLY WEEK

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who for our sins was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; who by his suffering and death became the author of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who, having loved his own which were in the world, loved them unto the end, and on the night before he suffered, did institute these holy mysteries: That we, receiving the benefits of his Passion, and being quickened by his Resurrection, might be made partakers of his divine nature.

EASTER

But chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious Resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life.

ASCENSION

Through thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who, after his most glorious Resurrection, manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven, to prepare a place for us; that where he is, there we might also ascend, and reign with him in glory.

PENTECOST

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them, and to lead them into all truth; giving them boldness with fervent zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ.

TRINITY SUNDAY

Who, with thy co-eternal Son and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Substance. For that which we believe of thy glory, O Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality.

ALL SAINTS'

Who, in the multitude of thy saints, hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses that we, rejoicing in their fellowship, may run with patience the race that is set before us, and together with them may receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

CHRIST THE KING

Through thine only begotten Son Jesus Christ, the King of kings and Lord of lords; for thou hast seated him at thy right hand in glory, and put all things in subjection under his feet, that he may present them to thee, O Father, perfectly restored in beauty, truth, and love.

APOSTLES and ORDINATIONS

Through the great shepherd of thy flock, Jesus Christ our Lord; who after his resurrection sent forth his apostles to preach the gospel and to teach all nations; and promised to be with them always, even unto the end of the ages.

DEDICATION OF A CHURCH

Through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, in whom we are built up as living stones of a holy temple, that we might offer before thee a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving which is holy and pleasing in thy sight.

BAPTISM

Because in Jesus Christ our Lord thou hast received us as thy sons and daughters, made us citizens of thy kingdom, and given us the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth.

HOLY MATRIMONY

Because in the love of wife and husband, thou hast given us an image of the heavenly Jerusalem, adorned as a bride for her bridegroom, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who loveth her and gave himself for her, that he might make the whole creation new.

BURIAL

or COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who rose victorious from the dead, and doth comfort us with the blessed hope of everlasting life; for to thy faithful people, O Lord, life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body doth lie in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens.

PENITENTIAL OCCASIONS

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin: by whose grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

ROGATION DAYS or THANKSGIVING DAY

Because the wonders of thy Creation reflect thy goodness and beauty, and thy gifts of sun and rain, seed-time and harvest, manifest thy continual care and love for all that thou hast made.

CANADA DAY or INDEPENDENCE DAY

Because thou hast made us in thine own image, that we might serve thee on earth in freedom, justice and peace; and hast given us the hope of our eternal citizenship with thee in thy heavenly kingdom.

REMEMBRANCE DAY or MEMORIAL DAY

For by the sacrifice of thy Son on the Cross, all who turn to him in the tribulation of war will find their peace with him in paradise.

COMMON OF A MARTYR

For the witness of thy martyrs, who took up their cross and followed thee even unto death, and revealed thine power made perfect in human weakness.

COMMON OF A MISSIONARY OR EVANGELIST

For the gifts of thy Holy Ghost poured upon prophets and evangelists to proclaim the Gospel to the ends of the earth, and to bring all peoples under the reign of Jesus Christ our Lord.

COMMON OF A PASTOR

Through Jesus Christ, the great shepherd of the sheep; in whom thou callest faithful pastors and anoint them with thy Holy Ghost, to feed thy flock by Word and Sacrament, and to lead them in the way of everlasting life.

COMMON OF A TEACHER OF THE FAITH

For thou hast imparted gifts of wisdom and knowledge to those who teach the Gospel in word and deed, to build up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God.

COMMON OF A MONASTIC OR RELIGIOUS

For calling to the consecrated life those who leave everything for the sake of thy kingdom, and who show forth in this world an anticipation of the abundant life thou hast promised in the age to come.

COMMON OF AN ECUMENIST

Through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; in whom thou hast brought us to the knowledge of thy truth, and united us by the bond of one Faith and one Baptism, that we might love one another and manifest thy love to the world.

COMMON OF A RENEWER OF SOCIETY

For thou dost never turn away from us, and dost continually send among us those who seek justice, defend the oppressed, feed the poor, and bind up the brokenhearted..

COMMON OF A REFORMER OF THE CHURCH

For thou, the master builder, dost never abandon thy Church which thou hast built of living stones; thou sendest us those who restore its ancient walls and re-unite its broken ramparts, that it may be a holy temple of thy presence.

COMMON OF ANY COMMEMORATION

For the grace and virtue manifest in [N. and all] thy saints, who have been the chosen vessels of thy love, and the lights of the world in their generations.

BAPTISM &
CONFIRMATION

C O N C E R N I N G H O L Y B A P T I S M

In Holy Baptism, the outward and visible sign is water, in which candidates are baptized “in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (MATTHEW 28:19). The inward and spiritual grace is death to sin and new birth to righteousness, through union with Christ in his death and resurrection (ROMANS 6:1-11).

Holy Baptism is appropriately administered within the Eucharist as the chief service on Sunday or other Holy Day. In this way the Congregation may welcome the newly baptized into Christ’s Church, and may be reminded of the benefits which they themselves received and the profession which they made in Holy Baptism.

The Bishop, when present, is normally the celebrant.

Each candidate for Holy Baptism is to be sponsored by one or more baptized persons, who are themselves committed to Christ and commended by the example of their own holy living. Sponsors of adults and older children present their candidates and thereby signify their endorsement of the candidates and their intention to support them by prayer and encouragement in the Christian life. Sponsors of infants, commonly called godparents, present their candidates, make promises in their own names, and also take vows on behalf of their candidates.

Adults and older children are to be instructed in the meaning of Baptism and the Christian faith. Godparents and sponsoring parents are likewise to be instructed in the meaning of Baptism, in their duties to help new Christians grow in the knowledge and love of God, and in their responsibilities as members of the Church.

The minister shall encourage parents not to defer the Baptism of their children.

H O L Y B A P T I S M

Baptism should be administered as part of the Holy Eucharist on a Sunday or other Holy Day. The most appropriate days for Baptism are the Easter Vigil, the Baptism of Our Lord, Pentecost, and All Saints' Day (or the Sunday after All Saints' Day). The Bishop is the appropriate Celebrant, if present.

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The People standing, the Celebrant says this or a seasonal greeting (pages 145–146)

Blessed be God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant then continues

There is one Body and one Spirit;

People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People One God and Father of all.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect of the Day.

People Amen.

The liturgy continues with the appointed Lessons. Following the Sermon, the Candidates with their Sponsors stand before the Celebrant.

THE EXHORTATION

The Celebrant then says to the People

Dearly beloved, the Scripture teacheth us that we were all dead in our sins and trespasses, but by grace we may be saved through faith. Our Savior Jesus Christ saith, “Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God”; and he commissioned the Church to “teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.” Here we ask our heavenly Father that these Candidates, being baptized with water, may be filled with the Holy Ghost, born again, and received into the Church as living members of Christ’s body. Therefore, I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his abundant mercy he will grant to these Candidates that which by nature they cannot have.

THE PRESENTATION

The Celebrant says

The Candidate(s) for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

ADULTS AND OLDER CHILDREN

The Candidates who are able to answer for themselves are presented individually by their Sponsors, using full names as follows

I present N.N. to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

The Celebrant asks Candidates the following

Celebrant Have you already been baptized?

Candidate No.

Celebrant Do you desire to be baptized?

Candidate I do.

INFANTS AND YOUNGER CHILDREN

Then the Candidates who are unable to answer for themselves are presented individually by their Godparents and Sponsoring Parents, using full names, as follows

I present N.N. to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

When the following promises are made by Godparents and Sponsoring Parents of infants or young children, the Celebrant addresses them

Today, on behalf of this child, you shall make vows to renounce the devil and all his works, to trust God wholeheartedly, and to serve him faithfully. It is your task to see that this child is taught, as soon as he is able to learn, the meaning of all these vows, and of the Faith that you will profess as revealed in the Holy Scriptures. He must come to put his faith in Jesus Christ, and learn the Creeds, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, and all other things that a Christian ought to know, believe, and do for the welfare of his soul. When he hath embraced all these, he is to come to the Bishop to be confirmed, that he may publicly claim the Faith for his own and be further strengthened by the Holy Ghost to serve Christ and his kingdom.

Are you willing and ready to undertake this?

Godparents and Sponsoring Parents

I am, the Lord being my helper.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The Celebrant then examines the Candidates who can speak for themselves, and the Godparents and Sponsoring Parents who will speak on behalf of infants or young children, saying

Question Do you renounce the devil and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce the empty promises and deadly deceits of this world that corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce the sinful desires of the flesh that draw you from the love of God?

Answer I renounce them.

The Celebrant prays over the Candidate(s) and may anoint each Candidate with the Oil of Exorcism, saying

Almighty God deliver thee from the powers of darkness and evil, and lead thee into the light and obedience of the kingdom of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant continues

Question Do you turn to Jesus Christ and confess him as your Lord and Savior?

Answer I do.

Question Do you joyfully receive the Christian Faith, as revealed in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?

Answer I do.

Question Will you obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in them all the days of your life?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Celebrant then addresses the Congregation, first inviting them to stand.

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ?

The Congregation responds

We will.

The Celebrant then says

Let us join with these Candidates to proclaim our faith in the words of the ancient baptismal confession, the Apostles' Creed.

Celebrant Do you believe and trust in God the Father?

People I do.

I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe and trust in Jesus Christ?

People I do.

I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe and trust in the Holy Ghost?

People I do.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

LITANY FOR THE CANDIDATES

The Deacon, or other person appointed, may say

Let us now pray for these Candidates who are to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

| That these children may come to confess their faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That all these Candidates may continue in the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That they may walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which they have been called, ever growing in faith and all heavenly virtues.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That they may persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever they fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That they may proclaim by word and deed the Good News of God in Christ Jesus to a lost and broken world.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That as living members of the Body of Christ, they may grow up in every way into him who is the head.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That, looking to Jesus, they may run with endurance the race set before them, and at the last receive the unfading crown of glory.

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

Other petitions may be added.

PRAYER FOR THE CANDIDATES

The Celebrant now prays for the Candidate(s) as follows

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting Father, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water, thereby prefiguring the Sacrament of Holy Baptism; We beseech thee, for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon these thy servants. Wash them and sanctify them with the Holy Ghost, that they, being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Ark of Christ's Church; and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of everlasting life, there to reign with thee world without end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

If there is a procession to the baptismal font, a psalm, anthem, or hymn may be sung.

The Deacon, or the Celebrant, pours the water for Baptism.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

We thank thee, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation; through it thou didst lead the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise, and in it thy Son Jesus received the baptism of John in the River Jordan when the Holy Spirit descended upon him as a dove.

We thank thee, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are made regenerate by the Holy Ghost. Therefore in joyful obedience to thy Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Here the Celebrant touches the water and says

Now, Father, sanctify this water by the power of thy Holy Spirit, and grant that all who are baptized here be cleansed from sin, be born again, and continue for ever faithful in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior; to whom, with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

T H E B A P T I S M

The Celebrant may say to the Sponsors

Name this Candidate/Child.

Then the Celebrant immerses the Candidate or pours water upon the Candidate three times, saying

N., I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Celebrant makes the sign of the Cross upon the forehead of the newly baptized (and may use the Oil of Chrism to do so), saying

N., receive the sign of the Cross as a token of thy new life in Christ, in which thou shalt not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, to fight bravely under his banner against the world, the flesh, and the devil, and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto thy life's end. Amen.

or this

N., thou art sealed by the Holy Ghost in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

If garments or candles are presented, they are given here.

When all have been baptized and signed the Celebrant says

*Heavenly Father, we thank thee that by water and the Holy Ghost thou hast bestowed upon these thy servants the forgiveness of sin, received them as thine own children by adoption, made them members of thy holy Church, and raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in thy Holy Spirit, that they may enjoy everlasting salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

The Celebrant continues

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Celebrant and People

We receive you into the fellowship of the Church.
Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in the royal priesthood of all his people.

The Peace is now exchanged.

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

The liturgy continues with Communion, beginning at the Offertory.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

In the absence of a Bishop, a Priest is the celebrant and presides at the liturgy. If a Priest uses Chrism in signing the newly baptized, it must have been previously consecrated by the Bishop.

In the absence of a Bishop or Priest, the Bishop may specially authorize and delegate a Deacon to preside. In that case, the Deacon omits the Prayer for the Candidates, the Thanksgiving over the Water, and the anointing with Chrism. These omitted portions of the rite may be administered on some subsequent occasion of public Baptism at which a Bishop or Priest presides.

If desired, the Collect for Purity, the Summary of the Law (or the Decalogue), the Kyrie (or the Trisagion), and the Gloria in excelsis may be inserted immediately after the opening versicles (ending with “One God and Father of all”) and before the salutation, “The Lord be with you.” If a Confession of Sin is desired, it may be inserted after the Summary of the Law (or the Decalogue).

The Litany for the Candidates serves as the Prayers of the People.

If the Presentation of the Candidates does not take place at the font, then the ministers, candidates, and sponsors go to the font for the Thanksgiving over the Water. If the movement to the font is a formal procession, a suitable psalm (such as Psalm 42), or a hymn or anthem, may be sung.

Where practicable, the font is to be filled with clean water immediately before the Thanksgiving over the Water.

At the Thanksgiving over the Water, and at the administration of Baptism, the Celebrant, whenever possible, should face the People across the Font, and the Sponsors should be so grouped that the People may have a clear view of the action.

In the Thanksgiving over the Water, the words “made regenerate” may be replaced by the words “born again.” Regeneration is a Biblical word (“the washing of regeneration,” TITUS 3:5), and it appears in the Thirty-Nine Articles (IX and XXVII).

At the signing, the word ‘manfully’ may be substituted for the word ‘bravely’.

After the Baptism and signing, and prior to the giving of the candle (if there be one), a white garment may be placed upon the newly baptized. The Celebrant says, “Receive this white garment as a token of the righteousness given thee by God’s grace in this Sacrament of Baptism, and as a sign that thou shouldest always give thyself unto holy living for the glory of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”

The Deacon or Celebrant may light a candle from the Paschal Candle and give it to the newly baptized, saying, “N., receive the light of our Lord Jesus Christ who said: ‘I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.’”

If there is no celebration of the Holy Eucharist, the liturgy continues with the Lord’s Prayer. Other appropriate prayers may be added. The liturgy concludes with a blessing or an appropriate verse of Scripture.

CONDITIONAL BAPTISM

If there is reasonable doubt that a person has been baptized with water "in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," the person is baptized in the usual manner, but this form of words is used.

If thou art not already baptized, N., I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

EMERGENCY BAPTISM

In case of emergency, any baptized person may administer Baptism, using the given name of the one baptized (if known), and pouring water on him or her, saying,

N., I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Lord's Prayer is then said. Other prayers may be added.

The person who administers emergency Baptism should inform the Priest of the appropriate Congregation, so that the fact can be properly recorded. If the baptized person recovers, the Baptism should be recognized at a public celebration of the Sacrament with a Bishop or Priest presiding, and the person baptized under emergency conditions, together with the Sponsors or Godparents, taking part in everything except the administration of the water.

P R E F A C E T O C O N F I R M A T I O N

The Anglican Church requires a public and personal profession of the Faith from every adult believer in Jesus Christ. Confirmation or Reception by a Bishop is its liturgical expression. Confirmation is clearly grounded in Scripture: the Apostles prayed for, and laid their hands on those who had already been baptized (2 TIMOTHY 1:6-7; ACTS 8:14-17; 19:6).

In Confirmation, through the Bishop's laying on of hands and prayer for daily increase in the Holy Spirit, God strengthens the believer for Christian life in the service of Christ and his kingdom. Grace is God's gift, and we pray that he will pour out his Holy Spirit on those who have already been made his children by adoption and grace in Baptism.

At the direction of the Bishop, and after public reaffirmation of their baptismal promises, those having made adult professions of faith in other Christian traditions (including those confirmed in other traditions) are received into the Anglican Church with prayer and the laying on of hands by a Bishop.

Confirmed believers who are already members of this Church (including those received from other traditions as above, those returning to active Christian discipleship after lapsing, and those experiencing a renewal of Christian commitment or significant life transition) may also reaffirm the pledges made to Christ and his Church with prayer and the laying on of hands by a Bishop.

CONFIRMATION, RECEPTION, and REAFFIRMATION

with the Laying on of Hands by the Bishop

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The People standing, the Celebrant says this or a seasonal greeting (pages 145–146)

- Bishop* The Lord will pour out his Spirit upon all flesh,
People And your sons and daughters shall prophesy.
Bishop Your old men shall dream dreams,
People And your young men shall see visions.
Bishop Ye shall know that the Lord is in the midst of his people,
People That he is the Lord and there is none else.
Bishop And it shall come to pass
People That everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord
shall be saved.

JOEL 2:27–28, 32T; ACTS 2:17, 21^T

- Bishop* The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Bishop Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect of the Day.

People Amen.

The liturgy continues with the Lessons as directed in the Eucharist. Following the Nicene Creed, the Candidates are presented.

THE PRESENTATION, EXHORTATION AND EXAMINATION

Only a Bishop may confirm. The Bishop customarily sits in a chair in front of the Altar Table. The Candidates and Presenters stand facing the Bishop as their Presenters say

*Presenters Reverend Father in God, we present these persons to receive the laying on of hands.*

Bishop Have they been adequately prepared?

Presenters They have.

The Bishop then says

Dearly beloved, it is essential that those who wish to be Confirmed or Received in this Church publicly confess Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior; become his disciples; know and affirm the Nicene Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments; and have received instruction in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments and the Catechism of the Church. God's grace is imparted in Baptism, through which we are made God's children by adoption and given the Holy Spirit. By the power of the Spirit, manifested in gifts and fruit, we are enabled to be God's people for the sake of the world.

Now, these Candidates desire publicly to confess their faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and their commitment to follow him as Lord.

They also desire the strengthening of grace through the laying on of hands, that the Holy Spirit may fill them more and more for their ministry in the Church and in the world.

The Bishop then addresses the Candidates

Do you, here in the presence of God and the Church, renew the solemn promises and vows made at your Baptism and commit to keep them?

Candidates I do.

Bishop Do you renounce the devil and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

Candidates I renounce them.

Bishop Do you renounce the empty promises and deadly deceits of this world that corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?

Candidates I renounce them.

Bishop Do you renounce the sinful desires of the flesh that draw you from the love of God?

Candidates I renounce them.

Bishop Do you turn to Jesus Christ and confess him as your Lord and Savior?

Candidates I do.

Bishop Do you joyfully receive the Christian Faith, as revealed in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?

Candidates I do.

Bishop Will you obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in them all the days of your life?

Candidates I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop addresses the Congregation, saying

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ?

The Congregation responds

We will.

PRAYER AND THE LAYING ON OF HANDS

The Bishop stands and says

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we beseech thee to strengthen these thy servants for witness and ministry through the power of the Holy Ghost, and daily increase in them thy manifold virtues of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and godly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness, and the spirit of holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

FOR CONFIRMATION

Each Confirmand kneels in front of the Bishop. The Bishop, then laying his hands upon the person's head, prays Defend, O Lord, this thy servant N. with thy heavenly grace, that he may continue thine for ever, and daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and more until he comes unto the fullness of thy everlasting kingdom.

People Amen.

Or this

Strengthen, O Lord, with thy Holy Spirit, thy servant N.; empower him for thy service; and sustain him all the days of his life.

People Amen.

FOR RECEPTION

Those having made adult professions of faith in other Christian traditions are Received with the laying on of hands as follows.

Strengthen, O Lord, with thy Holy Spirit, thy servant N., whom we recognize as a member of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, and receive into the fellowship of this Communion. Empower him for thy service, and sustain him all the days of his life.

People Amen.

FOR REAFFIRMATION

The Bishop may also accept with the laying on of hands the Reaffirmation of vows by a person who has previously been Confirmed or Received in this Church.

N., the Holy Ghost, who hath begun a good work in thee, direct and empower thee by his grace, that thou mayest continue in the service of our Lord Jesus Christ all the days of thy life.

People Amen.

The Bishop may make the sign of the Cross with the Oil of Chrism on the forehead of any receiving the laying on of hands, and may say

N., I sign thee with the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

CONCLUDING PRAYER AFTER THE LAYING ON OF HANDS

The Bishop then says

Almighty and everliving God, let thy fatherly hand ever be over these thy servants; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that they may faithfully serve thee in this life, and joyfully dwell with thee in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace is now exchanged.

Bishop The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

At the conclusion of the Liturgy, the following blessing may be used.

Go forth into the world in peace, be of good courage, and fight the good fight of faith, that you may finish your course with joy; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always.
Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

If desired, the Collect for Purity, the Summary of the Law (or the Decalogue), the Kyrie (or the Trisagion), and the Gloria in excelsis may be inserted immediately after the opening versicles and before the salutation, “The Lord be with you.” If a Confession of Sin is desired, it may be inserted after the Summary of the Law (or the Decalogue).

It is particularly appropriate that parents, godparents, or others of godly influence be Presenters.

The Prayers of the People are not used in this Liturgy. However, the Bishop may invite intercessions at an appropriate time.

If there is no celebration of the Holy Eucharist, the liturgy continues with the Lord’s Prayer. Other appropriate prayers may be added.

Those who have been Received with the laying on of hands according to this liturgy are considered to have been Confirmed in this Church.

ADULTS SEEKING THE LAYING ON OF HANDS

The Bishop says

The candidate(s) for Confirmation, Reception and Reaffirmation will now be presented.

The Candidate(s) and Presenters stand facing the Bishop as their Presenters say

Presenters Reverend Father in God, we present these persons to receive the laying on of hands.

Bishop Have they been adequately prepared?

Presenters They have.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The Bishop examines all the Candidates, together with any Godparents and Sponsoring Parents, saying

Question Do you renounce the devil and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce the empty promises and deadly deceptions of this world that corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce the sinful desires of the flesh that draw you from the love of God?

Answer I renounce them.

The Bishop then prays over the Baptismal Candidate(s) and may anoint each Candidate with the Oil of Exorcism, saying

Almighty God deliver thee from the powers of darkness and evil, and lead thee into the light and obedience of the kingdom of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop continues

Question Do you turn to Jesus Christ and confess him as your Lord and Savior?

PRAYER FOR THE CANDIDATES FOR HOLY BAPTISM

The Bishop now prays for the baptismal Candidates as follows

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting Father, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water, thereby prefiguring the Sacrament of Holy Baptism; We beseech thee, for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon these thy servants. Amen.

THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

If there is a procession to the baptismal font, a psalm, anthem, or hymn may be sung.

The Deacon, or the Bishop, pours the water for Baptism.

Bishop The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Bishop Lift up your hearts.

Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop continues

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Bishop and People

We receive you into the fellowship of the Church. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in the royal priesthood of all his people.

THE CONFIRMATIONS, RECEPTIONS AND REAFFIRMATIONS

The Bishop continues

Let us now pray for those who have made an adult profession of Faith and who seek the laying on of hands.

Almighty and everliving God, we beseech thee to strengthen these thy servants for witness and ministry through the power of the Holy Ghost, and daily increase in them thy manifold virtues of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and godly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness, and the spirit of thy holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

FOR CONFIRMATION

Each confirmand kneels in front of the Bishop. The Bishop, then laying his hands upon the person's head, prays Defend, O Lord, this thy servant N. with thy heavenly grace, that he may continue thine for ever, and daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he comes unto the fullness of thy everlasting kingdom.

People Amen.

Or this

Strengthen, O Lord, with thy Holy Spirit, thy servant N; empower him for thy service; and sustain him all the days of his life.

People Amen.

FOR RECEPTION

Those having made adult professions of faith in other Christian traditions are Received with the laying on of hands as follows.

Strengthen, O Lord, with thy Holy Spirit, thy servant N, whom we recognize as a member of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, and receive into the fellowship of this Communion. Empower him for thy service, and sustain him all the days of his life.

People Amen.

FOR REAFFIRMATION

The Bishop may also accept with the laying on of hands the Reaffirmation of vows by a person who has previously been Confirmed or Received in this Church.

N, the Holy Ghost, who hath begun a good work in thee, direct and empower thee by his grace, that thou mayest continue in the service of our Lord Jesus Christ all the days of thy life.

People Amen.

The Bishop may make the sign of the Cross with the Oil of Chrism on the forehead of any receiving the laying on of hands, and may say

N., I sign thee with the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

CONCLUDING PRAYER AFTER THE LAYING ON OF HANDS

The Bishop then says

Almighty and everliving God, let thy fatherly hand ever be over these thy servants; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that they may faithfully serve thee in this life, and joyfully dwell with thee in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

At a liturgy other than the Easter Vigil, the Exchange of the Peace and Offertory follow.

At the conclusion of the Liturgy, the following blessing may be used.

Go forth into the world in peace, be of good courage, and fight the good fight of faith, that you may finish your course with joy; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always.
Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

It is particularly appropriate that parents, godparents, or others of godly influence be Presenters at Confirmation.

The Prayers of the People are not used in this Liturgy. However, the Bishop may invite intercessions at an appropriate time.

At the signing, the word ‘manfully’ may be substituted for the word ‘bravely’.

After the Baptism and signing, and prior to the giving of the candle (if there be one), a white garment may be placed upon the newly baptized. The Bishop says, “Receive this white garment as a token of the righteousness given you by God’s grace in this Sacrament of Baptism, and as a sign that you should always give yourself to holy living for the glory of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”

The Deacon or Bishop may light a candle from the Paschal Candle and give it to the newly baptized, saying, “N., receive the light of our Lord Jesus Christ who said: ‘I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.’”

Those who have been Received with the laying on of hands according to this liturgy are considered to have been Confirmed in this Church.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

If there are no baptisms or confirmations at the Easter Vigil, the Renewal of Baptismal Vows takes place after the Service of Lessons or the Sermon. On other occasions, the Renewal of Vows follows the Sermon. The Nicene Creed is not said.

The people stand. The Celebrant addresses the Congregation in these or similar words

Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, [now that our Lenten observance is ended,] to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced the devil and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

Do you, here in the presence of God and the Church, renew the solemn promises and vows made at your Baptism and commit yourself to keep them?

People I do.

Celebrant Do you renounce the devil and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

People I renounce them.

- Celebrant* Do you renounce the empty promises and deadly deceptions of this world that corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?
- People* I renounce them.
- Celebrant* Do you renounce the sinful desires of the flesh that draw you from the love of God?
- People* I renounce them.
- Celebrant* Do you turn to Jesus Christ and confess him as your Lord and Savior?
- People* I do.
- Celebrant* Do you joyfully receive the Christian Faith, as revealed in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?
- People* I do.
- Celebrant* Will you obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in them all the days of your life?
- People* I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Celebrant continues

Let us now reaffirm our faith in the words of the ancient baptismal confession, the Apostles' Creed.

- Celebrant* Do you believe and trust in God the Father?
- People* I do.
- I believe in God the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth.
- Celebrant* Do you believe and trust in Jesus Christ?
- People* I do.
- I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge
the quick and the dead.

Celebrant
People

Do you believe and trust in the Holy Ghost?
I do.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes the Renewal of Vows as follows

Let us pray.

O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Except in the Easter Vigil, the liturgy continues with the Prayers of the People.

C O N C E R N I N G P R E P A R A T I O N F O R H O L Y M A T R I M O N Y

Marriage is a lifelong covenant between a man and a woman, binding both to self-giving love and exclusive fidelity. The rite of Holy Matrimony is a worship service of the Church, in which the couple exchanges vows to uphold this covenant. They do this before God and in the presence of witnesses, who pray that God will bless their life together.

The covenantal union of man and woman in marriage signifies the communion between Christ, the heavenly bridegroom, and the Church, his holy bride (EPHESIANS 5:32). While all do not marry, Holy Matrimony symbolizes the union all Christians share with their Lord.

In Holy Matrimony, God establishes and blesses the covenant between husband and wife, and joins them to live together in a communion of love, faithfulness, and peace within the fellowship of Christ and his Church. God enables all married people to grow in love, wisdom, and godliness through a common life patterned on the sacrificial love of Christ.

Great care should be taken to prepare all candidates for Holy Matrimony.

In preparing couples for Holy Matrimony, the clergy should comply with their Provincial and Diocesan Canons, and any Diocesan Customaries. The canons expect that both candidates are baptized. It is also the responsibility of the clergy to understand local law and to consult with the Bishop should they believe themselves compelled by law to act in a manner contrary to the teaching or canons of this Church.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

The ancient custom of announcing the wedding publicly at least three times, also known as the “Banns of Marriage,” bids the prayers and support of the community. This speaks to the great necessity for the whole body of Christ to support those joined in Holy Matrimony and their witness in Church and in society.

If the Banns are published, it shall be in the following form:

“I publish the Banns of Marriage between N.N., and N.N., and I bid your prayers on their behalf. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the first [second or third] time of asking.”

DECLARATION OF INTENTION

The text of the Declaration of Intention, to be signed and dated by both parties prior to the marriage, reads as follows:

"We, N.N. and N.N., desiring to receive the blessing of Holy Matrimony in the Church, do solemnly declare that we hold marriage to be a lifelong union of husband and wife as it is set forth in the Book of Common Prayer. We believe it is established by God for the procreation of children, and their nurture in the knowledge and love of the Lord; for mutual joy, and for the help and comfort given one another in prosperity and adversity; to maintain purity, so that husbands and wives, with all the household of God, might serve as holy and undefiled members of the Body of Christ; and for the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom in family, church, and society, to the praise of his holy Name. We do engage ourselves, so far as in us lies, to make our utmost effort to establish this relationship and to seek God's help thereto."

It may also be appropriate to conduct the signing of the Declaration of Intention during a public liturgy, to signify that the betrothal has taken place and that both parties have agreed to be prepared by the Church for Holy Matrimony, and to bid the prayers of the Congregation.

A brief liturgy for the signing of the Declaration of Intention appears on page 213.

H O L Y M A T R I M O N Y

At the time appointed, the persons to be married, with their witnesses and guests, assemble in the church or some other authorized place.

During their entrance, a hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung, or instrumental music may be played.

Then the Officiant, facing the people and the persons to be married, with the woman to the right and the man to the left, addresses the Congregation saying

Dearly beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, to witness and bless the joining together of this Man and this Woman in holy Matrimony;

Which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt Christ and his Church. This holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought, in Cana of Galilee; and is commended in holy Scripture to be honorable among all men.

The union of husband and wife in heart, body, and mind was ordained by God: for the procreation of children, to be brought up in the knowledge and love of the Lord; for mutual joy, and for the help and comfort that the one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity and adversity; to maintain purity, that husbands and wives, with all the household of God, might serve as holy and undefiled members of Christ's body; and for the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom in family, church, and society, to the praise of his holy Name.

And therefore it is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God; duly considering the causes for which Matrimony was ordained.

Into this holy estate N.N. and N.N. come now to be joined. Therefore if any man can show any just cause, why they may not be joined together in accordance with God's Word, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

The Officiant then continues, saying to the persons to be married

I require and charge you both, in the Name of God, from whom no secrets are hid, that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, ye do now confess it. For be ye well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word doth allow are not joined together by God.

The Officiant says to the Man

N., wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together out of reverence for Christ in the covenant of Holy Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, honor her, comfort and keep her in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The Man answers

I will.

The Officiant says to the Woman

N., wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together out of reverence for Christ in the covenant of Holy Matrimony? Wilt thou honor him, love him, comfort and keep him in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The Woman answers

I will.

The Officiant then addresses the Congregation, saying

Will all of you witnessing these promises do all in your power to uphold this man and this woman in their marriage?

People We will.

If there is to be a Presentation, the Officiant asks the following, or some other suitable question.

Who presents N. [and N.] for Holy Matrimony?

Response We do.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Celebrant says to the People

The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

O gracious and everliving God, who hast created us male and female in thine image: Look mercifully upon this man and this woman who come unto thee seeking thy blessing; and so assist them with thy grace, that with true fidelity and steadfast love they may honor and keep the promises and vows they make; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

One or more of the following passages is read.

GENESIS 1:26-28 (Male and female he created them)

GENESIS 2:4-9, 15-24 (A man holds fast to his wife and they become one flesh)

SONG OF SOLOMON 2:10-13; 8:6-7 (Many waters cannot quench love)

TOBIT 8:5B-8 (That she and I may grow old together)

Between the Lessons, a Psalm, hymn, or anthem may be sung or said.

Appropriate Psalms are 45, 67, 127, or 128.

I CORINTHIANS 13:1-13 (Love is patient and kind)

EPHESIANS 3:14-19 (The Father from whom every family is named)

EPHESIANS 5:1-2, 21-33 (Walk in love, as Christ loved us)

COLOSSIANS 3:12-17 (Love which binds everything together in harmony)

I JOHN 4:7-16 (Let us love one another, for love is of God)

MATTHEW 5:1-10 (The Beatitudes)

MATTHEW 5:13-16 (You are the light . . . Let your light shine)

MATTHEW 7:24-29 (Like a wise man who built his house on the rock)

MARK 10:6-16 (They are no longer two but one)

JOHN 2:1-11 (The wedding at Cana)

JOHN 15:9-12 (Love one another as I have loved you)

If Communion is to follow, a passage from the Gospels always concludes the Lessons. At a Eucharist, all stand, and the Deacon or Minister appointed says

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to _____.

People Glory be to thee, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, Lord Christ.

T H E S E R M O N

T H E M A R R I A G E

The Man, facing the Woman and taking her right hand in his, says

In the Name of God, I, N., take thee, N., to be my wife, to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

Then they loose their hands, and the Woman, still facing the Man, takes his right hand in hers, and says

In the Name of God, I, N., take thee, N., to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I give thee my troth.

They loose their hands. If there is to be an exchange of rings, the Bishop or Priest may ask God's blessing on a ring or rings as follows

Bless, O Lord, this ring to be a sign of the vows by which this man and this woman have bound themselves to each other; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The giver places the ring on the ring-finger of the other's left hand and says

N., I give thee this ring as a symbol of my vow, and with all that I am, and all that I have, I honor thee, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Officiant then joins the right hands of the husband and wife, and says

Forasmuch as N. and N. have given themselves to each other by solemn vows, with the joining of hands [and the giving and receiving of a ring], I pronounce that they are husband and wife, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder.

People Amen.

THE PRAYERS

If Communion is to follow, the Lord's Prayer may be omitted here.

All standing, the Officiant says

Let us pray together in the words our Savior taught us.

People and Officiant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Deacon or other person appointed reads the following or other suitable prayers.

Let us pray, saying, "Hear our prayer."

Eternal God, who art the creator and preserver of all life, the author of salvation, and the giver of all grace: Look with favor upon this man and this woman whom thou dost make one flesh in Holy Matrimony, and enable them to fulfill the vows they have made.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant them wisdom and devotion in the ordering of their common life, that each may be to the other a partner in prayer, a strength in need, a counselor in perplexity, a comfort in sorrow, and a companion in joy.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant that their wills may be so knit together in thy will, and their spirits in thy Spirit, that they may grow in love and devotion to thee and with one another all the days of their lives.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Encourage them, when they hurt each other, to recognize and acknowledge their faults, to seek your forgiveness, and to forgive and be reconciled to one another.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

May their union in Holy Matrimony be a sign of the love betwixt Christ and his Church, and a joyful witness to the world.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Bestow upon them, if it be thy will, the gift and heritage of children, and the grace to bring them up to know thee, to love thee, and to serve thee.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Give them such grace that together they may reach out in love and concern for others; and grant that all married persons who have witnessed these vows may find their lives strengthened and their loyalties confirmed.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant these our prayers, O Father, who with thy Son and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth in perfect unity, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE MARRIAGE

The Husband and Wife kneel, and the Officiant says

Most gracious God, we give thee thanks for thy tender love in sending Jesus Christ to come among us, to be born of a human mother, and to make the way of the Cross to be the way of life. We thank thee, also, for consecrating the union of man and woman in his Name. By the power of thy Holy Ghost, pour out the dew of thy blessing upon this man and this woman. Defend them from every enemy. Lead them into all peace. Let their love for each other be a seal upon their hearts, a mantle about their shoulders, and a crown upon their foreheads. Bless them in their work and in their companionship; in their sleeping and in their waking; in their joys and in their sorrows; in their life and in their death. In thy mercy, bring them to thy heavenly banquet where thy saints feast for ever at the great marriage supper of the Lamb; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Husband and Wife still kneeling, the Bishop or Priest adds this nuptial blessing.

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with his favor look upon you; and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace, that ye may faithfully live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

THE PEACE

The Officiant may say to the People

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with thy spirit.

The newly married couple may then exchange the Kiss of Peace, after which greetings may be exchanged throughout the Congregation.

When Communion is not to follow, the wedding party leaves the church. A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung, or instrumental music may be played.

When there is Communion, the liturgy continues with the Offertory, at which the newly married couple, or members of their family, may present the offerings of bread and wine.

The Proper Preface of Holy Matrimony is used (page 156).

At the Communion, it is appropriate that the newly married couple receive Communion first, after the Ministers, and then be seated in a place suitable to allow others to receive Communion.

The following Post Communion Prayer is used.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

O God, the giver of all that is true and lovely and gracious: we thank thee for binding us together in these holy mysteries of the Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, uniting us with him, and giving us a foretaste of the great marriage supper of the Lamb. Grant that by thy Holy Ghost, N. and N., now joined in Holy Matrimony, may become one in heart and soul, live in fidelity and peace, and obtain those eternal joys prepared for all who love thee; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

The entrance of the principals at Holy Matrimony may consist of two processions, one of the groom and one of the bride, or of a single procession or gathering. The father of the bride, or another appointed family member, may serve as the representative of both families in presenting the couple for Holy Matrimony.

In place of the examination of the man and the woman given in this liturgy (on pages 202–203), the following questions based on the 1662 Book of Common Prayer may be substituted:

The Officiant says to the Man

N. wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor, and keep her in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The Man answers

I will.

The Officiant says to the Woman

N. wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, and serve him, love, honor, and keep him in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The Woman answers

I will.

In place of the sentence given for the exchange of rings (on page 206), the following sentence based on the 1662 Book of Common Prayer may be substituted:

With this ring I thee wed, with my body I thee worship, and with all my worldly goods with thee I share: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The signing of the congregational register, if done publicly, occurs immediately after the Marriage and prior to the Prayers, or, if done outside the liturgy, immediately after the rite.

At the conclusion of the liturgy, the newly married couple may be introduced with these, or similar words:

The liturgy may end with a procession of the bridal party and their families or according to local custom.

Should a Deacon, by lawful authority, be permitted by the Bishop to officiate at Holy Matrimony, there can be no blessing of rings, nor the nuptial blessing which begins, “God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit.” Such blessings should be received at a later time from a Priest or Bishop.

A BRIEF LITURGY FOR THE SIGNING OF THE DECLARATION OF INTENTION

This liturgy is intended for public use in the context of a normal Sunday Eucharist after the Peace, or at any other public gathering.

The Officiant says

Dearly beloved, two members of the Church have announced their desire to be married to one another in the sight of God and this Congregation. The pursuit of Holy Matrimony is a good and holy ambition, which requires thorough preparation and our prayerful support.

Therefore, N. and N. have come before us to declare their intention to be married and to profess and subscribe to the Church's Declaration of Intention, which reads:

The Officiant reads the Declaration

“We, N.N. and N.N., desiring to receive the blessing of Holy Matrimony in the Church, do solemnly declare that we hold marriage to be a lifelong union of husband and wife as it is set forth in the Book of Common Prayer. We believe it is established by God for the procreation of children, and their nurture in the knowledge and love of the Lord; for mutual joy, and for the help and comfort given one another in prosperity and adversity; to maintain purity, so that husbands and wives, with all the household of God, might serve as holy and undefiled members of the Body of Christ; and for the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom in family, church, and society, to the praise of his holy Name. We do engage ourselves, so far as in us lies, to make our utmost effort to establish this relationship and to seek God's help thereto.”

The Officiant then asks

Is this your intention?

The couple responds

It is.

The betrothed then sign the Declaration.

The Officiant says

Forasmuch as N. and N. have declared their intention for a Holy Marriage, and have begun the process of pre-marital preparation, let us pray for their relationship [and for their families].

Almighty God, we give thee thanks for the love of N. and N., and we ask thy blessing upon them [and their families] during this time of preparation. Open their minds and hearts to one another, enable them faithfully to receive your Word and Sacrament, and help us to support them, that they may rightly prepare for their marriage. And, we pray also, that thou wouldest give us wisdom to uphold and encourage all who have been united in Holy Matrimony; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Birth or Adoption of a Child is always an occasion for thanksgiving and prayer in family and community. This rite is provided for use in a hospital or home, during public worship, or in some other appropriate place. If used in public worship, this liturgy takes place at the Peace or at the close of the Office. If used apart from public worship, a passage of Scripture is first read. Luke 18:15-17 or the Gospel appointed for the day is appropriate.

F O R T H E B I R T H O F A C H I L D

The Officiant addresses the mother and father

Dearly beloved: The birth of a child is a joyous and solemn occasion in the life of a family, and an occasion for rejoicing in the Church. It hath pleased Almighty God, our heavenly Father, to bless you with the gift of N., your son.

F O R A N A D O P T I O N

The Officiant addresses the mother and father

Dearly beloved: The adoption of a child is a joyous and solemn occasion in the life of a family, and an occasion for rejoicing in the Church. Our heavenly Father hath given us the Spirit of adoption, that we who were strangers might become members of the household of God. It hath pleased Almighty God, our heavenly Father, to bless you with the gift of N. your son.

The service continues with the Magnificat or Psalm 116, the Officiant first saying

Let us, therefore, give thanks unto God in the words of Scripture.

MAGNIFICAT
The Song of Mary

My soul doth magnify the Lord, *
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded *
the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth *
all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, *
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him *
throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm; *
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination
of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, *
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, *
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

PSALM 116

(vv.1-2,4-5,11-12,16)

- ¹ My delight is in the LORD; *
 because he hath heard the voice of my prayer;
² Because he hath inclined his ear unto me; *
 therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
⁴ I found trouble and heaviness;
then called I upon the Name of the LORD; *
 O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.
⁵ Gracious is the LORD and righteous; *
 yea, our God is merciful.
¹¹ What reward shall I give unto the LORD *
 for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?
¹² I will receive up the cup of salvation, *
 and call upon the Name of the LORD.
¹⁶ I will pay my vows unto the LORD in the sight of all his people, *
 in the courts of the LORD's house, even in the midst of thee,
 O Jerusalem. Praise the LORD.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
 world without end. Amen.

The Kyrie and the Lord's Prayer follow, unless this rite is used within public worship.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

If the occasion is the birth of a child, the Officiant may address the mother as follows. Otherwise, the liturgy continues with the Prayer for the Child.

N., forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodness, to give thee safe deliverance, and hath preserved thee in the great danger of child-birth: let us therefore give hearty thanks unto God.

Officiant O Lord, save this woman thy servant;

People Who putteth her trust in thee.

Officiant Be thou to her a strong tower,

People From the face of the enemy.

Officiant Lord, hear our prayer;

People And let our cry come unto thee.

Officiant Let us pray.

O Almighty God, we give thee humble thanks for that thou hast been graciously pleased to preserve, through the great pain and peril of child-birth, this woman, thy servant N., who desireth now to offer her praises and thanksgivings unto thee. Grant, we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that she, through thy help, may faithfully live according to thy will in this life present, and also may be partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE CHILD

The Officiant then prays one or both of the following prayers.

Watch over thy child N., O Lord, as his days increase; bless him and guide him, and keep him unspotted from the world. Strengthen him when he stands; comfort him when discouraged or sorrowful; raise him up if he fall; and in his heart may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of his life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O eternal God, who hast promised to be a father to a thousand generations of those who love and fear thee: Bless this child and preserve his life; receive him and enable him to receive thee, that through thy grace and the Sacrament of Baptism he may become a child of God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant may add one or more of the following prayers.

FOR THE PARENTS

O God, who hast taught us through thy blessed Son that whosoever receives a little child in the Name of Christ receives Christ himself: We give thee thanks for the blessing thou hast bestowed upon this family in giving them this child. Confirm their joy by a lively sense of thy presence, and give them calm strength and patient wisdom as they seek to bring this child to love all that is true and noble, just and pure, lovable and gracious, excellent and admirable, following the example of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

FOR A SIBLING

O heavenly Father, whose Son our Savior took young children into his arms and blessed them: Strengthen N. to be a wholesome and godly example, a companion, and an encourager to his new brother. Preserve them from quarrel and strife, and through injury give them thy grace readily to forgive; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THE BIRTH PARENTS OF AN ADOPTED CHILD

O heavenly Father, we beseech thee to bless the birth parents of this child. Reveal the fullness of thy love, both for them and for the child entrusted to this family; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant prays for the family, saying

May God the Father, who through Baptism hath adopted you as his children, grant you his grace. Amen.

May God the Son, who sanctified a home at Nazareth, fill you with his love. Amen.

May God the Holy Ghost, who maketh the Church one family, keep you in his peace. Amen.

A Priest may then bless the family, saying

The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Peace may be exchanged.

ADDITIONAL DIRECTIONS

The minister shall encourage parents not to defer the Baptism of their children. This rite does not serve to replace Holy Baptism, but provides the opportunity for families to give thanks upon the birth or adoption of a child.

The minister of the Congregation is directed to instruct the people, from time to time, about the duty of Christian parents to make prudent provision for the well-being of their children, and the duty of all persons, as stewards of God's provision, to make a will.

This liturgy may only be adapted with the permission of the Bishop. In difficult circumstances, this service may require particular pastoral sensitivity.

In the case of a single parent, the address "N. and N." is shortened to "N." In the case of the mother dying in childbirth or some other tragic event, the Church still proclaims, even through pain, that the child is a gift from God.

CONCERNING THE RITES OF HEALING
RECONCILIATION OF PENITENTS
MINISTRY TO THE SICK
COMMUNION OF THE SICK

Healing was central to the ministry of Jesus, our incarnate Lord. Healing is central to the ministry of the Church, the Body of Christ. Spoken prayer, anointing with oil, and the laying on of hands are the principal outward means employed by the Church for its ministry to those whose health is in any way impaired. The rite of Reconciliation and the reception of Holy Communion are also gifts through which healing takes place.

All Christians are called to be agents of healing. Nevertheless, the regular forms of healing ministry set forth in this Prayer Book are expected to be coordinated and ordered under the authority of the Diocesan Bishop and the Priest having spiritual charge. Some aspects of healing ministry, most notably absolution and formal blessings, are reserved to Bishops and Priests. The use of holy oils (healing and exorcism), like the ministries of which they are a sign, may be extended to lay ministers by the Bishop and Priest having pastoral jurisdiction. Similarly, lay persons may be trained and authorized to carry the consecrated elements of Christ's Body and Blood to the sick (or those otherwise confined or kept away from regular celebrations of the Holy Communion) under provisions set forward by the Ordinary.

Because physical, emotional, and spiritual healing are often interrelated, it is particularly appropriate to encourage confession, reconciliation, and forgiveness in the context of ministry to the sick. The content of a confession is not normally a matter of subsequent discussion. The secrecy of a confession is morally binding for the confessor and is not to be broken.

These rites are foundational to the many ways that the Church ministers to those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit.

T H E R I T E S O F H E A L I N G

R E C O N C I L I A T I O N O F P E N I T E N T S

The Penitent begins

Bless me, for I have sinned.

The Priest says

The Lord be in thy heart and upon thy lips, that thou mayest truly and humbly confess all thy sins: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Penitent

I confess to Almighty God, to his Church, and to thee, that I have sinned by my own fault in thought, word, and deed, in things done and left undone; especially _____. For these and all other sins that I cannot now remember, I am truly sorry. I pray God to have mercy on me. I firmly intend amendment of life, and I humbly beg forgiveness of God and his Church, and ask you for counsel, direction, and absolution.

Here the Priest may offer counsel, direction, and comfort.

The Priest then declares

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath left power to his Church to absolve all sinners who truly repent and believe in him, of his great mercy forgive thee thine offences: And by his authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all thy sins, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

or

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon thee, pardon and deliver thee from all thy sins, confirm and strengthen thee in all goodness, and bring thee to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord hath put away all thy sins.

Penitent Thanks be to God.

The following prayer may also be said

Let us pray.

O most merciful God, who, according to the multitude of thy mercies, dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent, that thou rememberest them no more: Restore and renew in thy servant whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness; preserve and continue this member in the unity of the Church; hear his prayers and assuage his pain; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Priest concludes

Go (or abide) in peace, and pray for me, a sinner.

M I N I S T R Y T O T H E S I C K

The Officiant begins

O Savior of the world, by thy Cross and precious blood thou hast redeemed us;
Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

The Priest (or other authorized person) anoints the sick person's forehead with the Oil of the Sick by making the sign of the Cross. If appropriate, other parts of the body which suffer from sickness or injury may also be anointed. Others may join in the laying on of hands. The Officiant says

N., I anoint thee with oil and I (or we) lay my (or our) hands upon you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, heal this thy servant, sustain him with thy presence, drive away all sickness of body, mind, and spirit, and give to him that victory of life and peace which will enable him to serve thee both now and evermore. Amen.

A Priest may add the following prayer. If this rite is used with multiple persons, it is appropriate for this prayer to be used after all have received individual prayer.

As with this holy oil thou art outwardly anointed, so may our heavenly Father grant that thou mayest be inwardly anointed with the Holy Spirit. May he of his great mercy forgive thee thy sins, send thee release from suffering, and restore unto thee health and strength. May he deliver thee from all evil, preserve thee in all goodness, and bring thee to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Additional prayers or intercessions may be said. Additional prayers are on pages 231–235. See also Occasional Prayers #56–63 on pages 663–665.

The Lord's Prayer is said.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Officiant then prays

The Almighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all those that put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey, be now and evermore thy defense; and make thee know and feel, that there is none other Name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Priest may conclude the above prayer with a blessing.

COMMUNION OF THE SICK

This rite is used when the consecrated elements are brought from an earlier celebration of Holy Communion.

The Minister says

Grace be unto you and peace, from God our Father, and from
the Lord Jesus Christ.

PHILIPPIANS 1:2

The Minister continues

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A psalm may be prayed. Psalms 23, 62, 103, and 145 are particularly appropriate.

One of the following Gospel lessons is read, or the readings appropriate to the day.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

JOHN 3:16

Jesus said, "I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him."

JOHN 6:51, 55-56

Reflection on the Lessons may follow. Additional prayers may be offered.

The Minister may say the Confession, and the sick person joins in as able.

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against thee
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved thee with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

A Priest, if present, says

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Deacon or lay person prays

Grant to your faithful people, merciful Lord, pardon and peace; that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve you with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Minister The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sin of the world;
 have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sin of the world;
 grant us thy peace.

The minister may say

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Sacrament is then distributed with the following words

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life.

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee,
preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life.

After Communion, the Minister says

Almighty and everliving God,
we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us,
in these holy mysteries,
with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and dost assure us, thereby, of thy favor
and goodness towards us;
and that we are very members of
the mystical body of thy Son,
the blessed company of all faithful people;
and are also heirs, through hope,
of thy everlasting kingdom.

And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father,
so to assist us with thy grace,
that we may continue in that holy fellowship,
and do all such good works that thou hast prepared
for us to walk in;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Priest gives this blessing

The peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and
remain with you always. Amen.

A Deacon or lay person says the following

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS 13:14^T

Minister Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

ADDITIONAL PRAYERS

FOR A SICK PERSON

O Father of mercies and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We humbly beseech thee to behold, visit, and relieve thy sick servant N. for whom our prayers are desired. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy; comfort him with a sense of thy goodness; preserve him from the temptations of the enemy; and give him patience under his affliction. In thy good time, restore him to health, and enable him to lead the residue of his life in thy fear, and to thy glory; and grant that finally he may dwell with thee in life everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR RECOVERY FROM SICKNESS

O God, the strength of the weak and the comfort of those who suffer; Mercifully accept our prayers, and grant to thy servant N. the help of thy power, that his sickness may be turned into health, and our sorrow into joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

O God of heavenly powers, by the might of your command you drive away from our bodies all sickness and infirmity: Be present in your goodness with your servant N., that his weakness may be banished and his strength restored; and that, his health being renewed, he may bless your holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR A SICK CHILD

Heavenly Father, watch with us, we pray thee, over thy child N., and grant that he may be restored to that perfect health which it is thine alone to give; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

Lord Jesus Christ, Good Shepherd of the sheep, who gatherest the lambs in thine arms and carriest them in thy bosom: We commend unto thy loving care this thy child N. Relieve his pain, guard him from all danger, restore unto him thy gifts of gladness and strength, and raise him up to a life of service unto thee. Hear us, we pray, for thy dear Name's sake. Amen.

B E F O R E A N O P E R A T I O N

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, graciously comfort thy servant N. in his suffering, and bless the means used for his cure. Though at times he may be afraid, fill his heart with confidence that he may yet put his trust in thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR S T R E N G T H A N D C O N F I D E N C E

Heavenly Father, who art the giver of life and health: Comfort and relieve thy sick servant N., and give thy power of healing to those who minister to his needs, that he may be strengthened in his weakness and have confidence in thy loving care; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THE SANCTIFICATION OF ILLNESS

Sanctify, we beseech thee, O Lord, the sickness of this thy servant N.; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance; and grant that he may dwell with thee in life everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR HEALTH OF BODY AND SOUL

May God the Father bless thee, God the Son heal thee, God the Holy Ghost give thee strength. May God the holy and undivided Trinity guard thy body, save thy soul, and bring thee safely to his heavenly country; where he liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THANKSGIVING FOR A BEGINNING OF RECOVERY

O Lord, whose compassions faileth not, and whose mercies are new every morning: We give thee thanks for granting our brother N. both relief from pain and hope of health renewed. Continue in him, we pray thee, the good work thou hast begun; that he, daily increasing in bodily strength, and rejoicing in thy goodness, may so order his life that he may always think and do those things that please thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR A SICK PERSON WHEN THERE IS LITTLE HOPE OF RECOVERY

O Father of mercies and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need: We fly unto thee for succor on behalf of this thy servant, here lying in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more he outwardly fadeth away, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errors of his life past, and steadfast faith in thy Son Jesus; that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven; through the same thy Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

P R A Y E R S F O R U S E B Y A S I C K P E R S O N

F O R T R U S T I N G O D

O God, the source of all health: So fill my heart with faith in thy love, that with calm expectancy I may make room for thy power to possess me, and gracefully accept thy healing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I N P A I N

Lord Jesus Christ, who by thy patience in suffering didst hallow earthly pain and didst give us thy example of obedience to thy Father's will: Be near to me in my time of weakness and pain; sustain me by thy grace, that my strength and courage may not fail; heal me according to thy will; and help me always to believe that whatsoever happeneth to me here is of little account if thou holdest me in eternal life, my Lord and my God. Amen.

A P R A Y E R W H E N T A K I N G M E D I C I N E

Almighty God, in thy goodness thou didst create the earth and all its elements, and thou hast given us skill to make medicines that heal and relieve our pain. All healing cometh from thee, and in thee I put my trust. Grant that this medicine may, in thy mercy, give comfort and bring healing to my body; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR SLEEP

O heavenly Father, who givest thy children sleep for the refreshing of soul and body: Grant me this gift, I pray; keep me in that perfect peace which thou hast promised to those whose minds are fixed on thee; and give me such a sense of thy presence, that in the hours of silence I may enjoy the blessed assurance of thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN THE MORNING

This is another day, O Lord, and I know not what it will bring forth; but make me ready, Lord, for whatever it may be. If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely. If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly. If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently. And if I am to do nothing, help me to do it gallantly. Make these words more than words, and give me the Spirit of Jesus. Amen.

CONCERNING MINISTRY TO THE DYING

For Christians, death is a defeated enemy. In Christ, death has become the gateway to everlasting life. As St. Paul reminded the Church at Corinth:

'Death is swallowed up in victory.
O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory?
The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. I CORINTHIANS 15:54-57

When a person is near death, the minister should be notified. This rite is a customary part of the Church's pastoral care.

This liturgy is intended to be prayed with one who has received Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. The Officiant may appropriately inquire of the dying person as to his or her acceptance of the Christian faith. If the person has not been baptized, Emergency Baptism (page 173) should be administered before the use of this rite.

M I N I S T R Y to the D Y I N G

The Officiant begins

Peace be to this house [or place], and to all who dwell in it.

LUKE 10:5

The Officiant continues with the following prayer

Almighty God, look upon this thy servant, lying in great weakness, and comfort him with the promise of life everlasting, given in the resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LITANY AT THE TIME OF DEATH

The following may be said. When possible, it is desirable that those present join in the responses.

O God the Father,
Have mercy upon thy servant.

O God the Son,
Have mercy upon thy servant.

O God the Holy Ghost,
Have mercy upon thy servant.

O Holy Trinity, one God,
Have mercy upon thy servant.

Lord Jesus Christ, deliver thy servant from all evil, sin, and tribulation;

Good Lord, deliver him.

By thine holy Incarnation, by thy Cross and Passion, by thy precious Death and Burial,

Good Lord, deliver him.

By thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension, and by the Coming of the Holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver him.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, Lord Christ: That it may please thee to deliver the soul of thy servant from the power of evil, and from eternal death,

We beseech you to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee mercifully to pardon all his sins,

We beseech you to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give him joy and gladness in thy kingdom, with thy saints in light,

We beseech you to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to raise him up at the last day,

We beseech you to hear us, good Lord.

The following or some other suitable anthem may be sung or said

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;

Have mercy upon him.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
Have mercy upon him.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world;
Grant him thy peace.

O Christ, hear us
O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Officiant and People say together

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant O Lord, let thy mercy be showed upon us;

People As we do put our trust in thee.

The Officiant prays

Let us pray.

O Sovereign Lord Christ, we beseech thee to deliver thy servant, N., from all evil, and set him free from every bond; that he may rest with all thy saints in the eternal habitations; where thou livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Officiant may invite those present to offer words of thanksgiving, reconciliation, or farewell. The Officiant may conclude with words of comfort.

COMMENDATION AT THE TIME OF DEATH

Here a Priest may anoint the dying person with oil.

The Priest says

Depart, O Christian soul, out of this world;
In the Name of God the Father Almighty who created thee;
In the Name of Jesus Christ who redeemed thee;
In the Name of the Holy Ghost who sanctifieth thee.
May thy rest be this day in peace, and thy dwelling place in the Paradise of God.

A COMMENDATORY PRAYER

Into thy hands, O merciful Savior, we commend thy servant N.
Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, a sheep of thine own fold, a lamb of thine own flock, a sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of thy mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints
in light. Amen.

The Officiant and People may say

NUNC DIMITTIS
The Song of Simeon

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, *
according to thy word;
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, *
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, *
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world
without end. Amen.

LUKE 2:29-32

CLOSING PRAYER

The Officiant prays

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

This rite is designed to be flexible in length. It may be adjusted according to the circumstances and condition of the dying person. Different portions of the rite may be used at different times, provided the order of the various elements is retained. In cases of great urgency, the Commendation at the Time of Death may be used alone. In the absence of a member of the clergy, this service may be led by any Christian.

The minister may inquire of the dying person as to his or her desire to be reconciled to both God and neighbor. If the dying person feels troubled in conscience with any matter, the minister should offer the rite of Reconciliation of a Penitent. On evidence of repentance, the minister shall give assurance of God's mercy and forgiveness.

If desired, Holy Communion may be administered using the rite for Communion of the Sick. It is appropriate for others present to receive the Sacrament as well. If the dying person cannot receive both the consecrated bread and wine, it is suitable to administer the Sacrament in one kind only. If he or she desires to receive, but by reason of extreme sickness is unable to consume either element, the minister is to assure the person that all the benefits of Holy Communion are conveyed, even though the elements are not received with the mouth.

P R A Y E R S for a V I G I L

It is appropriate that family and friends come together prior to a funeral. This rite may be used on such an occasion, whether at the church, a funeral home, or elsewhere.

The Minister says

Dearly beloved: It was our Lord Jesus himself who said, “Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” Let us pray, then, for our brother N., that he may rest from his labors, and enter into God’s eternal Sabbath rest.

A psalm may be prayed. Psalms 23 and 121 are particularly appropriate.

One or more of the following Lessons is read.

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

I THESSALONIANS 4:13-15

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. JOHN 14:2-3

The following and other additional prayers may be said. The Litany at the Time of Death (pages 237-239) may also be used.

O God, who by the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ didst destroy death and bring life and immortality to light: Grant that thy servant N., being raised with Christ, may know the strength of his presence and rejoice in his eternal glory; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding: deal graciously with those who mourn [especially _____]. Surround them with thy love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in thy great goodness, and strength to meet the days to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Minister says

And now as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say

Minister and People say together

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Minister says

May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

ROMANS 15:13^T

The Minister may say

May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

People And may light perpetual shine upon them. Amen.

REGARDING CHRISTIAN DEATH AND BURIAL

The burial of a Christian is an occasion of both sorrow and joy—our sorrow in the face of death, and our joy in Jesus' promise of the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. As the burial liturgy proclaims, "life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body lies in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens."

The Christian burial liturgy looks forward to eternal life rather than backward to past events. It does not primarily focus on the achievements or failures of the deceased; rather, it calls us to proclaim the Good News of Jesus and his triumph over death, even as we celebrate the life and witness of the deceased.

The readings should always be drawn from the Bible, and the prayers and music from the Christian tradition. A wake preceding the service and a reception following the service are appropriate places for personal remembrances. Where possible, the burial liturgy is conducted in a church, and it is often celebrated within the context of the Eucharist.

The Book of Common Prayer has always admonished Christians to be mindful of their mortality. It is therefore the duty of all Christians, as faithful stewards, to draw up a Last Will and Testament, making provision for the well-being of their families and not neglecting to leave bequests for the mission of the Church. In addition, it is important while in health to provide direction for one's own funeral arrangements, place of burial, and the Scripture readings and hymns of the burial liturgy, and to make them known to the Priest.

R E C E P T I O N O F T H E B O D Y

The following form may be used at whatever time the body is brought to the church.

The Officiant meets the body at the door of the church and says

With faith in Jesus Christ, we receive the body of our brother N. for burial. Let us pray with confidence to God, the Giver of life, that he will raise him to perfection in the company of the saints.

Silence may be kept; after which the Officiant says

O Sovereign Lord Christ, we beseech thee to deliver thy servant, N., from all evil, and set him free from every bond; that he may rest with all thy saints in the eternal habitations; where thou livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Let us also pray for all who mourn, that they may cast their care upon God, and know the consolation of his love.

Silence may be kept; after which the Officiant says

Almighty God, look with pity upon the sorrows of thy servants for whom we pray. Remember them, O Lord, in mercy; nourish them with patience; comfort them with a sense of thy goodness; lift up thy countenance upon them; and give them peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If a funeral pall is to be used, it should be draped over the casket at this time.

CONCERNING THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD

The death of a member of the Church should be reported as soon as possible to, and arrangements for the funeral should be made in consultation with, the Minister of the Congregation.

The Baptized are properly buried from a church.

This Burial Office is intended for those who have been baptized and profess the Christian Faith. Portions of this Office may be adapted for other circumstances.

The coffin is to be closed before the liturgy, and it remains closed thereafter. It is appropriate that it be covered with a funeral pall or other suitable covering.

The Committal normally follows the burial liturgy, at the place where the remains are to be interred. If necessary, the Committal and interment may take place before the burial liturgy. The Committal may also be used prior to cremation.

A Priest normally presides at the liturgy. It is appropriate that the Bishop, when present, preside at the Eucharist and pronounce the Commendation. When the services of a Priest cannot be obtained, a Deacon or lay reader may preside at the liturgy.

It is desirable that the Lesson from the Old Testament and the Epistle be read by lay persons. At the burial of a child, the passages from Lamentations, 1 John, and John 6, together with Psalm 23, are recommended.

It is customary that the Officiant meet the body and go before it into the church (page 247) or towards the grave.

The anthems at the beginning of the liturgy are sung or said as the body is borne into the church, or during the entrance of the Ministers, or by the Officiant standing in the accustomed place.

PROCESSION OF THE BODY

All stand while the following anthems are said or sung. A hymn, psalm, or some other suitable anthem may also be used.

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord:
He that believeth in me,
though he were dead, yet shall he live:
and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

JOHN 11:25-26^T

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
And though after my skin hath been thus destroyed,
yet in my flesh shall I see God:
whom I shall see for myself,
and mine eyes shall behold, and not another.

JOB 19:25-27^T

For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
For whether we live, we live unto the Lord;
and whether we die, we die unto the Lord:
Whether we live therefore, or die
we are the Lord's.

ROMANS 14:7-9^T

We brought nothing into this world,
and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away;
blessed be the name of the LORD. I TIMOTHY 6:7; JOB 1:21

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord;
Even so, saith the Spirit,
for they rest from their labors.

REVELATION 14:13^T

The Officiant may greet the Congregation and briefly introduce the purpose of Christian Burial.

The Officiant then says

The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Officiant Let us pray.

AT THE BURIAL OF AN ADULT

O God, who by the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ didst destroy death and bring life and immortality to light:
Grant that thy servant N., being raised with Christ, may know the strength of his presence and rejoice in his eternal glory; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

AT THE BURIAL OF A CHILD

O God, whose beloved Son didst take little children into his arms and bless them: Give us grace, we beseech thee, to entrust the soul of this child N. to thy never-failing care and love, and bring us all to thy heavenly kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Officiant may add the following prayer

Most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding: deal graciously with those who mourn [especially _____.] Surround them with thy love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in thy goodness, and strength to meet the days to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The People sit.

One or more of the following passages from Holy Scripture is read.

THE LESSONS

ISAIAH 25:6-9 (He will swallow up death for ever)

ISAIAH 61:1-3 (To comfort all who mourn)

LAMENTATIONS 3:22-26,31-33 (The Lord is good to those who wait)

WISDOM 3:1-5, 9 (The souls of the righteous are in the hands of God)

JOB 19:21-27A (I know that my Redeemer lives)

A suitable psalm, hymn, or canticle may follow. The following Psalms are appropriate: 39, 42:1-7, 46, 90:1-12, 121, 130, 139:1-11^v.

ROMANS 8:14-19,34-39 (The glory that is to be revealed)

1 CORINTHIANS 15:20-26,35-38,42-44,53-58 (The imperishable body)

2 CORINTHIANS 4:16—5:9 (Things that are unseen are eternal)

1 JOHN 3:1-2 (We shall be like him)

REVELATION 7:9-17 (God will wipe away every tear)

REVELATION 21:2-7 (Behold, I am making all things new)

A suitable psalm, hymn, or canticle may follow.

The following Psalms are appropriate: 23, 27, 106:1-5^v, 116.

JOHN 5:24-27 (Whoever believes has eternal life)

JOHN 6:37-40 (All that the Father gives me will come to me)

JOHN 10:11-16 (I am the good shepherd)
JOHN 11:21-27 (I am the resurrection and the life)
JOHN 14:1-6 (In my Father's house are many rooms)

If Communion is to follow, a passage from the Gospels always concludes the Lessons. At a Eucharist, all stand, and the Deacon or Minister appointed says

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to _____.

People Glory be to thee, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

THE APOSTLES' CREED

The Officiant invites the people to stand and says

Let us confess the Faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed:

Officiant and People

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

If Communion is not to follow, the Lord's Prayer is said here, and the liturgy continues with the Prayers of the People, or with other suitable prayers.

When there is Communion, the following form of the Prayers of the People is used.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Deacon or other person appointed says the following or other appropriate prayers.

Let us pray, saying, "Hear our prayer."

Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: Grant, we beseech thee, to thy whole Church in heaven and on earth, thy light and thy peace.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life, and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that thy Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in thy fatherly care, that, casting their grief on thee, they may know the consolation of thy love.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Help us, we pray, in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting.

Reader Lord, in your mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant us grace to entrust N. to thy never-failing love; receive him into the arms of thy mercy, and remember him according to the favor which thou bearest unto thy people.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, he may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in thy heavenly kingdom.

Reader Lord, in thy mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Silence may be kept.

The Officiant concludes with the following or some other prayer

Almighty God, grant us, with all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, the fullness of life in thine eternal and everlasting glory, and, with all thy saints, to receive the crown of life which thou dost promise to all who share in the victory of thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

When there is no Communion, the liturgy continues with the Commendation, or with the Comittal.

AT THE EUCHARIST

The liturgy continues with the Peace and the Offertory. An offertory hymn or anthem may be sung.

The Proper Preface of Burial is used (page 156).

The following Post Communion Prayer is used

Almighty God, we thank thee that in thy great love thou hast fed us with the spiritual food and drink of the Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and hast given unto us a foretaste of thy heavenly banquet. Grant that this Sacrament may be unto us a comfort in affliction, and a pledge of our inheritance in that kingdom where there is no death, neither sorrow nor crying, but the fullness of joy with all thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

If the body is not present, the liturgy continues with the blessing and dismissal; otherwise, the following Commendation is used.

T H E C O M M E N D A T I O N

The Officiant and other ministers take their places at the body.

- Officiant* Give rest, O Christ, to thy servant with thy saints,
All Where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing,
but life everlasting.
- Officiant* Thou only art immortal, the creator and maker of mankind; and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so didst thou decree, saying, “Thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou return.”
All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave
we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
- All* Give rest, O Christ, to thy servant with thy saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing,
but life everlasting.

The Officiant, facing the body, says

Into thy hands, O merciful Savior, we commend thy servant N.
Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, a sheep of thine own fold, a lamb of thine own flock, a sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of thy mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints
in light. Amen.

The Priest, or the Bishop if present, may then bless the people, and a Deacon or other Minister may dismiss them, saying

Alleluia, alleluia. Let us go forth in the Name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia

As the body is borne from the church, a hymn, or one or more of these anthems, may be sung or said

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and giving life to those in the tomb.

The Sun of Righteousness is gloriously risen, giving light to those who sat in darkness
and in the shadow of death.

The Lord will guide our feet into the way of peace,
having taken away the sin of the world.

Christ will open the kingdom of heaven to all who believe in his Name, saying, Come, O blessed of my Father;
inherit the kingdom prepared for you.

Into paradise may the angels lead thee.
At thy coming may the martyrs receive thee,
and bring thee into the holy city Jerusalem.

or one of the following Canticles

B E N E D I C T U S
The Song of Zechariah

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel,*
for he hath visited and redeemed his people;
And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us*
in the house of his servant David,
As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets,*
which have been since the world began:
That we should be saved from our enemies,*
and from the hand of all that hate us;
To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers,*
and to remember his holy covenant;

To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham,
that he would give us,
That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies *
might serve him without fear,
In holiness and righteousness before him, *
all the days of our life.
And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest, *
for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord
to prepare his ways;
To give knowledge of salvation unto his people *
for the remission of their sins,
Through the tender mercy of our God, *
whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;
To give light to them that sit in darkness
and in the shadow of death, *
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

LUKE 1:68-79

NUNC DIMITTIS
The Song of Simeon

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, *
according to thy word;
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, *
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, *
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world
without end. Amen.

LUKE 2:29-32

PASCHA NOSTRUM
Christ our Passover

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; *
 therefore let us keep the feast;
Not with the old leaven,
neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: *
 but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.
Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: *
 death hath no more dominion over him.
For in that he died, he died unto sin once: *
 but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin: *
 but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.
Christ is risen from the dead, *
 and become the first fruits of them that slept.
For since by a man came death, *
 by a man came also the resurrection of the dead.
For as in Adam all die, *
 even so in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

I CORINTHIANS 5:7-8; ROMANS 6:9-11; I CORINTHIANS 15:20-22

T H E C O M M I T T A L

The following anthems may be said

Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succor, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Savior, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayer; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Savior, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death, to fall from thee.

or this

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. JOHN 6:37

He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

ROMANS 8:11

Wherefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

PSALM 16:10

Thou shalt show me the path of life: in thy presence is the fullness of joy, and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

PSALM 16:12

The grave may be blessed. The Priest may use the following prayer here, or before the liturgy of Committal, or at some other convenient time.

O God, whose blessed Son was laid in a sepulcher in the garden: Bless, we pray, this grave, set apart for the repose of thy servant N., that he whose body is buried here may rest from his labors in peace and quietness, until the resurrection on the last day, when the New Jerusalem comes down, the dead are raised, and the righteous are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb; through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, while earth is cast upon the coffin, the Officiant says these words

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to Almighty God our brother N., and we commit his body to the ground [or the deep or its resting place]; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The Lord bless him and keep him, the Lord make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him, the Lord lift up his countenance upon him and give him peace. Amen.

Or this

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy to take unto himself the soul of our dear brother [or this beloved child], here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground [or the deep or its resting place]; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our mortal body, that it may be like unto his own glorious body, according to the mighty working of his Spirit, whereby he is able to subdue all things unto himself. Amen.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The following prayer or other Additional Prayers (pages 263–265) may be added.

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful are in joy and felicity: We praise and magnify thy holy Name for all those thy servants, who having finished their course in faith do now rest from their labors; and committing our brother N. to thy gracious keeping, we pray that, together with him and with all those who are departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, we may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thine eternal and everlasting glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then may be said

Officiant Rest eternal grant unto him, O Lord; and may his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

People And may light perpetual shine upon them.

A Priest may bless the people saying

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Officiant may dismiss the people with these words

Alleluia, alleluia. Let us go forth in the Name of Christ.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

A D D I T I O N A L P R A Y E R S

O God, the King of saints, we praise and magnify thy holy Name for all thy servants who have finished their course in thy faith and fear: for the blessed Virgin Mary; for the holy patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs; and for all other thy righteous servants, known to us and unknown; and we beseech thee that, encouraged by their examples, and strengthened by their fellowship, we also may be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who by thy death didst take away the sting of death: Grant unto us thy servants so to follow in faith where thou hast led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in thee and wake up after thy likeness; for thy tender mercies' sake. Amen.

Father of all, we pray to thee for those we love, but see no longer: Grant them thy peace; let light perpetual shine upon them; and, in thy loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of thy perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life: We meekly beseech thee to raise us from the death of sin to the life of righteousness; that, when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him, and that, at the general resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable in thy sight; and receive that blessing, which thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all who love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world: Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, to all who are bereaved the spirit of faith and courage, that they may have strength to meet the days to come with steadfastness and patience; not sorrowing as those without hope, but in thankful remembrance of thy great goodness, and in the joyful expectation of eternal life with all who love thee. This we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Almighty God, Father of mercies and giver of comfort: Deal graciously, we pray thee, with all those who mourn; that, casting all their care on thee, they may know the consolation of thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, whose days are without end, and whose mercies cannot be numbered: Make us, we beseech thee, deeply sensible of the shortness and uncertainty of human life; and let thy Holy Spirit lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days; that, when we shall have served thee in our generation, we may be gathered unto our fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience; in the communion of the Catholic Church; in the confidence of a certain faith; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious, and holy hope; in favor with thee, our God; and in perfect charity with the world. All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a veteran of the armed forces.

O Ruler of the universe, Lord God, who by the strength of thine own arm hast won for us final victory over the power of sin and death: We give thee thanks for thy servant N. who served as a (soldier, seaman, airman, mariner, etc.) in the armed forces of our nation, giving of his life for the defense of liberty and the preservation of freedom. Grant to him a place of eternal rest and peace in thine eternal dwelling place, that with all the heavenly host, the noble army of martyrs, and all the powers of heaven he may praise thy great and glorious Name unto the ages of ages. Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

It is particularly appropriate to light the Paschal Candle for the Burial of the Dead. It may be carried in procession and placed near the body.

If the Committal is long delayed from the time of the Burial Office, one of the lessons from the Burial Office may be read at the Committal, followed by a brief homily.

AT CREMATION

At the cremation of a body, this alternate committal prayer may be used:

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to Almighty God our brother N., and we commit his body to be consumed by fire; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The Lord bless him and keep him, the Lord make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him, the Lord lift up his countenance upon him and give him peace. Amen.

CONCERNING THE PSALTER

The Coverdale Psalter of 1535 (employed with every Prayer Book from the mid-16th to the mid-20th centuries) is one of the timeless treasures of the Book of Common Prayer. It has here been been printed according to the revision produced for the Book of Common Prayer (1928).

Recitation of the Psalms is central to daily worship throughout the Christian Tradition. Anglicanism at the time of the Reformation established that the entire Psalter should be read in the Daily Office every month. This one-month cycle is indicated within the Psalter itself. Contemporary practice sometimes lessens the number of daily psalms, so a sixty-day cycle is also printed alongside the readings in the Daily Office Lectionary on pages 738–763.

When recited in the Office, the Gloria Patri (Glory be...) may be said after each psalm, or at the conclusion of all the psalms of the Office. The Gloria Patri is not customarily said after a psalm in the Eucharist.

The manner of recitation of the psalms can be adapted to the size of the Congregation and physical setting: responsive (between leader and people), antiphonal (alternating sides of the Congregation), or in unison, and by whole or half verse. For purposes of reflective pause, half-verse recitation, or musical chant, the asterisk (*) printed in each verse indicates the place where the verse divides.

The numbering of verses in the Coverdale Psalter in certain psalms may differ from the numbering found in other translations.

DAY I : MORNING PRAYER

1

Beatus vir qui non abiit

- ¹ Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, *
and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.
- ² But his delight is in the law of the LORD; *
and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.
- ³ And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side, *
that will bring forth his fruit in due season.
- ⁴ His leaf also shall not wither; *
and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.
- ⁵ As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; *
but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.
- ⁶ Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment, *
neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
- ⁷ But the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous; *
and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

2

Quare fremuerunt gentes?

- ¹ Why do the heathen so furiously rage together? *
and why do the people imagine a vain thing?
- ² The kings of the earth stand up,
and the rulers take counsel together *
against the LORD, and against his Anointed:
- ³ Let us break their bonds asunder, *
and cast away their cords from us.

- 4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn: *
the Lord shall have them in derision.
- 5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, *
and vex them in his sore displeasure:
- 6 Yet have I set my King *
upon my holy hill of Zion.
- 7 I will rehearse the decree; *
the LORD hath said unto me,
Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
- 8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the nations
for thine inheritance, *
and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.
- 9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron, *
and break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
- 10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings; *
be instructed, ye that are judges of the earth.
- 11 Serve the LORD in fear, *
and rejoice unto him with reverence.
- 12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way, if his wrath be kindled, yea but a little. *
Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

3

Domine, quid multiplicati?

- 1 LORD, how are they increased that trouble me! *
many are they that rise against me.
- 2 Many one there be that say of my soul, *
There is no help for him in his God.
- 3 But thou, O LORD, art my defender; *
thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.
- 4 I did call upon the LORD with my voice, *
and he heard me out of his holy hill.

- 5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up again; *
for the LORD sustained me.
- 6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people, *
that have set themselves against me round about.
- 7 Up, LORD, and help me, O my God, *
for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheekbone;
thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.
- 8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD; *
and thy blessing is upon thy people.

4

Cum invocarem

- 1 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: *
thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.
- 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honor, *
and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after falsehood?
- 3 Know this also, that the LORD hath chosen to himself
the man that is godly; *
when I call upon the LORD he will hear me.
- 4 Stand in awe, and sin not; *
commune with your own heart,
and in your chamber, and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness, *
and put your trust in the LORD.
- 6 There be many that say, *
Who will show us any good?
- 7 LORD, lift thou up *
the light of thy countenance upon us.
- 8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart; *
yea, more than when their corn and wine and oil increase

- ⁹ I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest; *
for it is thou, LORD, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

5

Verba mea auribus

- ¹ Ponder my words, O LORD, *
consider my meditation.
- ² O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling,
my King and my God: *
for unto thee will I make my prayer.
- ³ My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O LORD; *
early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee,
and will look up.
- ⁴ For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickedness; *
neither shall any evil dwell with thee.
- ⁵ Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight; *
for thou hatest all them that work iniquity.
- ⁶ Thou shalt destroy them that speak lies: *
the LORD will abhor both the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.
- ⁷ But as for me, in the multitude of thy mercy I will come into thine house; *
and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.
- ⁸ Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies; *
make thy way plain before my face.
- ⁹ For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; *
their inward parts are very wickedness.
- ¹⁰ Their throat is an open sepulcher; *
they flatter with their tongue.
- ¹¹ Destroy thou them, O God;
let them perish through their own imaginations; *
cast them out in the multitude of their ungodliness;

for they have rebelled against thee.

- ¹² And let all them that put their trust in thee rejoice: *
they shall ever be giving of thanks, because thou defendest them; they that love thy Name shall be joyful in thee.
¹³ For thou, LORD, wilt give thy blessing unto the righteous, * and with thy favorable kindness wilt thou defend him as with a shield.

DAY I : EVENING PRAYER
6

Domine, ne in furore

- ¹ O LORD, rebuke me not in thine indignation, *
neither chasten me in thy displeasure.
² Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am weak; *
O LORD, heal me, for my bones are vexed.
³ My soul also is sore troubled: *
but, LORD, how long wilt thou punish me?
⁴ Turn thee, O LORD, and deliver my soul; *
O save me, for thy mercy's sake.
⁵ For in death no man remembereth thee; *
and who will give thee thanks in the pit?
⁶ I am weary of my groaning; *
every night wash I my bed,
and water my couch with my tears.
⁷ My beauty is gone for very trouble, *
and worn away because of all mine enemies.
⁸ Away from me, all ye that work iniquity; *
for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.
⁹ The LORD hath heard my petition; *
the LORD will receive my prayer.
¹⁰ All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed; *
they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Domine, Deus meus

- 1 O LORD my God, in thee have I put my trust: *
save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me;
- 2 Lest he devour my soul like a lion, and tear it in pieces, *
while there is none to help.
- 3 O LORD my God, if I have done any such thing; *
or if there be any wickedness in my hands;
- 4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that dealt friendly with me; * (yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is mine enemy;)
- 5 Then let mine enemy persecute my soul, and take me; *
yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth,
and lay mine honor in the dust.
- 6 Stand up, O LORD, in thy wrath, and lift up thyself, because of the indignation of mine enemies; *
arise up for me in the judgment that thou hast commanded.
- 7 And so shall the congregation of the peoples come about thee: *
for their sakes therefore lift up thyself again.
- 8 The LORD shall judge the peoples:
give sentence with me, O LORD, *
according to my righteousness,
and according to the innocency that is in me.
- 9 O let the wickedness of the ungodly come to an end; *
but guide thou the just.
- 10 For the righteous God *
trieth the very hearts and reins.
- 11 My help cometh of God, *
who preserveth them that are true of heart.
- 12 God is a righteous Judge, strong, and patient; *
and God is provoked every day.

- ¹³ If a man will not turn, he will whet his sword; *
 he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.
- ¹⁴ He hath prepared for him the instruments of death; *
 he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.
- ¹⁵ Behold, the ungodly travaileth with iniquity; *
 he hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.
- ¹⁶ He hath graven and digged up a pit, *
 and is fallen himself into the destruction that he made for other.
- ¹⁷ For his travail shall come upon his own head, *
 and his wickedness shall fall on his own pate.
- ¹⁸ I will give thanks unto the LORD,
according to his righteousness; *
 and I will praise the Name of the LORD Most High.

8

Domine, Dominus noster

- ¹ O LORD our Governor,
how excellent is thy Name in all the world; *
 thou that hast set thy glory above the heavens!
- ² Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies, * that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
- ³ When I consider thy heavens, even the work of thy fingers; *
 the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained;
- ⁴ What is man, that thou art mindful of him? *
 and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
- ⁵ Thou madest him lower than the angels, *
 to crown him with glory and worship.
- ⁶ Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands; *
 and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet:

- 7 All sheep and oxen; *
yea, and the beasts of the field;
8 The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea; *
and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.
9 O LORD our Governor, *
how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

DAY 2 : MORNING PRAYER

9

Confitebor tibi

- 1 I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
I will speak of all thy marvelous works.
2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee; *
yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou Most Highest.
3 While mine enemies are driven back, *
they shall fall and perish at thy presence.
4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; *
thou art set in the throne that judgest right.
5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the ungodly; *
thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.
6 O thou enemy, thy destructions are come to a perpetual end; *
even as the cities which thou hast destroyed,
whose memorial is perished with them.
7 But the LORD shall endure for ever; *
he hath also prepared his seat for judgment.
8 For he shall judge the world in righteousness, *
and minister true judgment unto the people.
9 The LORD also will be a defense for the oppressed, *
even a refuge in due time of trouble.
10 And they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee; *
for thou, LORD, hast never failed them that seek thee.

- ¹¹ O praise the LORD which dwelleth in Zion; *
 show the people of his doings.
- ¹² For when he maketh inquisition for blood,
 he remembereth them,*
 and forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.
- ¹³ Have mercy upon me, O LORD;
 consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me,*
 thou that liftest me up from the gates of death;
- ¹⁴ That I may show all thy praises within the gates of the daughter of Zion; *
 I will rejoice in thy salvation.
- ¹⁵ The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made; *
 in the same net which they hid privily is their foot taken.
- ¹⁶ The LORD is known to execute judgment,*
 the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.
- ¹⁷ The wicked shall be turned to destruction,*
 and all the people that forget God.
- ¹⁸ For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; *
 the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever.
- ¹⁹ Up, LORD, and let not man have the upper hand; *
 let the heathen be judged in thy sight.
- ²⁰ Put them in fear, O LORD,*
 that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

10

Ut quid, Domine?

- ¹ Why standest thou so far off, O LORD,*
 and hidest thy face in the needful time of trouble?
- ² The ungodly, for his own lust, doth persecute the poor: *
 let them be taken in the crafty wiliness that they have imagined.

- ³ For the ungodly hath made boast of his own heart's desire,*
and speaketh good of the covetous,
whom the LORD abhorreth.
- ⁴ The ungodly is so proud that he care not for God; *
neither is God in all his thoughts.
- ⁵ His ways are alway grievous; *
thy judgments are far above out of his sight, and therefore defieth he all his enemies.
- ⁶ For he hath said in his heart, Tush, I shall never be cast down, *
there shall no harm happen unto me.
- ⁷ His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud; *
under his tongue is ungodliness and vanity.
- ⁸ He sitteth lurking in the thievish corners of the streets, *
and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent;
his eyes are set against the poor.
- ⁹ For he lieth waiting secretly;
even as a lion lurketh he in his den, *
that he may ravish the poor.
- ¹⁰ He doth ravish the poor,*
when he getteth him into his net.
- ¹¹ He falleth down, and humbleth himself,* that the congregation of the poor may fall into the hands of his captains.
- ¹² He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten; *
he hideth away his face, and he will never see it.
- ¹³ Arise, O LORD God, and lift up thine hand; *
forget not the poor.
- ¹⁴ Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God,*
while he doth say in his heart,
Tush, thou God carest not for it?

- ¹⁵ Surely thou hast seen it; *
for thou beholdest ungodliness and wrong, that thou mayest take the matter into thy hand.
- ¹⁶ The poor commiteth himself unto thee; *
for thou art the helper of the friendless.
- ¹⁷ Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious; *
search out his ungodliness until thou find none.
- ¹⁸ The LORD is King for ever and ever, *
and the heathen are perished out of the land.
- ¹⁹ LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the poor; *
thou preparest their heart, and thine ear hearkeneth;
- ²⁰ To help the fatherless and poor unto their right, *
that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

11

In Domino confido

- ¹ In the LORD put I my trust; *
how say ye then to my soul, that she should flee as a bird unto the hill?
- ² For lo, the ungodly bend their bow,
and make ready their arrows within the quiver,*
that they may privily shoot at them which are true of heart.
- ³ If the foundations be destroyed,*
what can the righteous do?
- ⁴ The LORD is in his holy temple; *
the LORD's seat is in heaven.
- ⁵ His eyes consider the poor,*
and his eyelids try the children of men.
- ⁶ The LORD approveth the righteous: *
but the ungodly, and him that delighteth in wickedness, doth his soul abhor.

- 7 Upon the ungodly he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest: *
 this shall be their portion to drink.
- 8 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; *
 his countenance will behold the thing that is just.

DAY 2 : EVENING PRAYER

12

Salvum me fac

- 1 Help me, LORD, for there is not one godly man left; *
 for the faithful are diminished from among the children of men.
- 2 They talk of vanity every one with his neighbor; *
 they do but flatter with their lips,
 and dissemble in their double heart.
- 3 The LORD shall root out all deceitful lips, *
 and the tongue that speaketh proud things;
- 4 Which have said, With our tongue will we prevail; *
 we are they that ought to speak; who is lord over us?
- 5 Now for the comfortless troubles' sake of the needy, *
 and because of the deep sighing of the poor,
- 6 I will up, saith the LORD, * and will help every one from him that swelleth against him,
 and will set him at rest.
- 7 The words of the LORD are pure words; *
 even as the silver which from the earth is tried,
 and purified seven times in the fire.
- 8 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD; *
 thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.
- 9 The ungodly walk on every side: *
 when they are exalted,
 the children of men are put to rebuke.

13

Usquequo, Domine?

- 1 How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD; for ever? *
 how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
- 2 How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart? *
 how long shall mine enemy triumph over me?
- 3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God; *
 lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death;
- 4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him: *
 for if I be cast down, they that trouble me will rejoice at it.
- 5 But my trust is in thy mercy, *
 and my heart is joyful in thy salvation.
- 6 I will sing of the LORD, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me; *
 yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord Most Highest.

14

Dixit insipiens

- 1 The fool hath said in his heart, *
 There is no God.
- 2 They are corrupt, and become abominable in their doings; *
 there is none that doeth good, no not one.
- 3 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, *
 to see if there were any that would understand,
 and seek after God.
- 4 But they are all gone out of the way,
 they are altogether become abominable; *
 there is none that doeth good, no not one.

- 5 Have they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischief,*
 eating up my people as it were bread,
 and call not upon the LORD?
- 6 There were they brought in great fear, even where no fear was;*
 for God is in the generation of the righteous.
- 7 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counsel of the poor,*
 because he putteth his trust in the LORD.
- 8 Who shall give salvation unto Israel out of Zion? *
 When the LORD turneth the captivity of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

DAY 3 : MORNING PRAYER

15

Domine, quis habitabit?

- 1 LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? *
 or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?
- 2 Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life,*
 and doeth the thing which is right,
 and speaketh the truth from his heart.
- 3 He that hath used no deceit in his tongue,
nor done evil to his neighbor,*
 and hath not slandered his neighbor.
- 4 He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes,*
 and maketh much of them that fear the LORD.
- 5 He that sweareth unto his neighbor, and disappointeth him not,*
 though it were to his own hindrance.
- 6 He that hath not given his money upon usury,*
 nor taken reward against the innocent.
- 7 Whoso doeth these things * shall never fall.

16

Conserva me, Domine

- 1 Preserve me, O God: *
for in thee have I put my trust.
- 2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, *
Thou art my God; I have no good like unto thee.
- 3 All my delight is upon the saints that are in the earth, *
and upon such as excel in virtue.
- 4 But they that run after another god *
shall have great trouble.
- 5 Their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, *
neither make mention of their names within my lips.
- 6 The LORD himself is the portion of mine inheritance,
and of my cup; *
thou shalt maintain my lot.
- 7 The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground; *
yea, I have a goodly heritage.
- 8 I will thank the LORD for giving me warning; *
my reins also chasten me in the night season.
- 9 I have set the LORD alway before me; *
for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.
- 10 Wherefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: *
my flesh also shall rest in hope.
- 11 For why? Thou shalt not leave my soul in hell; *
neither shalt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.
- 12 Thou shalt show me the path of life:
in thy presence is the fullness of joy, *
and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

17

Exaudi, Domine

- 1 Hear the right, O LORD, consider my complaint, *
and hearken unto my prayer,
that goeth not out of feigned lips.
- 2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; *
and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.
- 3 Thou hast proved and visited mine heart in the night season;
thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wickedness in me; *
for I am utterly purposed that my mouth shall not offend.
- 4 As for the works of men, *
by the word of thy lips
I have kept me from the ways of the destroyer.
- 5 O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, *
that my footsteps slip not.
- 6 I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear me: *
incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words.
- 7 Show thy marvelous loving-kindness, thou that art the Savior of them which put their trust in thee, *
from such as resist thy right hand.
- 8 Keep me as the apple of an eye; *
hide me under the shadow of thy wings,
- 9 From the ungodly, that trouble me; *
mine enemies compass me round about,
to take away my soul.
- 10 They are inclosed in their own fat, *
and their mouth speaketh proud things.
- 11 They lie waiting in our way on every side, *
watching to cast us down to the ground;
- 12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, *
and as it were a lion's whelp lurking in secret places.

- ¹³ Up, LORD, disappoint him, and cast him down; *
 deliver my soul from the ungodly, by thine own sword;
- ¹⁴ Yea, by thy hand, O LORD; from the men of the evil world; *
 which have their portion in this life,
 whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure.
- ¹⁵ They have children at their desire, *
 and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.
- ¹⁶ But as for me, I shall behold thy presence in righteousness; *
 and when I awake up after thy likeness, I shall be satisfied.

DAY 3 : EVENING PRAYER

18

Diligam te, Domine

- ¹ I will love thee, O LORD my strength.*
 The LORD is my stony rock, and my defense;
- ² My Savior, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust; *
 my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.
- ³ I will call upon the LORD, which is worthy to be praised; *
 so shall I be safe from mine enemies.
- ⁴ The sorrows of death compassed me,*
 and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.
- ⁵ The pains of hell came about me; *
 the snares of death overtook me.
- ⁶ In my trouble I called upon the LORD,*
 and complained unto my God:
- ⁷ So he heard my voice out of his holy temple,*
 and my complaint came before him;
 it entered even into his ears.
- ⁸ The earth trembled and quaked,*
 the very foundations also of the hills shook,
 and were removed, because he was wroth.

- ⁹ There went a smoke out in his presence,*
and a consuming fire out of his mouth,
so that coals were kindled at it.
- ¹⁰ He bowed the heavens also, and came down,*
and it was dark under his feet.
- ¹¹ He rode upon the Cherubim, and did fly; *
he came flying upon the wings of the wind.
- ¹² He made darkness his secret place, *
his pavilion round about him with dark water,
and thick clouds to cover him.
- ¹³ At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed; *
hailstones and coals of fire.
- ¹⁴ The LORD also thundered out of heaven,
and the Highest gave his thunder; *
hailstones and coals of fire.
- ¹⁵ He sent out his arrows and scattered them; *
he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.
- ¹⁶ The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered, *
at thy chiding, O LORD,
at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.
- ¹⁷ He sent down from on high to fetch me, *
and took me out of many waters.
- ¹⁸ He delivered me from my strongest enemy,
and from them which hate me; *
for they were too mighty for me.
- ¹⁹ They came upon me in the day of my trouble; *
but the LORD was my upholder.
- ²⁰ He brought me forth also into a place of liberty; *
he brought me forth,
even because he had a favor unto me.

- ²¹ The LORD rewarded me after my righteous dealing,*
according to the cleanness of my hands did he recompense me.
- ²² Because I have kept the ways of the LORD,*
and have not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.
- ²³ For I have an eye unto all his laws,*
and will not cast out his commandments from me.
- ²⁴ I was also uncorrupt before him,*
and eschewed mine own wickedness.
- ²⁵ Therefore the LORD rewarded me after my righteous dealing,*
and according unto the cleanness of my hands
in his eyesight.
- ²⁶ With the holy thou shalt be holy,*
and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.
- ²⁷ With the clean thou shalt be clean,*
and with the foward thou shalt be foward.
- ²⁸ For thou shalt save the people that are in adversity,*
and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.
- ²⁹ Thou also shalt light my candle;*
the LORD my God shall make my darkness to be light.
- ³⁰ For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men,* and with the help of my God I shall leap over the wall.
- ³¹ The way of God is an undefiled way;*
the word of the LORD also is tried in the fire;
he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.
- ³² For who is God, but the LORD?*
or who hath any strength, except our God?
- ³³ It is God that girdeth me with strength of war* and maketh my way perfect.
- ³⁴ He maketh my feet like harts' feet,*
and setteth me up on high.
- ³⁵ He teacheth mine hands to fight,*
and mine arms shall bend even a bow of steel.

- ³⁶ Thou hast given me the defense of thy salvation; *
thy right hand also shall hold me up,
and thy loving correction shall make me great.
- ³⁷ Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go, *
that my footsteps shall not slide.
- ³⁸ I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them; *
neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.
- ³⁹ I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand, *
but fall under my feet.
- ⁴⁰ Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle; *
thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.
- ⁴¹ Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me, *
and I shall destroy them that hate me.
- ⁴² They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them; *
yea, even unto the L ORD shall they cry, but he shall not hear them.
- ⁴³ I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind: *
I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.
- ⁴⁴ Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people, *
and thou shalt make me the head of the nations;
a people whom I have not known shall serve me.
- ⁴⁵ As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me; *
the strangers shall feign obedience unto me.
- ⁴⁶ The strangers shall fail, *
and come trembling out of their strongholds.
- ⁴⁷ The L ORD liveth; and blessed be my strong helper, *
and praised be the God of my salvation;
- ⁴⁸ Even the God that seeth that I be avenged, *
and subdueth the people unto me.
- ⁴⁹ It is he that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: *
thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

- ⁵⁰ For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the Gentiles,*
and sing praises unto thy Name.
- ⁵¹ Great prosperity giveth he unto his King,*
and sheweth loving-kindness unto David his Anointed, and unto his seed for evermore.

DAY 4 : MORNING PRAYER

19

Cæli enarrant

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God,*
and the firmament showeth his handy-work.
- 2 One day telleth another; *
and one night certifieth another.
- 3 There is neither speech nor language; *
but their voices are heard among them.
- 4 Their sound is gone out into all lands; *
and their words into the ends of the world.
- 5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun; *
which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber,
and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.
- 6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven,
and runneth about unto the end of it again; *
and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
- 7 The law of the LORD is an undefiled law, converting the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure,
and giveth wisdom unto the simple.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is pure,
and giveth light unto the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, and endureth for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

- ¹⁰ More to be desired are they than gold,
yea, than much fine gold; *
sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.
- ¹¹ Moreover, by them is thy servant taught; *
and in keeping of them there is great reward.
- ¹² Who can tell how oft he offendeth? *
O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.
- ¹³ Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins,
lest they get the dominion over me; *
so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offense.
- ¹⁴ Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart,
be alway acceptable in thy sight, *
O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

20

Exaudiat te Dominus

- ¹ The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; *
the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee:
- ² Send thee help from the sanctuary, *
and strengthen thee out of Zion:
- ³ Remember all thy offerings, *
and accept thy burnt-sacrifice:
- ⁴ Grant thee thy heart's desire, *
and fulfill all thy mind.
- ⁵ We will rejoice in thy salvation, and triumph in the Name of the LORD our God: *
the LORD perform all thy petitions.
- ⁶ Now know I that the LORD helpeth his Anointed, and will hear him from his holy heaven, *
even with the wholesome strength of his right hand.
- ⁷ Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses; *
but we will remember the Name of the LORD our God.

- 8 They are brought down and fallen; *
but we are risen and stand upright.
- 9 Save, LORD; and hear us, O King of heaven, *
when we call upon thee.

Domine, in virtute tua

- 1 The King shall rejoice in thy strength, O LORD; *
exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.
- 2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, *
and hast not denied him the request of his lips.
- 3 For thou shalt meet him with the blessings of goodness, * and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.
- 4 He asked life of thee; and thou gavest him a long life, * even for ever and ever.
- 5 His honor is great in thy salvation; *
glory and great worship shalt thou lay upon him.
- 6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity, *
and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.
- 7 And why? Because the King putteth his trust in the LORD; *
and in the mercy of the Most Highest he shall not miscarry.
- 8 All thine enemies shall feel thine hand; *
thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.
- 9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath: *
the LORD shall destroy them in his displeasure,
and the fire shall consume them.
- 10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth, *
and their seed from among the children of men.
- 11 For they intended mischief against thee, *
and imagined such a device as they are not able to perform.

- ¹² Therefore shalt thou put them to flight,* and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.
- ¹³ Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength; *
so will we sing, and praise thy power.

DAY 4 : EVENING PRAYER

22

Deus, Deus meus

- ¹ My God, my God, look upon me;
why hast thou forsaken me,*
and art so far from my health,
and from the words of my complaint?
- ² O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; *
and in the night season also I take no rest.
- ³ And thou continuest holy,*
O thou Worship of Israel.
- ⁴ Our fathers hoped in thee; *
they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.
- ⁵ They called upon thee, and were holpen; *
they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.
- ⁶ But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; *
a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.
- ⁷ All they that see me laugh me to scorn; *
they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,
- ⁸ He trusted in the LORD, that he would deliver him; *
let him deliver him, if he will have him.
- ⁹ But thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb; *
thou wast my hope,
when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.
- ¹⁰ I have been left unto thee ever since I was born; *
thou art my God even from my mother's womb.

- ¹¹ O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand, *
and there is none to help me.
- ¹² Many oxen are come about me; *
fat bulls of Bashan close me in on every side.
- ¹³ They gape upon me with their mouths, *
as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.
- ¹⁴ I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; *
my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.
- ¹⁵ My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue
cleaveth to my gums, *
and thou bringest me into the dust of death.
- ¹⁶ For many dogs are come about me, *
and the council of the wicked layeth siege against me.
- ¹⁷ They pierced my hands and my feet: I may tell all my bones: *
they stand staring and looking upon me.
- ¹⁸ They part my garments among them, *
and cast lots upon my vesture.
- ¹⁹ But be not thou far from me, O LORD; *
Thou art my succor, haste thee to help me.
- ²⁰ Deliver my soul from the sword, *
my darling from the power of the dog.
- ²¹ Save me from the lion's mouth; *
thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.
- ²² I will declare thy Name unto my brethren; *
in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
- ²³ O praise the LORD, ye that fear him: *
magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob;
and fear him, all ye seed of Israel.
- ²⁴ For he hath not despised nor abhorred
the low estate of the poor; *
he hath not hid his face from him;

but when he called unto him he heard him.

²⁵ My praise is of thee in the great congregation; *
 my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.

²⁶ The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
 they that seek after the LORD shall praise him: *
 your heart shall live for ever.

²⁷ All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the LORD; *
 and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

²⁸ For the kingdom is the LORD's,*
 and he is the Governor among the nations.

²⁹ All such as be fat upon earth * have eaten, and worshiped.

³⁰ All they that go down into the dust shall kneel before him; *
 and no man hath quickened his own soul.

³¹ My seed shall serve him: *
 they shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation.

³² They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness* unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made.

23

Dominus regit me

- ¹ The LORD is my shepherd; * therefore can I lack nothing.
- ² He shall feed me in a green pasture * and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
- ³ He shall convert my soul, * and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.
- ⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; * for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
- ⁵ Thou shalt prepare a table before me in the presence of them that trouble me; * thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
- ⁶ Surely thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; * and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

King James Version

- ¹ *The LORD is my shepherd; * I shall not want.*
- ² *He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: * he leadeth me beside the still waters.*
- ³ *He restoreth my soul: * he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.*
- ⁴ *Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: * for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*
- ⁵ *Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: * thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.*
- ⁶ *Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: * and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*

24

Domini est terra

- 1 The earth is the LORD's and all that therein is; *
the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.
- 2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, *
and stablished it upon the floods.
- 3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? *
or who shall rise up in his holy place?
- 4 Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; *
and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity,
nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.
- 5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, *
and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
- 6 This is the generation of them that seek him; *
even of them that seek thy face, O God of Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up,
ye everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 Who is this King of glory? *
It is the LORD strong and mighty, even the LORD mighty in battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up,
ye everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 Who is this King of glory? *
Even the LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

25

Ad te, Domine, levavi

- 1 Unto thee, O LORD, will I lift up my soul;
my God, I have put my trust in thee: *
 O let me not be confounded,
 neither let mine enemies triumph over me.
- 2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed; *
 but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.
- 3 Show me thy ways, O LORD, *
 and teach me thy paths.
- 4 Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me: *
 for thou art the God of my salvation;
 in thee hath been my hope all the day long.
- 5 Call to remembrance, O LORD, thy tender mercies, *
 and thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old.
- 6 O remember not the sins and offenses of my youth; *
 but according to thy mercy think thou upon me,
 O LORD, for thy goodness.
- 7 Gracious and righteous is the LORD; *
 therefore will he teach sinners in the way.
- 8 Them that are meek shall he guide in judgment; *
 and such as are gentle, them shall he learn his way.
- 9 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth, *
 unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
- 10 For thy Name's sake, O LORD, *
 be merciful unto my sin; for it is great.
- 11 What man is he that feareth the LORD? *
 Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.
- 12 His soul shall dwell at ease, *
 and his seed shall inherit the land.

- ¹³ The secret of the LORD is among them that fear him; *
and he will show them his covenant.
- ¹⁴ Mine eyes are ever looking unto the LORD; *
for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.
- ¹⁵ Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; *
for I am desolate, and in misery.
- ¹⁶ The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: *
O bring thou me out of my troubles.
- ¹⁷ Look upon my adversity and misery, *
and forgive me all my sin.
- ¹⁸ Consider mine enemies, how many they are; *
and they bear a tyrannous hate against me.
- ¹⁹ O keep my soul and deliver me: *
let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee.
- ²⁰ Let perfectness and righteous dealing wait upon me; *
for my hope hath been in thee.
- ²¹ Deliver Israel, O God, *
out of all his troubles.

26

Judica me, Domine

- ¹ Be thou my Judge, O LORD, for I have walked innocently: *
my trust hath been also in the LORD,
therefore shall I not fall.
- ² Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; *
try out my reins and my heart.
- ³ For thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes; *
and I will walk in thy truth.
- ⁴ I have not dwelt with vain persons; *
neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.
- ⁵ I have hated the congregation of the wicked; *
and will not sit among the ungodly.

- 6 I will wash my hands in innocency, O LORD; *
and so will I go to thine altar;
- 7 That I may show the voice of thanksgiving, *
and tell of all thy wondrous works.
- 8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, *
and the place where thine honor dwelleth.
- 9 O shut not up my soul with the sinners, *
nor my life with the blood-thirsty,
- 10 In whose hands is wickedness, *
and their right hand is full of gifts.
- 11 But as for me, I will walk innocently: *
O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.
- 12 My foot standeth right: *
I will praise the LORD in the congregations.

DAY 5 : EVENING PRAYER

27

Dominus illuminatio

- 1 The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear? *
The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?
- 2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, *
they stumbled and fell.
- 3 Though an host of men were laid against me,
yet shall not my heart be afraid; *
and though there rose up war against me,
yet will I put my trust in him.
- 4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, which I will require; *
even that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the LORD, and to visit his temple.

- 5 For in the time of trouble shall he hide me in his tabernacle; *
yea, in the secret place of his dwelling he shall hide me,
and set me up upon a rock of stone.
- 6 And now shall he lift up mine head * above mine enemies round about me.
- 7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation,
with great gladness: *
I will sing and speak praises unto the LORD.
- 8 Hearken unto my voice, O LORD, when I cry unto thee; *
have mercy upon me, and hear me.
- 9 My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: *
Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
- 10 O hide not thou thy face from me, *
nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.
- 11 Thou hast been my succor; *
leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
- 12 When my father and my mother forsake me, *
the LORD taketh me up.
- 13 Teach me thy way, O LORD, *
and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.
- 14 Deliver me not over into the will of mine adversaries: *
for there are false witnesses risen up against me,
and such as speak wrong.
- 15 I should utterly have fainted, * but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.
- 16 O tarry thou the LORD's leisure; be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; *
and put thou thy trust in the LORD.

28

Ad te, Domine

- 1 Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my strength: *
 think no scorn of me;
 lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not,
 I become like them that go down into the pit.
- 2 Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee; *
 when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.
- 3 O pluck me not away,
 neither destroy me with the ungodly and wicked doers, *
 which speak friendly to their neighbors,
 but imagine mischief in their hearts.
- 4 Reward them according to their deeds, *
 and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.
- 5 Recompense them after the work of their hands; *
 pay them that they have deserved.
- 6 For they regard not in their mind the works of the LORD,
 nor the operation of his hands; *
 therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.
- 7 Praised be the LORD; *
 for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.
- 8 The LORD is my strength, and my shield;
 my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped; *
 therefore my heart danceth for joy,
 and in my song will I praise him.
- 9 The LORD is my strength, *
 and he is the wholesome defense of his anointed.
- 10 O save thy people,
 and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: *
 feed them, and set them up for ever.

29

Afferte Domino

- ¹ Ascribe unto the LORD, O ye mighty, * ascribe unto the LORD worship and strength.
- ² Ascribe unto the LORD the honor due unto his Name; *
 worship the LORD with holy worship.
- ³ The voice of the LORD is upon the waters; *
 it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.
- ⁴ It is the LORD that ruleth the sea;
 the voice of the LORD is mighty in operation; *
 the voice of the LORD is a glorious voice.
- ⁵ The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedar-trees; *
 yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.
- ⁶ He maketh them also to skip like a calf; *
 Lebanon also, and Sirion, like a young unicorn.
- ⁷ The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire;
 the voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; *
 yea, the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.
- ⁸ The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to bring forth young,
 and strippeth bare the forests: *
 in his temple doth everything speak of his honor.
- ⁹ The LORD sitteth above the water-flood, *
 and the LORD remaineth a King for ever.
- ¹⁰ The LORD shall give strength unto his people; *
 the LORD shall give his people the blessing of peace.

DAY 6 : MORNING PRAYER

30

Exaltabo te, Domine

- ¹ I will magnify thee, O LORD; for thou hast set me up, *
 and not made my foes to triumph over me.

- 2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee; *
and thou hast healed me.
- 3 Thou, LORD, hast brought my soul out of hell: *
thou hast kept my life,
that I should not go down into the pit.
- 4 Sing praises unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, *
and give thanks unto him, for a remembrance of his holiness.
- 5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye,
and in his pleasure is life; *
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh
in the morning.
- 6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be removed: *
thou, LORD, of thy goodness, hast made my hill so strong.
- 7 Thou didst turn thy face from me, *
and I was troubled.
- 8 Then cried I unto thee, O LORD; *
and gat me to my LORD right humbly.
- 9 What profit is there in my blood, *
when I go down into the pit?
- 10 Shall the dust give thanks unto thee? *
Or shall it declare thy truth?
- 11 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me; *
LORD, be thou my helper.
- 12 Thou hast turned my heaviness into joy; *
thou hast put off my sackcloth,
and girded me with gladness:
- 13 Therefore shall every good man sing
of thy praise without ceasing. *
O my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

31

In te, Domine, speravi

- 1 In thee, O LORD, have I put my trust;
let me never be put to confusion; *
deliver me in thy righteousness.
- 2 Bow down thine ear to me; *
make haste to deliver me.
- 3 And be thou my strong rock, and house of defense, *
that thou mayest save me.
- 4 For thou art my strong rock and my castle: *
be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Name's sake.
- 5 Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me; *
for thou art my strength.
- 6 Into thy hands I command my spirit; *
for thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, thou God of truth.
- 7 I have hated them that hold of lying vanities, *
and my trust hath been in the LORD.
- 8 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy; *
for thou hast considered my trouble,
and hast known my soul in adversities.
- 9 Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; *
but hast set my feet in a large room.
- 10 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble, *
and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness;
yea, my soul and my body.
- 11 For my life is waxen old with heaviness, *
and my years with mourning.
- 12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquity, *
and my bones are consumed.
- 13 I became a reproach among all mine enemies,
but especially among my neighbors; *
and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me;

and they that did see me without,
conveyed themselves from me.

¹⁴ I am clean forgotten as a dead man out of mind; *
I am become like a broken vessel.

¹⁵ For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude, and fear is on every side; *
while they conspire together against me,
and take their counsel to take away my life.

¹⁶ But my hope hath been in thee, O LORD; *
I have said, Thou art my God.

¹⁷ My times are in thy hand;
deliver me from the hand of mine enemies,*
and from them that persecute me.

¹⁸ Show thy servant the light of thy countenance,*
and save me for thy mercy's sake.

¹⁹ Let me not be confounded, O LORD, for I have called upon thee; *
let the ungodly be put to confusion,
and be put to silence in the grave.

²⁰ Let the lying lips be put to silence,* which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully speak against the righteous.

²¹ O how plentiful is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee,*
and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men!

²² Thou shalt hide them in the covert of thine own presence from the plottings of men: *
thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

²³ Thanks be to the LORD; *
for he hath showed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city.

- ²⁴ But in my haste I said, *
 I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.
- ²⁵ Nevertheless, thou hearest the voice of my prayer *
 when I cried unto thee.
- ²⁶ O love the LORD, all ye his saints; *
 for the LORD preserveth them that are faithful,
 and plenteously rewardeth the proud doer.
- ²⁷ Be strong, and he shall establish your heart,*
 all ye that put your trust in the LORD.

DAY 6 : EVENING PRAYER

32

Beati quorum

- ¹ Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven,*
 and whose sin is covered.
- ² Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth no sin,*
 and in whose spirit there is no guile.
- ³ For whilst I held my tongue,*
 my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.
- ⁴ For thy hand was heavy upon me day and night,*
 and my moisture was like the drought in summer.
- ⁵ I acknowledged my sin unto thee; *
 and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.
- ⁶ I said, I will confess my sins unto the LORD; *
 and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.
- ⁷ For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found; *
 surely the great water-floods shall not come nigh him.
- ⁸ Thou art a place to hide me in;
 thou shalt preserve me from trouble; *
 thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

- ⁹ I will inform thee,
and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go; *
and I will guide thee with mine eye.
- ¹⁰ Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding; *
whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle,
else they will not obey thee.
- ¹¹ Great plagues remain for the ungodly; *
but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD, mercy embraceth him on every side.
- ¹² Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the LORD; *
and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

33

Exultate, justi

- ¹ Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous; *
for it becometh well the just to be thankful.
- ² Praise the LORD with harp; *
sing praises unto him with the lute,
and instrument of ten strings.
- ³ Sing unto the LORD a new song; *
sing praises lustily unto him with a good courage.
- ⁴ For the word of the LORD is true; *
and all his works are faithful.
- ⁵ He loveth righteousness and judgment; *
the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.
- ⁶ By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; *
and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
- ⁷ He gathereth the waters of the sea together,
as it were upon an heap; *
and layeth up the deep, as in a treasure-house.

- 8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; *
stand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world.
- 9 For he spake, and it was done; *
he commanded, and it stood fast.
- 10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to naught, *
and maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect,
and casteth out the counsels of princes.
- 11 The counsel of the LORD shall endure for ever, *
and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.
- 12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord JEHOVAH; *
and blessed are the folk that he hath chosen to him,
to be his inheritance.
- 13 The LORD looketh down from heaven and beholdeth all the children of men; *
from the habitation of his dwelling, he considereth all them that dwell on the earth.
- 14 He fashioneth all the hearts of them, *
and understandeth all their works.
- 15 There is no king that can be saved by the multitude of an host; *
neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.
- 16 A horse is counted but a vain thing to save a man; *
neither shall he deliver any man by his great strength.
- 17 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, *
and upon them that put their trust in his mercy;
- 18 To deliver their soul from death, *
and to feed them in the time of dearth.
- 19 Our soul hath patiently tarried for the LORD; *
for he is our help and our shield.
- 20 For our heart shall rejoice in him; *
because we have hoped in his holy Name.
- 21 Let thy merciful kindness, O LORD, be upon us, *
like as we do put our trust in thee.

34

Benedicam Dominum

- ¹ I will alway give thanks unto the LORD; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
- ² My soul shall make her boast in the LORD; *
the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
- ³ O praise the LORD with me, *
and let us magnify his Name together.
- ⁴ I sought the LORD, and he heard me; *
yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.
- ⁵ They had an eye unto him, and were lightened; *
and their faces were not ashamed.
- ⁶ Lo, the poor crieth, and the LORD heareth him; *
yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷ The angel of the LORD tarrieth round about them that fear him, *
and delivereth them.
- ⁸ O taste, and see, how gracious the LORD is: *
blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
- ⁹ O fear the LORD, ye that are his saints; *
for they that fear him lack nothing.
- ¹⁰ The lions do lack and suffer hunger, *
but they who seek the LORD shall want no manner of thing that is good.
- ¹¹ Come, ye children, and hearken unto me; *
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- ¹² What man is he that lusteth to live, *
and would fain see good days?
- ¹³ Keep thy tongue from evil, *
and thy lips, that they speak no guile.
- ¹⁴ Eschew evil and do good; *
seek peace, and ensue it.

- ¹⁵ The eyes of the LORD are over the righteous,*
and his ears are open unto their prayers.
- ¹⁶ The countenance of the LORD is against them that do evil,*
to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.
- ¹⁷ The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth them,*
and delivereth them out of all their troubles.
- ¹⁸ The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart,*
and will save such as be of an humble spirit.
- ¹⁹ Great are the troubles of the righteous; *
but the LORD delivereth him out of all.
- ²⁰ He keepeth all his bones,*
so that not one of them is broken.
- ²¹ But misfortune shall slay the ungodly; *
and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.
- ²² The LORD delivereth the souls of his servants; *
and all they that put their trust in him shall not be destitute.

DAY 7 : MORNING PRAYER

35

Judica, Domine

- ¹ Plead thou my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me,*
and fight thou against them that fight against me.
- ² Lay hand upon the shield and buckler,*
and stand up to help me.
- ³ Bring forth the spear,
and stop the way against them that pursue me; *
say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.
- ⁴ Let them be confounded, and put to shame,
that seek after my soul; *
let them be turned back, and brought to confusion,
that imagine mischief for me.

- 5 Let them be as dust before the wind,*
and the angel of the LORD scattering them.
- 6 Let their way be dark and slippery,*
and let the angel of the LORD pursue them.
- 7 For they have privily laid their net to destroy me without a cause; *
yea, even without a cause have they made a pit for my soul.
- 8 Let a sudden destruction come upon him unawares,
and his net that he hath laid privily catch himself; *
that he may fall into his own mischief.
- 9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD; *
it shall rejoice in his salvation.
- 10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, who deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him; *
yea, the poor, and him that is in misery,
from him that spoileth him?
- 11 False witnesses did rise up: *
they laid to my charge things that I knew not.
- 12 They rewarded me evil for good, *
to the great discomfort of my soul.
- 13 Nevertheless, when they were sick, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soul with fasting; *
and my prayer shall turn into mine own bosom.
- 14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother; *
I went heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.
- 15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together; *
yea, the very abjects came together against me unawares, making mouths at me, and ceased not.
- 16 With the flatterers were busy mockers, *
who gnashed upon me with their teeth.

- ¹⁷ Lord, how long wilt thou look upon this? *
O deliver my soul from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the lions.
- ¹⁸ So will I give thee thanks in the great congregation; *
I will praise thee among much people.
- ¹⁹ O let not them that are mine enemies triumph over me ungodly; *
neither let them wink with their eyes, that hate me without a cause.
- ²⁰ And why? Their communing is not for peace* but they imagine deceitful words against them that are quiet in the land.
- ²¹ They gaped upon me with their mouths, and said, *
Fie on thee! Fie on thee! We saw it with our eyes.
- ²² This thou hast seen, O LORD; *
hold not thy tongue then; go not far from me, O Lord.
- ²³ Awake, and stand up to judge my quarrel; *
avenge thou my cause, my God and my Lord.
- ²⁴ Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; *
and let them not triumph over me.
- ²⁵ Let them not say in their hearts, There! There!
So would we have it; *
neither let them say, We have devoured him.
- ²⁶ Let them be put to confusion and shame together,
that rejoice at my trouble; *
let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonor,
that boast themselves against me.
- ²⁷ Let them be glad and rejoice, that favor my righteous dealing; *
yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the LORD,
who hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.
- ²⁸ And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of thy righteousness,* and of thy praise, all the day long.

36

Dixit injustus

- 1 My heart sheweth me the wickedness of the ungodly,* that there is no fear of God before his eyes.
- 2 For he flattereth himself in his own sight,*
until his abominable sin be found out.
- 3 The words of his mouth are unrighteous and full of deceit: *
he hath left off to behave himself wisely, and to do good.
- 4 He imagineth mischief upon his bed, and hath set himself in no good way; *
neither doth he abhor any thing that is evil.
- 5 Thy mercy, O LORD, reacheth unto the heavens,*
and thy faithfulness unto the clouds.
- 6 Thy righteousness standeth like the strong mountains: *
thy judgments are like the great deep.
- 7 Thou, LORD, shalt save both man and beast:
How excellent is thy mercy, O God! *
and the children of men shall put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.
- 8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteousness of thy house; *
and thou shalt give them drink of thy pleasures,
as out of the river.
- 9 For with thee is the well of life; *
and in thy light shall we see light.
- 10 O continue forth thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee,*
and thy righteousness unto them that are true of heart.
- 11 O let not the foot of pride come against me; *
and let not the hand of the ungodly cast me down.
- 12 There are they fallen, all that work wickedness; *
they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand.

DAY 7 : EVENING PRAYER

37

Noli æmulari

- 1 Fret not thyself because of the ungodly; *
neither be thou envious against the evil doers.
- 2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, *
and be withered even as the green herb.
- 3 Put thou thy trust in the LORD, and be doing good; *
dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.
- 4 Delight thou in the LORD, *
and he shall give thee thy heart's desire.
- 5 Commit thy way unto the LORD and put thy trust in him, *
and he shall bring it to pass.
- 6 He shall make thy righteousness as clear as the light, *
and thy just dealing as the noon-day.
- 7 Hold thee still in the LORD, and abide patiently upon him: *
but, not and thyself at him whose way doth prosper, against the man that doeth after evil counsels.
- 8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure: *
fret not thyself, else shalt thou be moved to do evil.
- 9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out; *
and they that patiently abide the LORD,
those shall inherit the land.
- 10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone: *
thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be away.
- 11 But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth, *
and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.
- 12 The ungodly seeketh counsel against the just, *
and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.
- 13 The Lord shall laugh him to scorn; *
for he hath seen that his day is coming.

- ¹⁴ The ungodly have drawn out the sword,
and have bent their bow,*
 to cast down the poor and needy,
 and to slay such as be upright in their ways.
- ¹⁵ Their sword shall go through their own heart,*
 and their bow shall be broken.
- ¹⁶ A small thing that the righteous hath,*
 is better than great riches of the ungodly.
- ¹⁷ For the arms of the ungodly shall be broken,*
 and the LORD upholdeth the righteous.
- ¹⁸ The LORD knoweth the days of the godly; *
 and their inheritance shall endure for ever.
- ¹⁹ They shall not be confounded in the perilous time; *
 and in the days of dearth they shall have enough.
- ²⁰ As for the ungodly, they shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall consume as the fat of lambs: *
 yea, even as the smoke shall they consume away.
- ²¹ The ungodly borroweth, and payeth not again; *
 but the righteous is merciful and liberal.
- ²² Such as are blessed of God, shall possess the land; *
 and they that are cursed of him, shall be rooted out.
- ²³ The LORD ordereth a good man's going,*
 and maketh his way acceptable to himself.
- ²⁴ Though he fall, he shall not be cast away; *
 for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.
- ²⁵ I have been young, and now am old; *
 and yet saw I never the righteous forsaken,
 nor his seed begging their bread.
- ²⁶ The righteous is ever merciful, and lendeth; *
 and his seed is blessed.
- ²⁷ Flee from evil, and do the thing that is good; *
 and dwell for evermore.

- ²⁸ For the LORD loveth the thing that is right; *
 he forsaketh not his that be godly,
 but they are preserved for ever.
- ²⁹ The unrighteous shall be punished; *
 as for the seed of the ungodly, it shall be rooted out.
- ³⁰ The righteous shall inherit the land, *
 and dwell therein for ever.
- ³¹ The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom, *
 and his tongue will be talking of judgment.
- ³² The law of his God is in his heart, *
 and his goings shall not slide.
- ³³ The ungodly watcheth the righteous, *
 and seeketh occasion to slay him.
- ³⁴ The LORD will not leave him in his hand, *
 nor condemn him when he is judged.
- ³⁵ Hope thou in the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possess the land: *
 when the ungodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.
- ³⁶ I myself have seen the ungodly in great power, *
 and flourishing like a green bay-tree.
- ³⁷ I went by, and lo, he was gone: *
 I sought him, but his place could no where be found.
- ³⁸ Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right; *
 for that shall bring a man peace at the last.
- ³⁹ As for the transgressors, they shall perish together; *
 and the end of the ungodly is,
 they shall be rooted out at the last.
- ⁴⁰ But the salvation of the righteous cometh of the LORD; *
 who is also their strength in the time of trouble.
- ⁴¹ And the LORD shall stand by them, and save them: *
 he shall deliver them from the ungodly, and shall save them, because they put their trust in him.

DAY 8 : MORNING PRAYER

38

Domine, ne in furore

- ¹ Put me not to rebuke, O LORD, in thine anger; *
neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure:
- ² For thine arrows stick fast in me, *
and thy hand presseth me sore.
- ³ There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure; *
neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.
- ⁴ For my wickednesses are gone over my head, *
and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.
- ⁵ My wounds stink, and are corrupt, * through my foolishness.
- ⁶ I am brought into so great trouble and misery, *
that I go mourning all the day long.
- ⁷ For my loins are filled with a sore disease, *
and there is no whole part in my body.
- ⁸ I am feeble and sore smitten; *
I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.
- ⁹ Lord, thou knowest all my desire; *
and my groaning is not hid from thee.
- ¹⁰ My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me, *
and the light of mine eyes is gone from me.
- ¹¹ My lovers and my neighbors did stand looking upon my trouble, *
and my kinsmen stood afar off.
- ¹² They also that sought after my life laid snares for me; *
and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.
- ¹³ As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not; *
and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.
- ¹⁴ I became even as a man that heareth not, *
and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

- ¹⁵ For in thee, O LORD, have I put my trust; *
 thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.
- ¹⁶ I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me; *
 for when my foot slipt, they rejoiced greatly against me.
- ¹⁷ And I truly am set in the plague,*
 and my heaviness is ever in my sight.
- ¹⁸ For I will confess my wickedness,*
 and be sorry for my sin.
- ¹⁹ But mine enemies live, and are mighty; *
 and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.
- ²⁰ They also that reward evil for good are against me; *
 because I follow the thing that good is.
- ²¹ Forsake me not, O LORD my God; *
 be not thou far from me.
- ²² Haste thee to help me,*
 O Lord God of my salvation.

39

Dixi, Custodiam

- ¹ I said, I will take heed to my ways,*
 that I offend not in my tongue.
- ² I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle,*
 while the ungodly is in my sight.
- ³ I held my tongue, and spake nothing: *
 I kept silence, yea, even from good words;
 but it was pain and grief to me.
- ⁴ My heart was hot within me:
and while I was thus musing the fire kindled,*
 and at the last I spake with my tongue:
- ⁵ LORD, let me know mine end, and the number of my days; *
 that I may be certified how long I have to live.

- 6 Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long,
and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee; *
and verily every man living is altogether vanity.
- 7 For man walketh in a vain shadow,
and disquieteth himself in vain,*
he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.
- 8 And now, Lord, what is my hope? *
truly my hope is even in thee.
- 9 Deliver me from all mine offenses,*
and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.
- 10 I became dumb and opened not my mouth; *
for it was thy doing.
- 11 Take thy plague away from me: *
I am even consumed by the means of thy heavy hand.
- 12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin,
thou makest his beauty to consume away,
like as it were a moth fretting a garment: *
every man therefore is but vanity.
- 13 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and with thine ears consider my calling; *
hold not thy peace at my tears;
- 14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, *
as all my fathers were.
- 15 O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength, * before I go hence, and be no more seen.

40

Expectans expectavi

- 1 I waited patiently for the LORD,*
and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

- ² He brought me also out of the horrible pit,
out of the mire and clay,*
and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.
- ³ And he hath put a new song in my mouth,*
even a thanksgiving unto our God.
- ⁴ Many shall see it, and fear,*
and shall put their trust in the LORD.
- ⁵ Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the LORD,*
and turned not unto the proud,
and to such as go about with lies.
- ⁶ O LORD my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, like as be also thy thoughts, which are to us-ward; *
and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.
- ⁷ If I should declare them, and speak of them,*
they should be more than I am able to express.
- ⁸ Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,*
but mine ears hast thou opened.
- ⁹ Burnt-offering and sacrifice for sin hast thou not required: *
then said I, Lo, I come;
- ¹⁰ In the volume of the book it is written of me,
that I should fulfill thy will, O my God: *
I am content to do it; yea, thy law is within my heart.
- ¹¹ I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: *
Lo, I will not refrain my lips, O LORD,
and that thou knowest.
- ¹² I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; *
my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.
- ¹³ I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth *
from the great congregation.
- ¹⁴ Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O LORD; *
let thy loving-kindness and thy truth alway preserve me.

- ¹⁵ For innumerable troubles are come about me;
my sins have taken such hold upon me,
that I am not able to look up; *
yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head,
and my heart hath failed me.
- ¹⁶ O LORD, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me; *
make haste, O LORD, to help me.
- ¹⁷ Let them be ashamed, and confounded together,
that seek after my soul to destroy it; *
let them be driven backward, and put to rebuke,
that wish me evil.
- ¹⁸ Let them be desolate and rewarded with shame * that say unto me, Fie upon thee! fie upon thee!
- ¹⁹ Let all those that seek thee, be joyful and glad in thee; *
and let such as love thy salvation, say alway,
The LORD be praised.
- ²⁰ As for me, I am poor and needy; *
but the Lord careth for me.
- ²¹ Thou art my helper and redeemer; *
make no long tarrying, O my God.

DAY 8 : EVENING PRAYER

41

Beatus qui intelligit

- ¹ Blessed is he that considereth the poor and needy; *
the LORD shall deliver him in the time of trouble.
- ² The LORD preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth; *
and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.
- ³ The LORD comfort him when he lieth sick upon his bed; *
make thou all his bed in his sickness.

- 4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me; *
 heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.
- 5 Mine enemies speak evil of me,*
 When shall he die, and his name perish?
- 6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity,*
 and his heart conceiveth falsehood within himself;
 and when he cometh forth, he telleth it.
- 7 All mine enemies whisper together against me; *
 even against me do they imagine this evil.
- 8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him; *
 and now that he lieth, he shall rise up no more.
- 9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend whom I trusted, * who did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.
- 10 But be thou merciful unto me, O LORD; *
 raise thou me up again, and I shall reward them.
- 11 By this I know thou favorest me, *
 that mine enemy doth not triumph against me.
- 12 And in my innocence thou upholdest me, *
 and shalt set me before thy face for ever.
- 13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel,*
 world without end. Amen.

42

Quemadmodum

- 1 Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, *
 so longeth my soul after thee, O God.
- 2 My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God: *
 when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?
- 3 My tears have been my meat day and night,*
 while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?
- 4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself; *
 for I went with the multitude,

- and brought them forth into the house of God.
- 5 In the voice of praise and thanksgiving,*
among such as keep holy-day.
- 6 Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
and why art thou so disquieted within me?
- 7 O put thy trust in God; *
for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.
- 8 My soul is vexed within me; *
therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan,
from Hermon and the little hill.
- 9 One deep calleth another,
because of the noise of thy water-floods; *
all thy waves and storms are gone over me.
- 10 The LORD will grant his loving-kindness in the daytime; *
and in the night season will I sing of him,
and make my prayer unto the God of my life.
- 11 I will say unto the God of my strength,
Why hast thou forgotten me? *
why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?
- 12 My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword,*
while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth;
- 13 Namely, while they say daily unto me,*
Where is now thy God?
- 14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soul? *
and why art thou so disquieted within me?
- 15 O put thy trust in God; *
for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

43

Judica me, Deus

- 1 Give sentence with me, O God,
and defend my cause against the ungodly people; *
 O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.
- 2 For thou art the God of my strength;
why hast thou put me from thee? *
 and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?
- 3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me, *
 and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling;
- 4 And that I may go unto the altar of God,
even unto the God of my joy and gladness; *
 and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee,
 O God, my God.
- 5 Why art thou so heavy, O my soul? *
 and why art thou so disquieted within me?
- 6 O put thy trust in God; *
 for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

DAY 9 : MORNING PRAYER

44

Deus, auribus

- 1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us * what thou hast done in their time of old:
- 2 How thou hast driven out the heathen with thy hand,
and planted our fathers in; *
 how thou hast destroyed the nations,
and made thy people to flourish.

- ³ For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword,*
 neither was it their own arm that helped them;
- ⁴ But thy right hand, and thine arm,
and the light of thy countenance; *
 because thou hadst a favor unto them.
- ⁵ Thou art my king, O God; *
send help unto Jacob.
- ⁶ Through thee will we overthrow our enemies,* and in thy Name will we tread them under that rise up against us.
- ⁷ For I will not trust in my bow,*
it is not my sword that shall help me;
- ⁸ But it is thou that savest us from our enemies,*
and puttest them to confusion that hate us.
- ⁹ We make our boast of God all day long,*
and will praise thy Name for ever.
- ¹⁰ But now thou art far off, and puttest us to confusion,*
and goest not forth with our armies.
- ¹¹ Thou makest us to turn our backs upon our enemies,*
so that they which hate us spoil our goods.
- ¹² Thou lettest us be eaten up like sheep,*
and hast scattered us among the heathen.
- ¹³ Thou sellest thy people for nought,*
and takest no money for them.
- ¹⁴ Thou makest us to be rebuked of our neighbors,*
to be laughed to scorn,
and had in derision of them that are round about us.
- ¹⁵ Thou makest us to be a byword among the nations,*
and that the peoples shake their heads at us.
- ¹⁶ My confusion is daily before me,*
and the shame of my face hath covered me;

- ¹⁷ For the voice of the slanderer and blasphemer,*
 for the enemy and avenger.
- ¹⁸ And though all this be come upon us,
 yet do we not forget thee,*
 nor behave ourselves frowardly in thy covenant.
- ¹⁹ Our heart is not turned back,*
 neither our steps gone out of thy way;
- ²⁰ No, not when thou hast smitten us into the place of dragons,*
 and covered us with the shadow of death.
- ²¹ If we have forgotten the Name of our God,
 and holden up our hands to any strange god,* shall not God search it out? for he knoweth the very secrets of the heart.
- ²² For thy sake also are we killed all the day long,*
 and are counted as sheep appointed to be slain.
- ²³ Up, Lord, why sleepest thou? *
 awake, and be not absent from us for ever.
- ²⁴ Wherefore hidest thou thy face,*
 and forgettest our misery and trouble?
- ²⁵ For our soul is brought low, even unto the dust; *
 our belly cleaveth unto the ground.
- ²⁶ Arise, and help us,*
 and deliver us, for thy mercy's sake.

45

Eructavit cor meum

- ¹ My heart overfloweth with a good matter;
I speak the things which I have made concerning the King.*
 My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
- ² Thou art fairer than the children of men; *
 full of grace are thy lips,
 because God hath blessed thee for ever.

- ³ Gird thee with thy sword upon thy thigh,
O thou Most Mighty,*
according to thy worship and renown.
- ⁴ Good luck have thou with thine honor: *
ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.
- ⁵ Thy arrows are very sharp in the heart of the King's enemies,*
and the people shall be subdued unto thee.
- ⁶ Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever; *
the scepter of thy kingdom is a right scepter.
- ⁷ Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; *
wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
- ⁸ All thy garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia; *
out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.
- ⁹ Kings' daughters are among thy honorable women; *
upon thy right hand doth stand the queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with divers colors.
- ¹⁰ Hearken, O daughter, and consider; incline thine ear; *
forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.
- ¹¹ So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty; *
for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him.
- ¹² And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; *
like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.
- ¹³ The King's daughter is all glorious within; *
her clothing is of wrought gold.
- ¹⁴ She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework: *
the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company,
and shall be brought unto thee.

- ¹⁵ With joy and gladness shall they be brought,*
and shall enter into the King's palace.
- ¹⁶ Instead of thy fathers, thou shalt have children,*
whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.
- ¹⁷ I will make thy Name to be remembered from one generation to another; *
therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee,
world without end.

46

Deus noster refugium

- ¹ God is our hope and strength,*
a very present help in trouble.
- ² Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved,*
and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;
- ³ Though the waters thereof rage and swell,*
and though the mountains shake at the tempest
of the same.
- ⁴ There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God; *
the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most Highest.
- ⁵ God is in the midst of her,
therefore shall she not be removed; *
God shall help her, and that right early.
- ⁶ The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved; *
but God hath showed his voice,
and the earth shall melt away.
- ⁷ The Lord of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
- ⁸ O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord,*
what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.

- ⁹ He maketh wars to cease in all the world; *
 he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder,
 and burneth the chariots in the fire.
- ¹⁰ Be still then, and know that I am God: *
 I will be exalted among the nations,
 and I will be exalted in the earth.
- ¹¹ The Lord of hosts is with us; *
 the God of Jacob is our refuge.

DAY 9 : EVENING PRAYER

47

Omnis gentes, plaudite

- ¹ O clap your hands together, all ye peoples: *
 O sing unto God with the voice of melody.
- ² For the Lord is high, and to be feared; *
 he is the great King upon all the earth.
- ³ He shall subdue the peoples under us, *
 and the nations under our feet.
- ⁴ He shall choose out an heritage for us, *
 even the excellency of Jacob, whom he loved.
- ⁵ God is gone up with a merry noise, *
 and the Lord with the sound of the trump.
- ⁶ O sing praises, sing praises unto our God; *
 O sing praises, sing praises unto our King.
- ⁷ For God is the King of all the earth: *
 sing ye praises with understanding.
- ⁸ God reigneth over the nations; *
 God sitteth upon his holy seat.
- ⁹ The princes of the peoples are joined unto the people of the God of Abraham; *
 for God, which is very high exalted, doth defend the earth,
 as it were with a shield.

48

Magnus Dominus

- ¹ Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised * in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.
- ² The hill of Zion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth; *
upon the north side lieth the city of the great King: God is well known in her palaces as a sure refuge.
- ³ For lo, the kings of the earth *
were gathered, and gone by together.
- ⁴ They marvelled to see such things; *
they were astonished, and suddenly cast down.
- ⁵ Fear came there upon them; and sorrow, *
as upon a woman in her travail.
- ⁶ Thou dost break the ships of the sea *
through the east-wind.
- ⁷ Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God; *
God upholdeth the same for ever.
- ⁸ We wait for thy loving-kindness, O God, *
in the midst of thy temple.
- ⁹ O God, according to thy Name,
so is thy praise unto the world's end; *
thy right hand is full of righteousness.
- ¹⁰ Let the mount Zion rejoice, and the daughters of Judah be glad, *
because of thy judgments.
- ¹¹ Walk about Zion, and go round about her; *
and tell the towers thereof.
- ¹² Mark well her bulwarks, consider her palaces, *
that ye may tell them that come after.
- ¹³ For this God is our God for ever and ever: *
he shall be our guide unto death.

49

Audite hæc, omnes

- 1 O hear ye this, all ye people; *
 ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world;
 2 High and low, rich and poor, *
 one with another.
 3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
 and my heart shall muse of understanding.
 4 I will incline mine ear to the parable, *
 and show my dark speech upon the harp.
 5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, *
 when wickedness at my heels compasseth me round about?
 6 There be some that put their trust in their goods, *
 and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.
 7 But no man may deliver his brother, *
 nor give a ransom unto God for him,
 8 (For it cost more to redeem their souls, * so that he must let that alone for ever;) 9 That he shall live alway, *
 and not see the grave.

 10 For he seeth that wise men also die and perish together, *
 as well as the ignorant and foolish,
 and leave their riches for other.
 11 And yet they think that their houses shall continue for ever, and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another; *
 and call the lands after their own names.
 12 Nevertheless, man being in honor abideth not, * seeing he may be compared unto the beasts that perish;
 13 This their way is very foolishness; *
 yet their posterity praise their saying.

- ¹⁴ They lie in the grave like sheep; death is their shepherd;
and the righteous shall have dominion over them
in the morning: *
 their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre,
 and have no abiding.
- ¹⁵ But God hath delivered my soul from the power of the grave; *
 for he shall receive me.
- ¹⁶ Be not thou afraid, though one be made rich, *
 or if the glory of his house be increased;
- ¹⁷ For he shall carry nothing away with him when he dieth, *
 neither shall his pomp follow him.
- ¹⁸ For while he lived, he counted himself an happy man; *
 and so long as thou doest well unto thyself,
 men will speak good of thee.
- ¹⁹ He shall follow the generation of his fathers, *
 and shall never see light.
- ²⁰ Man that is in honor but hath no understanding * is compared unto the beasts that perish.

DAY 10 : MORNING PRAYER

50

Deus deorum

- ¹ The Lord, even the Most Mighty God, hath spoken, * and called the world, from the rising up of the sun unto the going down thereof.
- ² Out of Zion hath God appeared * in perfect beauty.
- ³ Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence; *
 there shall go before him a consuming fire,
 and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.
- ⁴ He shall call the heaven from above, *
 and the earth, that he may judge his people.

- 5 Gather my saints together unto me; *
 those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.
- 6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness; *
 for God is Judge himself.
- 7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; *
 I myself will testify against thee, O Israel;
 for I am God, even thy God.
- 8 I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices; *
 as for thy burnt-offerings, they are alway before me.
- 9 I will take no bullock out of thine house, *
 nor he-goats out of thy folds.
- 10 For all the beasts of the forest are mine, *
 and so are the cattle upon a thousand hills.
- 11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains, *
 and the wild beasts of the field are in my sight.
- 12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee; *
 for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.
- 13 Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls' flesh, *
 and drink the blood of goats?
- 14 Offer unto God thanksgiving, * and pay thy vows unto the Most Highest.
- 15 And call upon me in the time of trouble; *
 so will I hear thee, and thou shalt praise me.
- 16 But unto the ungodly saith God, *
 Why dost thou preach my laws,
 and takest my covenant in thy mouth;
- 17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed, *
 and hast cast my words behind thee?
- 18 When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst unto him; *
 and hast been partaker with the adulterers.
- 19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wickedness, *
 and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

- ²⁰ Thou satest and spakest against thy brother; *
yea, and hast slandered thine own mother's son.
- ²¹ These things hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly,
that I am even such a one as thyself; *
but I will reprove thee,
and set before thee the things that thou hast done.
- ²² O consider this, ye that forget God, *
lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you.
- ²³ Whoso offereth me thanks and praise, he honoreth me; *
and to him that ordereth his way aright,
will I show the salvation of God.

51

Miserere mei, Deus

- ¹ Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness; *
according to the multitude of thy mercies do away
mine offenses.
- ² Wash me throughly from my wickedness, *
and cleanse me from my sin.
- ³ For I acknowledge my faults, *
and my sin is ever before me.
- ⁴ Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; *
that thou mightest be justified in thy saying,
and clear when thou shalt judge.
- ⁵ Behold, I was shapen in wickedness, *
and in sin hath my mother conceived me.
- ⁶ But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts, *
and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.
- ⁷ Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; *
thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

- 8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness,*
 that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
- 9 Turn thy face from my sins,*
 and put out all my misdeeds.
- 10 Make me a clean heart, O God,*
 and renew a right spirit within me.
- 11 Cast me not away from thy presence,*
 and take not thy holy Spirit from me.
- 12 O give me the comfort of thy help again,*
 and stablish me with thy free Spirit.
- 13 Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked,*
 and sinners shall be converted unto thee.
- 14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God,
 thou that art the God of my health; *
 and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.
- 15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord,*
 and my mouth shall show thy praise.
- 16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee; *
 but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.
- 17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: *
 a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.
- 18 O be favorable and gracious unto Zion; *
 build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations; *
 then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

52

Quid gloriariſis?

- 1 Why boastest thou thyself, thou tyrant,*
 that thou canſt do mischief;

- 2 Whereas the goodness of God *
endureth yet daily?
- 3 Thy tongue imagineth wickedness,*
and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp razor.
- 4 Thou hast loved unrighteousness more than goodness,*
and falsehood more than righteousness.
- 5 Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt,*
O thou false tongue.
- 6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever; *
he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling,
and root thee out of the land of the living.
- 7 The righteous also shall see this, and fear,*
and shall laugh him to scorn:
- 8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength;*
but trusted unto the multitude of his riches,
and strengthened himself in his wickedness.
- 9 As for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God; *
my trust is in the tender mercy of God for ever and ever.
- 10 I will alway give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done; *
and I will hope in thy Name, for thy saints like it well.

DAY 10 : EVENING PRAYER

53

Dixit insipiens

- 1 The foolish body hath said in his heart,*
There is no God.
- 2 Corrupt are they,
and become abominable in their wickedness; *
there is none that doeth good.
- 3 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,*
to see if there were any that would understand,
and seek after God.

- 4 But they are all gone out of the way,
they are altogether become abominable; *
 there is also none that doeth good, no not one.
- 5 Are not they without understanding that work wickedness, *
 eating up my people as if they would eat bread?
 They have not called upon God.
- 6 They were afraid where no fear was; *
 for God hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee;
 thou hast put them to confusion,
 because God hath despised them.
- 7 O that the salvation were given unto Israel out of Zion! *
 O that the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity!
- 8 Then should Jacob rejoice, *
 and Israel should be right glad.

54

Deus, in Nomine

- 1 Save me, O God, for thy Name's sake, *
 and avenge me in thy strength.
- 2 Hear my prayer, O God, *
 and hearken unto the words of my mouth.
- 3 For strangers are risen up against me; *
 and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes,
 seek after my soul.
- 4 Behold, God is my helper; *
 the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.
- 5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: *
 destroy thou them in thy truth.
- 6 An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name, O LORD; *
 because it is so comfortable.

- ⁷ For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble; *
and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

55

Exaudi, Deus

- ¹ Hear my prayer, O God, *
and hide not thyself from my petition.
² Take heed unto me, and hear me, *
how I mourn in my prayer, and am vexed;
³ The enemy crieth so, and the ungodly cometh on so fast; *
for they are minded to do me some mischief,
so maliciously are they set against me.
⁴ My heart is disquieted within me, *
and the fear of death is fallen upon me.
⁵ Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, *
and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.
⁶ And I said, O that I had wings like a dove! *
for then would I flee away, and be at rest.
⁷ Lo, then would I get me away far off, *
and remain in the wilderness.
⁸ I would make haste to escape, *
because of the stormy wind and tempest.
⁹ Destroy their tongues, O Lord, and divide them; *
for I have spied unrighteousness and strife in the city.
¹⁰ Day and night they go about within the walls thereof: *
mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.
¹¹ Wickedness is therein; *
deceit and guile go not out of her streets.
¹² For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonor; *
for then I could have borne it;

- ¹³ Neither was it mine adversary that did magnify himself against me; *
for then peradventure I would have hid myself from him;
- ¹⁴ But it was even thou, my companion, *
my guide, and mine own familiar friend.
- ¹⁵ We took sweet counsel together, *
and walked in the house of God as friends.
- ¹⁶ Let death come hastily upon them,
and let them go down alive into the pit; *
for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
- ¹⁷ As for me, I will call upon God, *
and the LORD shall save me.
- ¹⁸ In the evening, and morning, and at noonday will I pray,
and that instantly; *
and he shall hear my voice.
- ¹⁹ It is he that hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me; *
for there were many that strove with me.
- ²⁰ Yea, even God, that endureth for ever, shall hear me,
and bring them down; *
for they will not turn, nor fear God.
- ²¹ He laid his hands upon such as be at peace with him, *
and he brake his covenant.
- ²² The words of his mouth were softer than butter,
having war in his heart; *
his words were smoother than oil, and yet they be very swords.
- ²³ O cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall nourish thee, *
and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for ever.
- ²⁴ And as for them, *
thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.
- ²⁵ The bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days: *
nevertheless, my trust shall be in thee, O LORD.

Miserere mei, Deus

- ¹ Be merciful unto me, O God, for man goeth about to devour me; *
he is daily fighting, and troubling me.
- ² Mine enemies are daily at hand to swallow me up; *
for they be many that fight against me,
O thou Most Highest.
- ³ Nevertheless, though I am sometime afraid, *
yet put I my trust in thee.
- ⁴ I will praise God, because of his word: *
I have put my trust in God,
and will not fear what flesh can do unto me.
- ⁵ They daily mistake my words; *
all that they imagine is to do me evil.
- ⁶ They hold all together, and keep themselves close, *
and mark my steps, when they lay wait for my soul.
- ⁷ Shall they escape for their wickedness? *
thou, O God, in thy displeasure shalt cast them down.
- ⁸ Thou tellest my wanderings; put my tears into thy bottle: *
are not these things noted in thy book?
- ⁹ Whensoever I call upon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight: *
this I know; for God is on my side.
- ¹⁰ In God's word will I rejoice; *
in the LORD's word will I comfort me.
- ¹¹ Yea, in God have I put my trust; *
I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.
- ¹² Unto thee, O God, will I pay my vows; *
unto thee will I give thanks.

¹³ For thou hast delivered my soul from death,
and my feet from falling,*
that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

57

Miserere mei, Deus

- 1 Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me;
for my soul trusteth in thee; *
and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge,
until this tyranny be overpast.
- 2 I will call unto the Most High God, *
even unto the God that shall perform the cause which I have in hand.
- 3 He shall send from heaven, *
and save me from the reproof of him that would eat me up.
- 4 God shall send forth his mercy and truth: *
my soul is among lions;
- 5 And I lie even among the children of men,
that are set on fire, *
whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and their tongue a sharp sword.
- 6 Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens; *
and thy glory above all the earth.
- 7 They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed down my soul; *
they have digged a pit before me,
and are fallen into the midst of it themselves.
- 8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; *
I will sing and give praise.
- 9 Awake up, my glory; awake, lute and harp: *
I myself will awake right early.
- 10 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the peoples; *
and I will sing unto thee among the nations.

- ¹¹ For the greatness of thy mercy reacheth unto the heavens,*
and thy truth unto the clouds.
¹² Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens;*
and thy glory above all the earth.

58

Si vere utique

- ¹ Are your minds set upon righteousness, O ye congregation? *
and do ye judge the thing that is right, O ye sons of men?
² Yea, ye imagine mischief in your heart upon the earth,*
and your hands deal with wickedness.
³ The ungodly are froward, even from their mother's womb; *
as soon as they are born, they go astray, and speak lies.
⁴ They are as venomous as the poison of a serpent,*
even like the deaf adder, that stoppeth her ears;
⁵ Which refuseth to hear the voice of the charmer,*
charm he never so wisely.
⁶ Break their teeth, O God, in their mouths; *
smite the jawbones of the lions, O LORD.
⁷ Let them fall away like water that runneth apace; *
when they shoot their arrows, let them be rooted out.
⁸ Let them consume away like a snail, and be like the untimely fruit of a woman; *
and let them not see the sun.
⁹ Or ever your pots be made hot with thorns,*
he shall take them away with a whirlwind,
the green and the burning alike.
¹⁰ The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance; *
he shall wash his footsteps in the blood of the ungodly.
¹¹ So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous; *
doubtless there is a God that judgeth the earth.

Eripe me de inimicis

- ¹ Deliver me from mine enemies, O God; *
defend me from them that rise up against me.
- ² O deliver me from the wicked doers,*
and save me from the blood-thirsty men.
- ³ For lo, they lie waiting for my soul; *
the mighty men are gathered against me,
without any offense or fault of me, O LORD.
- ⁴ They run and prepare themselves without my fault; *
arise thou therefore to help me, and behold.

- ⁵ Stand up, O LORD God of hosts, thou God of Israel, to visit all the heathen, *
and be not merciful unto them that offend of malicious wickedness.
- ⁶ They go to and fro in the evening, *
they grin like a dog, and run about through the city.
- ⁷ Behold, they speak with their mouth,
and swords are in their lips; *
for who doth hear?
- ⁸ But thou, O LORD, shalt have them in derision, *
and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorn.
- ⁹ My strength will I ascribe unto thee; *
for thou art the God of my refuge.
- ¹⁰ God sheweth me his goodness plenteously; *
and God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.
- ¹¹ Slay them not, lest my people forget it; *
but scatter them abroad among the people, and put them down, O Lord our defense.

- ¹² For the sin of their mouth, and for the words of their lips,
they shall be taken in their pride: *
and why? their talk is of cursing and lies.
- ¹³ Consume them in thy wrath, consume them,
that they may perish; *
and know that it is God that ruleth in Jacob,
and unto the ends of the world.
- ¹⁴ And in the evening they will return, *
grin like a dog, and will go about the city.
- ¹⁵ They will run here and there for meat, *
and grudge if they be not satisfied.
- ¹⁶ As for me, I will sing of thy power,
and will praise thy mercy betimes in the morning; *
for thou hast been my defense and refuge in the day of my trouble.
- ¹⁷ Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing; *
for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my merciful God.

60

Deus, repulisti nos

- ¹ O God, thou hast cast us out, and scattered us abroad; *
thou hast also been displeased: O turn thee unto us again.
- ² Thou hast moved the land, and divided it: *
heal the sores thereof, for it shaketh.
- ³ Thou hast showed thy people heavy things; *
thou hast given us a drink of deadly wine.
- ⁴ Thou hast given a token for such as fear thee, *
that they may triumph because of the truth.
- ⁵ Therefore were thy beloved delivered: *
help me with thy right hand, and hear me.

- 6 God hath spoken in his holiness,
I will rejoice and divide Shechem, *
and mete out the valley of Succoth.
- 7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; *
Ephraim also is the strength of my head;
Judah is my law-giver;
- 8 Moab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; *
Philistia, be thou glad of me.
- 9 Who will lead me into the strong city? *
who will bring me into Edom?
- 10 Hast not thou cast us out, O God? *
wilt not thou, O God, go out with our hosts?
- 11 O be thou our help in trouble; *
for vain is the help of man.
- 12 Through God will we do great acts; *
for it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

61

Exaudi, Deus

- 1 Hear my crying, O God, *
give ear unto my prayer.
- 2 From the ends of the earth will I call upon thee, *
when my heart is in heaviness.
- 3 O set me up upon the rock that is higher than I; *
for thou hast been my hope,
and a strong tower for me against the enemy.
- 4 I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever, *
and my trust shall be under the covering of thy wings.
- 5 For thou, O Lord, hast heard my desires, *
and hast given an heritage unto those that fear thy Name.
- 6 Thou shalt grant the King a long life, *
that his years may endure throughout all generations.

- 7 He shall dwell before God for ever: *
 O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulness,
 that they may preserve him.
8 So will I alway sing praise unto thy Name, *
 that I may daily perform my vows.

DAY 12 : MORNING PRAYER

62

Nonne Deo?

- 1 My soul truly waiteth still upon God; *
 for of him cometh my salvation.
2 He verily is my strength and my salvation; *
 he is my defense, so that I shall not greatly fall.
3 How long will ye imagine mischief against every man? *
 Ye shall be slain all the sort of you;
 yea, as a tottering wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.
4 Their device is only how to put him out whom God will exalt; *
 their delight is in lies; they give good words
 with their mouth, but curse with their heart.
5 Nevertheless, my soul, wait thou still upon God: *
 for my hope is in him.
6 He truly is my strength and my salvation; *
 he is my defense, so that I shall not fall.
7 In God is my health and my glory; *
 the rock of my might; and in God is my trust.
8 O put your trust in him alway, ye people; *
 pour out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.
9 As for the children of men, they are but vanity;
 the children of men are deceitful; *
 upon the weights they are altogether lighter than vanity itself.

- ¹⁰ O trust not in wrong and robbery;
give not yourselves unto vanity: *
 if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.
¹¹ God spake once, and twice I have also heard the same, *
 that power belongeth unto God;
¹² And that thou, Lord, art merciful; *
 for thou rewardest every man according to his work.

63

Deus, Deus meus

- ¹ O God, thou art my God; *
 early will I seek thee.
² My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee, *
 in a barren and dry land where no water is.
³ Thus have I looked for thee in the sanctuary, *
 that I might behold thy power and glory.
⁴ For thy loving-kindness is better than the life itself: *
 my lips shall praise thee.
⁵ As long as I live will I magnify thee in this manner, *
 and lift up my hands in thy Name.
⁶ My soul shall be satisfied,
even as it were with marrow and fatness, *
 when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.
⁷ Have I not remembered thee in my bed, *
 and thought upon thee when I was waking?
⁸ Because thou hast been my helper; *
 therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
⁹ My soul hangeth upon thee; *
 thy right hand hath upholden me.
¹⁰ These also that seek the hurt of my soul, *
 they shall go under the earth.

- ¹¹ Let them fall upon the edge of the sword, *
that they may be a portion for foxes.
¹² But the King shall rejoice in God;
all they also that swear by him shall be commended; *
for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

64

Exaudi, Deus

- 1 Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer; *
preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the gathering together of the froward, *
and from the insurrection of wicked doers;
3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword, *
and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words;
4 That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect: *
suddenly do they hit him, and fear not.
5 They encourage themselves in mischief, *
and commune among themselves, how they may lay snares;
and say, that no man shall see them.
6 They imagine wickedness, and practice it; *
that they keep secret among themselves,
every man in the deep of his heart.
7 But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow, *
that they shall be wounded.
8 Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall; *
insomuch that whoso seeth them shall laugh them to scorn.
9 And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done; *
for they shall perceive that it is his work.
10 The righteous shall rejoice in the LORD,
and put his trust in him, *
and all they that are true of heart shall be glad.

DAY 12 : EVENING PRAYER

65

Te decet hymnus

- ¹ Thou, O God, art praised in Zion; *
and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.
- ² Thou that hearest the prayer, *
unto thee shall all flesh come.
- ³ My misdeeds prevail against me: *
O be thou merciful unto our sins.
- ⁴ Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and receivest unto thee: *
he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple.
- ⁵ Thou shalt show us wonderful things in thy righteousness,
O God of our salvation; *
thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth,
and of them that remain in the broad sea.
- ⁶ Who in his strength setteth fast the mountains, *
and is girded about with power.
- ⁷ Who stilleth the raging of the sea, *
and the noise of his waves, and the madness of the peoples.
- ⁸ They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid at thy tokens, * thou that makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise thee.
- ⁹ Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it; *
thou makest it very plenteous.
- ¹⁰ The river of God is full of water: *
thou preparest their corn, for so thou providest for the earth.
- ¹¹ Thou waterest her furrows;
thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof; *
thou makest it soft with the drops of rain,

and blessest the increase of it.

- 12 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; *
and thy clouds drop fatness.
- 13 They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness; *
and the little hills shall rejoice on every side.
- 14 The folds shall be full of sheep; *
the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn,
that they shall laugh and sing.

66

Jubilate Deo

- 1 O be joyful in God, all ye lands; *
sing praises unto the honor of his Name;
make his praise to be glorious.
- 2 Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works!*
through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies bow down unto thee.
- 3 For all the world shall worship thee,*
sing of thee, and praise thy Name.
- 4 O come hither, and behold the works of God; *
how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.
- 5 He turned the sea into dry land,*
so that they went through the water on foot;
there did we rejoice thereof.
- 6 He ruleth with his power for ever;
his eyes behold the nations: *
and such as will not believe shall not be able to exalt themselves.
- 7 O praise our God, ye peoples,*
and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

- ⁸ Who holdeth our soul in life; *
and suffereth not our feet to slip.
- ⁹ For thou, O God, hast proved us; *
thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.
- ¹⁰ Thou broughtest us into the snare; *
and laidest trouble upon our loins.
- ¹¹ Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads; *
we went through fire and water,
and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.
- ¹² I will go into thine house with burnt-offerings,
and will pay thee my vows, *
which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth,
when I was in trouble.
- ¹³ I will offer unto thee fat burnt-sacrifices,
with the incense of rams; *
I will offer bullocks and goats.
- ¹⁴ O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God; *
and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.
- ¹⁵ I called unto him with my mouth, *
and gave him praises with my tongue.
- ¹⁶ If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart, *
the Lord will not hear me.
- ¹⁷ But God hath heard me; *
and considered the voice of my prayer.
- ¹⁸ Praised be God, who hath not cast out my prayer, *
nor turned his mercy from me.

67

Deus misereatur

- ¹ God be merciful unto us, and bless us, *
and show us the light of his countenance,
and be merciful unto us;

- 2 That thy way may be known upon earth, *
thy saving health among all nations.
- 3 Let the peoples praise thee, O God; *
yea, let all the peoples praise thee.
- 4 O let the nations rejoice and be glad; *
for thou shalt judge the folk righteously,
and govern the nations upon earth.
- 5 Let the peoples praise thee, O God; *
yea, let all the peoples praise thee.
- 6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase; *
and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.
- 7 God shall bless us; *
and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

DAY 13 : MORNING PRAYER

68

Exsurgat Deus

- 1 Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; *
let them also that hate him flee before him.
- 2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away; *
and like as wax melteth at the fire,
so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad, and rejoice before God; *
let them also be merry and joyful.
- 4 O sing unto God, and sing praises unto his Name;
magnify him that rideth upon the heavens; *
praise him in his Name JAH, and rejoice before him.
- 5 He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows; *
even God in his holy habitation.

- 6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity; *
but letteth the runagates continue in scarceness.
- 7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people; *
when thou wentest through the wilderness,
- 8 The earth shook,
and the heavens dropped at the presence of God; *
even as Sinai also was moved at the presence of God,
who is the God of Israel.
- 9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious rain upon thine inheritance, *
and refreshedst it when it was weary.
- 10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein; *
for thou, O God, hast of thy goodness prepared for the poor.
- 11 The Lord gave the word; *
great was the company of women that bare the tidings.
- 12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited, *
and they of the household divided the spoil.
- 13 Though ye have lain among the sheep-folds, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove *
that is covered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold.
- 14 When the Almighty scattered kings for their sake, *
then were they as white as snow in Zalmon.
- 15 As the hill of Bashan, so is God's hill; *
even an high hill, as the hill of Bashan.
- 16 Why mock ye so, ye high hills? this is God's hill,
in the which it pleaseth him to dwell; *
yea, the LORD will abide in it for ever.
- 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
even thousands of angels, *
and the Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sinai.

- ¹⁸ Thou art gone up on high, thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts from men; *
yea, even from thine enemies, that the L ORD God might dwell among them.
- ¹⁹ Praised be the Lord daily, *
even the God who helpeth us,
and poureth his benefits upon us.
- ²⁰ He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation: *
God is the Lord, by whom we escape death.
- ²¹ God shall wound the head of his enemies, *
and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickedness.
- ²² The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again,
as I did from Bashan; *
mine own will I bring again,
as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.
- ²³ That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, * and that the tongue of thy dogs
may be red through the same.
- ²⁴ It is well seen, O God, how thou goest; *
how thou, my God and King, goest in the sanctuary.
- ²⁵ The singers go before, the minstrels follow after, *
in the midst of the damsels playing with the timbrels.
- ²⁶ Give thanks unto God the Lord in the congregation, *
ye that are of the fountain of Israel.
- ²⁷ There is little Benjamin their ruler,
and the princes of Judah their council; *
the princes of Zebulon, and the princes of Naphthali.
- ²⁸ Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee; *
stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us,
- ²⁹ For thy temple's sake at Jerusalem; *
so shall kings bring presents unto thee.

- ³⁰ Rebuke thou the dragon and the bull,
with the leaders of the heathen,
so that they humbly bring pieces of silver; *
scatter thou the peoples that delight in war;
- ³¹ Then shall the princes come out of Egypt; *
the Morians' land shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.
- ³² Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth; *
O sing praises unto the Lord;
- ³³ Who sitteth in the heavens over all, from the beginning: *
lo, he doth send out his voice; yea, and that a mighty voice.
- ³⁴ Ascribe ye the power to God over Israel; *
his worship and strength is in the clouds.
- ³⁵ O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places: *
even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

DAY 13 : EVENING PRAYER

69

Salvum me fac

- ¹ Save me, O God, *
for the waters are come in, even unto my soul.
- ² I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground is; *
I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run over me.
- ³ I am weary of crying; my throat is dry; *
my sight faileth me for waiting so long upon my God.
- ⁴ They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head; *
they that are mine enemies,
and would destroy me guiltless, are mighty.
- ⁵ I paid them the things that I never took: *
God, thou knowest my simpleness,

- and my faults are not hid from thee.
- 6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my cause; *
 let not those that seek thee be confounded through me,
 O Lord God of Israel.
- 7 And why? for thy sake have I suffered reproof; *
 shame hath covered my face.
- 8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren,*
 even an alien unto my mother's children.
- 9 For the zeal of thine house hath even eaten me; *
 and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fallen upon me.
- 10 I wept, and chastened myself with fasting,*
 and that was turned to my reproof.
- 11 I put on sackcloth also,*
 and they jested upon me.
- 12 They that sit in the gate speak against me,*
 and the drunkards make songs upon me.
- 13 But, LORD, I make my prayer unto thee *
 in an acceptable time.
- 14 Hear me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy,*
 even in the truth of thy salvation.
- 15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not; *
 O let me be delivered from them that hate me,
 and out of the deep waters.
- 16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swallow me up; *
 and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.
- 17 Hear me, O LORD, for thy loving-kindness is comfortable; *
 turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mercies.
- 18 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: *
 O haste thee, and hear me.

- ¹⁹ Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it; *
 O deliver me, because of mine enemies.
- ²⁰ Thou hast known my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor: *
 mine adversaries are all in thy sight.
- ²¹ Reproach hath broken my heart; I am full of heaviness: *
 I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.
- ²² They gave me gall to eat; *
 and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.
- ²³ Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal; *
 and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occasion of falling.
- ²⁴ Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not; *
 and ever bow thou down their backs.
- ²⁵ Pour out thine indignation upon them, *
 and let thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them.
- ²⁶ Let their habitation be void, *
 and no man to dwell in their tents.
- ²⁷ For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; *
 and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.
- ²⁸ Let them fall from one wickedness to another, *
 and not come into thy righteousness.
- ²⁹ Let them be wiped out of the book of the living, *
 and not be written among the righteous.
- ³⁰ As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness, *
 thy help, O God, shall lift me up.
- ³¹ I will praise the Name of God with a song, *
 and magnify it with thanksgiving.
- ³² This also shall please the LORD * better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.
- ³³ The humble shall consider this, and be glad: *
 seek ye after God, and your soul shall live.

- ³⁴ For the LORD heareth the poor, *
and despiseth not his prisoners.
- ³⁵ Let heaven and earth praise him: *
the sea, and all that moveth therein.
- ³⁶ For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah, *
that men may dwell there, and have it in possession.
- ³⁷ The posterity also of his servants shall inherit it; *
and they that love his Name shall dwell therein.

70

Deus, in adjutorium

- ¹ Haste thee, O God, to deliver me; *
make haste to help me, O LORD.
- ² Let them be ashamed and confounded
that seek after my soul; *
let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me evil.
- ³ Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame, *
that cry over me, There! there!
- ⁴ But let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee: *
and let all such as delight in thy salvation say alway,
The Lord be praised.
- ⁵ As for me, I am poor and in misery: *
haste thee unto me, O God.
- ⁶ Thou art my helper, and my redeemer: *
O LORD, make no long tarrying.

DAY 14 : MORNING PRAYER

71

In te, Domine, speravi

- 1 In thee, O LORD, have I put my trust;
let me never be put to confusion,*
but rid me and deliver me in thy righteousness;
incline thine ear unto me, and save me.
- 2 Be thou my stronghold, whereunto I may alway resort: *
thou hast promised to help me,
for thou art my house of defense, and my castle.
- 3 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly,*
out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
- 4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: *
thou art my hope, even from my youth.
- 5 Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: *
thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb:
my praise shall be alway of thee.
- 6 I am become as it were a monster unto many,*
but my sure trust is in thee.
- 7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise,*
that I may sing of thy glory and honor all the day long.
- 8 Cast me not away in the time of age; *
forsake me not when my strength faileth me.
- 9 For mine enemies speak against me; *
and they that lay wait for my soul take their counsel together, saying,
- 10 God hath forsaken him; *
persecute him, and take him,
for there is none to deliver him.
- 11 Go not far from me, O God; *
my God, haste thee to help me.

- ¹² Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul; *
 let them be covered with shame and dishonor that seek to do me evil.
- ¹³ As for me, I will patiently abide alway, *
 and will praise thee more and more.
- ¹⁴ My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and salvation; *
 for I know no end thereof.
- ¹⁵ I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God, *
 and will make mention of thy righteousness only.
- ¹⁶ Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now; *
 therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.
- ¹⁷ Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age,
 when I am gray-headed,*
 until I have showed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.
- ¹⁸ Thy righteousness, O God, is very high, *
 and great things are they that thou hast done:
 O God, who is like unto thee!
- ¹⁹ O what great troubles and adversities hast thou showed me!
 and yet didst thou turn and refresh me; *
 yea, and broughtest me from the deep of the earth again.
- ²⁰ Thou hast brought me to great honor,*
 and comforted me on every side:
- ²¹ Therefore will I praise thee, and thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of music: *
 unto thee will I sing upon the harp,
 O thou Holy One of Israel.
- ²² My lips will be glad when I sing unto thee; *
 and so will my soul whom thou hast delivered.
- ²³ My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness
 all the day long; *
 for they are confounded and brought unto shame that seek to do me evil.

72

Deus, judicium

- 1 Give the King thy judgments, O God, *
and thy righteousness unto the King's son.
- 2 Then shall he judge thy people according unto right, *
and defend the poor.
- 3 The mountains also shall bring peace, *
and the little hills righteousness unto the people.
- 4 He shall keep the simple folk by their right, * defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong doer.
- 5 They shall fear thee, as long as the sun and moon endureth, *
from one generation to another.
- 6 He shall come down like the rain upon the mown grass, *
even as the drops that water the earth.
- 7 In his time shall the righteous flourish; *
yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.
- 8 His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other, *
and from the River unto the world's end.
- 9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneel before him; *
his enemies shall lick the dust.
- 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall give presents; *
the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.
- 11 All kings shall fall down before him; *
all nations shall do him service.
- 12 For he shall deliver the poor when he crieth; *
the needy also, and him that hath no helper.
- 13 He shall be favorable to the simple and needy, *
and shall preserve the souls of the poor.
- 14 He shall deliver their souls from falsehood and wrong; *
and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

- ¹⁵ He shall live,
and unto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia; *
 prayer shall be made ever unto him,
 and daily shall he be praised.
- ¹⁶ There shall be an heap of corn in the earth, high upon the hills; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: *
 and they of the city shall flourish like grass upon the earth.
- ¹⁷ His Name shall endure for ever;
his Name shall remain under the sun among the posterities, which shall be blessed in him; *
 and all the nations shall praise him.
- ¹⁸ Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel, *
 which only doeth wondrous things;
- ¹⁹ And blessed be the Name of his majesty for ever: *
 and all the earth shall be filled with his majesty.
Amen, Amen.

DAY 14 : EVENING PRAYER

73

Quam bonus Israhel!

- ¹ Truly, God is loving unto Israel: *
 even unto such as are of a clean heart.
- ² Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone, *
 my treadings had well-nigh slipped.
- ³ And why? I was grieved at the wicked: *
 I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.
- ⁴ For they are in no peril of death, *
 but are lusty and strong.
- ⁵ They come in no misfortune like other folk; *
 neither are they plagued like other men.
- ⁶ And this is the cause that they are so holden with pride, *
 and cruelty covereth them as a garment.

- 7 Their eyes swell with fatness,*
and they do even what they lust.
- 8 They corrupt other, and speak of wicked blasphemy;*
their talking is against the Most High.
- 9 For they stretch forth their mouth unto the heaven,*
and their tongue goeth through the world.
- 10 Therefore fall the people unto them,*
and thereout suck they no small advantage.
- 11 Tush, say they, how should God perceive it?*
is there knowledge in the Most High?
- 12 Lo, these are the ungodly,*
these prosper in the world, and these have riches
in possession:
- 13 And I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain,*
and washed my hands in innocency.
- 14 All the day long have I been punished,*
and chastened every morning.
- 15 Yea, and I had almost said even as they;*
but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of thy children.
- 16 Then thought I to understand this;*
but it was too hard for me,
- 17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God: *
then understood I the end of these men;
- 18 Namely, how thou dost set them in slippery places,*
and castest them down, and destroyest them.
- 19 O how suddenly do they consume,*
perish, and come to a fearful end!
- 20 Yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh; *
so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the city.
- 21 Thus my heart was grieved,*
and it went even through my reins.

- ²² So foolish was I, and ignorant,*
even as it were a beast before thee.
- ²³ Nevertheless, I am alway by thee;*
for thou hast holden me by my right hand.
- ²⁴ Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,*
and after that receive me with glory.
- ²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but thee?*
and there is none upon earth
that I desire in comparison of thee.
- ²⁶ My flesh and my heart faileth;*
but God is the strength of my heart,
and my portion for ever.
- ²⁷ For lo, they that forsake thee shall perish;*
thou hast destroyed all them that are unfaithful unto thee.
- ²⁸ But it is good for me to hold me fast by God,
to put my trust in the Lord God,*
and to speak of all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Zion.

74

Ut quid, Deus?

- ¹ O God, wherefore art thou absent from us so long?*
why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy pasture?
- ² O think upon thy congregation,*
whom thou hast purchased, and redeemed of old.
- ³ Think upon the tribe of thine inheritance,*
and Mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.
- ⁴ Lift up thy feet,
that thou mayest utterly destroy every enemy,*
which hath done evil in thy sanctuary.
- ⁵ Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy congregations,*
and set up their banners for tokens.

- 6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thick trees, *
 was known to bring it to an excellent work.
- 7 But now they break down all the carved work thereof * with axes and hammers.
- 8 They have set fire upon thy holy places, *
 and have defiled the dwelling place of thy Name,
 even unto the ground.
- 9 Yea, they said in their hearts,
 Let us make havoc of them altogether: *
 thus have they burnt up all the houses of God in the land.
- 10 We see not our tokens; there is not one prophet more; *
 no, not one is there among us, that understandeth any more.
- 11 O God, how long shall the adversary do this dishonor? *
 shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for ever?
- 12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand? *
 why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom to consume the enemy?
- 13 For God is my King of old; *
 the help that is done upon earth, he doeth it himself.
- 14 Thou didst divide the sea through thy power; *
 thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.
- 15 Thou smotest the heads of leviathan in pieces, *
 and gavest him to be meat for the people of the wilderness.
- 16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters
 out of the hard rocks; *
 thou driedst up mighty waters.
- 17 The day is thine, and the night is thine; *
 thou hast prepared the light and the sun.
- 18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth; *
 thou hast made summer and winter.
- 19 Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy hath rebuked; *
 and how the foolish people hath blasphemed thy Name.

- ²⁰ O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the enemies; *
and forget not the congregation of the poor for ever.
- ²¹ Look upon the covenant; *
for all the earth is full of darkness and cruel habitations.
- ²² O let not the simple go away ashamed; *
but let the poor and needy give praise unto thy Name.
- ²³ Arise, O God, maintain thine own cause; *
remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.
- ²⁴ Forget not the voice of thine enemies: *
the presumption of them that hate thee increaseth ever more and more.

DAY 15 : MORNING PRAYER

75

Confitebimur tibi

- ¹ Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks; *
yea, unto thee do we give thanks.
- ² Thy Name also is so nigh; *
and that do thy wondrous works declare.
- ³ In the appointed time, saith God, *
I shall judge according unto right.
- ⁴ The earth is weak, and all the inhabitants thereof: *
I bear up the pillars of it.
- ⁵ I said unto the fools, Deal not so madly; *
and to the ungodly, Set not up your horn.
- ⁶ Set not up your horn on high, *
and speak not with a stiff neck.
- ⁷ For promotion cometh neither from the east,
nor from the west, *
nor yet from the south.
- ⁸ And why? God is the Judge; *
he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

- ⁹ For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
and the wine is red; *
it is full mixed, and he poureth out of the same.
- ¹⁰ As for the dregs thereof, *
all the ungodly of the earth shall drink them,
and suck them out.
- ¹¹ But I will talk of the God of Jacob, *
and praise him for ever.
- ¹² All the horns of the ungodly also will I break, *
and the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

76

Notus in Iudea

- ¹ In Judah is God known; *
his Name is great in Israel.
- ² At Salem is his tabernacle, *
and his dwelling in Zion.
- ³ There brake he the arrows of the bow, *
the shield, the sword, and the battle.
- ⁴ Thou art glorious in might, *
when thou comest from the hills of the robbers.
- ⁵ The proud are robbed, they have slept their sleep; *
and all the men whose hands were mighty have found nothing.
- ⁶ At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, *
both the chariot and horse are fallen.
- ⁷ Thou, even thou art to be feared; *
and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?
- ⁸ Thou didst cause thy judgment to be heard from heaven; *
the earth trembled, and was still,
- ⁹ When God arose to judgment, *
and to help all the meek upon earth.

- ¹⁰ The fierceness of man shall turn to thy praise; *
and the fierceness of them shalt thou refrain.
- ¹¹ Promise unto the L ORD your God, and keep it,
all ye that are round about him; *
bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.
- ¹² He shall refrain the spirit of princes, *
and is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

77

Voce mea ad Dominum

- ¹ I will cry unto God with my voice; *
even unto God will I cry with my voice,
and he shall hearken unto me.
- ² In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord: *
I stretched forth my hands unto him,
and ceased not in the night season; my soul refused comfort.
- ³ When I am in heaviness, I will think upon God; *
when my heart is vexed, I will complain.
- ⁴ Thou holdest mine eyes waking: *
I am so feeble that I cannot speak.
- ⁵ I have considered the days of old, *
and the years that are past.
- ⁶ I call to remembrance my song, *
and in the night I commune with mine own heart,
and search out my spirit.
- ⁷ Will the Lord absent himself for ever? *
and will he be no more intreated?
- ⁸ Is his mercy clean gone for ever? *
and is his promise come utterly to an end for evermore?
- ⁹ Hath God forgotten to be gracious? *
and will he shut up his loving-kindness in displeasure?

- ¹⁰ And I said, It is mine own infirmity; *
 but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most Highest.
- ¹¹ I will remember the works of the LORD, *
 and call to mind thy wonders of old time.
- ¹² I will think also of all thy works, *
 and my talking shall be of thy doings.
- ¹³ Thy way, O God, is holy: *
 who is so great a God as our God?
- ¹⁴ Thou art the God that doest wonders, *
 and hast declared thy power among the peoples.
- ¹⁵ Thou hast mightily delivered thy people, *
 even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.
- ¹⁶ The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee,
 and were afraid; *
 the depths also were troubled.
- ¹⁷ The clouds poured out water, the air thundered, *
 and thine arrows went abroad.
- ¹⁸ The voice of thy thunder was heard round about: *
 the lightnings shone upon the ground;
 the earth was moved, and shook withal.
- ¹⁹ Thy way is in the sea, and thy paths in the great waters, *
 and thy footsteps are not known.
- ²⁰ Thou leddest thy people like sheep, *
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

DAY 15 : EVENING PRAYER

78

Attendite, popule

- ¹ Hear my law, O my people; *
 incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.
- ² I will open my mouth in a parable; *
 I will declare hard sentences of old;

- ³ Which we have heard and known,*
and such as our fathers have told us;
- ⁴ That we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come; *
but to show the honor of the LORD,
his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done.
- ⁵ He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a law,*
which he commanded our forefathers
to teach their children;
- ⁶ That their posterity might know it,*
and the children which were yet unborn;
- ⁷ To the intent that when they came up,*
they might show their children the same;
- ⁸ That they might put their trust in God; *
and not to forget the works of God,
but to keep his commandments;
- ⁹ And not to be as their forefathers,
a faithless and stubborn generation; *
a generation that set not their heart aright,
and whose spirit clave not stedfastly unto God;
- ¹⁰ Like as the children of Ephraim; *
who being harnessed, and carrying bows,
turned themselves back in the day of battle.
- ¹¹ They kept not the covenant of God,*
and would not walk in his law;
- ¹² But forgat what he had done,*
and the wonderful works that he had showed for them.
- ¹³ Marvelous things did he in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt,*
even in the field of Zoan.
- ¹⁴ He divided the sea, and let them go through; *
he made the waters to stand on an heap.

- ¹⁵ In the daytime also he led them with a cloud,*
and all the night through with a light of fire.
- ¹⁶ He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness,*
and gave them drink thereof,
as it had been out of the great depth.
- ¹⁷ He brought waters out of the stony rock,*
so that it gushed out like the rivers.
- ¹⁸ Yet for all this they sinned more against him,*
and provoked the Most Highest in the wilderness.
- ¹⁹ They tempted God in their hearts,*
and required meat for their lust.
- ²⁰ They spake against God also, saying,*
Shall God prepare a table in the wilderness?
- ²¹ He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out,
and the streams flowed withal;*
but can he give bread also, or provide flesh for his people?
- ²² When the LORD heard this, he was wroth;*
so the fire was kindled in Jacob,
and there came up heavy displeasure against Israel;
- ²³ Because they believed not in God,*
and put not their trust in his help.
- ²⁴ So he commanded the clouds above,*
and opened the doors of heaven.
- ²⁵ He rained down manna also upon them for to eat,*
and gave them food from heaven.
- ²⁶ So man did eat angels' food;*
for he sent them meat enough.
- ²⁷ He caused the east wind to blow under heaven;*
and through his power he brought in the southwest wind.
- ²⁸ He rained flesh upon them as thick as dust,*
and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.
- ²⁹ He let it fall among their tents,*
even round about their habitation.

- ³⁰ So they did eat, and were well filled;
for he gave them their own desire: *
 they were not disappointed of their lust.
- ³¹ But while the meat was yet in their mouths,
the heavy wrath of God came upon them,
and slew the wealthiest of them; *
 yea, and smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.
- ³² But for all this they sinned yet more,*
 and believed not his wondrous works.
- ³³ Therefore their days did he consume in vanity,*
 and their years in trouble.
- ³⁴ When he slew them, they sought him,*
 and turned them early, and inquired after God.
- ³⁵ And they remembered that God was their strength,* and that the High God was their redeemer.
- ³⁶ Nevertheless, they did but flatter him with their mouth,*
 and dissembled with him in their tongue.
- ³⁷ For their heart was not whole with him,*
 neither continued they stedfast in his covenant.
- ³⁸ But he was so merciful, that he forgave their misdeeds,*
 and destroyed them not.
- ³⁹ Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away,*
 and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.
- ⁴⁰ For he considered that they were but flesh,*
 and that they were even a wind that passeth away,
 and cometh not again.
- ⁴¹ Many a time did they provoke him in the wilderness,*
 and grieved him in the desert.
- ⁴² They turned back, and tempted God,*
 and provoked the Holy One in Israel.
- ⁴³ They thought not of his hand,*
 and of the day when he delivered them
 from the hand of the enemy;

- ⁴⁴ How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt, *
and his wonders in the field of Zoan.
- ⁴⁵ He turned their waters into blood, *
so that they might not drink of the rivers.
- ⁴⁶ He sent flies among them, and devoured them up; *
and frogs to destroy them.
- ⁴⁷ He gave their fruit unto the caterpillar, *
and their labour unto the grasshopper.
- ⁴⁸ He destroyed their vines with hailstones, *
and their mulberry trees with the frost.
- ⁴⁹ He smote their cattle also with hailstones, *
and their flocks with hot thunderbolts.
- ⁵⁰ He cast upon them the furiousness of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble: *
and sent evil angels among them.
- ⁵¹ He made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soul from death; *
but gave their life over to the pestilence;
- ⁵² And smote all the firstborn in Egypt, *
the most principal and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.
- ⁵³ But as for his own people, he led them forth like sheep, *
and carried them in the wilderness like a flock.
- ⁵⁴ He brought them out safely, that they should not fear, *
and overwhelmed their enemies with the sea.
- ⁵⁵ And brought them within the borders of his sanctuary, *
even to this mountain,
which he purchased with his right hand.
- ⁵⁶ He cast out the heathen also before them, *
caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
- ⁵⁷ Yet they tempted and displeased the Most High God, *
and kept not his testimonies.

- ⁵⁸ They turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers; *
starting aside like a broken bow.
- ⁵⁹ For they grieved him with their hill-altars, *
and provoked him to displeasure with their images.
- ⁶⁰ When God heard this, he was wroth, *
and took sore displeasure at Israel;
- ⁶¹ So that he forsook the tabernacle in Shiloh, *
even the tent that he had pitched among men.
- ⁶² He delivered their power into captivity, *
and their beauty into the enemy's hand.
- ⁶³ He gave his people over also unto the sword, *
and was wroth with his inheritance.
- ⁶⁴ The fire consumed their young men, *
and their maidens were not given in marriage.
- ⁶⁵ Their priests were slain with the sword, *
and there were no widows to make lamentation.
- ⁶⁶ So the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, *
and like a giant refreshed with wine.
- ⁶⁷ He drove his enemies backward, *
and put them to a perpetual shame.
- ⁶⁸ He refused the tabernacle of Joseph, *
and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;
- ⁶⁹ But chose the tribe of Judah, *
even the hill of Zion which he loved.
- ⁷⁰ And there he built his temple on high, *
and laid the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.
- ⁷¹ He chose David also his servant, *
and took him away from the sheepfolds:
- ⁷² As he was following the ewes with their young he took him, *
that he might feed Jacob his people,
and Israel his inheritance.
- ⁷³ So he fed them with a faithful and true heart,*

and ruled them prudently with all his power.

DAY 16 : MORNING PRAYER

79

Deus, venerunt

- 1 O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; *
thy holy temple have they defiled,
and made Jerusalem an heap of stones.
- 2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the air,* and the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the land.
- 3 Their blood have they shed like water on every side of Jerusalem,* and there was no man to bury them.
- 4 We are become an open shame to our enemies,*
a very scorn and derision unto them that are round about us.
- 5 LORD, how long wilt thou be angry? *
shall thy jealousy burn like fire for ever?
- 6 Pour out thine indignation upon the heathen that have not known thee; *
and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy Name.
- 7 For they have devoured Jacob,*
and laid waste his dwelling-place.
- 8 O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us,
and that soon; *
for we are come to great misery.
- 9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: *
O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins,
for thy Name's sake.
- 10 Wherefore do the heathen say,*
Where is now their God?
- 11 O let the vengeance of thy servants' blood that is shed,*

be openly showed upon the heathen, in our sight.

- ¹² O let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before thee; *
according to the greatness of thy power,
preserve thou those that are appointed to die.
¹³ And for the blasphemy wherewith our neighbours have blasphemed thee, *
reward thou them, O Lord, sevenfold into their bosom.
¹⁴ So we, that are thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever, *
and will alway be showing forth thy praise from generation to generation.

80

Qui regis Israel

- ¹ Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; *
show thyself also, thou that sittest upon the Cherubim.
² Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, *
stir up thy strength, and come and help us.
³ Turn us again, O God; *
show the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.
⁴ O LORD God of hosts, *
how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?
⁵ Thou feedest them with the bread of tears, *
and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.
⁶ Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours, *
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.
⁷ Turn us again, thou God of hosts; *
show the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

- 8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt; *
 thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.
- 9 Thou madest room for it; *
 and when it had taken root, it filled the land.
- 10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it,*
 and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedar-trees.
- 11 She stretched out her branches unto the sea,*
 and her boughs unto the River.
- 12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedge,*
 that all they that go by pluck off her grapes?
- 13 The wild boar out of the wood doth root it up,*
 and the wild beasts of the field devour it.
- 14 Turn thee again, thou God of hosts, look down from heaven,*
 behold, and visit this vine;
- 15 And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted,*
 and the branch that thou madest so strong for thyself.
- 16 It is burnt with fire, and cut down; *
 and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.
- 17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand,*
 and upon the son of man,
 whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.
- 18 And so will not we go back from thee: *
 O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name.
- 19 Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts; *
 show the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

81

Exultate Deo

- 1 Sing we merrily unto God our strength; *
 make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.
- 2 Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret,*
 the merry harp with the lute.

- 3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon,*
even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast-day.
- 4 For this was made a statute for Israel,*
and a law of the God of Jacob.
- 5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony,*
when he came out of the land of Egypt,
and had heard a strange language.
- 6 I eased his shoulder from the burden,*
and his hands were delivered from making the pots.
- 7 Thou calledst upon me in troubles, and I delivered thee;*
and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.
- 8 I proved thee also *
at the waters of strife.
- 9 Hear, O my people; and I will assure thee, O Israel,*
if thou wilt hearken unto me,
- 10 There shall no strange god be in thee,*
neither shalt thou worship any other god.
- 11 I am the LORD thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: *
open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.
- 12 But my people would not hear my voice; *
and Israel would not obey me;
- 13 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lusts,*
and let them follow their own imaginations.
- 14 O that my people would have hearkened unto me! *
for if Israel had walked in my ways,
- 15 I should soon have put down their enemies,*
and turned my hand against their adversaries.
- 16 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him; *
but their time should have endured for ever.
- 17 I would have fed them also with the finest wheat-flour; *
and with honey out of the stony rock would I have satisfied thee.

DAY 16 : EVENING PRAYER

82

Deus stetit

- ¹ God standeth in the congregation of princes; *
he is a Judge among gods.
- ² How long will ye give wrong judgment, * and accept the persons of the ungodly?
- ³ Defend the poor and fatherless; *
see that such as are in need and necessity have right.
- ⁴ Deliver the outcast and poor; *
save them from the hand of the ungodly.
- ⁵ They know not, neither do they understand,
but walk on still in darkness: *
all the foundations of the earth are out of course.
- ⁶ I have said, Ye are gods, *
and ye are all the children of the Most Highest.
- ⁷ But ye shall die like men, *
and fall like one of the princes.
- ⁸ Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth; *
for thou shalt take all nations to thine inheritance.

83

Deus, quis similis?

- ¹ Hold not thy tongue, O God, keep not still silence: *
refrain not thyself, O God.
- ² For lo, thine enemies make a murmuring; *
and they that hate thee have lift up their head.
- ³ They have imagined craftily against thy people, *
and taken counsel against thy secret ones.

- 4 They have said, Come, and let us root them out,
that they be no more a people,*
and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
- 5 For they have cast their heads together with one consent,*
and are confederate against thee:
- 6 The tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ishmaelites; *
the Moabites, and Hagarenes;
- 7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; *
the Philistines, with them that dwell at Tyre.
- 8 Assyria also is joined with them; *
they have holpen the children of Lot.
- 9 But do thou to them as unto the Midianites; *
unto Sisera, and unto Jabin at the brook of Kishon;
- 10 Who perished at Endor,*
and became as the dung of the earth.
- 11 Make them and their princes like Oreb and Zeëb; *
yea, make all their princes like as Zebah and Zalmunna;
- 12 Who say, Let us take to ourselves *
the houses of God in possession.
- 13 O my God, make them like unto the whirling dust,*
and as the stubble before the wind;
- 14 Like as the fire that burneth up the forest,*
and as the flame that consumeth the mountains;
- 15 Pursue them even so with thy tempest,*
and make them afraid with thy storm.
- 16 Make their faces ashamed, O LORD,*
that they may seek thy Name.
- 17 Let them be confounded and vexed ever more and more; *
let them be put to shame, and perish.
- 18 And they shall know that thou, whose Name is JEHOVAH,*
art only the Most Highest over all the earth.

84

Quam dilecta!

- 1 O how amiable are thy dwellings, *
thou LORD of hosts!
- 2 My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the LORD; *
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young; *
even thy altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.
- 4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; *
they will be alway praising thee.
- 5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; *
in whose heart are thy ways.
- 6 Who going through the vale of misery use it for a well; *
and the pools are filled with water.
- 7 They will go from strength to strength, * and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Zion.
- 8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
hearken, O God of Jacob.
- 9 Behold, O God our defender, *
and look upon the face of thine anointed.
- 10 For one day in thy courts *
is better than a thousand.
- 11 I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, *
than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness.
- 12 For the LORD God is a light and defense; *
the LORD will give grace and worship;
and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a godly life.
- 13 O LORD God of hosts, *
blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

85

Benedixisti, Domine

- 1 LORD, thou art become gracious unto thy land; *
thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.
- 2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people, *
and covered all their sins.
- 3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure, *
and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation.
- 4 Turn us then, O God our Savior, *
and let thine anger cease from us.
- 5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever? *
and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation
to another?
- 6 Wilt thou not turn again, and quicken us, *
that thy people may rejoice in thee?
- 7 Show us thy mercy, O LORD, *
and grant us thy salvation.
- 8 I will hearken what the LORD God will say; *
for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints,
that they turn not again unto foolishness.
- 9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him; *
that glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth are met together: *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth, *
and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.
- 12 Yea, the LORD shall show loving-kindness; *
and our land shall give her increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him, *
and shall direct his going in the way.

Inclina, Domine

- ¹ Bow down thine ear, O LORD, and hear me; *
for I am poor, and in misery.
- ² Preserve thou my soul, for I am holy: *
my God, save thy servant that putteth his trust in thee.
- ³ Be merciful unto me, O Lord; *
for I will call daily upon thee.
- ⁴ Comfort the soul of thy servant; *
for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
- ⁵ For thou, Lord, art good and gracious,*
and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.
- ⁶ Give ear, LORD, unto my prayer,*
and ponder the voice of my humble desires.
- ⁷ In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee; *
for thou hearest me.
- ⁸ Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; *
there is not one that can do as thou doest.
- ⁹ All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship thee, O Lord; *
and shall glorify thy Name.
- ¹⁰ For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: *
thou art God alone.
- ¹¹ Teach me thy way, O LORD, and I will walk in thy truth: *
O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name.
- ¹² I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart; *
and will praise thy Name for evermore.
- ¹³ For great is thy mercy toward me; *
and thou hast delivered my soul from the nethermost hell.

- ¹⁴ O God, the proud are risen against me; *
and the congregations of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before their eyes.
- ¹⁵ But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy, *
long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.
- ¹⁶ O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me; *
give thy strength unto thy servant,
and help the son of thine handmaid.
- ¹⁷ Show some token upon me for good;
that they who hate me may see it, and be ashamed, *
because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

87

Fundamenta ejus

- ¹ Her foundations are upon the holy hills: *
the LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
- ² Very excellent things are spoken of thee, *
thou city of God.
- ³ I will make mention of Egypt and Babylon, *
among them that know me.
- ⁴ Behold, Philistia also; and Tyre, with Ethiopia; *
lo, in Zion were they born.
- ⁵ Yea, of Zion it shall be reported,
this one and that one were born in her; *
and the Most High shall stablish her.
- ⁶ The LORD shall record it, when he writeth up the peoples; *
lo, in Zion were they born.
- ⁷ The singers also and trumpeters shall make answer: *
All my fresh springs are in thee.

88

Domine, Deus

- ¹ O LORD God of my salvation,
I have cried day and night before thee: *
 O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear unto my calling;
- ² For my soul is full of trouble,*
 and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.
- ³ I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit,*
 and I am even as a man that hath no strength;
- ⁴ Cast off among the dead, like unto them that are slain,
and lie in the grave,*
 who are out of remembrance,
 and are cut away from thy hand.
- ⁵ Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit,*
 in a place of darkness, and in the deep.
- ⁶ Thine indignation lieth hard upon me,*
 and thou hast vexed me with all thy storms.
- ⁷ Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me,*
 and made me to be abhorred of them.
- ⁸ I am so fast in prison *
 that I cannot get forth.
- ⁹ My sight faileth for very trouble; *
 LORD, I have called daily upon thee,
 I have stretched forth my hands unto thee.
- ¹⁰ Dost thou show wonders among the dead? *
 or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?
- ¹¹ Shall thy loving-kindness be showed in the grave? *
 or thy faithfulness in destruction?
- ¹² Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark? *
 and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

- ¹³ Unto thee have I cried, O LORD; *
and early shall my prayer come before thee.
- ¹⁴ LORD, why abhorrest thou my soul, *
and hidest thou thy face from me?
- ¹⁵ I am in misery,
and like unto him that is at the point to die; *
even from my youth up,
thy terrors have I suffered with a troubled mind.
- ¹⁶ Thy wrathful displeasure goeth over me, *
and the fear of thee hath undone me.
- ¹⁷ They came round about me daily like water, *
and compassed me together on every side.
- ¹⁸ My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me, *
and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

DAY 17 : EVENING PRAYER

89

Misericordias Domini

- ¹ My song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the LORD; *
with my mouth will I ever be showing thy truth
from one generation to another.
- ² For I have said, Mercy shall be set up for ever; *
thy truth shalt thou stablish in the heavens.
- ³ I have made a covenant with my chosen; *
I have sworn unto David my servant:
- ⁴ Thy seed will I stablish for ever, *
and set up thy throne from one generation to another.
- ⁵ O LORD, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works; *
and thy truth in the congregation of the saints.
- ⁶ For who is he among the clouds, *
that shall be compared unto the LORD?

- 7 And what is he among the gods,*
 that shall be like unto the LORD?
- 8 God is very greatly to be feared in the council of the saints,*
 and to be had in reverence of all them that are round about him.
- 9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like unto thee? *
 thy truth, most mighty LORD, is on every side.
- 10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea; *
 thou stillest the waves thereof when they arise.
- 11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it; *
 thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arm.
- 12 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine; *
 thou hast laid the foundation of the round world,
 and all that therein is.
- 13 Thou hast made the north and the south; *
 Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy Name.
- 14 Thou hast a mighty arm; *
 strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
- 15 Righteousness and equity are the habitation of thy seat; *
 mercy and truth shall go before thy face.
- 16 Blessed is the people, O LORD, that can rejoice in thee; *
 they shall walk in the light of thy countenance.
- 17 Their delight shall be daily in thy Name; *
 and in thy righteousness shall they make their boast.
- 18 For thou art the glory of their strength,*
 and in thy loving-kindness thou shalt lift up our horns.
- 19 For the LORD is our defense; *
 the Holy One of Israel is our King.
- 20 Thou spakest sometime in visions unto thy saints,
 and saidst,*
 I have laid help upon one that is mighty,
 I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

- ²¹ I have found David my servant; *
 with my holy oil have I anointed him.
- ²² My hand shall hold him fast,*
 and my arm shall strengthen him.
- ²³ The enemy shall not be able to do him violence; *
 the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.
- ²⁴ I will smite down his foes before his face,*
 and plague them that hate him.
- ²⁵ My truth also and my mercy shall be with him; *
 and in my Name shall his horn be exalted.
- ²⁶ I will set his dominion also in the sea,*
 and his right hand in the floods.
- ²⁷ He shall call me, Thou art my Father,*
 my God, and my strong salvation.
- ²⁸ And I will make him my firstborn,* higher than the kings of the earth.
- ²⁹ My mercy will I keep for him for evermore,*
 and my covenant shall stand fast with him.
- ³⁰ His seed also will I make to endure for ever,*
 and his throne as the days of heaven.
- ³¹ But if his children forsake my law,*
 and walk not in my judgments;
- ³² If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; *
 I will visit their offences with the rod,
 and their sin with scourges.
- ³³ Nevertheless, my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him,*
 nor suffer my truth to fail.
- ³⁴ My covenant will I not break,
 nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: *
 I have sworn once by my holiness, that I will not fail David.
- ³⁵ His seed shall endure for ever,*
 and his throne is like as the sun before me.

- ³⁶ He shall stand fast for evermore as the moon,*
and as the faithful witness in heaven.
- ³⁷ But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine anointed,*
and art displeased at him.
- ³⁸ Thou hast broken the covenant of thy servant,*
and cast his crown to the ground.
- ³⁹ Thou hast overthrown all his hedges,*
and broken down his strongholds.
- ⁴⁰ All they that go by spoil him,*
and he is become a reproach to his neighbours.
- ⁴¹ Thou hast set up the right hand of his enemies,*
and made all his adversaries to rejoice.
- ⁴² Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword,*
and givest him not victory in the battle.
- ⁴³ Thou hast put out his glory,*
and cast his throne down to the ground.
- ⁴⁴ The days of his youth hast thou shortened,*
and covered him with dishonour.
- ⁴⁵ LORD, how long wilt thou hide thyself? for ever? *
and shall thy wrath burn like fire?
- ⁴⁶ O remember how short my time is; *
wherefore hast thou made all men for nought?
- ⁴⁷ What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? *
and shall he deliver his soul from the power of the grave?
- ⁴⁸ Lord, where are thy old loving-kindnesses,*
which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?
- ⁴⁹ Remember, Lord, the rebuke that thy servants have,*
and how I do bear in my bosom
the rebukes of many people;
- ⁵⁰ Wherewith thine enemies have blasphemed thee,*
and slandered the footsteps of thine anointed.
- ⁵¹ Praised be the LORD for evermore. *
Amen, and Amen.

- ¹ Lord, thou hast been our refuge, *
from one generation to another.
- ² Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made, *
thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.
- ³ Thou turnest man to destruction; *
again thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.
- ⁴ For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, *
and as a watch in the night.
- ⁵ As soon as thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep; *
and fade away suddenly like the grass.
- ⁶ In the morning it is green, and groweth up; *
but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.
- ⁷ For we consume away in thy displeasure, *
and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.
- ⁸ Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee; *
and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
- ⁹ For when thou art angry all our days are gone: *
we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.
- ¹⁰ The days of our age are threescore years and ten;
and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, *
yet is their strength then but labor and sorrow;
so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.
- ¹¹ But who regardeth the power of thy wrath? *
or feareth aright thy indignation?
- ¹² So teach us to number our days, *
that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
- ¹³ Turn thee again, O LORD, at the last, *
and be gracious unto thy servants.

- ¹⁴ O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon: *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
- ¹⁵ Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast plagued us; *
and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.
- ¹⁶ Show thy servants thy work, *
and their children thy glory.
- ¹⁷ And the glorious majesty of the L ORD our God be upon us: *
prosper thou the work of our hands upon us;
O prosper thou our handiwork.

Qui habitat

- ¹ Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High, *
shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
- ² I will say unto the L ORD,
Thou art my hope, and my stronghold; *
my God, in him will I trust.
- ³ For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter, *
and from the noisome pestilence.
- ⁴ He shall defend thee under his wings,
and thou shalt be safe under his feathers; *
his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
- ⁵ Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night, *
nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
- ⁶ For the pestilence that walketh in darkness, *
nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday.
- ⁷ A thousand shall fall beside thee,
and ten thousand at thy right hand; *
but it shall not come nigh thee.
- ⁸ Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold, *
and see the reward of the ungodly.

- ⁹ For thou, LORD, art my hope; *
 thou hast set thine house of defense very high.
- ¹⁰ There shall no evil happen unto thee, *
 neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
- ¹¹ For he shall give his angels charge over thee, *
 to keep thee in all thy ways.
- ¹² They shall bear thee in their hands, *
 that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.
- ¹³ Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: *
 the young lion and the dragon
 shalt thou tread under thy feet.
- ¹⁴ Because he hath set his love upon me,
 therefore will I deliver him; *
 I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.
- ¹⁵ He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; *
 yea, I am with him in trouble;
 I will deliver him, and bring him to honor.
- ¹⁶ With long life will I satisfy him, *
 and show him my salvation.

92

Bonum est confiteri

- ¹ It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, *
 and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest;
- ² To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning, *
 and of thy truth in the night season;
- ³ Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute; *
 upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.
- ⁴ For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy works; *
 and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of thy hands.

- 5 O LORD, how glorious are thy works! *
thy thoughts are very deep.
- 6 An unwise man doth not well consider this, *
and a fool doth not understand it.
- 7 When the ungodly are green as the grass,
and when all the workers of wickedness do flourish, *
then shall they be destroyed for ever;
but thou, LORD, art the Most Highest for evermore.
- 8 For lo, thine enemies, O LORD, lo, thine enemies shall perish; *
and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroyed.
- 9 But my horn shall be exalted like the horn of an unicorn; *
for I am anointed with fresh oil.
- 10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies, * and mine ear shall hear his desire of the wicked that arise up against me.
- 11 The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree, *
and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Lebanon.
- 12 Such as are planted in the house of the LORD, * shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God.
- 13 They also shall bring forth more fruit in their age, *
and shall be fat and well-liking;
- 14 That they may show how true the LORD my strength is, *
and that there is no unrighteousness in him.

DAY 18 : EVENING PRAYER

93

Dominus regnavit

- 1 The LORD is King, and hath put on glorious apparel; *
the LORD hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

- ² He hath made the round world so sure, *
 that it cannot be moved.
³ Ever since the world began, hath thy seat been prepared: *
 thou art from everlasting.
⁴ The floods are risen, O LORD,
the floods have lift up their voice; *
 the floods lift up their waves.
⁵ The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly; *
 but yet the LORD, who dwelleth on high, is mightier.
⁶ Thy testimonies, O LORD, are very sure: *
holiness becometh thine house for ever.

94

Deus ultionum

- ¹ O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth, *
 thou God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.
² Arise, thou Judge of the world, *
 and reward the proud after their deserving.
³ LORD, how long shall the ungodly, *
 how long shall the ungodly triumph?
⁴ How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully, *
 and make such proud boasting?
⁵ They smite down thy people, O LORD, *
 and trouble thine heritage.
⁶ They murder the widow and the stranger, *
 and put the fatherless to death.
⁷ And yet they say, Tush, the LORD shall not see, *
 neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
⁸ Take heed, ye unwise among the people: *
 O ye fools, when will ye understand?
⁹ He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? *
 or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

- ¹⁰ Or he that instructeth the heathen, *
it is he that teacheth man knowledge; shall not he punish?
- ¹¹ The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, *
that they are but vain.
- ¹² Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, *
and teachest him in thy law;
- ¹³ That thou mayest give him patience in time of adversity, * until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.
- ¹⁴ For the LORD will not fail his people; *
neither will he forsake his inheritance;
- ¹⁵ Until righteousness turn again unto judgment: *
all such as are true in heart shall follow it.
- ¹⁶ Who will rise up with me against the wicked? *
or who will take my part against the evil doers?
- ¹⁷ If the LORD had not helped me, *
it had not failed, but my soul had been put to silence.
- ¹⁸ But when I said, My foot hath slipt; *
thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.
- ¹⁹ In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart, *
thy comforts have refreshed my soul.
- ²⁰ Wilt thou have any thing to do with the throne of wickedness, * which imagineth mischief as a law?
- ²¹ They gather them together against the soul of the righteous, * and condemn the innocent blood.
- ²² But the LORD is my refuge, *
and my God is the strength of my confidence.
- ²³ He shall recompense them their wickedness,
and destroy them in their own malice; *
yea, the LORD our God shall destroy them.

Venite, exultemus

- 1 O come, let us sing unto the LORD; *
let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; *
and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God; *
and a great King above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth; *
and the strength of the hills is his also.
- 5 The sea is his, and he made it; *
and his hands prepared the dry land.
- 6 O come, let us worship and fall down, *
and kneel before the LORD our Maker.
- 7 For he is the Lord our God; *
and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand.
- 8 Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts *
as in the provocation,
and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;
- 9 When your fathers tempted me, *
proved me, and saw my works.
- 10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, *
It is a people that do err in their hearts,
for they have not known my ways:
- 11 Unto whom I swear in my wrath, *
that they should not enter into my rest.

96

Cantate Domino

- 1 O sing unto the LORD a new song; *
sing unto the LORD, all the whole earth.
- 2 Sing unto the LORD, and praise his Name; *
be telling of his salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare his honor unto the heathen, *
and his wonders unto all peoples.
- 4 For the LORD is great, and cannot worthily be praised; *
he is more to be feared than all gods.
- 5 As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols; *
but it is the LORD that made the heavens.
- 6 Glory and worship are before him; *
power and honor are in his sanctuary.
- 7 Ascribe unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the peoples, * ascribe unto the LORD worship and power.
- 8 Ascribe unto the LORD the honor due unto his Name; *
bring presents, and come into his courts.
- 9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; *
let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
- 10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the LORD is King, and that it is he who hath made the round world so fast
that it cannot be moved; *
and how that he shall judge the peoples righteously.
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; *
let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.
- 12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it; *
then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the LORD.
- 13 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth; *
and with righteousness to judge the world, and the peoples with his truth.

97

Dominus regnavit

- 1 The LORD is King, the earth may be glad thereof; *
yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: *
righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his seat.
- 3 There shall go a fire before him, *
and burn up his enemies on every side.
- 4 His lightnings gave shine unto the world: *
the earth saw it, and was afraid.
- 5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD; *
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- 6 The heavens have declared his righteousness, *
and all the peoples have seen his glory.
- 7 Confounded be all they that worship carved images,
and that delight in vain gods: *
worship him, all ye gods.
- 8 Zion heard of it, and rejoiced;
and the daughters of Judah were glad, *
because of thy judgments, O LORD.
- 9 For thou, LORD, art higher than all that are in the earth: *
thou art exalted far above all gods.
- 10 O ye that love the LORD,
see that ye hate the thing which is evil: *
the Lord preserveth the souls of his saints;
he shall deliver them from the hand of the ungodly.
- 11 There is sprung up a light for the righteous, *
and joyful gladness for such as are true-hearted.
- 12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; *
and give thanks for a remembrance of his holiness.

Cantate Domino

- 1 O sing unto the LORD a new song; *
for he hath done marvelous things.
- 2 With his own right hand, and with his holy arm, *
hath he gotten himself the victory.
- 3 The LORD declared his salvation; *
his righteousness hath he openly showed
in the sight of the heathen.
- 4 He hath remembered his mercy and truth
toward the house of Israel; *
and all the ends of the world have seen
the salvation of our God.
- 5 Show yourselves joyful unto the LORD, all ye lands; *
sing, rejoice, and give thanks.
- 6 Praise the LORD upon the harp; *
sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.
- 7 With trumpets also and shawms, *
O show yourselves joyful before the LORD, the King.
- 8 Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is; *
the round world, and they that dwell therein.
- 9 Let the floods clap their hands,
and let the hills be joyful together before the LORD; *
for he is come to judge the earth.
- 10 With righteousness shall he judge the world, *
and the peoples with equity.

99

Dominus regnavit

- 1 The LORD is King, be the people never so impatient; *
 he sitteth between the Cherubim,
 be the earth never so unquiet.
- 2 The LORD is great in Zion *
 and high above all people.
- 3 They shall give thanks unto thy Name,* which is great, wonderful, and holy.
- 4 The King's power loveth judgment;
thou hast prepared equity,*
 thou hast executed judgment and righteousness in Jacob.
- 5 O magnify the LORD our God,
and fall down before his footstool; *
 for he is holy.
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among such as call upon his Name: *
 these called upon the LORD, and he heard them.
- 7 He spake unto them out of the cloudy pillar; *
 for they kept his testimonies, and the law that he gave them.
- 8 Thou heardest them, O LORD our God; *
 thou forgavest them, O God,
 though thou didst punish their wicked doings.
- 9 O magnify the LORD our God,
and worship him upon his holy hill; *
 for the LORD our God is holy.

100

Jubilate Deo

- 1 O be joyful in the LORD, all ye lands; *
serve the LORD with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Be ye sure that the LORD he is God;
it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; *
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise; *
be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.
- 4 For the LORD is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; *
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

101

Misericordiam et judicium

- 1 My song shall be of mercy and judgment; *
unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.
- 2 O let me have understanding * in the way of godliness!
- 3 When wilt thou come unto me? *
I will walk in my house with a perfect heart.
- 4 I will take no wicked thing in hand;
I hate the sins of unfaithfulness; *
there shall no such cleave unto me.
- 5 A froward heart shall depart from me; *
I will not know a wicked person.
- 6 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbor, *
him will I destroy.
- 7 Whoso hath also a haughty look and a proud heart, *
I will not suffer him.

- 8 Mine eyes look upon such as are faithful in the land, *
 that they may dwell with me.
9 Whoso leadeth a godly life, *
 he shall be my servant.
10 There shall no deceitful person dwell in my house; *
 he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.
11 I shall soon destroy all the ungodly that are in the land; *
 that I may root out all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

DAY 20 : MORNING PRAYER

102

Domine, exaudi

- 1 Hear my prayer, O LORD, *
 and let my crying come unto thee.
2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble; *
 incline thine ear unto me when I call; O hear me,
 and that right soon.
3 For my days are consumed away like smoke, *
 and my bones are burnt up as it were a firebrand.
4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass; *
 so that I forget to eat my bread.
5 For the voice of my groaning, *
 my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.
6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness, *
 and like an owl that is in the desert.
7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow, * that sitteth alone upon the housetop.
8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long; *
 and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

- 9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread,*
and mingled my drink with weeping;
- 10 And that, because of thine indignation and wrath; *
for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.
- 11 My days are gone like a shadow,*
and I am withered like grass.
- 12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever,*
and thy remembrance throughout all generations.
- 13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion; *
for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea,
the time is come.
- 14 And why? thy servants think upon her stones,*
and it pitith them to see her in the dust.
- 15 The nations shall fear thy Name, O LORD; *
and all the kings of the earth thy majesty;
- 16 When the LORD shall build up Zion,*
and when his glory shall appear;
- 17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute,*
and despiseth not their desire.
- 18 This shall be written for those that come after,*
and the people which shall be born shall praise the LORD.
- 19 For he hath looked down from his sanctuary; *
out of the heaven did the LORD behold the earth;
- 20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are in captivity,*
and deliver them that are appointed unto death;
- 21 That they may declare the Name of the LORD in Zion,*
and his worship at Jerusalem;
- 22 When the peoples are gathered together,*
and the kingdoms also, to serve the LORD.
- 23 He brought down my strength in my journey,*
and shortened my days.
- 24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age; *
as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

- ²⁵ Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth, *
and the heavens are the work of thy hands.
- ²⁶ They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: *
they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
- ²⁷ And as a vesture shalt thou change them,
and they shall be changed; *
but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.
- ²⁸ The children of thy servants shall continue, *
and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

103

Benedic, anima mea

- ¹ Praise the LORD, O my soul; *
and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.
- ² Praise the LORD, O my soul, *
and forget not all his benefits:
- ³ Who forgiveth all thy sin, *
and healeth all thine infirmities;
- ⁴ Who saveth thy life from destruction, *
and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness;
- ⁵ Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things, *
making thee young and lusty as an eagle.
- ⁶ The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment *
for all them that are oppressed with wrong.
- ⁷ He showed his ways unto Moses, *
his works unto the children of Israel.
- ⁸ The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, *
long-suffering, and of great goodness.
- ⁹ He will not alway be chiding; *
neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

- ¹⁰ He hath not dealt with us after our sins; *
 nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses.
- ¹¹ For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth; *
 so great is his mercy also toward them that fear him.
- ¹² Look how wide also the east is from the west; *
 so far hath he set our sins from us.
- ¹³ Yea, like as a father pitith his own children; *
 even so is the L ORD merciful unto them that fear him.
- ¹⁴ For he knoweth whereof we are made; *
 he remembereth that we are but dust.
- ¹⁵ The days of man are but as grass; *
 for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.
- ¹⁶ For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone; *
 and the place thereof shall know it no more.
- ¹⁷ But the merciful goodness of the L ORD endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him; *
 and his righteousness upon children's children;
- ¹⁸ Even upon such as keep his covenant, *
 and think upon his commandments to do them.
- ¹⁹ The L ORD hath prepared his seat in heaven, *
 and his kingdom ruleth over all.
- ²⁰ O praise the L ORD, ye angels of his,
 ye that excel in strength; *
 ye that fulfil his commandment,
 and hearken unto the voice of his word.
- ²¹ O praise the L ORD, all ye his hosts; *
 ye servants of his that do his pleasure.
- ²² O speak good of the L ORD, all ye works of his,
 in all places of his dominion: *
 praise thou the L ORD, O my soul.

Benedic, anima mea

- ¹ Praise the LORD, O my soul: *
O LORD my God, thou art become exceeding glorious;
thou art clothed with majesty and honor.
- ² Thou deckest thyself with light as it were with a garment, *
and spreadest out the heavens like a curtain.
- ³ Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters, *
and maketh the clouds his chariot,
and walketh upon the wings of the wind.
- ⁴ He maketh his angels winds, * and his ministers a flaming fire.
- ⁵ He laid the foundations of the earth, *
that it never should move at any time.
- ⁶ Thou coveredst it with the deep like as with a garment; *
the waters stand above the hills.
- ⁷ At thy rebuke they flee; *
at the voice of thy thunder they haste away.
- ⁸ They go up as high as the hills,
and down to the valleys beneath; *
even unto the place which thou hast appointed for them.
- ⁹ Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not pass, *
neither turn again to cover the earth.
- ¹⁰ He sendeth the springs into the rivers, *
which run among the hills.
- ¹¹ All beasts of the field drink thereof, *
and the wild asses quench their thirst.
- ¹² Beside them shall the fowls of the air have their habitation, *
and sing among the branches.
- ¹³ He watereth the hills from above; *
the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.

- ¹⁴ He bringeth forth grass for the cattle,*
and green herb for the service of men;
- ¹⁵ That he may bring food out of the earth,
and wine that maketh glad the heart of man; *
and oil to make him a cheerful countenance,
and bread to strengthen man's heart.
- ¹⁶ The trees of the L ORD also are full of sap; *
even the cedars of Lebanon which he hath planted;
- ¹⁷ Wherein the birds make their nests; *
and the fir trees are a dwelling for the stork.
- ¹⁸ The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; *
and so are the stony rocks for the conies.
- ¹⁹ He appointed the moon for certain seasons, *
and the sun knoweth his going down.
- ²⁰ Thou makest darkness that it may be night; *
wherein all the beasts of the forest do move.
- ²¹ The lions, roaring after their prey, *
do seek their meat from God.
- ²² The sun ariseth, and they get them away together, *
and lay them down in their dens.
- ²³ Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labor, *
until the evening.
- ²⁴ O L ORD, how manifold are thy works! *
in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.
- ²⁵ So is the great and wide sea also; *
wherein are things creeping innumerable,
both small and great beasts.
- ²⁶ There go the ships, and there is that leviathan, *
whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.
- ²⁷ These wait all upon thee, *
that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

- ²⁸ When thou givest it them, they gather it; *
and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.
- ²⁹ When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: *
when thou takest away their breath, they die,
and are turned again to their dust.
- ³⁰ When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they shall be made; *
and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.
- ³¹ The glorious majesty of the L ORD shall endure for ever; *
the L ORD shall rejoice in his works.
- ³² The earth shall tremble at the look of him; *
if he do but touch the hills, they shall smoke.
- ³³ I will sing unto the L ORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- ³⁴ And so shall my words please him: *
my joy shall be in the L ORD.
- ³⁵ As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, *
and the ungodly shall come to an end.
- ³⁶ Praise thou the L ORD, O my soul. *
Praise the L ORD.

DAY 21 : MORNING PRAYER

105

Confitemini Domino

- ¹ O give thanks unto the L ORD, and call upon his Name; *
tell the people what things he hath done.
- ² O let your songs be of him, and praise him; *
and let your talking be of all his wondrous works.
- ³ Rejoice in his holy Name; *
let the heart of them rejoice that seek the L ORD.
- ⁴ Seek the L ORD and his strength; *
seek his face evermore.

- 5 Remember the marvellous works that he hath done; *
 his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
- 6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, *
 ye children of Jacob his chosen.
- 7 He is the LORD our God; *
 his judgments are in all the world.
- 8 He hath been alway mindful of his covenant and promise, * that he made to a thousand generations;
- 9 Even the covenant that he made with Abraham; *
 and the oath that he sware unto Isaac;
- 10 And appointed the same unto Jacob for a law, *
 and to Israel for an everlasting testament;
- 11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, *
 the lot of your inheritance:
- 12 When there were yet but a few of them, *
 and they strangers in the land;
- 13 What time as they went from one nation to another, *
 from one kingdom to another people;
- 14 He suffered no man to do them wrong, *
 but reproved even kings for their sakes;
- 15 Touch not mine anointed, *
 and do my prophets no harm.
- 16 Moreover, he called for a dearth upon the land, *
 and destroyed all the provision of bread.
- 17 But he had sent a man before them, *
 even Joseph, who was sold to be a bond-servant;
- 18 Whose feet they hurt in the stocks; *
 the iron entered into his soul;
- 19 Until the time came that his cause was known: *
 the word of the LORD tried him.
- 20 The king sent and delivered him; *
 the prince of the people let him go free.

- ²¹ He made him lord also of his house, *
and ruler of all his substance;
- ²² That he might inform his princes after his will, *
and teach his senators wisdom.
- ²³ Israel also came into Egypt, *
and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.
- ²⁴ And he increased his people exceedingly, *
and made them stronger than their enemies;
- ²⁵ Whose heart turned so, that they hated his people, *
and dealt untruly with his servants.
- ²⁶ Then sent he Moses his servant, *
and Aaron whom he had chosen.
- ²⁷ And these showed his tokens among them, *
and wonders in the land of Ham.
- ²⁸ He sent darkness, and it was dark; *
and they were not obedient unto his word.
- ²⁹ He turned their waters into blood * and slew their fish.
- ³⁰ Their land brought forth frogs; *
yea, even in their kings' chambers.
- ³¹ He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies, *
and lice in all their quarters.
- ³² He gave them hailstones for rain; *
and flames of fire in their land.
- ³³ He smote their vines also and fig-trees; *
and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.
- ³⁴ He spake the word, and the grasshoppers came,
and caterpillars innumerable, *
and did eat up all the grass in their land,
and devoured the fruit of their ground.
- ³⁵ He smote all the firstborn in their land, *
even the chief of all their strength.

- ³⁶ He brought them forth also with silver and gold; *
there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
- ³⁷ Egypt was glad at their departing; *
for they were afraid of them.
- ³⁸ He spread out a cloud to be a covering, *
and fire to give light in the night season.
- ³⁹ At their desire he brought quails; *
and he filled them with the bread of heaven.
- ⁴⁰ He opened the rock of stone, and the waters flowed out, *
so that rivers ran in the dry places.
- ⁴¹ For why? he remembered his holy promise; *
and Abraham his servant.
- ⁴² And he brought forth his people with joy, *
and his chosen with gladness;
- ⁴³ And gave them the lands of the heathen; *
and they took the labors of the people in possession;
- ⁴⁴ That they might keep his statutes, *
and observe his laws.

DAY 21 : EVENING PRAYER

106

Confitemini Domino

- ¹ O give thanks unto the L ORD; for he is gracious, *
and his mercy endureth for ever.
- ² Who can express the noble acts of the L ORD, *
or show forth all his praise?
- ³ Blessed are they that alway keep judgment, *
and do righteousness.
- ⁴ Remember me, O L ORD, according to the favor that thou bearest unto thy people; *
O visit me with thy salvation;

- 5 That I may see the felicity of thy chosen, * and rejoice in the gladness of thy people, and give thanks with thine inheritance.
- 6 We have sinned with our fathers; *
we have done amiss, and dealt wickedly.
- 7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt,
neither kept they thy great goodness in remembrance; *
but were disobedient at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
- 8 Nevertheless, he helped them for his Name's sake, *
that he might make his power to be known.
- 9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up; *
so he led them through the deep, as through a wilderness.
- 10 And he saved them from the adversary's hand, *
and delivered them from the hand of the enemy.
- 11 As for those that troubled them,
the waters overwhelmed them; *
there was not one of them left.
- 12 Then believed they his words, *
and sang praise unto him.
- 13 But within a while they forgat his works, *
and would not abide his counsel.
- 14 But lust came upon them in the wilderness, *
and they tempted God in the desert.
- 15 And he gave them their desire, *
and sent leanness withal into their soul.
- 16 They angered Moses also in the tents, *
and Aaron the saint of the L ORD.
- 17 So the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan, *
and covered the congregation of Abiram.
- 18 And the fire was kindled in their company; *
the flame burnt up the ungodly.
- 19 They made a calf in Horeb *
and worshiped the molten image.

- ²⁰ Thus they turned their glory *
 into the similitude of a calf that eateth hay.
- ²¹ And they forgat God their Savior,*
 who had done so great things in Egypt;
- ²² Wondrous works in the land of Ham; *
 and fearful things by the Red Sea.
- ²³ So he said he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap,*
 to turn away his wrathful indignation,
 lest he should destroy them.
- ²⁴ Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land, *
 and gave no credence unto his word;
- ²⁵ But murmured in their tents,*
 and hearkened not unto the voice of the L ORD.
- ²⁶ Then lift he up his hand against them,*
 to overthrow them in the wilderness;
- ²⁷ To cast out their seed among the nations,*
 and to scatter them in the lands.
- ²⁸ They joined themselves unto Baal-peor,*
 and ate the offerings of the dead.
- ²⁹ Thus they provoked him to anger with their own inventions; *
 and the plague was great among them.
- ³⁰ Then stood up Phineas, and interposed; *
 and so the plague ceased.
- ³¹ And that was counted unto him for righteousness,*
 among all posterities for evermore.
- ³² They angered him also at the waters of strife,*
 so that he punished Moses for their sakes;
- ³³ Because they provoked his spirit,*
 so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.
- ³⁴ Neither destroyed they the heathen,*
 as the L ORD commanded them;

- ³⁵ But were mingled among the heathen,*
and learned their works.
- ³⁶ Insomuch that they worshipped their idols,
which became a snare unto them; *
yea, they offered their sons and their daughters unto devils;
- ³⁷ And shed innocent blood,
even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,*
whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan;
and the land was defiled with blood.
- ³⁸ Thus were they stained with their own works,*
and went a whoring with their own inventions.
- ³⁹ Therefore was the wrath of the L ORD kindled against his people,*
insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.
- ⁴⁰ And he gave them over into the hand of the heathen; *
and they that hated them were lords over them.
- ⁴¹ Their enemies oppressed them,*
and had them in subjection.
- ⁴² Many a time did he deliver them; *
but they rebelled against him with their own inventions,
and were brought down in their wickedness.
- ⁴³ Nevertheless, when he saw their adversity,*
he heard their complaint.
- ⁴⁴ He thought upon his covenant, and pitied them,
according unto the multitude of his mercies; *
yea, he made all those that led them away captive to pity them.
- ⁴⁵ Deliver us, O L ORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen; *
that we may give thanks unto thy holy Name,
and make our boast of thy praise.
- ⁴⁶ Blessed be the L ORD God of Israel, from everlasting, and world without end; *
And let all the people say, Amen.

Confitemini Domino

- 1 O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is gracious,*
and his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let them give thanks whom the LORD hath redeemed,*
and delivered from the hand of the enemy;
- 3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east,
and from the west; *
from the north, and from the south.
- 4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way,*
and found no city to dwell in.
- 5 Hungry and thirsty,*
their soul fainted in them.
- 6 So they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,*
and he delivered them from their distress.
- 7 He led them forth by the right way,*
that they might go to the city where they dwelt.
- 8 O that men would therefore praise the LORD
for his goodness; *
and declare the wonders that he doeth
for the children of men!
- 9 For he satisfieth the empty soul,*
and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.
- 10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death,*
being fast bound in misery and iron;
- 11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord,*
and lightly regarded the counsel of the Most Highest;
- 12 He also brought down their heart through heaviness: *
they fell down, and there was none to help them.
- 13 So when they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,*
he delivered them out of their distress.

- ¹⁴ For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death,*
and brake their bonds in sunder.
- ¹⁵ O that men would therefore praise the L ORD
for his goodness; *
and declare the wonders that he doeth
for the children of men!
- ¹⁶ For he hath broken the gates of brass,*
and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.
- ¹⁷ Foolish men are plagued for their offense,*
and because of their wickedness.
- ¹⁸ Their soul abhorred all manner of meat,*
and they were even hard at death's door.
- ¹⁹ So when they cried unto the L ORD in their trouble,*
he delivered them out of their distress.
- ²⁰ He sent his word, and healed them; *
and they were saved from their destruction.
- ²¹ O that men would therefore praise the L ORD
for his goodness; *
and declare the wonders that he doeth
for the children of men!
- ²² That they would offer unto him
the sacrifice of thanksgiving,*
and tell out his works with gladness!
- ²³ They that go down to the sea in ships,*
and occupy their business in great waters;
- ²⁴ These men see the works of the L ORD,*
and his wonders in the deep.
- ²⁵ For at his word the stormy wind ariseth,*
which lifteth up the waves thereof.
- ²⁶ They are carried up to the heaven,
and down again to the deep; *
their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

- ²⁷ They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, *
and are at their wit's end.
- ²⁸ So when they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, *
he delivereth them out of their distress.
- ²⁹ For he maketh the storm to cease, *
so that the waves thereof are still.
- ³⁰ Then are they glad, because they are at rest; *
and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.
- ³¹ O that men would therefore praise the LORD
for his goodness; *
and declare the wonders that he doeth
for the children of men!
- ³² That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people, *
and praise him in the seat of the elders!
- ³³ He turneth the floods into a wilderness, *
and drieth up the water springs.
- ³⁴ A fruitful land maketh he barren, *
for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
- ³⁵ Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing water, *
and water springs of a dry ground.
- ³⁶ And there he setteth the hungry, *
that they may build them a city to dwell in;
- ³⁷ That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards, *
to yield them fruits of increase.
- ³⁸ He blesseth them, so that they multiply exceedingly; *
and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
- ³⁹ And again, when they are diminished and brought low * through oppression, through any plague or trouble;
- ⁴⁰ Though he suffer them to be evil entreated through tyrants, * and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness;
- ⁴¹ Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery, *
and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.
- ⁴² The righteous will consider this, and rejoice; *
and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.

⁴³ Whoso is wise, will ponder these things; *
and they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

DAY 22 : EVENING PRAYER

108

Paratum cor meum

- ¹ O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready; *
I will sing, and give praise with the best member that I have.
- ² Awake, thou lute and harp; *
I myself will awake right early.
- ³ I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the peoples; *
I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
- ⁴ For thy mercy is greater than the heavens, *
and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.
- ⁵ Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens, *
and thy glory above all the earth;
- ⁶ That thy beloved may be delivered: *
let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.
- ⁷ God hath spoken in his holiness; *
I will rejoice therefore, and divide Shechem,
and mete out the valley of Succoth.
- ⁸ Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; *
Ephraim also is the strength of my head;
Judah is my lawgiver;
- ⁹ Moab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; *
upon Philistia will I triumph.
- ¹⁰ Who will lead me into the strong city? *
and who will bring me into Edom?
- ¹¹ Hast thou not forsaken us, O God? *
and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?
- ¹² O help us against the enemy, *
for vain is the help of man.
- ¹³ Through God we shall do great acts, *
and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

109

Deus, laudem

- 1 Hold not thy tongue, O God of my praise; *
for the mouth of the ungodly, yea,
the mouth of the deceitful is opened upon me.
- 2 And they have spoken against me with false tongues; *
they compassed me about also with words of hatred,
and fought against me without a cause.
- 3 For the love that I had unto them, lo, they take now my contrary part; *
but I give myself unto prayer.
- 4 Thus have they rewarded me evil for good, *
and hatred for my good will.
- 5 Set thou an ungodly man to be ruler over him, *
and let an adversary stand at his right hand.
- 6 When sentence is given upon him, let him be condemned; *
and let his prayer be turned into sin.
- 7 Let his days be few; *
and let another take his office.
- 8 Let his children be fatherless, *
and his wife a widow.
- 9 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg their bread; *
let them seek it also out of desolate places.
- 10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath; *
and let the stranger spoil his labor.
- 11 Let there be no man to pity him, *
nor to have compassion upon his fatherless children.
- 12 Let his posterity be destroyed; *
and in the next generation let his name be clean put out.

- ¹³ Let the wickedness of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the LORD; *
and let not the sin of his mother be done away.
- ¹⁴ Let them alway be before the LORD, *
that he may root out the memorial of them
from off the earth;
- ¹⁵ And that, because his mind was not to do good; *
but persecuted the poor helpless man,
that he might slay him that was vexed at the heart.
- ¹⁶ His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen unto him; *
he loved not blessing, therefore shall it be far from him.
- ¹⁷ He clothed himself with cursing like as with a raiment, *
and it shall come into his bowels like water,
and like oil into his bones.
- ¹⁸ Let it be unto him as the cloak that he hath upon him, *
and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.
- ¹⁹ Let it thus happen from the LORD unto mine enemies, *
and to those that speak evil against my soul.
- ²⁰ But deal thou with me, O LORD God,
according unto thy Name; *
for sweet is thy mercy.
- ²¹ O deliver me, for I am helpless and poor, *
and my heart is wounded within me.
- ²² I go hence like the shadow that departeth, *
and am driven away as the grasshopper.
- ²³ My knees are weak through fasting; *
my flesh is dried up for want of fatness.
- ²⁴ I am become also a reproach unto them: *
they that look upon me shake their heads.
- ²⁵ Help me, O LORD my God; *
O save me according to thy mercy;
- ²⁶ And they shall know how that this is thy hand, *
and that thou, LORD, hast done it.

- ²⁷ Though they curse, yet bless thou; *
and let them be confounded that rise up against me;
but let thy servant rejoice.
- ²⁸ Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame; *
and let them cover themselves with their own confusion,
as with a cloak.
- ²⁹ As for me, I will give great thanks unto the L ORD with my mouth, *
and praise him among the multitude;
- ³⁰ For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, *
to save his soul from unrighteous judges.

DAY 23 : MORNING PRAYER

110

Dixit Dominus

- ¹ The L ORD said unto my Lord, *
Sit thou on my right hand,
until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
- ² The L ORD shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion: *
be thou ruler, even in the midst among thine enemies.
- ³ In the day of thy power shall thy people offer themselves willingly with an holy worship: *
thy young men come to thee as dew from the womb of the morning.
- ⁴ The L ORD sware, and will not repent, *
Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
- ⁵ The Lord upon thy right hand * shall wound even kings in the day of his wrath.
- ⁶ He shall judge among the heathen; *
he shall fill the places with the dead bodies,
and smite in sunder the heads over divers countries.
- ⁷ He shall drink of the brook in the way; *
therefore shall he lift up his head.

111

Confitebor tibi

- ¹ I will give thanks unto the LORD with my whole heart,* secretly among the faithful, and in the congregation.
- ² The works of the LORD are great,*
sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
- ³ His work is worthy to be praised and had in honour,*
and his righteousness endureth for ever.
- ⁴ The merciful and gracious LORD hath so done his marvellous works,*
that they ought to be had in remembrance.
- ⁵ He hath given meat unto them that fear him; *
he shall ever be mindful of his covenant.
- ⁶ He hath showed his people the power of his works,*
that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.
- ⁷ The works of his hands are verity and judgment; *
all his commandments are true.
- ⁸ They stand fast for ever and ever,*
and are done in truth and equity.
- ⁹ He sent redemption unto his people; *
he hath commanded his covenant for ever;
holy and reverend is his Name.
- ¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; *
a good understanding have all they that do thereafter;
his praise endureth for ever.

112

Beatus vir

- ¹ Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD; *
he hath great delight in his commandments.

- 2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth; *
the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.
- 3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house; *
and his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness; *
he is merciful, loving, and righteous.
- 5 A good man is merciful, and lendeth; *
and will guide his words with discretion.
- 6 For he shall never be moved: *
and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings; *
for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the L ORD.
- 8 His heart is stablished, and will not shrink, *
until he see his desire upon his enemies.
- 9 He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor, *
and his righteousness remaineth for ever;
his horn shall be exalted with honor.
- 10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him; *
he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away;
the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Laudate, pueri

- 1 Praise the L ORD, ye servants; *
O praise the Name of the L ORD.
- 2 Blessed be the Name of the L ORD *
from this time forth for evermore.
- 3 The L ORD's Name is praised * from the rising up of the sun unto the going down
of the same.
- 4 The L ORD is high above all nations, *
and his glory above the heavens.

- 5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, that hath his dwelling so high,*
and yet humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and earth!
- 6 He taketh up the simple out of the dust,*
and lifteth the poor out of the mire;
- 7 That he may set him with the princes,*
even with the princes of his people.
- 8 He maketh the barren woman to keep house,*
and to be a joyful mother of children.

DAY 23 : EVENING PRAYER

114

In exitu Israel

- 1 When Israel came out of Egypt,*
and the house of Jacob from among the strange people,
- 2 Judah was his sanctuary,*
and Israel his dominion.
- 3 The sea saw that, and fled; *
Jordan was driven back.
- 4 The mountains skipped like rams,*
and the little hills like young sheep.
- 5 What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? *
and thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?
- 6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams? *
and ye little hills, like young sheep?
- 7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord: *
at the presence of the God of Jacob;
- 8 Who turned the hard rock into a standing water,*
and the flint-stone into a springing well.

115

Non nobis, Domine

- 1 Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy Name give the praise; *
for thy loving mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
- 2 Wherefore shall the heathen say,*
Where is now their God?
- 3 As for our God, he is in heaven: *
he hath done whatsoever pleased him.
- 4 Their idols are silver and gold, *
even the work of men's hands.
- 5 They have mouths, and speak not; *
eyes have they, and see not.
- 6 They have ears, and hear not; *
noses have they, and smell not.
- 7 They have hands, and handle not;
feet have they, and walk not; *
neither speak they through their throat.
- 8 They that make them are like unto them; *
and so are all such as put their trust in them.
- 9 But thou, house of Israel, trust thou in the LORD; *
he is their helper and defender.
- 10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the LORD; *
he is their helper and defender.
- 11 Ye that fear the LORD, put your trust in the LORD; *
he is their helper and defender.
- 12 The LORD hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us; *
even he shall bless the house of Israel,
he shall bless the house of Aaron.
- 13 He shall bless them that fear the LORD, *
both small and great.

- ¹⁴ The LORD shall increase you more and more,*
 you and your children.
- ¹⁵ Ye are the blessed of the LORD,*
 who made heaven and earth.
- ¹⁶ All the whole heavens are the LORD's; *
 the earth hath he given to the children of men.
- ¹⁷ The dead praise not thee, O LORD,*
 neither all they that go down into silence.
- ¹⁸ But we will praise the LORD,*
 from this time forth for evermore. Praise the LORD.

DAY 24 : MORNING PRAYER

116

Dilexi, quoniam

- ¹ My delight is in the LORD; *
 because he hath heard the voice of my prayer;
- ² Because he hath inclined his ear unto me; *
 therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
- ³ The snares of death compassed me round about,*
 and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.
- ⁴ I found trouble and heaviness;
then called I upon the Name of the LORD; *
 O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.
- ⁵ Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; *
 yea, our God is merciful.
- ⁶ The LORD preserveth the simple: *
 I was in misery, and he helped me.
- ⁷ Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul; *
 for the LORD hath rewarded thee.
- ⁸ And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death,*
 mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

- ⁹ I will walk before the LORD *
 in the land of the living.
- ¹⁰ I believed, and therefore will I speak; but I was sore troubled: *
 I said in my haste, All men are liars.
- ¹¹ What reward shall I give unto the LORD *
 for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?
- ¹² I will receive the cup of salvation, *
 and call upon the Name of the LORD.
- ¹³ I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: *
 right dear in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.
- ¹⁴ Behold, O LORD, how that I am thy servant; *
 I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid;
 thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.
- ¹⁵ I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, *
 and will call upon the Name of the LORD.
- ¹⁶ I will pay my vows unto the LORD,
 in the sight of all his people, *
 in the courts of the LORD's house;
 even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the LORD.

117

Laudate Dominum

- ¹ O praise the LORD, all ye nations; *
 praise him, all ye peoples.
- ² For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us; *
 and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever.
 Praise the LORD.

118

Confitemini Domino

- 1 O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is gracious; *
because his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now confess that he is gracious, *
and that his mercy endureth for ever.
- 3 Let the house of Aaron now confess, *
that his mercy endureth for ever.
- 4 Yea, let them now that fear the LORD confess, *
that his mercy endureth for ever.
- 5 I called upon the LORD in trouble; *
and the LORD heard me at large.
- 6 The LORD is on my side; *
I will not fear what man doeth unto me.
- 7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me; *
therefore shall I see my desire upon mine enemies.
- 8 It is better to trust in the LORD, *
than to put any confidence in man.
- 9 It is better to trust in the LORD, *
than to put any confidence in princes.
- 10 All nations compassed me round about; *
but in the Name of the LORD will I destroy them.
- 11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in, I say, on every side; *
but in the Name of the LORD will I destroy them.
- 12 They came about me like bees,
and are extinct even as the fire among the thorns; *
for in the Name of the LORD I will destroy them.
- 13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall; *
but the LORD was my help.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and my song; *
and is become my salvation.

- ¹⁵ The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous; *
the right hand of the LORD bringeth mighty things to pass.
- ¹⁶ The right hand of the LORD hath the preeminence; *
the right hand of the LORD bringeth mighty things to pass.
- ¹⁷ I shall not die, but live, *
and declare the works of the LORD.
- ¹⁸ The LORD hath chastened and corrected me; *
but he hath not given me over unto death.
- ¹⁹ Open me the gates of righteousness, * that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the LORD.
- ²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD, *
the righteous shall enter into it.
- ²¹ I will thank thee; for thou hast heard me, *
and art become my salvation.
- ²² The same stone which the builders refused, *
is become the head-stone in the corner.
- ²³ This is the LORD's doing, *
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- ²⁴ This is the day which the LORD hath made; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.
- ²⁵ Help me now, O LORD: *
O LORD, send us now prosperity.
- ²⁶ Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the LORD: *
we have wished you good luck,
we that are of the house of the LORD.
- ²⁷ God is the LORD, who hath showed us light: *
bind the sacrifice with cords,
yea, even unto the horns of the altar.
- ²⁸ Thou art my God, and I will thank thee; *
thou art my God, and I will praise thee.
- ²⁹ O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is gracious, *
and his mercy endureth for ever.

ALEPH

- ¹ Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way,*
and walk in the law of the LORD.
- ² Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,*
and seek him with their whole heart;
- ³ Even they who do no wickedness,*
and walk in his ways.
- ⁴ Thou hast charged * that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.
- ⁵ O that my ways were made so direct,*
that I might keep thy statutes!
- ⁶ So shall I not be confounded,*
while I have respect unto all thy commandments.
- ⁷ I will thank thee with an unfeigned heart,*
when I shall have learned the judgments of thy righteousness.
- ⁸ I will keep thy statutes; *
O forsake me not utterly.

HE

- ³³ Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes,* and I shall keep it unto the end.
- ³⁴ Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; *
yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.
- ³⁵ Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; *
for therein is my desire.
- ³⁶ Incline my heart unto thy testimonies,*
and not to covetousness.
- ³⁷ O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity; *
and quicken thou me in thy way.
- ³⁸ O stablish thy word in thy servant,*
that I may fear thee.
- ³⁹ Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of; *
for thy judgments are good.

yet have I not shranked from thy law.

 in the house of my pilgrimage.
⁵⁵ I have thought upon thy Name, O LORD, in the night season,*
 and have kept thy law.
⁵⁶ This I had,*
 because I kept thy commandments.

Portio mea, Domine

HETH

- ⁵⁷ Thou art my portion, O LORD;*
 I have promised to keep thy law.
⁵⁸ I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart;*
 O be merciful unto me, according to thy word.
⁵⁹ I called mine own ways to remembrance,*
 and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
⁶⁰ I made haste, and prolonged not the time,*
 to keep thy commandments.
⁶¹ The snares of the ungodly have compassed me about;*
 but I have not forgotten thy law.
⁶² At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee,*
 because of thy righteous judgments.
⁶³ I am a companion of all them that fear thee,*
 and keep thy commandments.
⁶⁴ The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: *
 O teach me thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecisti

TETH

- ⁶⁵ O LORD, thou hast dealt graciously with thy servant,*
 according unto thy word.
⁶⁶ O teach me true understanding and knowledge; *
 for I have believed thy commandments.

- 67 Before I was troubled, I went wrong; *
 but now have I kept thy word.
- 68 Thou art good and gracious; *
 O teach me thy statutes.
- 69 The proud have imagined a lie against me; *
 but I will keep thy commandments with my whole heart.
- 70 Their heart is as fat as brawn; *
 but my delight hath been in thy law.
- 71 It is good for me that I have been in trouble; *
 that I may learn thy statutes.
- 72 The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me * than thousands of gold and silver.

DAY 25 : EVENING PRAYER

Manus tua fecerunt me

YODH

- 73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: *
 O give me understanding,
 that I may learn thy commandments.
- 74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; *
 because I have put my trust in thy word.
- 75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, *
 and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.
- 76 O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort, *
 according to thy word unto thy servant.
- 77 O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live; *
 for thy law is my delight.
- 78 Let the proud be confounded,
 for they go wickedly about to destroy me; *
 but I will be occupied in thy commandments.
- 79 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy testimonies, *
 be turned unto me.

⁸⁰ O let my heart be sound in thy statutes,*
that I be not ashamed.

Defecit anima mea

KAPH

- ⁸¹ My soul hath longed for thy salvation,*
and I have a good hope because of thy word.
⁸² Mine eyes long sore for thy word; *
saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?
⁸³ For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; *
yet do I not forget thy statutes.
⁸⁴ How many are the days of thy servant? *
when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me?
⁸⁵ The proud have digged pits for me, *
which are not after thy law.
⁸⁶ All thy commandments are true: *
they persecute me falsely; O be thou my help.
⁸⁷ They had almost made an end of me upon earth; *
but I forsook not thy commandments.
⁸⁸ O quicken me after thy loving-kindness; *
and so shall I keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

- ⁸⁹ O LORD, thy word *
endureth for ever in heaven.
⁹⁰ Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another; *
thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.
⁹¹ They continue this day according to thine ordinance; *
for all things serve thee.
⁹² If my delight had not been in thy law, *
I should have perished in my trouble.
⁹³ I will never forget thy commandments; *
for with them thou hast quickened me.

- ⁹⁴ I am thine: O save me, *
 for I have sought thy commandments.
⁹⁵ The ungodly laid wait for me, to destroy me; *
 but I will consider thy testimonies.
⁹⁶ I see that all things come to an end; *
 but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi!

M E M

- ⁹⁷ Lord, what love have I unto thy law! *
 all the day long is my study in it.
⁹⁸ Thou, through thy commandments, hast made me wiser than mine enemies; *
 for they are ever with me.
⁹⁹ I have more understanding than my teachers; *
 for thy testimonies are my study.
¹⁰⁰ I am wiser than the aged; *
 because I keep thy commandments.
¹⁰¹ I have refrained my feet from every evil way, *
 that I may keep thy word.
¹⁰² I have not shrunk from thy judgments; *
 for thou teachest me.
¹⁰³ O how sweet are thy words unto my throat; *
 yea, sweeter than honey unto my mouth!
¹⁰⁴ Through thy commandments I get understanding: *
 therefore I hate all evil ways.

DAY 26 : MORNING PRAYER

Lucerna pedibus meis

NUN

- ¹⁰⁵ Thy word is a lantern unto my feet, *
 and a light unto my paths.

- ¹⁰⁶ I have sworn, and am steadfastly purposed, *
 to keep thy righteous judgments.
- ¹⁰⁷ I am troubled above measure: *
 quicken me, O LORD, according to thy word.
- ¹⁰⁸ Let the free-will offerings of my mouth please thee, O LORD; *
 and teach me thy judgments.
- ¹⁰⁹ My soul is alway in my hand; *
 yet do I not forget thy law.
- ¹¹⁰ The ungodly have laid a snare for me; *
 but yet I swerved not from thy commandments.
- ¹¹¹ Thy testimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever; *
 and why? they are the very joy of my heart.
- ¹¹² I have applied my heart to fulfil thy statutes alway, even unto the end.

- ¹¹³ I hate them that imagine evil things; *
 but thy law do I love.
- ¹¹⁴ Thou art my defense and shield; *
 and my trust is in thy word.
- ¹¹⁵ Away from me, ye wicked; *
 I will keep the commandments of my God.
- ¹¹⁶ O stablish me according to thy word, that I may live; *
 and let me not be disappointed of my hope.
- ¹¹⁷ Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe; *
 yea, my delight shall be ever in thy statutes.
- ¹¹⁸ Thou hast trodden down all them that depart from thy statutes; *
 for they imagine but deceit.
- ¹¹⁹ Thou puttest away all the ungodly of the earth like dross; *
 therefore I love thy testimonies.
- ¹²⁰ My flesh trembleth for fear of thee,
 and I am afraid of thy judgments.

- ¹²¹ I deal with the thing that is lawful and right; *
 O give me not over unto mine oppressors.
- ¹²² Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good, *
 that the proud do me no wrong.
- ¹²³ Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health, *
 and for the word of thy righteousness.
- ¹²⁴ O deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy, *
 and teach me thy statutes.
- ¹²⁵ I am thy servant; O grant me understanding, * that I may know thy testimonies.
- ¹²⁶ It is time for thee, LORD, to lay to thine hand; *
 for they have destroyed thy law.
- ¹²⁷ For I love thy commandments * above gold and precious stones.
- ¹²⁸ Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments; *
 and all false ways I utterly abhor.

- ¹²⁹ Thy testimonies are wonderful; *
 therefore doth my soul keep them.
- ¹³⁰ When thy word goeth forth, *
 it giveth light and understanding unto the simple.
- ¹³¹ I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath; *
 for my delight was in thy commandments.
- ¹³² O look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, * as thou usest to do unto those that love thy Name.
- ¹³³ Order my steps in thy word; *
 and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.
- ¹³⁴ O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men; *
 and so shall I keep thy commandments.

¹³⁵ Show the light of thy countenance upon thy servant,*
and teach me thy statutes.

¹³⁶ Mine eyes gush out with water,*
because men keep not thy law.

¹³⁹ My zeal hath even consumed me; *
because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

¹⁴⁰ Thy word is tried to the uttermost,*
and thy servant loveth it.

¹⁴¹ I am small and of no reputation; *
yet do I not forget thy commandments.

¹⁴² Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,* and thy law is the truth.

¹⁴³ Trouble and heaviness have taken hold upon me; *
yet is my delight in thy commandments.

¹⁴⁴ The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: *
O grant me understanding, and I shall live.

 that I might be occupied in thy word.
149 Hear my voice, O LORD, according unto thy loving-kindness; *
 quicken me, according to thy judgments.
150 They draw nigh that of malice persecute me, *
 and are far from thy law.
151 Be thou nigh at hand, O LORD; *
 for all thy commandments are true.
152 As concerning thy testimonies, I have known long since, *
 that thou hast grounded them for ever.

 for they regard not thy statutes.
156 Great is thy mercy, O LORD; *
 quicken me, as thou art wont.
157 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me; *
 yet do I not swerve from thy testimonies.
158 It grieveth me when I see the transgressors; *
 because they keep not thy law.
159 Consider, O LORD, how I love thy commandments; *
 O quicken me, according to thy loving-kindness.

DAY 27 : MORNING PRAYER

120

Ad Dominum

- ¹ When I was in trouble, I called upon the LORD, *
and he heard me.
- ² Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, *
and from a deceitful tongue.
- ³ What reward shall be given or done unto thee,
thou false tongue? *
even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals.
- ⁴ Woe is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Meshech, *
and to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar!
- ⁵ My soul hath long dwelt among them *
that are enemies unto peace.
- ⁶ I labor for peace; but when I speak unto them thereof, *
they make them ready to battle.

121

Levavi oculos

- ¹ I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills; *
from whence cometh my help?
- ² My help cometh even from the LORD, *
who hath made heaven and earth.
- ³ He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; *
and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

- 4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel *
 shall neither slumber nor sleep.
- 5 The LORD himself is thy keeper; *
 the LORD is thy defense upon thy right hand;
- 6 So that the sun shall not burn thee by day,*
 neither the moon by night.
- 7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil; *
 yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.
- 8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in, *
 from this time forth for evermore.

122

Lætatus sum

- 1 I was glad when they said unto me, *
 We will go into the house of the LORD.
- 2 Our feet shall stand in thy gates, *
 O Jerusalem.
- 3 Jerusalem is built as a city * that is at unity in itself.
- 4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the LORD, *
 to testify unto Israel,
 to give thanks unto the Name of the LORD.
- 5 For there is the seat of judgment, *
 even the seat of the house of David.
- 6 O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; *
 they shall prosper that love thee.
- 7 Peace be within thy walls, *
 and plenteousness within thy palaces.
- 8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, *
 I will wish thee prosperity.
- 9 Yea, because of the house of the LORD our God, *
 I will seek to do thee good.

123

Ad te levavi oculos meos

- 1 Unto thee lift I up mine eyes,*
 O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
- 2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress,*
 even so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God,
 until he have mercy upon us.
- 3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us; *
 for we are utterly despised.
- 4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy,*
 and with the despitefulness of the proud.

124

Nisi quia Dominus

- 1 If the LORD himself had not been on our side,
 now may Israel say; *
 if the LORD himself had not been on our side,
 when men rose up against us;
- 2 They had swallowed us up alive; *
 when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.
- 3 Yea, the waters had drowned us,*
 and the stream had gone over our soul.
- 4 The deep waters of the proud * had gone even over our soul.
- 5 But praised be the LORD,*
 who hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth.
- 6 Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler; *
 the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

- ⁷ Our help standeth in the Name of the LORD,*
who hath made heaven and earth.

125

Qui confidunt

- ¹ They that put their trust in the LORD shall be even as the mount Zion,*
which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.
- ² The hills stand about Jerusalem;*
even so standeth the LORD round about his people,
from this time forth for evermore.
- ³ For the sceptre of the ungodly shall not abide upon the lot of the righteous;*
lest the righteous put their hand unto wickedness.
- ⁴ Do well, O LORD,*
unto those that are good and true of heart.
- ⁵ As for such as turn back unto their own wickedness,*
the LORD shall lead them forth with the evil doers;
but peace shall be upon Israel.

DAY 27 : EVENING PRAYER

126

In convertendo

- ¹ When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion,*
then were we like unto them that dream.
- ² Then was our mouth filled with laughter,*
and our tongue with joy.
- ³ Then said they among the heathen,*
The LORD hath done great things for them.

- 4 Yea, the LORD hath done great things for us already; *
whereof we rejoice.
- 5 Turn our captivity, O LORD,*
as the rivers in the south.
- 6 They that sow in tears *
shall reap in joy.
- 7 He that now goeth on his way weeping,
and beareth forth good seed,*
shall doubtless come again with joy,
and bring his sheaves with him.

127

Nisi Dominus

- 1 Except the LORD build the house, *
their labour is but lost that build it.
- 2 Except the LORD keep the city,*
the watchman waketh but in vain.
- 3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early,
and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness; *
for so he giveth his beloved sleep.
- 4 Lo, children, and the fruit of the womb,*
are an heritage and gift that cometh of the LORD.
- 5 Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant,*
even so are the young children.
- 6 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them; *
they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128

Beati omnes

- 1 Blessed are all they that fear the LORD,*
and walk in his ways.
- 2 For thou shalt eat the labors of thine hands: *
O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.
- 3 Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine *
upon the walls of thine house;
- 4 Thy children like the olive branches *
round about thy table.
- 5 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed * that feareth the LORD.
- 6 The LORD from out of Zion shall so bless thee,* that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long;
- 7 Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children,*
and peace upon Israel.

129

Sæpe expugnaverunt

- 1 Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up,*
may Israel now say;
- 2 Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up; *
but they have not prevailed against me.
- 3 The plowers plowed upon my back,*
and made long furrows.
- 4 But the righteous LORD *
hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.
- 5 Let them be confounded and turned backward,*
as many as have evil will at Zion.
- 6 Let them be even as the grass upon the housetops,*
which withereth afore it be grown up,

- 7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand,*
 neither he that bindeth up the sheaves his bosom.
8 So that they who go by say not so much as,
 The LORD prosper you; *
 we wish you good luck in the Name of the LORD.

130

De profundis

- 1 Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O LORD; *
 Lord, hear my voice.
2 O let thine ears consider well *
 the voice of my complaint.
3 If thou, LORD, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, *
 O Lord, who may abide it?
4 For there is mercy with thee; *
 therefore shalt thou be feared.
5 I look for the LORD; my soul doth wait for him; *
 in his word is my trust.
6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord before the morning watch; *
 I say, before the morning watch.
7 O Israel, trust in the LORD; for with the LORD there is mercy, * and with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he shall redeem Israel *
 from all his sins.

131

Domine, non est

- 1 LORD, I am not high-minded; *
 I have no proud looks.
2 I do not exercise myself in great matters * which are too high for me.

- ³ But I refrain my soul, and keep it low,
like as a child that is weaned from his mother: *
 yea, my soul is even as a weaned child.
⁴ O Israel, trust in the LORD *
 from this time forth for evermore.

DAY 28 : MORNING PRAYER

132

Memento, Domine

- ¹ LORD, remember David, *
 and all his trouble:
² How he sware unto the LORD, *
 and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob:
³ I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house, *
 nor climb up into my bed;
⁴ I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep,
 nor mine eyelids to slumber; *
 neither the temples of my head to take any rest;
⁵ Until I find out a place for the temple of the LORD; *
 an habitation for the Mighty God of Jacob.
⁶ Lo, we heard of the same at Ephratah, *
 and found it in the wood.
⁷ We will go into his tabernacle, *
 and fall low on our knees before his footstool.
⁸ Arise, O LORD, into thy resting-place; *
 thou, and the ark of thy strength.
⁹ Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; *
 and let thy saints sing with joyfulness.
¹⁰ For thy servant David's sake, *
 turn not away the face of thine anointed.
¹¹ The LORD hath made a faithful oath unto David, *
 and he shall not shrink from it:

- ¹² Of the fruit of thy body *
 shall I set upon thy throne.
- ¹³ If thy children will keep my covenant,
 and my testimonies that I shall teach them; *
 their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.
- ¹⁴ For the LORd hath chosen Zion to be an habitation for himself; *
 he hath longed for her.
- ¹⁵ This shall be my rest for ever: *
 here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.
- ¹⁶ I will bless her victuals with increase, *
 and will satisfy her poor with bread.
- ¹⁷ I will deck her priests with health, *
 and her saints shall rejoice and sing.
- ¹⁸ There shall I make the horn of David to flourish: *
 I have ordained a lantern for mine anointed.
- ¹⁹ As for his enemies, I shall clothe them with shame; *
 but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

133

Ecce, quam bonum!

- ¹ Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is, *
 for brethren to dwell together in unity!
- ² It is like the precious oil upon the head,
 that ran down unto the beard, *
 even unto Aaron's beard,
 and went down to the skirts of his clothing.
- ³ Like as the dew of Hermon, *
 which fell upon the hill of Zion.
- ⁴ For there the LORd promised his blessing, *
 and life for evermore.

134

Ecce nunc

- 1 Behold now, praise the LORD,*
 all ye servants of the LORD;
- 2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the LORD,*
 even in the courts of the house of our God.
- 3 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,*
 and praise the LORD.
- 4 The LORD that made heaven and earth *
 give thee blessing out of Zion.

135

Laudate Nomen

- 1 O praise the LORD, laud ye the Name of the LORD; *
 praise it, O ye servants of the LORD;
- 2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD,*
 in the courts of the house of our God.
- 3 O praise the LORD, for the LORD is gracious; *
 O sing praises unto his Name, for it is lovely.
- 4 For why? the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself,*
 and Israel for his own possession.
- 5 For I know that the LORD is great,*
 and that our Lord is above all gods.
- 6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven,
 and in earth; *
 and in the sea, and in all deep places.
- 7 He bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world,*
 and sendeth forth lightnings with the rain,
 bringing the winds out of his treasures.
- 8 He smote the firstborn of Egypt,*
 both of man and beast.

- ⁹ He hath sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee,
O thou land of Egypt; *
 upon Pharaoh, and all his servants.
- ¹⁰ He smote divers nations, *
 and slew mighty kings:
- ¹¹ Sihon, king of the Amorites; and Og, the king of Bashan; *
 and all the kingdoms of Canaan;
- ¹² And gave their land to be an heritage, *
 even an heritage unto Israel his people.
- ¹³ Thy Name, O LORD, endureth for ever; *
 so doth thy memorial, O LORD,
 from one generation to another.
- ¹⁴ For the LORD will avenge his people, *
 and be gracious unto his servants.
- ¹⁵ As for the images of the heathen, they are but silver and gold; *
 the work of men's hands.
- ¹⁶ They have mouths, and speak not; *
 eyes have they, but they see not.
- ¹⁷ They have ears, and yet they hear not; *
 neither is there any breath in their mouths.
- ¹⁸ They that make them are like unto them; *
 and so are all they that put their trust in them.
- ¹⁹ Praise the LORD, ye house of Israel; *
 praise the LORD, ye house of Aaron.
- ²⁰ Praise the LORD, ye house of Levi; *
 ye that fear the LORD, praise the LORD.
- ²¹ Praised be the LORD out of Zion, *
 who dwelleth at Jerusalem.

- ⁸ The sun to rule the day: *
for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ⁹ The moon and the stars to govern the night: *
for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ¹⁰ Who smote Egypt, with their firstborn: *
for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ¹¹ And brought out Israel from among them: *
for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ¹² With a mighty hand and stretched-out arm: *
for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ¹³ Who divided the Red Sea in two parts: *
for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ¹⁴ And made Israel to go through the midst of it: *
for his mercy endureth for ever.

- ¹⁵ But as for Pharaoh and his host,
he overthrew them in the Red Sea: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ¹⁶ Who led his people through the wilderness: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ¹⁷ Who smote great kings: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ¹⁸ Yea, and slew mighty kings: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever:
- ¹⁹ Sihon, king of the Amorites: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ²⁰ And Og, the king of Bashan: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ²¹ And gave away their land for an heritage: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ²² Even for an heritage unto Israel his servant: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ²³ Who remembered us when we were in trouble: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever;
- ²⁴ And hath delivered us from our enemies: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ²⁵ Who giveth food to all flesh: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ²⁶ O give thanks unto the God of heaven: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.
- ²⁷ O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: *
 for his mercy endureth for ever.

137

Super flumina

- ¹ By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, *
when we remembered thee, O Zion.

- 2 As for our harps, we hanged them up * upon the trees that are therein.
- 3 For they that led us away captive, required of us then a song,
and melody in our heaviness: *
 Sing us one of the songs of Zion.
- 4 How shall we sing the L ORD's song *
 in a strange land?
- 5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem,*
 let my right hand forget her cunning.
- 6 If I do not remember thee,
 let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; *
 yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.
- 7 Remember the children of Edom, O L ORD,
in the day of Jerusalem; *
 how they said, Down with it, down with it,
 even to the ground.
- 8 O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery; *
 yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee
 as thou hast served us.
- 9 Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children,*
 and throweth them against the stones.

138

Confitebor tibi

- 1 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
 even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.
- 2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth; *
 for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy word,
 above all things.
- 3 When I called upon thee, thou heardest me; *
 and enduedst my soul with much strength.

- 4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD; *
for they have heard the words of thy mouth.
- 5 Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,*
that great is the glory of the LORD.
- 6 For though the LORD be high,
yet hath he respect unto the lowly; *
as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.
- 7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
yet shalt thou refresh me; *
thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.
- 8 The LORD shall make good his loving-kindness toward me; *
yea, thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever;
despise not then the works of thine own hands.

DAY 29 : MORNING PRAYER

139

Domine, probasti

- 1 O LORD, thou hast searched me out, and known me.*
Thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising;
thou understandest my thoughts long before.
- 2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed; *
and art acquainted with all my ways.
- 3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue,*
but thou, O LORD, knowest it altogether.
- 4 Thou hast beset me behind and before,*
and laid thine hand upon me.
- 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me; *
I cannot attain unto it.
- 6 Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit? *
or whither shall I go then from thy presence?

- 7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art there; *
 if I go down to hell, thou art there also.
- 8 If I take the wings of the morning, *
 and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea;
- 9 Even there also shall thy hand lead me, *
 and thy right hand shall hold me.
- 10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me; *
 then shall my night be turned to day.
- 11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee,
but the night is as clear as the day; *
 the darkness and light to thee are both alike.
- 12 For my reins are thine; *
 thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
- 13 I will give thanks unto thee,
for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: *
 marvellous are thy works,
 and that my soul knoweth right well.
- 14 My bones are not hid from thee, *
 though I be made secretly,
 and fashioned beneath in the earth.
- 15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; *
 and in thy book were all my members written;
- 16 Which day by day were fashioned, *
 when as yet there was none of them.
- 17 How dear are thy counsels unto me, O God; *
 O how great is the sum of them!
- 18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand: *
 when I wake up, I am present with thee.
- 19 Wilt thou not slay the wicked, O God? *
 Depart from me, ye bloodthirsty men.
- 20 For they speak unrighteously against thee; *
 and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.

- ²¹ Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? *
and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?
- ²² Yea, I hate them right sore; *
even as though they were mine enemies.
- ²³ Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart; *
prove me, and examine my thoughts.
- ²⁴ Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me; *
and lead me in the way everlasting.

140

Eripe me, Domine

- ¹ Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man; *
and preserve me from the wicked man;
- ² Who imagine mischief in their hearts, *
and stir up strife all the day long.
- ³ They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; *
adder's poison is under their lips.
- ⁴ Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the ungodly; *
preserve me from the wicked men,
who are purposed to overthrow my goings.
- ⁵ The proud have laid a snare for me,
and spread a net abroad with cords; *
yea, and set traps in my way.
- ⁶ I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God, *
hear the voice of my prayers, O LORD.
- ⁷ O LORD God, thou strength of my health; *
thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.
- ⁸ Let not the ungodly have his desire, O LORD; *
let not his mischievous imagination prosper,
lest they be too proud.
- ⁹ Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them * that compass me about.

- ¹⁰ Let hot burning coals fall upon them; *
 let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit,
 that they never rise up again.
- ¹¹ A man full of words shall not prosper upon the earth: *
 evil shall hunt the wicked person to overthrow him.
- ¹² Sure I am that the LORD will avenge the poor, *
 and maintain the cause of the helpless.
- ¹³ The righteous also shall give thanks unto thy Name; *
 and the just shall continue in thy sight.

DAY 29 : EVENING PRAYER

141

Domine, clamavi

- ¹ LORD, I call upon thee; haste thee unto me, *
 and consider my voice, when I cry unto thee.
- ² Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense; *
 and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.
- ³ Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth, *
 and keep the door of my lips.
- ⁴ O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing; *
 let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, neither let me eat of such things as please them.
- ⁵ Let the righteous rather smite me friendly, and reprove me; *
 yea, let not my head refuse their precious balm.
- ⁶ As for the ungodly, *
 I will pray yet against their wickedness.
- ⁷ Let their judges be overthrown in stony places, *
 that they may hear my words; for they are sweet.
- ⁸ Our bones lie scattered before the pit, *
 like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

- ⁹ But mine eyes look unto thee, O LORD God; *
 in thee is my trust; O cast not out my soul.
¹⁰ Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me, *
 and from the traps of the wicked doers.
¹¹ Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together, *
 and let me ever escape them.

142

Voce mea ad Dominum

- ¹ I cried unto the LORD with my voice; *
 yea, even unto the LORD did I make my supplication.
² I poured out my complaints before him, *
 and showed him of my trouble.
³ When my spirit was in heaviness, thou knewest my path; *
 in the way wherein I walked,
 have they privily laid a snare for me.
⁴ I looked also upon my right hand, *
 and saw there was no man that would know me.
⁵ I had no place to flee unto, *
 and no man cared for my soul.
⁶ I cried unto thee, O LORD, and said, *
 Thou art my hope, and my portion in the land of the living.
⁷ Consider my complaint; *
 for I am brought very low.
⁸ O deliver me from my persecutors; *
 for they are too strong for me.
⁹ Bring my soul out of prison,
that I may give thanks unto thy Name; *
 which thing if thou wilt grant me,
 then shall the righteous resort unto my company.

143

Domine, exaudi

- 1 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and consider my desire; *
hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness' sake.
- 2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant; *
for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.
- 3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul;
he hath smitten my life down to the ground; *
he hath laid me in the darkness,
as the men that have been long dead.
- 4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me, *
and my heart within me is desolate.
- 5 Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all thy works; *
yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.
- 6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee; *
my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.
- 7 Hear me, O LORD, and that soon; for my spirit waxeth faint: *
hide not thy face from me,
lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.
- 8 O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning;
for in thee is my trust: *
show thou me the way that I should walk in;
for I lift up my soul unto thee.
- 9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies; *
for I flee unto thee to hide me.
- 10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee;
for thou art my God: *
let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.
- 11 Quicken me, O LORD, for thy Name's sake; *
and for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

- ¹² And of thy goodness slay mine enemies, *
and destroy all them that vex my soul; for I am thy servant.

DAY 30 : MORNING PRAYER

144

Benedictus Dominus

- ¹ Blessed be the LORD my strength, *
who teacheth my hands to war and my fingers to fight:
- ² My hope and my fortress, my castle and deliverer,
my defender in whom I trust; *
 who subdueth my people that is under me.
- ³ LORD, what is man, that thou hast such respect unto him? *
 or the son of man, that thou so regardest him?
- ⁴ Man is like a thing of nought; *
 his time passeth away like a shadow.
- ⁵ Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down; *
 touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
- ⁶ Cast forth thy lightning and tear them; *
 shoot out thine arrows, and consume them.
- ⁷ Send down thine hand from above; *
 deliver me, and take me out of the great waters,
 from the hand of strangers;
- ⁸ Whose mouth talketh of vanity, *
 and their right hand is a right hand of wickedness.
- ⁹ I will sing a new song unto thee, O God; *
 and sing praises unto thee upon a ten-stringed lute.
- ¹⁰ Thou hast given victory unto kings, *
 and hast delivered David thy servant
 from the peril of the sword.
- ¹¹ Save me, and deliver me from the hand of strangers, *
 whose mouth talketh of vanity,
 and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity:

- ¹² That our sons may grow up as the young plants, *
and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple;
- ¹³ That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of store; *
that our sheep may bring forth thousands,
and ten thousands in our fields;
- ¹⁴ That our oxen may be strong to labor; that there be no decay, *
no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.
- ¹⁵ Happy are the people that are in such a case, *
yea, blessed are the people who have the LORD for their God.

145

Exaltabo te, Deus

- ¹ I will magnify thee, O God my King; *
and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.
- ² Every day will I give thanks unto thee; *
and praise thy Name for ever and ever.
- ³ Great is the LORD, and marvelous worthy to be praised; *
there is no end of his greatness.
- ⁴ One generation shall praise thy works unto another, *
and declare thy power.
- ⁵ As for me, I will be talking of thy worship, *
thy glory, thy praise, and wondrous works;
- ⁶ So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvelous acts; *
and I will also tell of thy greatness.
- ⁷ The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be showed, *
and men shall sing of thy righteousness.
- ⁸ The LORD is gracious and merciful; *
long-suffering, and of great goodness.

- 9 The LORD is loving unto every man; *
and his mercy is over all his works.
- 10 All thy works praise thee, O LORD; *
and thy saints give thanks unto thee.
- 11 They show the glory of thy kingdom, *
and talk of thy power,
- 12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness of thy kingdom, *
might be known unto men.
- 13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, *
and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.
- 14 The LORD upholdeth all such as fall, *
and liftest up all those that are down.
- 15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord; *
and thou givest them their meat in due season.
- 16 Thou openest thine hand, *
and fillest all things living with plenteousness.
- 17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, *
and holy in all his works.
- 18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him; *
yea, all such as call upon him faithfully.
- 19 He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him; *
he also will hear their cry, and will help them.
- 20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him; *
but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.
- 21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD; *
and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever.

146

Lauda, anima mea

- 1 Praise the LORD, O my soul:
while I live, will I praise the LORD; *
yea, as long as I have any being,

- I will sing praises unto my God.
- ² O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man; *
for there is no help in them.
- ³ For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn again to his earth, *
and then all his thoughts perish.
- ⁴ Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, *
and whose hope is in the LORD his God:
- ⁵ Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; *
who keepeth his promise for ever;
- ⁶ Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong; *
who feedeth the hungry.
- ⁷ The LORD looseth men out of prison; *
the LORD giveth sight to the blind.
- ⁸ The LORD helpeth them that are fallen; *
the LORD careth for the righteous.
- ⁹ The LORD careth for the strangers; he defendeth
the fatherless and widow: *
as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down.
- ¹⁰ The LORD thy God, O Zion, shall be King for evermore, * and throughout all generations.

DAY 30 : EVENING PRAYER

147

Laudate Dominum

- ¹ O praise the LORD, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God; *
yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.
- ² The LORD doth build up Jerusalem, *
and gather together the outcasts of Israel.
- ³ He healeth those that are broken in heart, *
and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.

- 4 He telleth the number of the stars,*
and calleth them all by their names.
- 5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power; *
yea, and his wisdom is infinite.
- 6 The LORD setteth up the meek,*
and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.
- 7 O sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving,*
sing praises upon the harp unto our God:
- 8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds,
and prepareth rain for the earth; *
and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains,
and herb for the use of men;
- 9 Who giveth fodder unto the cattle,*
and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.
- 10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse; *
neither delighteth he in any man's legs.
- 11 But the LORD's delight is in them that fear him,*
and put their trust in his mercy.
- 12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; *
praise thy God, O Zion.
- 13 For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates,*
and hath blessed thy children within thee.
- 14 He maketh peace in thy borders,*
and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.
- 15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth,*
and his word runneth very swiftly.
- 16 He giveth snow like wool,*
and scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.
- 17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: *
who is able to abide his frost?
- 18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: *
he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

- ¹⁹ He showeth his word unto Jacob, *
 his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.
²⁰ He hath not dealt so with any nation; *
 neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.

148

Laudate Dominum

- ¹ O praise the LORD from the heavens: *
 praise him in the heights.
² Praise him, all ye angels of his: *
 praise him, all his host.
³ Praise him, sun and moon: *
 praise him, all ye stars and light.
⁴ Praise him, all ye heavens, *
 and ye waters that are above the heavens.
⁵ Let them praise the Name of the LORD: *
 for he spake the word, and they were made;
 he commanded, and they were created.
⁶ He hath made them fast for ever and ever: *
 he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.
⁷ Praise the LORD from the earth, *
 ye dragons and all deeps;
⁸ Fire and hail, snow and vapors, *
 wind and storm, fulfilling his word;
⁹ Mountains and all hills; *
 fruitful trees and all cedars;
¹⁰ Beasts and all cattle;
 creeping things and flying fowls;
¹¹ Kings of the earth and all peoples; *
 princes, and all judges of the world;

- ¹² Young men and maidens, old men and children,
praise the Name of the L ORD: *
for his Name only is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.
- ¹³ He shall exalt the horn of his people: all his saints shall praise him; *
even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him.

149

Cantate Domino

- ¹ O sing unto the L ORD a new song; *
let the congregation of saints praise him.
- ² Let Israel rejoice in him that made him, *
and let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- ³ Let them praise his Name in the dance: *
let them sing praises unto him with tabret and harp.
- ⁴ For the L ORD hath pleasure in his people, *
and helpeth the meek-hearted.
- ⁵ Let the saints be joyful with glory; *
let them rejoice in their beds.
- ⁶ Let the praises of God be in their mouth; *
and a two-edged sword in their hands;
- ⁷ To be avenged of the nations, *
and to rebuke the peoples;
- ⁸ To bind their kings in chains, *
and their nobles with links of iron;
- ⁹ To execute judgment upon them; as it is written, *
Such honor have all his saints.

150

Laudate Dominum

- 1 O praise God in his sanctuary: *
praise him in the firmament of his power.
- 2 Praise him in his noble acts: *
praise him according to his excellent greatness.
- 3 Praise him in the sound of the trumpet: *
praise him upon the lute and harp.
- 4 Praise him in the timbrels and dances: *
praise him upon the strings and pipe.
- 5 Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals: *
praise him upon the loud cymbals.
- 6 Let everything that hath breath *
praise the LORD.

THE PREFACE TO THE ORDINAL

The Holy Scriptures and ancient authors teach that, from the Apostles' time, these three orders of ministry have existed in Christ's Church: Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. From the earliest days of the Church, these offices were always held in such reverent estimation that no one might presume to execute any of them without being first called, tried, examined, and ascertained to have such qualities as are requisite. Candidates were approved and admitted to these offices by lawful authority, through public prayer and the imposition of hands by a Bishop. And therefore, to the end that these orders may be continued, and reverently used and esteemed in this Church, no one shall be accounted to be a lawful Bishop, Priest, or Deacon in this Church, or allowed to execute any of the said functions, without first being called, tried, examined, and admitted to such office according to the form set forth in this book, or having received Episcopal Consecration or Ordination already.

The Bishop may only admit a candidate as a Deacon or Priest after sufficient examination and testing to determine that the candidate meets the requirements of the Canons, and is of virtuous conduct, without crime or impediment, instructed in the Holy Scriptures, and fit for ministry in Christ's Church.

THE FORM AND MANNER OF ORDAINING DEACONS

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The People standing, the Bishop says this or an appropriate seasonal greeting

People The Lord will pour out his Spirit upon all flesh,
And your sons and daughters shall prophesy.

Bishop Your old men shall dream dreams,
People And your young men shall see visions.
Bishop Ye shall know that the Lord is in the midst
of his people,
People That he is the Lord and there is none else.

Bishop And it shall come to pass
People That everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord
shall be saved.

The Bishop prays (and the People may be invited to join)

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESENTATION

The Bishop and People sit. The Presenters, standing before the Bishop, present each Ordinand, saying Reverend Father in God, we present N.N. to be admitted to the Order of Deacons.

Bishop Have these persons been selected in accordance with the Canons of this Church? And do you believe their manner of life to be suitable to the exercise of this ministry?

Presenters We certify to you that they have satisfied the requirements of the Canons, and we believe them to be qualified for this order.

The Bishop then requires the Ordinand(s) to take the Oath of Conformity and the Oath of Canonical Obedience saying

The Canons require that no one may be ordained a Deacon in the Church before subscribing without reservation to the Oath of Conformity. It is also required that each Ordinand subscribe without reservation to the Oath of Canonical Obedience. In the presence of this Congregation, I now charge you to make your solemn declaration of these oaths.

Each Ordinand then individually declares

I, N.N., do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God and to contain all things necessary to salvation, and I consequently hold myself bound to conform my life and ministry thereto, and therefore I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of Christ as this Church has received them.

And I do promise, here in the presence of Almighty God and of the Church, that I will pay true and canonical obedience in all things lawful and honest to the Bishop of _____, and his successors, so help me God.

Each Ordinand then signs the Oath of Conformity and the Oath of Canonical Obedience in the sight of all present.

All stand. The Bishop says to the People

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, ye know the importance of this ministry, and the weight of your responsibility in presenting these persons for ordination to the sacred Order of Deacons. Therefore, if any of you know of any impediment or crime because of which we should not proceed, come forward now and make it known.

If no objection is made, the Bishop continues

Is it your will that these persons be ordained as Deacons?

People It is.

Bishop Will you uphold them in their ministry?

People We will.

Bishop In peace let us pray to the Lord.

THE LITANY FOR ORDINATIONS

All kneel. Then the Litanist appointed, with the Clergy and People present, says or sings the Litany for Ordinations (Page 510). The Ordinands either kneel or lie prostrate during the Litany.

At the conclusion of the Litany for Ordinations, the Bishop stands and prays the following collect, first saying

The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Bishop Let us pray.

Almighty God, who by thy divine providence hast appointed diverse Orders of Ministers in thy Church, and didst inspire thine Apostles to choose into the Order of Deacons the first martyr Saint Stephen, with others; Mercifully behold these thy servants now called to the like office and administration: so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocence of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Savior Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The following Lessons are appointed for the ordination of a Deacon. On a Major Feast, or on a Sunday, the Bishop may select Lessons from the Propers of the Day.

JEREMIAH 1:4-10

PSALM 119:1-8

I TIMOTHY 3:8-13 or ACTS 6:1-7

LUKE 12:35-40

The People sit. One or more Lessons, as appointed, are read, the Reader first saying

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each Lesson the Reader may say

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Or the Reader may say Here endeth the Reading.

Silence may follow.

A psalm, hymn, or anthem may follow each reading.

All standing, the Deacon or Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according
to _____.

People Glory be to thee, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, Lord Christ.

T H E N I C E N E C R E E D

All stand to recite the Nicene Creed, the Bishop first saying

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

Bishop and People

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,

begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father [and the Son],[†]
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The text of the Nicene Creed according to the Book of Common Prayer 1662, as found on page 144, may be used.

THE EXHORTATION

*All are seated except the Ordinand(s), who stand before the Bishop.
The Bishop addresses the Ordinand(s) as follows*

It appertaineth to the office of a Deacon to share in the humility and service of our Lord Jesus Christ, for the strengthening of the Church, which is his body. Ye are to read the Gospel and proclaim Christ at all times through your service, to instruct both young and old in the Catechism, and, at the direction of the Bishop or Priest, to baptize and preach.

Ye are to assist the Priest in divine service, to guide the intercessions of the Congregation, to aid in the administration of Holy Communion, and to carry the Sacrament to those who are kept from the Table by illness, infirmity, or imprisonment.

Furthermore, ye are to interpret to the Church the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world. It is the Deacon's office to encourage and equip the household of God to search for the stranger, to embrace the poor and helpless, and to seek them out, so that they may be relieved.

THE EXAMINATION

The Bishop examines the Ordinands as follows

Will you take up this charge gladly and willingly?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Do you trust that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Spirit to take upon yourself this Office and ministry, to serve God for the promoting of his glory and the edifying of his people?

Answer I do so trust.

Bishop Do you believe that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in accordance with the Canons of this Church, to this Office and ministry?

Answer I do so believe.

Bishop Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ?

Answer I am so persuaded.

Bishop Will you diligently read these Scriptures to the people assembled in the church where you are appointed to serve?

Answer I will.

Bishop Will you be diligent to frame and fashion your own lives [and the lives of your families], according to the Doctrine of Christ, and to make yourselves [and them, as much as in you lieth], wholesome examples and patterns to the flock of Christ?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you reverently obey your Bishop and other Ministers who, according to the Canons of the Church, may have charge and authority over you, following with a glad mind and a good will their godly admonitions, and submitting yourself to their godly judgments?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Congregation may kneel, and prays silently for the fulfillment of these purposes.

The Bishop prays

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and without reproach at the latter day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Ordinands kneel or lie prostrate, facing the Bishop. The Veni, Creator Spiritus (page 492) or other hymn to the Holy Spirit may be sung or said as a prayer for the renewal of the Church.

THE ORDINATION OF THE DEACONS

*All now stand as witnesses, except the Ordinands, who kneel facing the Bishop.
The Bishop then prays the following prayer, first saying*

Let us pray.

O God, most merciful Father, thou didst send thy Son Jesus Christ to take upon himself the form of a servant. He humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death on a Cross. Yet thou hast highly exalted him, making him Lord of all. For this great mystery, and for these thy servants whom thou now callest to obedience after his example, we offer unto thee our most hearty thanks; and we ask that we may daily increase in humility and service, that by their ministry as well as by those with whom they serve, thy holy Name may for ever be glorified, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Bishop lays his hands upon the head of every one to be made Deacon, each one humbly kneeling before him, and says

Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and work of a Deacon in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of my hands; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Bishop then prays the following over the Ordinands.

In thy great goodness, O Lord, make these thy servants to be Deacons in thy Church; give them grace to be modest, humble, and constant in their ministry; give them a ready will to observe all spiritual discipline; and with the testimony of a good conscience always before them, may they continue stable and strong in the service of thy Son Jesus Christ, to whom be glory and honor, world without end.

The People in a loud voice respond

Amen.

The new Deacons may now be vested according to the Order of Deacons.

As the Deacon is vested with a maniple, the Bishop says

Receive this maniple as a sign of thy service, for thy Lord came among us as one who served.

As the Deacon is vested with a stole, the Bishop says

Receive this stole as a sign of the yoke of Christ, thy Savior.

As the Deacon is vested with a dalmatic, the Bishop says

Receive this dalmatic as a sign that thou must daily take up the whole armor of God, that thou mayest be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm.

Then the Bishop delivers to every one of them a Book of Gospels or New Testament saying Take thou authority to read the Gospel in the Church of God and to teach the same.

The Bishop then says to the People

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

The liturgy continues with the Offertory. The newly ordained Deacons prepare the Table.

When the Communion is finished, after the Post Communion Prayer, the Bishop prays the following Collect

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop then blesses the People saying

Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
People Who hath made heaven and earth.
Bishop Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
People From this time forth for evermore.
Bishop The blessing, mercy, and grace of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

The newly ordained Deacons together dismiss the People saying

Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

From the Easter Vigil through the Day of Pentecost, "Alleluia, alleluia" is added to the dismissal. It may be added at other times, except during Lent and on other penitential occasions.

The People respond

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

THE FORM AND MANNER OF ORDAINING A PRIEST

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The People standing, the Bishop says this or an appropriate seasonal greeting

People The Lord will pour out his Spirit upon all flesh,
And your sons and daughters shall prophesy.

Bishop Your old men shall dream dreams,
And your young men shall see visions.

Bishop Ye shall know that the Lord is in the midst
of his people,
That he is the Lord and there is none else.

Bishop And it shall come to pass
That everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord
shall be saved.

The Bishop prays (and the People may be invited to join)

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESENTATION

The Bishop and People sit. The Presenters, standing before the Bishop, present the Ordinand, saying Reverend Father in God, we present N.N. to be admitted to the Order of Priests.

Bishop Hath he been selected in accordance with the Canons of this Church? And do you believe his manner of life to be suitable to the exercise of this ministry?

Presenters We certify to you that he hath satisfied the requirements of the Canons, and we believe him to be qualified for this Order.

The Bishop shall then require the Ordinand to take the Oath of Conformity and the Oath of Canonical Obedience saying

The Canons require that no Deacon may be ordained a Priest in the Church before subscribing without reservation to the Oath of Conformity. It is also required that each Ordinand subscribe without reservation to the Oath of Canonical Obedience. In the presence of this Congregation, I now charge you to make your solemn declaration of these oaths.

The Ordinand then declares

I, N.N., do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God and to contain all things necessary to salvation, and I consequently hold myself bound to conform my life and ministry thereto, and therefore I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of Christ as this Church has received them.

And I do promise, here in the presence of Almighty God and of the Church, that I will pay true and canonical obedience in all things lawful and honest to the Bishop of _____, and his successors, so help me God.

The Ordinand then signs the Oath of Conformity and the Oath of Canonical Obedience in the sight of all present.

All stand. The Bishop says to the People

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, ye know the importance of this ministry, and the weight of your responsibility in presenting N.N. for ordination to the sacred Priesthood. Therefore if any of you know of any impediment or crime because of which we should not proceed, come forward now and make it known.

If no objection is made, the Bishop continues

Is it your will that N. be ordained a Priest?

People It is.

Bishop Will you uphold him in this ministry?

People We will.

Bishop In peace let us pray to the Lord.

THE LITANY FOR ORDINATIONS

All kneel. Then the Litanist appointed, with the Clergy and People present, says or sings the Litany for Ordinations (Page 510). The Ordinand either kneels or lies prostrate during the Litany.

At the conclusion of the Litany for Ordinations, the Bishop stands and prays the following collect, first saying

The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Bishop Let us pray.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed diverse Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold this thy servant now called to the Office of Priesthood; and so replenish him with the truth of thy doctrine and adorn him with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example, he may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy Name and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Savior Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The following Lessons are appointed for the ordination of a Priest. On a Major Feast, or on a Sunday, the Bishop may select Lessons from the Propers of the Day.

ISAIAH 6:1-8

PSALM 119:33-40

EPHESIANS 4:7-16 or PHILIPPIANS 4:4-9

LUKE 10:1-9 or JOHN 10:1-16

The People sit. One or more Lessons, as appointed, are read, the Reader first saying

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each Lesson the Reader may say

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Or the Reader may say Here endeth the Reading.

Silence may follow.

A psalm, hymn, or anthem may follow each reading.

All standing, the Deacon or Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according
to _____.

People Glory be to thee, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, Lord Christ.

All stand to recite the Nicene Creed, the Bishop first saying

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

Bishop and People

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;

through him all things were made.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The text of the Nicene Creed according to the Book of Common Prayer 1662, as found on page 144, may be used.

THE EXHORTATION

All are seated except the Ordinand, who stands before the Bishop.

The Bishop addresses the Ordinand as follows

You have heard, during the Church's discernment of your vocation and in the Holy Scriptures themselves, how weighty is this Office to which you are called. I now exhort you, in the

Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to be a messenger, watchman, and steward of the Lord. You are to teach, to premonish, to feed, and to provide for the Lord's family, and to seek for Christ's sheep which are in the midst of this fallen world, that they may be saved through Christ for ever.

Have always therefore printed in your remembrance, how great a treasure is committed to your charge. For they are the sheep of Christ, which he bought with his death, and for whom he shed his blood. The Church and congregation whom you must serve, is his spouse, and his body. And if it shall happen that the same Church, or any member thereof, do take any hurt or hindrance by reason of your negligence, you know the greatness of the fault, and also the horrible punishment that will ensue.

Wherefore, consider the ends of your ministry to the children of God. Work diligently, with your whole heart, to bring those in your care into the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of God, and to maturity in Christ, that there may be among you neither error in religion nor immorality in life. Finally, arm and lead your Congregation to proclaim tirelessly the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

And seeing that the demands of this holy Office are so great, lay aside all worldly distractions and take care to direct all that you do to this purpose: read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest the Scriptures, that you may show yourself both dutiful and thankful to the Lord; and frame your conduct, and that of your household and those committed to thy care, according to the doctrine and discipline of Christ. Know, however, that you cannot accomplish this of yourself; for the will and the ability needed are given by God alone. Therefore, pray earnestly for his Holy Spirit to enlighten your mind and strengthen your resolve.

THE EXAMINATION

The Bishop then examines the Ordinand, saying

So that this Congregation of Christ's Church may know your intent in these things, I charge you to answer plainly these questions, which I, in the Name of God and his Church, now ask:

Do you believe in your heart that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and according to the Canons of this Church, to the Order and ministry of the Priesthood?

Answer I do so believe.

Bishop Do you believe that the Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach or maintain nothing as necessary to eternal salvation but that which may be concluded and proved by the Scriptures?

Answer I do so believe, and I am so determined, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you then give your faithful diligence always so to minister the doctrine, sacraments, and discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received them, according to the Commandments of God, so that you may teach the people committed to your cure and charge with all diligence to keep and observe them?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you be ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Body of Christ all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's Word; and to use both public and private admonitions and exhortations, to the weak as well as the strong within your cure, as need shall require and occasion shall be given?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you be diligent in prayer, and in the reading of Holy Scripture, and in such study as may further the knowledge of the same, laying aside all distractions of the world and the flesh?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you be diligent to frame and fashion your own life [and the life of your family], according to the doctrine of Christ, and to make yourself [and them, as much as in you lieth], a wholesome example and pattern to the flock of Christ?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you maintain and set forward, as much as you are able, quietness, peace, and love among all Christian people, and especially among those who are or shall be committed to your charge?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you reverently obey your Bishop and other chief Ministers who, according to the Canons of the Church, may have charge and authority over you, following with a glad mind and a good will their godly admonitions, and submitting yourself to their godly judgments?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Congregation may kneel, and prays silently for the fulfillment of these purposes.

The Bishop prays

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and without reproach at the latter day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Ordinand kneels or lies prostrate, facing the Bishop, with the priests present surrounding the Ordinand. The Veni, Creator Spiritus is sung or said as a prayer for the renewal of the Church.

VENI, CREATOR SPIRITUS

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of both, to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

THE CONSECRATION OF THE PRIEST

All now stand as witnesses, except the Ordinand, who kneels facing the Bishop.

The Bishop prays the following prayer, first saying

Let us pray.

Almighty God, and heavenly Father, who, of thine infinite love and goodness towards us, hast given to us thy only and most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, to be our redeemer, and the author of everlasting life; who, after he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, sent abroad into the world his apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and doctors; by the Holy Spirit, through their labor and ministry, he gathered together a great flock in all the parts of the world, to set forth the eternal praise of thy holy Name: For these so great benefits of thy eternal goodness, and for that thou hast vouchsafed to call this thy servant here present to the same office and ministry, we render unto thee most hearty thanks; and we humbly beseech thee that we may daily increase and go forward in the knowledge and faith of thee and thy Son, and that by this minister, as well as by them over whom he shall be appointed, thy holy Name may be for ever glorified, and thy blessed kingdom enlarged; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop with the Priests present lay their hands upon the head of each one to receive the Order of Priesthood. The Bishop says

Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands. Whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven; and whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained. And be thou a faithful dispenser of the Word of God, and of his holy Sacraments; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Bishop then prays the following over the Ordinand.

Send thy heavenly blessing upon this thy servant, that he may be clothed with righteousness, and that thy Word, spoken by his mouth, may have such success that it may never be spoken in vain. Grant also that we may have grace to hear and receive what he shall deliver out of thy most holy Word as the means of our salvation; that in all our words and deeds we may seek thy glory and the increase of thy kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.

The People in a loud voice respond

Amen.

The new Priest may now be vested according to the Order of Priests.

As the Priest is vested with a stole, the Bishop says

Take thou the yoke of the Lord, for his yoke is easy and his burden is light.

As the Priest is vested with a chasuble, the Bishop says

Receive this priestly garment which symbolizes charity; for God is well able to give thee an increase of charity and a perfect work.

The Bishop then anoints the hands of the new Priest with the Oil of Chrism, saying Vouchsafe, O Lord, to consecrate and sanctify these hands by this unction and by our blessing, that whatsoever they bless may be blessed, and whatsoever they consecrate may be consecrated and sanctified, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Bishop then gives the new Priest a Bible in one hand and a chalice in the other hand saying Take thou authority to preach the Word of God and to minister the Holy Sacraments. Do not forget the trust committed unto thee as a Priest in the Church of God.

The Bishop then says to the People

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with thy spirit.

The liturgy continues with the Offertory. The Deacon prepares the Table.

Standing at the Holy Table with the Bishop and other Ministers, the newly ordained Priest joins in the celebration of the Holy Communion and in the Breaking of the Bread.

When the Communion is finished, after the Post Communion Prayer, the new Priest prays the following Collect

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop then blesses the People saying

Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
People Who hath made heaven and earth.
Bishop Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
People From this time forth for evermore.
Bishop The blessing, mercy, and grace of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Or the Bishop may ask the newly ordained Priest to bless the People saying

The peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Deacon dismisses the People saying

Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

From the Easter Vigil through the Day of Pentecost, “Alleluia, alleluia” is added to the dismissal. It may be added at other times, except during Lent and on other penitential occasions.

The People respond

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

THE FORM AND MANNER OF ORDAINING and CONSECRATING A BISHOP

The Archbishop normally presides at the Consecration of a Bishop; however, the Archbishop may choose to designate another Bishop to be the Chief Consecrator. When this happens, all rubrics referring to the Archbishop are to be taken to mean "Chief Consecrator."

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The People standing, the Archbishop says this or an appropriate seasonal greeting

The Lord will pour out his Spirit upon all flesh,
People And your sons and daughters shall prophesy.
Archbishop Your old men shall dream dreams,
People And your young men shall see visions.
Archbishop Ye shall know that the Lord is in the midst
of his people,
People That he is the Lord and there is none else.
Archbishop And it shall come to pass
People That everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord
shall be saved.

JOEL 2:27-28, 32; ACTS 2:17, 21^T

The Archbishop prays (and the People may be invited to join)

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESENTATION

The Archbishop and People sit.

The Bishop Elect, properly vested, is presented to the Archbishop by at least two Bishops of this Church, the Bishops who present him saying Reverend Father in God, we present unto you N.N., a godly and well-learned man, to be ordained and consecrated Bishop.

Then the Archbishop causes to be read Testimonials from the President of the Standing Committee and the Secretary of the College of Bishops regarding the person presented for Consecration.

The Archbishop then requires the Bishop Elect to take the Oath of Conformity and the Oath of Canonical Obedience saying

The Canons of this Church require that no Priest may be consecrated as a Bishop in the Church before subscribing without reservation to the Oath of Conformity. It is also required that he subscribe without reservation to the Oath of Canonical Obedience. In the presence of this Congregation, I now charge you to make your solemn declaration of these oaths.

The Bishop Elect then declares

I, N.N., do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God and to contain all things necessary to salvation, and I consequently hold myself bound to conform my life and ministry thereto, and therefore I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of Christ as this Church has received them.

And I do promise, here in the presence of Almighty God and of the Church, that I will pay true and canonical obedience in all things lawful and honest to the Archbishop of the Anglican Church in North America, and his successors, so help me God.

The Bishop Elect then signs the Oath of Conformity and Oath of Canonical Obedience in the sight of all present.

Then the Archbishop invites the Congregation present to pray, saying Brethren, it is written in the Gospel of Saint Luke, that our Savior Christ continued the whole night in prayer, before he chose and sent forth his twelve Apostles. It is written also in the Acts of the Apostles that the disciples at Antioch fasted and prayed before they sent forth Paul and Barnabas by laying their hands upon them. Let us, therefore, following the example of our Savior Christ, and his Apostles, offer up our prayers to Almighty God, before we admit and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Ghost hath called him.

THE LITANY FOR ORDINATIONS

All kneel. Then the Litanist appointed, with the Clergy and People present, says or sings the Litany for Ordinations (Page 510). The Bishop Elect either kneels or lies prostrate during the Litany.

At the conclusion of the Litany for Ordinations, the Archbishop stands and prays the following Collect, first saying

The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Archbishop Let us pray.

Almighty God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy holy Apostles many excellent gifts, and didst charge them to feed thy flock; Give grace, we beseech thee, to all Bishops, the Pastors of thy Church, that they may diligently preach thy Word, and duly administer the godly Discipline thereof; and grant to the people, that they may obediently follow the same; that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The text of the Nicene Creed according to the Book of Common Prayer 1662, as found on page 144, may be used.

THE EXHORTATION AND EXAMINATION

All are seated except the Bishop Elect, who stands before the Archbishop.

The Archbishop addresses and examines the Bishop Elect as follows

[†] The phrase "and the Son" (Latin filioque) is not in the original Greek text. See the resolution of the College of Bishops concerning the filioque in Documentary Foundations (page 768).

Brother, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture and the ancient Canons command, that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to authority in the Church of Christ, which he hath purchased with no less price than the shedding of his own blood; before we admit you to this Office, we will examine you, to the end that the Congregation present may know how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

Are you persuaded that you are truly called to this ministry, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ and the Order of this Church?

Answer I am so persuaded.

The following questions are addressed to the Bishop Elect by one or more of the Bishops.

Question Do you believe that the Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach or maintain nothing as necessary to eternal salvation but that which may be concluded and proved by the Scriptures?

Answer I do so believe, and I am so determined, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you then faithfully study the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of them, so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome doctrine, and to withstand and convince those who contradict it?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Question Are you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's Word, and both privately and publicly to call upon others and encourage them to do the same?

Answer I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you renounce all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live a godly, righteous, and sober life in this present world, that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works for others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you maintain and set forward, as much as you are able, quietness, love, and peace among all people, and diligently exercise such discipline as is, by the authority of God's Word and by the Order of this Church, committed to you?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you be faithful in examining, confirming, ordaining, and sending the people of God?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake, to poor and needy people and to all strangers destitute of help?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Congregation may kneel, and pray silently for the fulfillment of these purposes.

The Archbishop prays

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and without reproach at the latter day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. People And let our cry come unto thee.

Archbishop Let us pray

Almighty God, and most merciful Father, who, of thine infinite goodness, hast given thine only and dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, to be our redeemer, and the author of everlasting life; who, after that he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down his gifts abundantly upon men, making some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors, and some teachers; by the Holy Ghost, through their labor and ministry, he gathered together a great flock in all the parts of the world, to set forth the eternal praise of thy holy Name: Grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant, such grace, that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad thy Gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee; and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help: so that, as a wise and faithful servant, giving to thy family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Archbishop and at least two other Bishops lay their hands upon the head of the Bishop Elect, the Archbishop and other Bishops saying Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Archbishop then continues

Most merciful Father, send down, we beseech thee, upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit, that he, preaching thy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke with all patience and doctrine; but also may present a wholesome example, in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness laid up by the Lord the righteous Judge, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.

The People in a loud voice respond

Amen.

The new Bishop is now vested according to the Order of Bishops. During the presentations that follow, the Archbishop may be assisted by others.

The Archbishop presents the new Bishop with a Bible, saying

Give heed unto reading, exhortation, and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men; for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost. Be so merciful, that you be not too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you may receive the never-fading crown of glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Archbishop presents him with a pastoral staff saying

Take this staff and watch over the flock of Christ.

The Archbishop may anoint the forehead of the new Bishop with the Oil of Chrism saying

Receive the anointing of this oil, and remember continually to stir up the grace of God which is given to thee; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

The Archbishop may give him a pectoral cross saying

Receive this cross; remember that he whom thou servest reconciled us to God by his own blood.

The Archbishop may give him an episcopal ring saying

Take thou this ring; be faithful to the Bride of Christ.

The Archbishop may give him a miter saying

Receive this miter, and remember that thine authority rests in God's Word and Holy Spirit.

The Archbishop then says to the People

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with thy spirit.

The liturgy continues with the Offertory. The Deacon prepares the Table.

Standing at the Holy Table, with the Archbishop and other Ministers, the newly consecrated Bishop joins in the celebration of the Holy Communion and in the Breaking of the Bread.

When the Communion is finished, after the Post Communion Prayer, the new Bishop prays the following Collect

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Archbishop, or at his direction the newly-consecrated Bishop, then blesses the People saying

People Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
Bishop Who hath made heaven and earth.
People Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
People From this time forth for evermore.
Bishop The blessing, mercy, and grace of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

The Deacon dismisses the People saying

Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

From the Easter Vigil through the Day of Pentecost, "Alleluia, alleluia" is added to the dismissal. It may be added at other times, except during Lent and on other penitential occasions.

The People respond

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

THE LITANY AND SUFFRAGES
for ORDINATIONS

Other petitions may be added with the consent of the Ordinary.

O God the Father,
 Have mercy upon us.

O God the Son,
 Have mercy upon us.

O God the Holy Ghost,
 Have mercy upon us.

O holy Trinity, one God,
 Have mercy upon us.

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord: and that it may please thee to grant peace to the whole world and to thy Church,
 We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to sanctify and bless thy holy Church throughout the world,
 We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to inspire all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons with the love of thee and of thy truth,
 We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue all ministers of thy Church with devotion to thy glory and to the salvation of souls,
 We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

At the Ordination of Deacons or Priests this petition is said

That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Deacons [or Priests], and to pour thy grace upon them, that they may duly execute their office to the edifying of thy Church, and to the glory of thy holy Name,
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

At the Ordination and Consecration of a Bishop this petition is said

That it may please thee to bless this our brother N., and to send thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the office to which he is called, to the edifying of thy Church, and to the honor, praise, and glory of thy Name,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to guide by thy indwelling Spirit those whom thou dost call to the ministry of thy Church; that they may go forward with courage, and persevere to the end,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to increase the number of ministers in thy Church, that the Gospel may be preached to all people,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant us true repentance, amendment of life, and the forgiveness of all our sins,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to hasten the fulfillment of thy purpose, that thy Church may be one,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant that we, with all thy saints, may be partakers of thine everlasting kingdom,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Hearken unto us, O Lord, when we cry unto thee;

Have mercy upon us and hear us.

O Lord, arise and help us;

And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness;

And let thy saints sing with joy.

O Lord, hear our prayer;

And let our cry come unto thee.

On Ember Days or other occasions, if desired, the Litany of Ordinations may be used in place of the Prayers of the People at the Eucharist, or following the Collects in the Daily Office, or it may be used separately.

A maniple may also be bestowed at the vesting of a Priest or a Bishop.

When the Priest or Deacon being ordained is to be immediately instituted as Rector, the rite of the Institution of a Rector is not used. Instead, the Bishop reads the Letter of Institution (page 514) before the Peace during the Ordination liturgy.

C O N C E R N I N G T H E I N S T I T U T I O N O F A R E C T O R

The Bishop holds spiritual oversight as chief Pastor for all the churches in his Diocese. From the earliest days of the Church, the Bishop has delegated spiritual and canonical authority to ministers who lead Congregations.

The Institution should occur early in the Rector's tenure. Because the liturgy may be scheduled some weeks or months after the Rector begins the new ministry, the Bishop may wish to provide initial conveyance of authority, either by private prayer or written instrument, to the new Rector.

The Bishop may adapt the Letter of Institution (page 514) and this liturgy as needed, particularly for a Vicar or other person exercising primary pastoral authority.

LETTER OF INSTITUTION OF A RECTOR

N.N., Presbyter of the Church of God, we hereby install and institute you as Rector of _____ Church, [City, State/Province], and we give you full power and authority to carry out the ministry of Rector of this Congregation, performing those duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons of the Anglican Church in North America and the Diocese of _____. We pray that Almighty God will enable you to fulfill this sacred responsibility.

Heed the words of Holy Scripture:

Shepherd the flock of God that is among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion, but willingly, as God would have you; not for shameful gain, but eagerly; not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. I PETER 5:2-4

We hereby reserve to the Bishop of the Diocese of _____, and his successors, full power and authority to revoke these presents whenever under the Canons he shall have just cause to do so.

Given under my hand and seal, in the City of _____, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord 20_____, and in the _____ year of my consecration.

The Celebrant prays (and the People may be invited to join)

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Congregation sits.

The Wardens and the new Rector stand before the Bishop.

The Bishop says

Dearly beloved in the Lord, we have assembled in the presence of God for the purpose of instituting the new Rector of this Congregation.

The Wardens present the new Rector to the Bishop, saying

Reverend Father in God, on behalf of _____ Church, we present N.N. to be instituted as Rector. We believe that he is well qualified and has been prayerfully and lawfully selected.

The Bishop reads the Letter of Institution.

The Bishop gives the Letter to the Rector. The Rector then says

I, N.N., receive this letter from thy hands and recognize thine episcopal authority. I promise to be a faithful shepherd to thy flock, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop says

Let us then offer our prayers to God for all his people, for this Congregation, and for N. their Rector.

The Litany for Ordinations (page 510) is sung or said.

At the end of the Litany, the Bishop stands and says

The Lord be with you

Bishop Let us pray

Most gracious Father, the giver of all good and perfect gifts, who of thy wise providence hast appointed leaders for the mission of thy Church; Give thy grace, we beseech thee, to thy servant, to whom the charge of this Congregation is now committed; and so replenish him with the truth of thy doctrine, and endue him with innocency of life, that he may faithfully serve before thee, to the glory of thy great Name, and the benefit of thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

Lay persons read the Old Testament Lesson and the Epistle. The Deacon (or a Priest) reads the Gospel. Selections are ordinarily made from the following list; but on a Major Feast, Sunday, or Feast of Dedication, selections may be made from the Propers of the Day.

JOSHUA 1:7-9 or NUMBERS 11:16-17, 24-25A

PSALM 43 or 132:1-9, or 146 or

ROMANS 12:1-18 or EPHESIANS 4:7-16

JOHN 15:9-16 or LUKE 10:1-2 or JOHN 14:11-15

The People sit. One or more Lessons, as appointed, are read, the Reader first saying

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each Lesson the Reader may say

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Or the Reader may say Here endeth the Reading.

Silence may follow.

A psalm, hymn, or anthem may follow each reading.

All standing, the Deacon or Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according

Representatives of the Congregation and clergy, standing before the Bishop and new Rector, may present symbols of the work to which the Rector is called. The principal symbols point to leadership in divine worship (Bible and bread and wine), in Christian formation (Book of Common Prayer, and Catechism) and in Congregational mission (keys and water). Additional symbols may be considered as local circumstances dictate.

The Bishop says

Let the symbols of this office now be presented.

The Bible is presented.

N., preach the Word at all times, and let our worship and our life together manifest the grace and truth of this Book. Amen.

Bread and wine are presented.

N., preside in the breaking of the bread and the blessing of the cup, and lead us in our prayers and praises. Amen.

The Book of Common Prayer is presented.

N., be thou a man of prayer, and use this book to build us up as living stones of a holy temple. Amen.

The Catechism is presented.

N., be thou a teacher of the Faith, making disciples who make disciples. Amen.

Keys to the buildings used by the Congregation for its life and mission are presented.

N., receive these keys, and let the doors of this place be open to all, that many would come to know the good news of salvation in Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Bishop presents a vessel of water.

N., receive this water and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in obedience to our Lord. Amen.

After all symbols are presented, the Bishop concludes

N., let all these symbols be signs of the ministry which is the Lord's and ours in this place. Amen.

The new Rector may kneel in the midst of the church and pray

O Lord my God, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof; yet thou hast called thy servant to stand in thy House, and to serve at thy holy Altar. To thee and to thy service I devote myself, body, soul, and spirit. Fill my memory with the words of thy Law; enlighten my understanding with the illumination of the Holy Ghost; and may all the wishes and desires of my will center in what thou hast commanded. And, to make me instrumental in promoting the salvation of the people now committed to my charge, grant that I may faithfully administer thy holy Sacraments, and by my life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word. Be ever with me in the performance of all the duties of my ministry: in prayer, to quicken my devotion; in praises, to heighten my love and gratitude; in preaching, to give a readiness of thought and expression; in worship, increase my zeal for godly preparation; and grant that by the clearness and excellency of thy holy Word, all the world may be drawn into thy blessed kingdom. Grant this for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Savior. Amen.

The family of the Rector may be presented at this time.

The Bishop then says to the People

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

If there is no Communion, the service continues after the Peace with the Lord's Prayer, followed by the Concluding Prayer and the Blessing.

If there is to be Holy Communion, the Bishop is chief celebrant, assisted by the newly instituted Rector. The service continues with the Offertory. The following Post Communion Prayer is used.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Almighty Father, we thank thee for feeding us with the holy food of the Body and Blood of thy Son, and for uniting us with him in the fellowship of thy Holy Spirit. We thank thee for raising up among us faithful servants for the ministry of thy Word and Sacraments. We beseech thee that N. may be unto us an effective example in word and action, in love and patience, and in holiness of life. Grant that we, with him, may serve thee now, and always rejoice in thy glory; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE CONCLUDING PRAYER

After the Post Communion Prayer and before the Blessing, the Bishop may say

O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone; Grant that, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, all Christians may be so joined together in unity of spirit, and in the bond of peace, that they may be an holy temple acceptable unto thee. And especially to this Congregation present, give the abundance of thy grace; that with one heart we may desire the health and increase of thy holy Church, and with one mouth may profess the faith once delivered to the saints. Defend us from the sins of heresy and schism. And grant that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; that so they may walk in the ways of truth and peace, and at the day of judgment be numbered with thy Saints in glory everlasting; through the merits of the same thy blessed Son Jesus Christ, the gracious Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect of the Day or another prayer suitable to the occasion may be used.

The Sermon may be preached by the Bishop, the newly instituted Rector, or some other person appointed by the Bishop.

When the new Rector has recently come from another Diocese, the diocesan Canons may be presented, after the presentation of the keys, with these words: "Obey these Canons, and be among us to share in the councils of this Diocese."

The Preface of Apostles and Ordinations is ordinarily used for this service.

The Bishop presides at this liturgy, and the Rector (or Minister in charge) takes part as indicated. At the discretion of the Bishop, other clergy and leaders from the community may be invited to participate and may be assigned appropriate parts in the liturgy.

This liturgy provides for the consecration and dedication of a Place of Worship and its furnishings. Places that may be set apart include purpose-built church structures, as well as facilities acquired and renovated for long-term use by a worshiping community. A Place of Worship may be consecrated and dedicated, even if the building is leased or mortgaged, provided the Congregation has exclusive control of the facility and to the extent the Ordinary and local canons allow.

Shared-use facilities like school auditoriums or community centers are not consecrated and dedicated, but weekly preparation for worship should include spiritual cleansing (exorcising) of any forces of darkness that may have entered, invited or uninvited.

Portions of the liturgy may be used, or adapted when necessary, for dedicating parts of a building, or furnishings that have been added, altered, or renovated. Likewise, suitable parts of this rite may be used for dedicating a chapel or an oratory within another building.

This liturgy does not preclude the use of the Place of Worship for educational, missional, or social purposes, or for other activities that give glory to God and build up the Church.

It is desirable that all members of the Congregation, young and old, have some individual or collective part in the celebration, as well as the architect, builders, musicians, artists, benefactors, and friends.

Instructions for the setting apart of a church or chapel long in use, and for other special cases, are provided in Additional Directions (page 537). Also provided is a form for secularizing a facility previously used as a Place of Worship, when the use of the building for worship, or for the ministry of the Congregation, has ended (page 538).

On the day appointed, the clergy and people gather with the Bishop in a place apart from the church, chapel, or place of worship to be consecrated.

When all are ready, the Bishop says

Through the ages, Almighty God hath moved his people to build houses of prayer and praise, and to set apart places for the ministry of his holy Word and Sacraments. With gratitude for the building [or rebuilding, or acquisition, or adornment] of _____ (name of church), we are now gathered to consecrate and dedicate it in God's Name.

Let us pray.

O Eternal God, mighty in power, of majesty incomprehensible, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands; and who yet hast been graciously pleased to promise thy holy presence in whatsoever place even two or three of thy faithful servants shall assemble in thy Name: Vouchsafe, O Lord, to be present with us, who are now gathered together to consecrate this place, with all humility and readiness of heart, to the honor of thy great Name; separating it henceforth from all unhallowed, ordinary, and common uses; and dedicating it entirely to thy service, for reading therein thy most holy Word, for celebrating thy holy Sacraments, for offering to thy glorious majesty the sacrifice of prayer and thanksgiving, for blessing thy people in thy Name, and for the mission of thy Church: Accept, O Lord, this service at our hands, and fill this place with thy glory; through Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Savior. Amen.

The clergy and people enter the Church. Standing at the door of the church, the Bishop knocks three times on the door with his pastoral staff, saying Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be lift up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

People Who is this King of glory? It is the LORD, strong and mighty, even the LORD mighty in battle. The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

PSALM 24:7-8,10

The doors are opened by the Rector and Wardens.

With the pastoral staff, the Bishop marks the threshold with the sign of the Cross of Christ, saying

Peace be to this house and to all who enter here: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Here the Bishop may use the Oil of Exorcism.

May our Lord Jesus Christ put his seal upon this place and protect it from all evil and darkness, that it may be a beacon of his truth and love.

If the Font is at the entrance, the blessing may occur here, followed by the procession and the Prayer for the Consecration of the Church; if not, the procession moves into the midst of the church.

During the procession, a hymn may be sung, or Psalm 122 or some other appropriate psalm may be sung or said.

The Congregation standing, the Bishop begins the Prayer for the Consecration of the Church

Everliving Father, watchful and caring, our source and our end:
All that we are and all that we have is thine. Hear us now, as we dedicate this place unto which we come to praise thy Name, to ask thy forgiveness, to know thy healing power, to hear thy Word, and to be nourished by the Body and Blood of thy Son.
Be present always to guide and to judge, to illumine and to bless thy people.

A Warden or other representative of the Congregation continues

Lord Jesus Christ, make this a temple of thy presence and a house of prayer. Be always near us when we seek thee in this place. Draw us unto thyself to find comfort and wisdom, to be supported and strengthened, and to rejoice and give thee thanks.
Grant, O Lord Christ, that here we may be united with thee and with one another, so that our lives may be sustained and sanctified for thy service.

The Rector or Minister in charge continues

Holy Spirit, open our eyes, our ears, and our hearts, that we may grow closer to thee through joy and through suffering. Be with us in the fullness of thy power as new members are added to God's household, as we grow in grace through the years, when we are joined in Holy Matrimony, when we turn to thee in sickness or special need, and, at the last, when we are committed into the Father's hands.

The Bishop pronounces the Sentence of Consecration, in this or some other form

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I, N., by divine grace Bishop of _____, by virtue of the spiritual authority entrusted to me, now therefore consecrate this Place of Worship, setting it apart from unhallowed and profane use, and dedicating it to Almighty God for the ministration of his holy Word and Sacraments, for building up the Body of Christ, for the mission of the Church, and for public worship according to the rites and ceremonies of the Anglican Church in North America.

All gathered respond, saying

Amen.

INSTRUMENTS AND BELLS

When instruments of music are to be dedicated, the Bishop proceeds to an appropriate place, and says

Father, whose people worship thee with many voices and sounds, in times of joy and sorrow; move us to express the wonder, the power, and the glory of thy creation and thy salvation in the music we make and in the songs we sing.

People Praise him with the sound of the trumpet;
Praise him upon the lute and harp. PSALM 150:3

We dedicate these _____ (names of instruments) in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Instruments are sounded. Bells may be rung. A hymn or anthem may be sung.

THE FONT OR BASIN

If the Font has not already been set apart, the Bishop moves to the Font, lays a hand upon it, and says

Almighty and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water, figuring thereby the Sacrament of Holy Baptism; we thank thee that by faith and through the waters of Baptism we die to sin and are reborn in Christ. Grant through thy Spirit that those baptized here may enjoy the liberty and splendor of the children of God.

People There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
One God and Father of all. EPHESIANS 4:4-5

We dedicate this Font in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Water may be poured into the Font (and the Paschal Candle lit if it to be used to bless the Font), the Bishop saying

Therefore, O Father, sanctify this water by the power of thy Holy Ghost, and grant that all who are baptized here be cleansed from sin, be born again, and continue for ever faithful in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior; to whom, with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, now and evermore. Amen.

If the Paschal Candle was not used to bless the Font, it may now be lit.

THE LECTERN

The Bishop proceeds to the lectern, lays a hand upon it, and says

Father, thine eternal Word speaks to us through the words of Holy Scripture. Here we read about thy mighty acts and purposes in history, and about those who served thee faithfully. Inspired by the revelation of thy Son, we seek to do thy will. Give us ears to hear and hearts to obey.

Thy word is a lantern unto my feet

People And a light unto my paths.

PSALM 119:105

We dedicate this lectern in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

At the dedication of the lectern, the Bible may be brought forward and put into place.

THE PULPIT

The Bishop goes to the pulpit, lays a hand upon it, and says

Father, who in every age hath spoken through the voices of prophets, pastors, and teachers: Purify the lives and the lips of those who speak here, that the Gospel of Christ may be boldly and faithfully proclaimed, for the building up of thy Church and the extension of thy kingdom.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

People Be alway acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

PSALM 19:14

We dedicate this pulpit in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

THE HOLY TABLE

The Bishop proceeds to the altar, and says

Father, on the night that he was betrayed, thy Son Jesus Christ didst institute for us the banquet of our salvation. Accept here our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, in union with the one perfect sacrifice of thy Son. Grant that all who eat and drink at this Holy Table may be fed and refreshed by the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. May they come with penitent hearts, lively faith, and perfect charity; and, being filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, obtain remission of their sins, and all other benefits of his passion.

Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life;

People And I will raise him up at the last day. JOHN 6:54

The Bishop lays a hand upon the Holy Table, and continues

We dedicate and consecrate this Table in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. May it be unto us a sign of the heavenly Altar where thy saints and angels praise thee for ever. Amen.

Members of the Congregation vest the Holy Table, place the vessels on it, and light the candles.

The Bishop concludes the acts of Consecration and Dedication saying

O God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, sanctify this place;

People For all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine.

Bishop Thine is the kingdom, O LORD;

People And thou art exalted as head above all.

Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Deacon or a member of the Congregation leads the Prayers of the People, saying

We praise thee, almighty and eternal God, that for us and for our salvation, thou didst send thy Son Jesus Christ to be born among us, that through him we might become thy sons and daughters.

Blessed be thy Name, Lord God.

We praise thee for his life on earth, and for his death upon the Cross, through which he offered himself as a perfect sacrifice.

Blessed be thy Name, Lord God.

We praise thee for raising him from the dead, and for exalting him to be our great High Priest.

Blessed be thy Name, Lord God.

We praise thee for sending thy Holy Ghost to make us holy, and to unite us in thy holy Church.

Blessed be thy Name, Lord God.

Either silently or aloud we now bring before Almighty God our petitions and intercessions:

Other petitions and intercessions may be offered.

After a period of silence, the Bishop concludes with the following prayer

We give you thanks, O God, for the gifts of your people, and for the work of many hands, which have beautified this place and furnished it for the celebration of your holy mysteries. Accept and bless all we have done, and grant that in these earthly things we may behold the order and beauty of things heavenly; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION OF SIN

The Deacon or other person appointed says the following

We pray to thee also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

The Deacon and People kneel as able and pray

Most merciful God,

 we confess that we have sinned against thee
 in thought, word and deed,
 by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved thee with our whole heart;

 we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,

 have mercy on us and forgive us;
 that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways,
 to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

The Bishop stands and says

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PEACE

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with thy spirit.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Preface for the Dedication of a Church is used.

After the Post Communion Prayer, the Bishop may pray

Blessed be thy Name, O Lord God, for that it pleaseth thee to make thy habitation among the children of men, and to dwell in the midst of the assembly of the saints upon earth: Bless, we beseech thee, the service of this day, and grant that in this place, now set apart to thy glory, thy holy Name may be worshiped in truth and purity to all generations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop blesses the people and a Deacon or Priest dismisses them.

ADDITIONAL DIRECTIONS

When the clergy and people assemble before the service, they may gather out of doors, in the parish house, in a former or neighboring place of worship, or in some other building. When convenient, the procession may go around the building(s) to be dedicated and then go to the principal door. Hymns or psalms may be used in procession.

The use of portable musical instruments is suitable. When the weather is inclement, or other circumstances make it necessary, the Congregation may assemble inside the church; the Bishop, other clergy, and attendants will enter in procession through the principal door.

When a new church is being consecrated, it may be desirable that sacred vessels, ornaments, and decorations be carried into the building in the procession. Such things as the deed for the property and the blueprint of the building(s), the keys, and the tools used in its construction may also be carried by appropriate persons.

The cross, signed on the threshold by the Bishop, may also be marked in lasting form (incised, painted, inlaid). In place of a pastoral staff, the foot of a processional cross may be used for the signing.

Selected verses of psalms, hymns, or instrumental music may be used as the ministers move from one part of the church to another.

At the dedication of the Font, children or other lay persons may be assigned the task of pouring the water.

If one reading stand is to serve as both lectern and pulpit, only one of the prayers, and one of the versicles and responses, are used, followed by the words of dedication.

At the dedication and consecration of an altar, the Oil of Chrism may appropriately be used to mark five crosses on the unadorned Altar Table, one each at the four corners and one in the center.

FOR THE DEDICATION OF CHURCHES AND CHAPELS IN SPECIAL CASES

If the place of public worship is also to serve as a school or parish hall, or for some other suitable purpose, the liturgy may be adapted to the circumstances, with the Bishop's permission.

If the church is also to be used for regular worship by other Christian bodies, it is appropriate that their representatives take part in the service, and that the service be adapted.

When buildings have been used for public worship over many years without having been consecrated, consecration and dedication are appropriate. Furnishings already dedicated are not set apart again.

SECULARIZATION OF A BUILDING PREVIOUSLY CONSECRATED AND DEDICATED

The altar(s) and all consecrated and dedicated objects that are to be preserved are removed from the building prior to the service.

The Bishop, or a Minister appointed by the Bishop, begins with these or similar words

We who are gathered here know that this building which hath been set apart for the ministry of God's holy Word and Sacraments will no longer be dedicated to this use [or will be taken down]. We thank Almighty God for all that he hath accomplished here.

The Declaration of Secularization is now read.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

On the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____, at the hands of N.N., Bishop of _____, this building was duly consecrated and dedicated [in honor of _____]. The Sentence of Consecration has been in effect until this date.

I, N.N., Bishop of _____, do hereby revoke the said Sentence, and do remit this building, and all the objects remaining in it, for any lawful and reputable use, according to the laws of this land.

This building, having now been declared deconsecrated and secularized, I declare to be no longer subject to my canonical jurisdiction or that of this Church.

This Declaration is given under my hand and seal, in the City of _____, State/Province/Commonwealth of _____,
in the Year of our Lord _____. (Signed) _____

The service concludes with the Lord's Prayer and such other prayers, including the following litany, as the Bishop may direct.

A LITANY OF THANKSGIVING FOR A CHURCH

Let us thank God whom we worship here in the beauty of holiness.

Eternal God, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands: Graciously receive our thanks for this place, and accept the work of our hands, offered to thy honor and glory.

For the Church universal, of which these visible buildings are a symbol,

We thank thee, Lord.

For thy presence whenever two or three have gathered together in thy Name,

We thank thee, Lord.

For this place where we may be still and know that thou art God,

We thank thee, Lord.

For making us thy children by adoption and grace, and refreshing us day by day with the bread of life.

We thank thee, Lord.

For the knowledge of thy will and the grace to perform it,

We thank thee, Lord.

For the fulfilling of our desires and petitions
as thou seest best for us,

We thank thee, Lord.

For the pardon of our sins, which restoreth us to the company of thy faithful people,

We thank thee, Lord.

For the blessing of our vows and the crowning of our years with thy goodness,

We thank thee, Lord.

For the faith of those who have gone before us and for our encouragement by their perseverance,

We thank thee, Lord.

For the fellowship of [N., our patron, and of] all thy saints,

We thank thee, Lord.

This Litany may be used on the anniversary of the consecration or dedication of a church, or on other suitable occasions, in which case the Celebrant concludes with the following Doxology.

Celebrant Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as Head above all. All things come of thee, O LORD,

People And of thine own have we given thee.

S P E C I A L L I T U R G I E S of

C O N C E R N I N G A S H W E D N E S D A Y

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the season of Lent: a time of penitence, fasting, and prayer, in preparation for the great feast of the resurrection.

The season of Lent began in the early days of the Church as a time of preparation for those seeking to be baptized at the Easter Vigil. The forty days refer to our Lord's time of fasting in the wilderness; and since Sundays are never fast days, Ash Wednesday is the beginning of the Lenten Fast.

Throughout the Old Testament, ashes are used as a sign of sorrow and repentance, and Christians have traditionally used ashes to indicate sorrow for our own sin, and as a reminder that the wages of sin is death (ROMANS 6:23). Like Adam and Eve, we have disobeyed and rebelled against God, and are under the same judgment, “you are dust, and to dust you shall return” (GENESIS 3:19).

But as we are marked with ashes in the same manner that we were signed with the Cross in Baptism, we are also reminded of the life we share in Jesus Christ, the second Adam (ROMANS 5:17, 6:4). It is in this sure hope that we begin the journey of these forty days, that by hearing and answering our Savior’s call to repent, we may enter fully into the joyful celebration of his resurrection.

A S H W E D N E S D A Y

The Ministers may enter in silence, or a hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The People stand, and the Officiant says

Bless the Lord who forgiveth all our sins.

People His mercy endureth for ever.

The Officiant invites the People to the observance of a holy Lent, either here or following the sermon, saying

Dearly beloved, the first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for the same by a season of penitence and fasting. This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for holy Baptism. It was also a time when such persons as had, by reason of notorious sins, been separated from the body of the faithful, were reconciled and restored to the fellowship of the Church by penitence and forgiveness. Thereby the whole Congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution contained in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have of a renewal of their repentance and faith.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent: by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and alms-giving; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

And to make a right beginning, let us now pray for grace, that we may faithfully keep this Lent.

The Officiant and people kneel. A period of silent prayer follows.

The Officiant then says

Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PENITENTIAL PSALM AND IMPOSITION OF ASHES

The Officiant says

Let us now call to mind our sin and the infinite mercy of God.

If ashes are to be imposed, the Officiant says

Almighty God, who didst create us from the dust of the earth:
Grant that these ashes may be unto us a symbol of our mortality and a sign of our penitence, that we may remember that it is by thy grace alone that we receive the gift of eternal life in Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Then ashes are imposed with the following words

Remember, O man, that thou art dust, and to dust thou shalt return.

P S A L M 5 I

All kneel. Psalm 51:1-17 is sung or said.

- 1 Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness; *
according to the multitude of thy mercies do away
mine offenses.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness, *
and cleanse me from my sin.
- 3 For I acknowledge my faults, *
and my sin is ever before me.
- 4 Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; *
that thou mightest be justified in thy saying,
and clear when thou shalt judge.
- 5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness, *
and in sin hath my mother conceived me.
- 6 But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts, *
and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.
- 7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; *
thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
- 8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
- 9 Turn thy face from my sins, *
and put out all my misdeeds.
- 10 Make me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.
- 11 Cast me not away from thy presence, *
and take not thy holy Spirit from me.
- 12 O give me the comfort of thy help again, *
and stablish me with thy free Spirit.
- 13 Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked, *
and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

- ¹⁴ Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God,
thou that art the God of my health; *
and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.
- ¹⁵ Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord, *
and my mouth shall show thy praise.
- ¹⁶ For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee; *
but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.
- ¹⁷ The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: *
a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

CONFSSION AND LITANY OF PENITENCE

The Deacon or other person appointed says

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence may follow. The Officiant and People together, all kneeling, pray

Most holy and merciful Father,
we confess unto thee, and to one another,
and to the whole communion of saints
in heaven and on earth,
that we have sinned, through our own fault
in thought, word, and deed;

by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart, and mind,
and strength.

We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

nor have we forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.
We have failed to heed thy call to serve, as Christ served us,
and we have abandoned the mind of Christ.

We have grieved thy Holy Spirit.

Reader Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

The Reader alone continues, and the People respond

For all our unfaithfulness and disobedience;
for the pride, vanity, and hypocrisy of our lives;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our self-pity and impatience, and our envy of those we think more fortunate than ourselves;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our unrighteous anger, bitterness, and resentment;
for all lies, gossip, and slander against our neighbors;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our sexual impurity, our exploitation of other people,
and our failure to give of ourselves in love;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our self-indulgent appetites and ways,
and our intemperate pursuit of worldly goods and comforts;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our dishonesty in daily life and work,
our ingratitude for thy gifts, and our failure to heed thy call.
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our wastefulness and misuse of thy creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For all false judgments, for prejudice and contempt of others,
and for all uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our negligence in prayer and worship;
for our presumption and abuse of thy means of grace;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For seeking the praise of others rather than the approval of God;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

For our failure to commend the faith that is in us;
Lord, have mercy upon us:

People For we have sinned against thee.

All then pray

Be favorable, O Lord, be favorable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, longsuffering, and of great pity.
Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us; through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

The Bishop, if present, or the Priest, alone stands and says

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, desireth not the death of sinners, but that they may turn from their wickedness and live. He hath empowered and commanded his ministers to pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all who truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that our present deeds may please him, the rest of our lives may be pure and holy, and that at the last we may come unto his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or the following

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COMFORTABLE WORDS

The Officiant may then say one or more of the following sentences, first saying

Hear the Word of God to all who truly turn to him.

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. MATTHEW 11:28

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. JOHN 3:16^r

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

I TIMOTHY 1:15

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the perfect offering for our sins, and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world.

I JOHN 2:1-2^T

THE PEACE

Officiant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

When there is Communion, the liturgy continues with the Offertory. The Proper Preface of Lent is used. The prayer below may be said by the Celebrant before the final blessing.

If there is no Communion, the Lord's Prayer is then said. The following prayer may be used to conclude the liturgy.

Officiant Let us pray.

O Lord our God, grant us grace to desire thee with our whole heart:
that desiring thee, we may seek thee;
and that seeking thee, we may find thee;
and that finding thee, we may love thee;
and that loving thee, we may hate those sins from which thou hast delivered us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

The silence after the Invitation to a Holy Lent is an integral part of the rite, and should not be omitted or reduced to a mere pause. Other periods of silence may be observed to allow for meditation, self-examination, and prayer.

The ashes are traditionally made from the palms of the previous Palm Sunday.

In the absence of a Priest, and with the authorization of the Bishop, a Deacon or lay person may lead the liturgy, except that instead of the absolution, the following words are used:

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

C O N C E R N I N G P A L M S U N D A Y

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. The procession with palms, which was already observed in Jerusalem in the fourth century, calls to mind the triumphal entry of Jesus, our Lord and King, into Jerusalem. The procession is fundamentally an act of worship, witness, and devotion to our Lord.

Palm Sunday is unique in having two Gospel readings. Originally there were two distinct liturgies. The palms were blessed and the Triumphal Entry Gospel was read outside of the church building. The door of the church represented the gate through which Jesus entered the city.

The purpose of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem was to fulfill his Father's will; thus it is fitting that this service continues with the reading of the Passion Gospel in which the whole story of the week is anticipated. The emphasis of the liturgy turns to the days that lie ahead in Holy Week. We who hail Jesus as King one moment, may in the next deny him, even joining with the crowd in shouting, "Crucify him!"

When circumstances permit, the Congregation may gather at a place apart from the church, so that all may go into the church in procession. Palms or other branches to be carried in the procession may be distributed to the people as they arrive, or after the prayer of blessing.

The following or some other suitable anthem is said or sung.

Celebrant Hosanna to the Son of David, the King of Israel.

People Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant then greets the people and gives a brief introduction, inviting them to participate in the celebration using these or other similar words

Dearly beloved brethren, from the beginning of Lent until now we have been preparing our hearts by penance and self-sacrifice. Today, with the whole Church, we herald the beginning of the celebration of our Lord's Paschal Mystery. On this day our Lord Jesus Christ entered Jerusalem and was welcomed as King with palms and shouts of praise. Today we greet him as our King, though we know his crown was a crown of thorns, and his throne a Cross.

Therefore, I invite you to follow our Lord this Holy Week, from his triumphal entry, through his suffering and death, to the glory of his resurrection.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with thy help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby thou hast given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

All standing, the Deacon or Priest reads the Triumphal Entry Gospel, first saying

The Celebrant then says

Let us pray.

We praise thee, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which thou hast redeemed us through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was hailed as King by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Sanctify these branches with thy blessing, we humbly beseech thee, that they may be for us signs of his victory. Grant that we who bear them in his Name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leadeth to eternal life; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.

Amen.

The opening anthem may be repeated.

People Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Deacon Let us go forth in peace.
People In the Name of Christ. Amen.

During the procession all hold palms or branches, and appropriate hymns or anthems are sung, such as "All glory, laud and honor" and Psalm 118:19-29.

At a suitable place, the procession may halt while the following, or some other appropriate Collect, is said.

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the absence of a Bishop or Priest, the preceding service may be led by a Deacon or lay reader.

AT THE EUCHARIST

When the Liturgy of the Palms immediately precedes the Eucharist, the celebration begins with the Salutation and Collect of the Day.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the Cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also be made partakers in his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. The Passion Gospel may be read or chanted by clergy and lay persons. Specific roles may be assigned to individuals, the choir or Congregation taking the part of the crowd.

The Congregation may be seated for the first part of the Passion. All stand at the verse that mentions the arrival at Golgotha (Matthew 27:33, Mark 15:22, Luke 23:33). All may kneel in silence after the verse that mentions Christ's death (Matthew 27:50, Mark 15:37, Luke 23:46).

Following the Sermon, when the Liturgy of the Palms has preceded, the Nicene Creed and Prayers of the People may be omitted at the Eucharist.

The Preface of Holy Week is used.

C O N C E R N I N G M A U N D Y T H U R S D A Y

The Paschal mystery—the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ—is at the heart of the Christian Gospel. The evening of Maundy Thursday begins the Triduum (the sacred three days). This service, together with Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and The Great Vigil of Easter, form a single liturgy; thus, the final blessing and dismissal is reserved for the conclusion of the Great Vigil.

Maundy Thursday receives its name from the mandatum (commandment) given by our Lord: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another” (JOHN 13:34). At the Last Supper, Jesus washed his disciples’ feet and commanded them to love and serve one another as he had done. This day commemorates the Lord’s example of servant ministry, the institution of the Eucharist, the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, and the betrayal leading to the crucifixion.

M A U N D Y T H U R S D A Y

This liturgy is celebrated in the evening. A silent procession may replace the processional hymn.

Celebrant Blessed be our God.

People Now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant may say

This is the night that Christ the Son of Man gathered with his disciples in the upper room.

This is the night that Christ our Lord and Master took a towel and washed the disciples' feet, calling us to love one another as he has loved us.

This is the night that Christ our God gave us this holy feast, that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may here proclaim his perfect sacrifice.

This is the night that Christ the Lamb of God gave himself into the hands of those who would slay him.

THE COLLECT

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, did institute the Sacrament of his Body and Blood; Mercifully grant that we may thankfully receive the same in remembrance of him, who in these holy mysteries giveth us a pledge of life eternal; the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE FOOT-WASHING

When observed, the ceremony of the washing of feet appropriately follows the sermon. If it is desired to introduce the ceremony by a brief address, the following may be used.

Fellow servants of our Lord Jesus Christ: On the night before his death, Jesus set an example for his disciples by washing their feet, an act of humble service. He taught that strength and growth in the life of the kingdom of God come not by worldly power and authority, but by such lowly service.

Therefore, I invite you [who have been appointed as representatives of the Congregation and] who share in the royal priesthood of Christ to come forward, that we may recall whose servants we are by following the example of our Master. Come now remembering his admonition that what will be done for you is also to be done by you to others. Engrave on your hearts and mirror in your actions Jesus' words: "The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."

During the ceremony, the following or some other suitable hymns or anthems may be sung or said.

The Lord Jesus, rising from supper, laid aside his outer garments, took a towel, and washed his disciples' feet. Then he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

JOHN 13:12,14^T

A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

JOHN 13:34

The liturgy continues with the Prayers of the People.

Where it is desired to administer Holy Communion on Good Friday, the Sacrament for that purpose is consecrated at this service.

The Preface of Maundy Thursday is used.

If the Stripping of the Altar is observed as a public ceremony, it takes place at the conclusion of the Maundy Thursday liturgy. It may be done in silence, or it may be accompanied by the recitation of Psalm 22, which is sung or said without the Gloria Patri.

The final blessing and dismissal are omitted. The Congregation departs in silence.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

Consecrated elements to be received on Good Friday should be kept in a place apart from the main sanctuary of the church. They may be carried to that place at the end of Communion on Maundy Thursday, prior to the stripping of the Altar. An appropriate hymn or anthem, such as "Now my tongue the mystery telling," may be sung.

The opening sentences are adapted with permission from the Anglican Church of Canada, Book of Alternative Services, 1985, all rights reserved.

The Good Friday liturgy is the second part of the Triduum (the sacred three days). This most somber of all days is appropriately marked by fasting, abstinence, and penitence, leading us to focus on Jesus and the meaning of his Cross. Some churches do not use musical instruments or bells on this day. The church is often darkened. The bare, stark appearance of the church serves as a reminder of the solemnity and the sorrow of the day. The Lord of Life was rejected, mocked, scourged, and then put to death on the Cross. The faithful are reminded of the role which their own sin played in this suffering and agony, as Christ took all sin upon himself, in obedience to his Father's will. By the Cross we are redeemed, set free from bondage to sin and death. The Cross is a sign of God's never-ending love for us. It is a sign of life, in the midst of death.

In addition to the liturgies for the Triduum, there are many other edifying devotions appropriate for this day, including The Way of the Cross, Tenebrae, and The Seven Last Words.

G O O D F R I D A Y

On this day the ministers enter in silence.

All then kneel for silent prayer.

The Officiant rises and may say

All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have turned every one to his own way,
People And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

The Officiant says

Let us pray.

Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.
Amen.

GENESIS 22:1-18 or ISAIAH 52:13—53:12

PSALM 22:1-11 (12-21)^v or 40:1-16^v or 69:1-22^v

HEBREWS 10:1-25

The Passion Gospel is announced in the following manner

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

The customary responses before and after the Gospel are omitted.

JOHN 18:1—19:37 or 19:1–37

The Passion Gospel may be read or chanted by clergy and lay persons. Specific roles may be assigned to different persons, the choir or Congregation taking the part of the crowd.

The Congregation may be seated for the first part of the Passion. All stand at the verse that mentions the arrival at Golgotha (John 19:17). All may kneel in silence after the verse that mentions Christ's death (John 19:30).

THE SERMON

A hymn may be sung.

THE SOLEMN COLLECTS

All standing, the Officiant says

Dearly beloved brethren: Our heavenly Father sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved; that all who believe in him might be delivered from the power of sin and death, and become heirs with him of everlasting life.

We pray, therefore, for people everywhere according to their needs.

The biddings may be read by a Deacon or other person appointed. The Officiant says the Collects. The People may be directed to stand or kneel.

Let us pray for the holy Church throughout the world: that the Lord our God may preserve her in unity, peace, and safety, bringing into divine subjection all powers and principalities; and that he may grant unto us to dwell in such quiet and tranquility that we may show forth the glory of God.

Silence

Almighty Father, we humbly beseech thee for thy holy catholic Church; that thou wouldest be pleased to fill it with all truth, in all peace. Where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where in anything it is amiss, reform it. Where it is right, establish it; where it is in want, provide for it; where it is divided, reunite it; for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Savior. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for N. our Bishop and for N. our Archbishop: that like as the Lord our God hath appointed them to their offices, so he may preserve them in health and safety for the governance of God's holy people.

Silence

Almighty and everlasting God, whose judgment upholdeth all things in heaven and earth: We beseech thee mercifully to have respect unto our prayers, that like as thou hast appointed these thy servants to be our Bishops so thou wouldest of thy mercy defend them against all adversities; and that we, acknowledging thee alone as the great Bishop and Shepherd of our souls, may so prosper by their care that we may duly increase in bringing forth the fruits of righteousness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons; and for all the holy people of God.

Silence

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all members of thy holy church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and godly serve thee; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for N. our President/Sovereign/Prime Minister, and for all in Civil Authority; that they, knowing whose ministers they are, may above all things seek God's honor and glory: and that we and all the people, duly considering whose authority they bear, may faithfully and obediently honor them in accordance with God's holy Word.

Silence

Almighty God, whose kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite: We commend this nation to thy merciful care, that being guided by thy Providence, we may dwell secure in thy peace. Grant to our President/Sovereign/Prime Minister, and to all in authority, wisdom and strength to know and to do thy will. Fill them with the love of truth and righteousness; and make them ever mindful of their calling to serve this people in thy fear; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for those who are preparing for Holy Baptism [especially _____]: that the Lord our God may open their hearts to his grace and mercy; that by the washing of regeneration they may obtain the remission of all their sins, and be found faithful servants of our Lord Christ Jesus.

Silence

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost ever increase thy Church in each generation: We beseech thee that thou wouldest grant the gifts of faith and understanding to them being taught in thy holy Word; that being washed in the waters of Baptism, they may be born again and numbered among thine adopted children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray likewise to God the Father Almighty, that he would cleanse the world from all evil, deliver it from pestilence and famine, set free them that are in captivity; restore the sick to health, and bring them that travel to a haven of safety.

Silence

Gracious God, the comfort of all that sorrow, the strength of all that suffer: Let the cry of those in misery and need come unto thee, that they may find thy mercy present with them in all their afflictions; and give us, we beseech thee, the strength to serve them for the sake of him who suffered for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for all them that are in heresy or schism: that the Lord our God may deliver them from all false doctrines, and restore them to the faith and unity of the one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

Silence

O God of truth and love, who desireth not the death of a sinner but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live: Look with mercy upon those who are deceived by the lies of the world, the flesh, and the devil; that the hearts of those who have gone astray may be restored to wisdom and return to the way of truth in the unity of thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for the Jewish people: that the Lord our God may look graciously upon them, and that they may come to know Jesus as the Messiah, and as the Lord of all.

Silence

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst of old establish thy covenant with Abraham and his seed: Hear the prayers of thy Church, that the people through whom thou didst bring blessing to the world may also receive the blessing of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for all those who do not believe in Christ, that the Holy Ghost may enlighten them through the Gospel and bring them into the way of salvation.

Silence

Merciful God, creator of all men and lover of all souls: Have mercy upon all who know thee not as thou art revealed in thy Son Jesus Christ; let thy Gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it; turn the hearts of those who resist it; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy fold, that they may be made one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us commit ourselves to our God, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that, with all who have died in the peace of Christ, and with those whose faith is known to God alone, we may be accounted worthy to enter into the fullness of the joy of our Lord, and receive the crown of life in the day of resurrection.

Silence

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably upon thy whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; and by the tranquil operation of thy providence, carry out the work of man's salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being renewed unto the perfection of him through whom all things were made, thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Appropriate devotions may follow, which may include any or all of the following. If desired, the liturgy may end here with the singing of a hymn or anthem, the Lord's Prayer, and the Concluding Prayer.

DEVOTION BEFORE THE CROSS

A wooden cross may now be brought into the church and placed in the sight of the people. The following antiphon may be said or sung three times as the cross is being uncovered.

Behold the wood of the Cross, whereon which was hung the world's Salvation.

People O come, let us adore him.

The following or other suitable anthems may be said or sung.

THE REPROACHES

O my people, what have I done unto thee?
Or wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me..
I brought thee forth from the land of bondage,
and led thee through the waters of salvation,
and thou hast prepared a Cross for your Savior.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

I led thee through the desert forty years,
and fed thee with manna;
I brought thee into the land of promise,
and thou hast prepared a Cross for thy Savior.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

What could I have done unto thee that I have not done?
I indeed did plant thee, O my vineyard, with exceeding fair fruit:
and thou art become very bitter unto me:
for vinegar, mingled with gall, thou gavest me when thirsty.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

I passed over thy first-born and delivered them from death,
and thou hast delivered me into the hands of mine enemies;
I led thee in the pillar of cloud,
and thou didst lead me unto the judgment hall of Pilate.
O my people, what have I done unto thee?
Or wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

I did strike down the kings of the Canaanites for thy sake,
and thou didst strike my head with a reed;
I gave unto thee a royal inheritance,
and thou hast crowned my head with thorns.
O my people, what have I done unto thee?
Or wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

I did open the rock and give thee to drink from the water of life,
and thou didst open my side with a spear.
I did raise thee on high with great power,
and thou didst hang me high upon the Cross.
O my church, what have I done unto thee?
Or wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

A N T H E M I

We glory in thy Cross, O Lord,
and praise and glorify thy holy resurrection;
for by virtue of the Cross
joy hath come to the whole world.

God be merciful unto us and bless us,
show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;
That thy way may be known upon earth,
thy saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
yea, let all the peoples praise thee.

We glory in thy Cross, O Lord,
and praise and glorify thy holy resurrection;
for by virtue of the Cross
joy hath come to the whole world.

A N T H E M 2

We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee,
because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:
If we suffer, we shall also reign with him.
We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee,
because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The hymn “Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle,” or some other hymn extolling the glory of the Cross, may then be sung.

In the absence of a Bishop or Priest, all that precedes may be led by a Deacon or lay reader.

DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION

The rite of Holy Eucharist is not celebrated on this day.

If there is no Communion, the liturgy continues with the Concluding Prayer.

If Communion is to be administered from previously consecrated elements, the following order is observed.

The Deacon or other person appointed says the following

Ye who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins and are in love and charity with your neighbors and intend to lead the new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways: Draw near with faith, and make your humble confession to Almighty God.

Silence

The Deacon and People kneel as able and pray

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
maker of all things, judge of all men:
We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness,
which we from time to time most grievously have committed,
by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty,
provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us.

We do earnestly repent,
and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings;
the remembrance of them is grievous unto us,
the burden of them is intolerable.

Have mercy upon us,
Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,
forgive us all that is past;
and grant that we may evermore serve and please thee
in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop or Priest stands and says

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant then says

And now as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say:

The Officiant and People together pray the Lord's Prayer. The concluding doxology is customarily omitted.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Facing the People, the Officiant may say the following invitation

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him that taketh away the sins of the world.

JOHN 1:29^T

The Ministers receive the Sacrament, and then immediately deliver it to the People.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

If the Lord's Prayer has not already been said, it is said here. The concluding doxology is customarily omitted.

The service always concludes with the following prayer. No blessing or dismissal is added.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we pray thee to set thy passion, cross, and death between thy judgment and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Give mercy and grace to the living; pardon and rest to the dead; to thy holy Church peace and concord; and to us sinners everlasting life and glory; for with the Father and the Holy Ghost thou livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Ministers and People depart in silence.

H O L Y S A T U R D A Y

There is no celebration of the Eucharist on this day.

The Officiant says

Let us pray.

O God, Creator of heaven and earth: Grant that, as the crucified body of thy dear Son was laid in the tomb and rested on this holy Sabbath, so we may await with him the coming of the third day, and rise with him to newness of life; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

O God of the living, on this day thy Son our Savior descended to the place of the dead: Look with kindness upon all of us who wait in hope for liberation from the corruption of sin and death, and grant unto us a share in the glory of the children of God; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

THE LESSONS

JOB 14:1-14

PSALM 130 or 88 or 31:1-6^v

I PETER 4:1-8

MATTHEW 27:57-66 or JOHN 19:38-42

After the Gospel, a homily may follow.

The following is then sung or said.

THE ANTHEM

Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery.

He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower;
he fleeth as it were a shadow,
and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death:
of whom may we seek for succor,
but of thee, O Lord,
who for our sins art justly displeased?

Yet, O Lord God most holy,
O Lord most mighty,
O holy and most merciful Savior,
deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, O Lord, the secrets of our hearts;
shut not thy merciful ears to our prayer;
but spare us, Lord most holy,
O God most mighty,
O holy and merciful Savior,
thou most worthy Judge eternal,
suffer us not, at our last hour,
for any pains of death, to fall from thee.

The Officiant and People together pray the Lord's Prayer. The concluding doxology is customarily omitted.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Officiant concludes

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore.

Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS 13:14^T

C O N C E R N I N G T H E G R E A T V I G I L O F E A S T E R

The Great Vigil, when observed, is the first liturgy of Easter Day. It is celebrated at a convenient time between sunset on Holy Saturday and sunrise on Easter morning. It is appropriate that the service begin in darkness. The liturgy normally consists of four parts:

The Service of Light: a new fire is kindled, and from it the Paschal Candle is lit, symbolizing Christ, the light of the world. The Exsultet, an ancient song of praise, is sung or said as the climax of this part of the liturgy.

The Service of Lessons: key passages from Scripture recount the history of God's mighty acts and promises. These readings are accompanied by psalms, canticles, and prayers.

Holy Baptism is the Sacrament through which candidates are united to the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (ROMANS 6:3-4), which the Church celebrates on this most holy night. When the Bishop is present, confirmation may also be administered. If there are no candidates for Baptism or confirmation, the Congregation joins in a Renewal of Baptismal Vows.

The Holy Eucharist is the proper culmination of the Easter Liturgy. As we keep this holy feast, we share the joy of our Savior's triumph and are strengthened by his grace to walk in newness of life.

THE LIGHTING OF THE PASCHAL CANDLE

In the darkness, fire is kindled; after which the Celebrant says

Dearly beloved in Christ: On this most holy night, in which our Lord Jesus passed over from death unto life, the Church invites her sons and daughters, scattered throughout the world, to gather in vigil and prayer. For this is the Passover of the Lord, in which, by hearing his Word and celebrating his Sacraments, we share in his victory over death.

The Celebrant may say the following prayer

Eternal God, who hast illumined this most holy night with the brightness of thy one true Light: Sanctify this new fire, we beseech thee, and so set us aflame with the fire of thy love, that with pure hearts and kindled affections we may attain unto the radiance of thy heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

If the Paschal Candle is to be marked, it is done at this time (Page 595).

The Celebrant lights the Paschal Candle from the newly kindled fire, and says

May the light of Christ, in glory rising, banish all darkness of heart and mind.

The Deacon (or the Celebrant if there is no Deacon), bearing the Candle, leads the procession to the chancel, pausing three times and singing or saying

The light of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.

If candles have been distributed to members of the Congregation, they are lit from the Paschal Candle. Other candles and lamps in the church, except for those at the Altar, may also be lit.

The Paschal Candle is placed in its stand.

Then the Deacon, or other person appointed, standing near the Candle, customarily sings or says the Exsultet.

THE EXSULTET

Rejoice now, ye heavenly hosts and choirs of angels, and let your trumpets shout Salvation for the victory of our mighty King.

Rejoice and sing now, all the round earth,
bright with a glorious splendor,
for darkness hath been vanquished by our eternal King.

Rejoice and be glad now, Mother Church,
and let thy holy courts, in radiant light,
resound with the praises of thy people.

All ye that stand near this marvelous and holy flame, pray with me to God the Almighty for the grace to sing the worthy praise of this great light;

through Jesus Christ his Son our Lord, who liveth and reignth with him,
in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Deacon The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Deacon Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Deacon Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet and right, always and everywhere, with our whole heart and mind and voice to praise thee,
the invisible, almighty, and eternal God,
and thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ our Lord;
who paid for us the debt of Adam's sin,
and by his blood hath delivered thy faithful people;
for he is the true Paschal Lamb, the very Lamb of God, whose blood doth mark the doorposts of believers and make us holy.

This is the night when thou didst our forebears,
the children of Israel, out of bondage in Egypt,
and led them through the Red Sea on dry land.

| This is the night when with a pillar of fire
thou didst banish the darkness of our iniquity.

This is the night when all who believe in Christ are delivered from the gloom of sin, and are restored to grace and holiness of life.

This is the night when Christ broke the bonds of death and hell,
and rose victorious from the grave.

| Our birth would have been no gain,
had we not been redeemed.

How wonderful and beyond our knowing, O God,
is thy mercy and loving kindness to us,
that to redeem a slave, thou gavest a Son.

| O wonderful providence of Adam's sin destroyed completely by the death of Christ.
O happy fault, which gained for us so great and glorious a Redeemer.

This is the night of which it is written:
the night shall be as bright as the day.

How holy is this night when wickedness is put to flight,
and sin is washed away.

It restoreth innocence to the fallen, and joy to those who mourn.
It casteth out pride and hatred, and bringeth peace and concord.

How blessed is this night when earth and heaven are joined,
and Man is reconciled to God.

| Therefore, O holy Father, accept our evening sacrifice,
the offering of this candle in thy honor,
the work of bees and of your servants' hands,
the gift of your most holy Church.

May it mingle with the lights of heaven,
and shine continually to drive away all darkness.

May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting, find it ever burning—he who giveth his light to all creation, and who liveth and reigneth, world without end. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The Celebrant may introduce the Scripture readings in these or similar words

Let us hear the record of God's saving deeds in history, remembering how he saved his people in ages past and in the fullness of time sent his Son to be our Redeemer; and let us pray that God may bring to completion in each of us the saving work he hath begun.

At least three of the following Lessons are read, of which one is always the Lesson from Exodus. After each Lesson, the Psalm or Canticle listed, or some other suitable psalm, canticle, or hymn, may be said or sung. A period of silence may be kept; and the Collect provided, or some other suitable Collect, may be said.

THE CREATION

GENESIS 1:1—2:3

PSALM 104:1-13 (14-24)^v or
A SONG OF CREATION (Supplemental Canticle 10)

Let us pray. Silence

O God, who didst wonderfully create, and yet more wonderfully restore the dignity of human nature: Grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE FALL

GENESIS 3

PSALM 32

Let us pray. Silence

O God, who didst send thy blessed Son, the seed of the woman, that he might crush the head of the serpent and make all things new: Grant us, we beseech thee, that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that, when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE FLOOD

GENESIS 7:1-5, 11-18; 8:6-20; 9:8-13

PSALM 36 or PSALM 46

Let us pray. Silence

Grant, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Savior Jesus Christ, so by the continual mortifying of our corrupt affections we may be buried with him; and that, through the grave, and gate of death, we may pass to our joyful resurrection; for his merits, who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ABRAHAM'S SACRIFICE OF ISAAC

GENESIS 22:1-18

PSALM 16

Let us pray. Silence

Almighty God, whose servant Abraham faithfully hearkened unto thy call, and rejoiced to see the day of thy Son: Multiply, we beseech thee, the number of thy children by the grace of the Lamb that was slain; that thy Church may also rejoice to see thy promise to our father Abraham fulfilled; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ISRAEL'S DELIVERANCE AT THE RED SEA

EXODUS 14:10—15:1

THE SONG OF MOSES (Supplemental Canticle 5)

Let us pray. Silence

O God, whose wonderful deeds of old shine forth even to our own day; who by the power of thine own mighty arm once deliveredst thy chosen people from slavery under Pharaoh, to be a sign for us of the salvation offered to all nations by the water of Baptism: Grant that all the peoples of the earth may be numbered among the offspring of Abraham, and rejoice in the inheritance of Israel; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GOD'S PRESENCE IN A RENEWED ISRAEL

ISAIAH 4:2-6

PSALM 122

Let us pray. Silence

O God, who didst lead thine ancient people by a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night: Grant, we beseech thee, that we, who serve thee now on earth, may come to the joy of that heavenly Jerusalem, where every tear shall be wiped away, and where thy saints for ever sing thy praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SALVATION OFFERED FREELY TO ALL

ISAIAH 55:1-11

SURELY, IT IS GOD WHO DOTH SAVE ME (Supplemental Canticle 8)
or PSALM 42:1-7

Let us pray. Silence

O God, who didst create all things by the power of thy Word, and who renewest the face of the earth by the outpouring of thy Spirit: Grant, we pray thee, the water of life to those who thirst for thee, that they may bring forth abundant fruit in thy glorious kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A NEW HEART AND A NEW SPIRIT

EZEKIEL 36:24-28

PSALM 42:1-7 or

SURELY, IT IS GOD WHO DOTH SAVE ME (Supplemental Canticle 8)

Let us pray. Silence

Heavenly Father, who by the power of thy Holy Spirit dost promise unto thy faithful people regeneration in the water of Baptism: Guide and strengthen us by the same Spirit, that we who are born again may serve thee in faith and love, and grow into the full stature of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES

EZEKIEL 37:1-14

PSALM 30 or PSALM 126

Let us pray. Silence

Lord God of our salvation, who speakest the word to thy scattered people, and dost raise us up from the valley of death:
Vouchsafe to breathe thy Spirit upon thy Church, that we may live and stand before thee confident in thy risen Son our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE THREE YOUNG MEN IN THE FURNACE

DANIEL 3:1-28

A SONG OF CREATION (Supplemental Canticle 10) or A SONG OF PRAISE (Benedictus es, Domine)

Let us pray. Silence

O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: Grant unto us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JONAH AND THE FISH

JONAH 1:1—2:10

PSALM 130

Let us pray. Silence

Almighty God, who by the Passover of thy Son hast brought us out of sin into righteousness, and out of death into life: Grant to those who are sealed by thy Holy Spirit the will and the power to proclaim thee unto all the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GATHERING OF GOD'S PEOPLE

ZEPHANIAH 3:12-20

PSALM 98

Let us pray. Silence

Almighty God, who hast called thy Church to bear witness that thou wast in Christ reconciling the world unto thyself: Give us boldness, we beseech thee, to proclaim the good news of thy love, that all who hear it may be drawn unto thee; through him who was lifted high upon the Cross, even Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Or, if the Solemn Collects were not said on Good Friday, the following may be used

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably upon thy whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; and by the tranquil operation of thy providence, carry out the work of man's salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being renewed unto the perfection of him through whom all things were made, thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Holy Baptism may be administered here or after the Gospel (and sermon). Confirmation may likewise be administered as provided in Additional Directions. In the absence of Candidates for Baptism or Confirmation, the Celebrant leads the people in the Renewal of Baptismal Vows.

THE EASTER ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

A joyful fanfare may be played, and bells may be rung. The church is lighted, and the candles at the Altar may now be lighted from the Paschal Candle.

The Gloria in Excelsis, or some other hymn of praise, is sung or said

Glory be to God on high,
and on earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 that takest away the sins of the world,
 have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
 have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ,
 with the Holy Ghost,
 art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with your spirit.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who dost illumine this most holy night with the glory of the Lord's resurrection: Stir up, we beseech thee, in thy Church that Spirit of adoption which is given unto us in Baptism, that we, being regenerate both in body and soul, may render unto thee a pure service; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.
Amen.

The service continues with the Epistle reading

ROMANS 6:3-11

*Psalm 114 or some other suitable psalm, hymn, or anthem may be said or sung.
The use of "Alleluia" is particularly appropriate.*

All stand, and the Deacon or Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory be to thee, Lord Christ.

MATTHEW 28:1-10

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

BAPTISM, CONFIRMATION, AND THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

Holy Baptism may be administered here. Confirmation may likewise be administered as provided in Additional Directions. In the absence of Candidates for Baptism or Confirmation, the Celebrant leads the people in the Renewal of Baptismal Vows.

The celebration continues with the Prayers of the People.

The Preface of Easter is used at the Eucharist.

The following blessing may be used at the conclusion of the liturgy, in place of the usual blessing.

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

A D D I T I O N A L D I R E C T I O N S

At the Easter Vigil, one of three rites (Holy Baptism; Holy Baptism with Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation; or the Renewal of Baptismal Vows) follows either the Service of Lessons or the Sermon.

If there are Baptisms only, the order for Holy Baptism is followed, beginning with the Exhortation. If there are Baptisms and Confirmations, the order for Holy Baptism with Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation is followed. If there are Confirmations but no Baptisms, the order for Holy Baptism with Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation is used but ordered as follows:

Presentation of Adults Seeking the Laying on of Hands
The Profession of Faith
The Confirmations, Receptions and Reaffirmations
The prayer that begins, “Almighty and everliving God, let thy fatherly hand...”

The Easter Vigil then continues with the Easter Acclamation or the Prayers of the People.

According to ancient tradition, the light for the Paschal Candle is taken from newly kindled fire and not from an already existing source of light. If a new fire is kindled outside the building, the people may be invited to gather around the fire and to follow the Paschal Candle in procession.

Other than the Paschal Candle and any candles held by the Congregation, it is desirable that the building remain as dark as possible until the Easter Acclamation.

If desired, a homily may be preached after any of the readings in the Service of Lessons.

After the Easter Acclamation, the joy of the resurrection is appropriately demonstrated by bells and music. Bells may also be rung at the end of the service. In place of the Gloria in Excelsis, the Te Deum Laudamus or the Pascha Nostrum, or some other hymn of praise, may be used.

In the absence of a Bishop or Priest, a Deacon or lay reader may lead the first two parts of the service, the Renewal of Baptismal Vows, and the Ministry of the Word of the Vigil Eucharist, concluding with the Prayers of the People, the Lord's Prayer, and the Dismissal (but omitting the final blessing). When the services of a Priest cannot be obtained, and with the authorization of the Bishop, a Deacon may also officiate at public Baptism, and may administer Communion from the Sacrament previously consecrated.

Where the Vigil is not celebrated, the marking and lighting of the Paschal Candle may be used to begin the first liturgy of Easter Day.

The Paschal Candle should be lit for all principal services throughout the season of Easter. It is also traditionally used at Baptism and the Burial of the Dead throughout the year.

If desired, the Paschal Candle may be marked before it is lit, as follows.

*As the vertical of the cross is traced
the Celebrant says*

Christ, yesterday and today,

*As the horizontal is traced
the Celebrant says*

the beginning and the end,

As the Alpha is traced

Alpha

As the Omega is traced

and Omega,

*As the first number of the year is traced
the Celebrant says*

all time belongs to him,

As the second number is traced and all ages;

As the third number is traced to him be glory and power,

As the fourth number is traced through every age and for ever.

Amen.

Nails or incense studs may be inserted into the Paschal Candle.

By his holy and glorious wounds may Christ our Lord guard and keep us. Amen.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Advent

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Advent

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT

O Lord Jesus Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Grant that the ministers and stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world, we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight; who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Advent

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are the traditional winter Ember Days.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Annunciation

Stir up thy power, O Lord, and come among us, and with great might succor us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we are sorely hindered in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Advent

C H R I S T M A S

C H R I S T M A S E V E

O God, who hast caused this holy night to shine with the illumination of the true Light: Grant us, we beseech thee, that as we have known the mystery of that Light upon earth, so may we also perfectly enjoy him in heaven; where with thee and the Holy Ghost he liveth and reigneth, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Preface of Christmas

CHRISTMAS DAY

Almighty God, who hast given us thine only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and [as at this time] to be born of a pure Virgin: Grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the same Spirit be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Christmas

The Collect for Christmas Day and any of the sets of proper lessons for Christmas Day serve for any weekdays between Holy Innocents' Day and the First Sunday of Christmas

When Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, the next Sunday is the Second Sunday of Christmas or The Circumcision and Holy Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE FIRST SUNDAY OF CHRISTMAS

Almighty God, who hast poured upon us the new light of thine incarnate Word: Grant that the same light, enkindled in our hearts, may shine forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Christmas

THE CIRCUMCISION AND HOLY NAME OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST January 1

Almighty God, whose blessed Son didst fulfill the covenant of circumcision for our sake, and was given the Name that is above every name: Grant us grace faithfully to bear his Name, and to worship him with pure hearts according to the New Covenant; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Presentation

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF CHRISTMAS

O God, who didst wonderfully create, and yet more wonderfully restore the dignity of human nature: Grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Christmas

EPIPHANY

THE EPIPHANY

The Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles

O God, who by the leading of a star didst manifest thine only-begotten Son to the Gentiles: Mercifully grant that we, who know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany

This Collect, with the psalm and lessons for the Epiphany, or those for the Second Sunday after Christmas, serve for weekdays between the Epiphany and the following Sunday.

When the Epiphany falls on a Sunday, the following Sunday is the First Sunday of Epiphany.

THE FIRST SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

The Baptism of Our Lord

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus didst reveal him as thy Son as thy Holy Spirit descended upon him like a dove: Mercifully grant that we, being regenerate by water and the Spirit, may live faithfully as thine adopted children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the Light of the world: Grant that thy people, illumined by thy Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany

THE PRESENTATION OF CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE
February 2

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty, that, as thine only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in substance of our flesh, so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Presentation

THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

O Lord, our heavenly Father, we beseech thee to keep thy Church and household continually in thy true religion, that they who do lean only upon the hope of thy heavenly grace may evermore be defended by thy mighty power; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Lord's Day, or of the Epiphany

THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

Almighty God, look mercifully upon thy people, that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Lord's Day, or of the Epiphany

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in thee: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because, through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Lord's Day, or of the Epiphany

THE EIGHTH SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

Almighty and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things which thou commandest; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Lord's Day, or of the Epiphany

THE SECOND TO LAST SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY World Mission Sunday

Almighty God, who through the outpouring of the Holy Ghost didst reveal the way of eternal life to every race and nation: Pour out this gift anew, that by the preaching of the Gospel thy salvation may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany

This Collect, with corresponding psalms and lessons, may be substituted for any Sunday of Epiphany, except the First or the Last.

THE LAST SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY Transfiguration

O God, who before the passion of thine only-begotten Son didst reveal his glory upon the holy mount: Grant unto us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Epiphany or of the Transfiguration

ASH WEDNESDAY

Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Lent

This Collect, with the corresponding psalm and lessons, also serves for the weekdays that follow, except as otherwise appointed.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted of Satan: Make speed to help thy servants who are assaulted by manifold temptations; and, as thou knowest their several infirmities, let each one find thee mighty to save; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Lent

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are the traditional spring Ember Days.

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Lent

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

Heavenly Father, who hast made us for thine own self, wherefore our hearts are restless until they rest in thee: Look with compassion upon the heartfelt desires of thy servants, and purify our disordered affections, that we may behold thine eternal glory in the face of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Lent

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which giveth life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Lent

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Passion Sunday

Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men: Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Lent

H O L Y W E E K

P A L M S U N D A Y

Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the Cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also be made partakers in his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Holy Week

M O N D A Y O F H O L Y W E E K

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Holy Week

T U E S D A Y O F H O L Y W E E K

O Lord our God, whose blessed Son our Savior gave his back to the smiters and hid not his face from shame: Grant us grace to take joyfully the sufferings of the present time, in full assurance of the glory that shall be revealed; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Holy Week

WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK

Assist us mercifully with thy help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby thou hast given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Holy Week

MAUNDY THURSDAY

Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, did institute the Sacrament of his Body and Blood: Mercifully grant that we may thankfully receive the same in remembrance of him, who in these holy mysteries giveth us a pledge of life eternal, the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who now liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Maundy Thursday

GOOD FRIDAY

Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the Cross; who now liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

HOLY SATURDAY

O God, creator of heaven and earth: Grant that, as the crucified body of thy dear Son was laid in the tomb and rested on this holy Sabbath, so we may await with him the coming of the third day, and rise with him to newness of life; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

or this

O God of the living, on this day thy Son our Savior descended to the place of the dead: Look with kindness upon all of us who wait in hope for liberation from the corruption of sin and death, and grant unto us a share in the glory of the children of God; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

E A S T E R E V E

O God, who dost illumine this most holy night with the glory of the Lord's resurrection: Stir up, we beseech thee, in thy Church that Spirit of adoption which is given unto us in Baptism, that we, being regenerate both in body and soul, may render unto thee a pure service; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

E A S T E R D A Y

Almighty God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may, by thy life-giving Spirit, be delivered from sin and raised from death; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

EASTER DAY

O God, who for our redemption didst give thine only-begotten Son to the death of the Cross, and by his glorious resurrection hast delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

MONDAY OF EASTER WEEK

Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we who celebrate with reverence the Paschal feast may be found worthy to attain unto everlasting joys; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

TUESDAY OF EASTER WEEK

O God, who by the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ didst destroy death and bring life and immortality to light: Grant that we, who have been raised with him, may abide in his presence and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

WEDNESDAY OF EASTER WEEK

O God, whose blessed Son didst manifest himself to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open, we pray thee, the eyes of our faith, that we may behold thee in all thy works; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

THURSDAY OF EASTER WEEK

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost reveal to those who err the light of thy truth to the end that they may turn unto the path of righteousness: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

FRIDAY OF EASTER WEEK

Almighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification: Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve thee in pureness of living and truth; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

SATURDAY OF EASTER WEEK

O Heavenly Father, who hast delivered us from the dominion of sin and death, and hast brought us into the kingdom of thy Son: Grant, we beseech thee, that as by his death he hath recalled us to life, so by his love he may raise us to eternal joys; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery hast established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Almighty God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life: Give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavor ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Good Shepherd

O God, whose Son Jesus is the Good Shepherd of thy people: Grant that when we hear his voice, we may know him who calleth us each by name, and follow where he doth lead; who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

O Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leadeth to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
Rogation

O God, who hast prepared for those who love thee such good things as pass man's understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards thee, that we, loving thee in all things and above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Easter

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week are the traditional Rogation Days.

ASCENSION DAY

Grant we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thine only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens, so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Ascension

The Collect for Ascension Day, with the corresponding psalm and lessons, also serves for the Friday and Saturday following, except as otherwise appointed.

THE SUNDAY AFTER THE ASCENSION

O God, the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven: We beseech thee, leave us not comfortless, but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Savior Christ is gone before; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of the Ascension

DAY OF PENTECOST

Whitsunday

Almighty God, who on this day didst open the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of thy Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Pentecost

or this

O God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Savior, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Pentecost

The Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are the traditional summer Ember Days.

THE SEASON AFTER PENTECOST

The Easter Season includes and ends with the Day of Pentecost. The First Sunday after Pentecost is Trinity Sunday. All subsequent Sundays have numbered propers and may be designated as "after Pentecost" or "after Trinity." The Collects, lessons, and prefaces for the Day of Pentecost and Trinity Sunday are not used on the following weekdays. In their place, the dated propers for the week are used. There is no seasonal preface for the numbered propers. Prefaces of the Lord's Day are used on Sundays. No preface is required on the weekdays of this season, except for Holy Days or commemorations.

TRINITY SUNDAY

Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace, by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity: We beseech thee, that thou wouldst keep us steadfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, who livest and reignest, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Trinity Sunday

PROPER I

Week of the Sunday from May 8 to May 14

O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee: Mercifully accept our prayers, and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in the keeping of thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 2

Week of the Sunday from May 15 to May 21

O Lord, who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love: Keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 3

Week of the Sunday from May 22 to May 28

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us, and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may by thy mighty aid be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 4

Week of the Sunday from May 29 to June 4

O God, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us thy mercy, that, thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal; grant this, O heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 5

Week of the Sunday from June 5 to June 11

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 6

Week of the Sunday from June 12 to June 18

O Lord, from whom all good things do come: Grant to us thine humble servants, that by thine holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 7

Week of the Sunday from June 19 to June 25

Lord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 8

Week of the Sunday from June 26 to July 2

O God, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth: We humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which be profitable for us; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 9

Week of the Sunday from July 3 to July 9

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things that are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 10

Week of the Sunday from July 10 to July 16

Let thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants; and, that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 11

Week of the Sunday from July 17 to July 23

O God, who declarest thine almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we, running to obtain thy gracious promises, may be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 12

Week of the Sunday from July 24 to July 30

Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve: Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 13

Week of the Sunday from July 31 to August 6

Almighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service: Grant, we beseech thee, that we may run without stumbling to attain thy heavenly promises; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 14

Week of the Sunday from August 7 to August 13

Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command; through

Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER I 5

Week of the Sunday from August 14 to August 20

Keep, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy; and because the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER I 6

Week of the Sunday from August 21 to August 27

Let thy continual pity, O Lord, cleanse and defend thy Church; and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succor, protect and govern it evermore by thy help and goodness; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER I 7

Week of the Sunday from August 28 to September 3

O Lord, we pray thee that thy grace may always prevent and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER I 8

Week of the Sunday from September 4 to September 10

O Lord, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee, the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 19

Week of the Sunday from September 11 to September 17

O God, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee: Mercifully grant, that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday after September 14 are the traditional autumn Ember Days.

PROPER 20

Week of the Sunday from September 18 to September 24

O Lord, who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth: Send thine Holy Ghost and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee; grant this for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 21

Week of the Sunday from September 25 to October 1

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 22

Week of the Sunday from October 2 to October 8

O Lord, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness; that through thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 23

Week of the Sunday from October 9 to October 15

O God, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness: Graciously hear the devout prayers of thy Church, and grant that those things which we ask faithfully, we may obtain effectually; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 24

Week of the Sunday from October 16 to October 22

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us, we beseech thee, the liberty of that abundant life which thou hast manifested to us in thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 25

Week of the Sunday from October 23 to October 29

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

ALL SAINTS' DAY
November 1

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Preface of All Saints'

PROPER 26

Week of the Sunday from October 30 to November 5

Grant us, O Lord, not to mind earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to cleave to those that shall abide; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 27

Week of the Sunday from November 6 to November 12

O God, whose blessed Son was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the sons of God, and heirs of eternal life: Grant us, we beseech thee, that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves, even as he is pure; that, when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

PROPER 28

Week of the Sunday from November 13 to November 19

Stir up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people, that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded when our Savior Jesus Christ cometh to restore all things; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Martyr

OF A MISSIONARY OR EVANGELIST

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst call thy servant N. to preach the Gospel to the people of _____ [or to the _____ people]: Raise up, we beseech thee, in this and every land evangelists and heralds of thy kingdom, that thy Church may proclaim the unsearchable riches of our Savior Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Missionary or Evangelist

OF A PASTOR

O God, our heavenly Father, who didst raise up thy faithful servant N. to be a [Bishop and] pastor in thy Church and to feed thy flock: Give abundantly to all pastors the gifts of thy Holy Spirit, that they may minister in thy household as true servants of Christ and stewards of thy divine mysteries; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Pastor

OF A TEACHER OF THE FAITH

O Almighty God, who didst give to thy servant N. special gifts of grace to understand and teach the truth as it is in Christ Jesus: Grant, we beseech thee, that by this teaching we may know thee, the one true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent; and who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Teacher of the Faith

OF A MONASTIC OR RELIGIOUS

O God, whose blessed Son became poor for our sake, and chose the Cross over the kingdoms of this world: Deliver us, we beseech thee, from an inordinate love of this world, that, inspired by the devotion of thy servant N., we may seek thee with singleness of heart, behold thy glory by faith, and attain to the riches of the age to come, where we shall be united with our Savior Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Monastic or Religious

OF AN ECUMENIST

Almighty God, we give thee thanks for the ministry of N., who labored that the Church of Jesus Christ might be one: Grant that we, instructed by his teaching and example, and knit together in unity by thy Spirit, may ever stand firm upon the one foundation, which is Jesus Christ our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of an Ecumenist

OF A REFORMER OF THE CHURCH

O God, by thy grace thy servant N., kindled by the flame of thy love, became a burning and shining light in thy Church, turning pride into humility and error into truth: Grant that we may be set aflame with the same spirit of love and discipline, and walk before thee as children of light; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Reformer of the Church

OF A RENEWER OF SOCIETY

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst enkindle the flame of thy love in the heart of thy servant N. to manifest divine compassion and mercy to the poor and the persecuted: Vouchsafe unto us, thy humble servants, a like faith and power of love, that we who give thanks for his righteous zeal may profit by his example; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of a Renewer of Society

OF ANY COMMEMORATION

O Almighty God, who hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses: Grant that we, encouraged by the good example of thy servant N., may persevere in running the race that is set before us, until at length, through thy mercy, we, with him, may attain unto thine eternal joy; through him who is the author and finisher of our faith, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Preface of Any Commemoration

or this

O Almighty God, who by thine Holy Ghost hast made us one with thy saints in heaven and on earth: Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by so great a witness to thy power and mercy; for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit, and who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

T H E C H U R C H

1. FOR THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably upon thy whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; and by the tranquil operation of thy providence, carry out the work of man's salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being renewed unto the perfection of him through whom all things were made, thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

2. FOR THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

William Laud

O gracious Father, we humbly beseech thee for thy holy Catholic Church; that thou wouldest be pleased to fill it with all truth, in all peace. Where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where in anything it is amiss, reform it. Where it is right, establish it; where it is in want, provide for it; where it is divided, reunite it; for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

3. FOR THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH

O Lord Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins, but the faith of thy Church; and grant to it that peace and unity which is according to thy will, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

4. FOR THE UNITY OF ALL CHRISTIAN PEOPLE

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Savior, the Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord: that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God in glory everlasting. Amen.

5. FOR THE SPIRIT OF PRAYER

O Almighty God, who pourest out upon all who desire it the spirit of grace and of supplication: Deliver us, when we draw near to thee, from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind, that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections we may worship thee in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

6. FOR A PROVINCE OR DIOCESE

O God, who by thy grace hath called us in this Dioceſe to be a good and godly fellowship of faith; we beseech thee to bless our Bishop(s) N., and other clergy, and all our people. Grant that thy Word may be truly preached and truly heard, thy Sacraments faithfully administered and faithfully received. By thy Spirit, fashion our lives according to the example of thy Son, and grant that we may show the power of thy love to all among whom we live; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7. FOR A PROVINCIAL OR DIOCESAN CONVENTION OR SYNOD

Almighty and everlasting God, who by thy Holy Spirit didst preside in the council of the blessed Apostles, and hast promised, through thy Son Jesus Christ, to be with thy Church to the end of the world; We beseech thee to be with the council of thy Church [here] assembled in thy Name and presence. Save us from all error, ignorance, pride, and prejudice; and of thy great mercy vouchsafe, we beseech thee, so to direct, sanctify, and govern us in our work, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, that the order and discipline of thy Church be maintained, and that the comfortable Gospel of Christ may be truly preached, truly received, and truly followed, in all places, to the breaking down the kingdom of sin, Satan, and death; till at length the whole of thy dispersed sheep, being gathered into one fold, shall become partakers of everlasting life; through the merits and death of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

8. FOR A PROVINCIAL OR DIOCESAN CONVENTION OR SYNOD

Gracious and everliving Father, who hast given the Holy Ghost to abide with us for ever: Bless, we pray, with the Holy Spirit's grace and presence, the Bishop(s), Priests, Deacons, and all the Laity who assemble in thy Name; that thy Church, being preserved in true faith and godly discipline, may fulfill the will of him who loved her and gave himself for her, thy Son Jesus Christ our Savior; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

9. FOR VESTRY AND CHURCH MEETINGS

Almighty and everliving God, source of all wisdom and understanding, be present with those who take counsel [in _____] for the renewal and mission of thy Church. Teach us in all things first to seek thy honor and glory. Guide us to perceive what is right, and grant us both the courage to pursue it and the grace to accomplish it; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

10. FOR THE SELECTION OF A BISHOP OR OTHER MINISTER

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: Look graciously upon thy Church, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a Bishop for this Diocese that we may receive a faithful pastor who will preach the Gospel, care for thy people, equip us for ministry, and lead us forth in fulfillment of the Great Commission; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I I . FOR THE LOCAL CONGREGATION

O God the Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of the faithful: Sanctify this Congregation by thine abiding presence. Bless those who minister in holy things. Enlighten the minds of thy people more and more with the light of the everlasting Gospel. Bring erring souls into the knowledge of God our Savior; and those who are walking in the way of life, keep steadfast unto the end. Give patience to the sick and afflicted, and renew them in body and soul. Guard those who are strong and prosperous from forgetfulness of thee. Increase in us thy manifold gifts of grace, and make us all to be fruitful in good works; O blessed Spirit, whom with the Father and the Son together we worship and glorify, one God, world without end. Amen.

I 2 . FOR THE LOCAL CONGREGATION

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully hear our prayers, and grant that in this Congregation the pure Word of God may be preached and the Sacraments duly administered. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; protect and guide the children; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; arouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent. Remove all hindrances to the advancement of thy truth; and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within the fold of thy holy Church, to the honor and glory of thy blessed Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

13. FOR VOCATIONS TO ORDAINED MINISTRY

O Lord Jesus, who art the Good Shepherd that carest for thy flock: We beseech thee to bestow upon thy Church the gifts of the Holy Spirit in abundance, and to raise up from among us faithful and able persons called to the ministries of Deacon, Priest, and Bishop. Inspire them to spend and be spent for the sake of the Gospel, and make them holy and loving servants and shepherds of the flock for whom thou didst shed thy most precious blood. Grant this for the sake of thy love. Amen.

See also the Ember Day Collects on page 634

14. FOR CHURCH MUSICIANS AND ARTISTS

O God, whom saints and angels delight to worship in heaven: Be ever present with thy servants upon earth who seek through art and music to perfect the praises of thy people. Grant them even now true glimpses of thy beauty, and make them worthy at length to behold it unveiled for evermore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

15. FOR MONASTIC ORDERS AND VOCATIONS

O Lord Jesus Christ, who didst become poor for our sake that we might be made rich through thy poverty: Guide and sanctify, we beseech thee, those whom thou callest to follow thee in poverty, chastity, and obedience; that by their prayer and service they may enrich thy Church, and by their life and worship may glorify thy Name; who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

16. FOR THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men of the whole earth, and didst send thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after thee and find thee. Bring the nations into thy fold, pour out thy Spirit upon all flesh, and hasten the coming of thy kingdom; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

17. FOR THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

O God, our heavenly Father, who didst manifest thy love by sending thine only-begotten Son into the world, that all might live through him: Pour out thy Spirit upon thy Church, that we may fulfill his command to preach the Gospel to all people. Send forth laborers into thy harvest; defend them in all dangers and temptations; and hasten the time when the fullness of the nations shall be gathered in, and faithful Israel shall be saved; through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also the Prayers for Mission in Morning and Evening Prayer on pages 24, 25 & 51

18. FOR MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

Lord Jesus, who didst command us to make disciples of all nations: Bless all those who work together for the spread of the Gospel [especially _____]; make them faithful and true witnesses to proclaim thy glorious Name. Send down the grace of the Holy Spirit upon all thy people, that we may give cheerfully of our substance for the evangelization of the world, and that the light of thy truth may shine brightly in every place. Hear us, O merciful Savior, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest, ever one God, world without end.
Amen.

19. FOR ALL MISSIONARIES

O God, who desirest that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth: Prosper, we pray thee, all those who labor in the Gospel at home and in distant lands [particularly _____]; protect them in all perils, and support them in loneliness and in the hour of trial; give them thine abundant grace to bear faithful witness unto thee; and endue them with burning zeal and love, that they may turn many to righteousness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

20. FOR A SPIRIT OF EVANGELISM

Almighty God our Savior, who desirest that none should perish, and hast taught us through thy Son that there is great joy in heaven over every sinner who repents: Grant that our hearts may grieve this lost and broken world, and may thy Holy Spirit work through our words, deeds, and prayers, that the lost may be found and the dead quickened, and that all thy redeemed may rejoice around thy throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

C R E A T I O N

21. FOR JOY IN GOD'S CREATION

O heavenly Father, who hast filled the world with beauty: Open our eyes to behold thy gracious hand in all thy works; that, rejoicing in thy whole creation, we may learn to serve thee with gladness; for the sake of him through whom all things were made, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

22. FOR STEWARDSHIP OF CREATION

O merciful Creator, whose hand is open wide to satisfy the needs of every living creature: Make us, we beseech thee, ever thankful for thy loving providence; and grant that we, remembering the account that we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of thy bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

23. FOR THE HARVEST OF LANDS AND WATERS

O gracious Father, who openest wide thine hand and fillest all things living with plenteousness; Vouchsafe to bless the lands and multiply the harvests of the world. Let thy breath go forth that it may renew the face of the earth. Show thy loving-kindness, that our land may bring forth her increase; and so fill us with good things that the poor and needy may give thanks unto thy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also Prayer 48 and the Rogation Day Collects on page 635

24. FOR RAIN

O God, heavenly Father, who by thy Son Jesus Christ hast promised to all those who seek thy kingdom, and the righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance; Send us, we beseech thee, in this our necessity, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

25. IN TIME OF SCARCITY AND FAMINE

O God, our heavenly Father, who by thy blessed Son hast taught us to ask our daily bread of thee: Behold, we beseech thee, the afflictions of thy people, and send us swift aid in our time of need. Increase the fruits of the earth by thy heavenly benediction, and grant that that we, receiving thy gifts with thankful hearts, may use them to thy great glory, for the relief of those in need, and for our own health; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

26. IN TIMES OF NATURAL DISASTER

Almighty God, who by thy Word hast laid the foundations of the earth, set the bounds of the sea, and stilled the wind and waves: We beseech thee to surround us with thy grace and peace, and preserve us through this storm [or _____]. By thy Spirit, lift up those who have fallen, strengthen those who work to rescue or rebuild, and fill us with the hope of thy new creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

T H E N A T I O N

27. FOR THE PEACE OF THE WORLD

Eternal God, in whose perfect kingdom no sword is drawn but the sword of righteousness, no strength known but the strength of love: So mightily spread abroad thy Spirit, that all peoples may be gathered under the banner of the Prince of Peace; to whom be dominion and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

28. FOR THE PEACE OF THE WORLD

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed: Kindle, we pray thee, in the hearts of all men the true love of peace, and guide with thy pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquility thy kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

29. FOR COURTS OF JUSTICE

Almighty God, who sittest in the throne judging right; We humbly beseech thee to bless the courts of justice and the magistrates in all this land; and give unto them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, that they may discern the truth and impartially administer the law in the fear of thee alone; through him who shall come to be our judge, thy Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

30. FOR CIVIL AUTHORITIES

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, send down upon those who hold public office [especially _____] the spirit of wisdom, charity, and justice; that with steadfast purpose they may faithfully serve in their offices to promote the well-being of all people; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

31. FOR AN ELECTION

Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges: Guide and direct, we humbly pray, the minds of all those who are called to elect fit persons to serve [in _____]. Grant that in the exercise of our choice we may promote thy glory, and the welfare of this nation. This we ask for the sake of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

32. FOR THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

Almighty God, we commend to thy gracious care and keeping all the men and women in our armed forces at home and abroad. Defend them day by day with thy heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils which beset them; and grant them a sense of thine abiding presence wherever they may be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

33. FOR OUR ENEMIES

O God, the Creator of all, whose Son hast commanded us to love our enemies; Lead them and us from prejudice to truth, deliver them and us from hatred, cruelty, and revenge; and in thy good time enable us all to stand reconciled before thee in Jesus Christ; in whose name we pray. Amen.

Specific to Canada

34. FOR THE SOVEREIGN

Almighty and everlasting God, we are taught by thy Holy Word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom: We humbly beseech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of N. thy Servant, our Queen and Governor, that, in all her thoughts, words, and works, she may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people committed to her charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness: Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

35. FOR THE ROYAL FAMILY

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our most gracious Sovereign, Queen N., [here may be named other members of the Royal Family] and all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

36. FOR THE PRIME MINISTER OF CANADA, LIEUTENANT GOVERNORS, AND THE PREMIERS OF THE PROVINCES

Lord of all power and mercy, we beseech thee to assist with thy favour the Governor General and Prime Minister, and the Lieutenant Governors and Premiers of the Provinces. Cause them, we pray thee, to walk before thee in truth and righteousness, and to fulfil their office to thy glory and the public good; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Specific to the United States or Mexico

37. FOR THE PRESIDENT AND ALL IN CIVIL AUTHORITY

O Lord our Governor, whose glory is in all the world; We commend this nation to thy merciful care, that being guided by thy providence, we may dwell secure in thy peace. Grant to the President of this Nation, the Governor of this State [or Commonwealth], and to all in Authority, wisdom and strength to know and to do thy will. Fill them with the love of truth and righteousness; and make them ever mindful of their calling to serve this people in thy fear; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

38. FOR CONGRESS OR A STATE LEGISLATURE

O God, the fountain of wisdom, whose statutes are good and gracious and whose law is truth; We beseech thee so to guide and bless our Senators and Representatives assembled in Congress [or the Legislature of this State, Commonwealth, etc.], that it may ordain for our governance only such things as please thee, to the glory of thy Name and the welfare of the people; through Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

39. FOR OUR NATION

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure conduct. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom, in thy Name, we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to thy law, we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all of which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

S O C I E T Y

40. FOR ALL SORTS AND CONDITIONS OF MEN

O God, the creator and preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for thy holy Church universal, that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness all those who are in any ways afflicted or distressed, in mind, body, or estate, [especially those for whom our prayers are desired]; that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

41. FOR CITIES, TOWNS, AND OTHER COMMUNITIES

O Heavenly Father, who sent thy Son among us to proclaim the kingdom of God in cities, towns, villages, and lonely places. Behold and visit, we beseech thee, the community of _____. Renew the bonds of charity that uphold our civic life. Send us honest and able leaders. Deliver us from poverty, prejudice, and oppression, that peace may prevail with righteousness, and justice with mercy. And at the last, bring us to thy Holy City, the new Jerusalem, where we shall know perfect unity and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

42. FOR THE HUMAN FAMILY

O God, who hast made us in thine own image, and who hast redeemed us through thy Son Jesus Christ: Look with compassion upon the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish thy purposes on earth; that, in thy good time, all nations and races may serve thee in harmony around thy heavenly throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

43. FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

Almighty God, who hast created man in thine own image; Grant us grace fearlessly to contend against evil, and to make no peace with oppression; and, that we may reverently use our freedom, help us to employ it in the maintenance of justice among men and nations, to the glory of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

44. IN TIMES OF SOCIAL CONFLICT OR DISTRESS

Increase, O God, the spirit of neighborliness among us, that in peril we may uphold one another, in suffering tend to one another, and in homelessness, loneliness, or exile befriend one another. Grant us brave and enduring hearts that we may strengthen one another, until the disciplines and testing of these days are ended, and thou again giveth us peace in our time; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

45. FOR THOSE WHO SERVE OTHERS

O Lord our heavenly Father, whose blessed Son came not to be served, but to serve: We beseech thee to bless all those who, following in his steps, give themselves to the service of others [especially _____]; endue them with wisdom, patience, and courage, that they may strengthen the weak and raise up them that fall, and, being inspired by thy love, may worthily minister to the suffering, the friendless, and the needy; for the sake of him who laid down his life for us, thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

46. FOR COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

O Lord Jesus Christ, who in thy earthly life didst share our toil and hallow our labor: We beseech thee to guide those who maintain the commerce and industries of this land, and give to all who labor pride in their work, a just reward, and joy both in supplying need and in serving thee; who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

47. FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

O Heavenly Father, we remember before thee those who suffer want and anxiety from lack of work. Guide the people of this land so to use our public and private wealth that all may find suitable and fulfilling employment, and receive just payment for their labor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

48. FOR AGRICULTURE AND FARMING

Almighty God, we thank thee for making the earth fruitful, so that it may produce what is needed to sustain our life: Bless those who work in the fields; give us seasonable weather; and grant that we may all share the fruits of the earth, rejoicing in thy goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also Prayer 23 and the Rogation Day Collects on page 635

49. FOR SCHOOLS, COLLEGES, AND UNIVERSITIES

Almighty God, by thy gift alone cometh wisdom and understanding: We beseech thee with thy gracious favor to behold our universities, colleges, and schools, [especially _____,] that knowledge may be increased among us, and all good learning flourish and abound. Bless all who teach and all who learn; and grant that in humility of heart they may ever look unto thee, who art the fountain of all wisdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

50. FOR THE MEDICAL PROFESSIONS

Almighty God, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ went about doing good, and healing all manner of sickness and disease among the people: Continue, we beseech thee, this his gracious work among us [especially in _____]; cheer, heal, and sanctify the sick; grant to the physicians, surgeons, and nurses wisdom and skill, sympathy and patience; and send down thy blessing upon all who labor to prevent suffering and to forward thy purposes of love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

51. FOR THOSE WHO INFORM PUBLIC OPINION

Almighty God, whose truth endureth from age to age: Direct in our time, we beseech thee, those who speak where many listen and write what many read; that they may speak thy truth to make the heart of this people wise, its mind discerning, and its will righteous; to the honor of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THOSE IN NEED

52. FOR THOSE WE LOVE

Almighty God, we entrust all who are dear to us [especially _____] to thy never-failing care and love, for this life and the life to come; knowing that thou art doing for them better things than we can desire or pray; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also Additional Prayers in Family Prayer on pages 76-78

53. FOR THOSE WHO TRAVEL

O God, our heavenly Father, whose glory fills the whole creation, and whose presence we find wherever we go: Preserve those who travel [especially _____]; surround them with thy loving care; protect them from every danger; and bring them in safety to their journey's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

54. FOR THE ABSENT

O God, whose fatherly care reacheth to the uttermost parts of the earth: We humbly beseech thee graciously to behold and bless those whom we love, now absent from us [especially _____]. Defend them from all dangers of soul and body, and grant that both they and we, drawing nearer to thee, may be bound together by thy love, in the communion of thy Holy Ghost and in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

55. FOR THOSE WHO LIVE ALONE

Almighty God, whose Son had nowhere to lay his head: Grant that those who live alone [especially _____] may not be lonely in their solitude, but that, following in his steps, they may find fulfillment in loving thee and their neighbors; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

56. FOR THE ELDERLY

Look with mercy, O God our Father, on all whose increasing years bring them weakness, distress, or isolation [especially ____]. Provide for them homes of dignity and peace; give them understanding helpers, and the willingness to accept help; and, as their strength diminishes, increase their faith and their assurance of thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

57. FOR THOSE WITH CHRONIC DISEASE

Heavenly Father, who art the sustainer of our life and source of our hope: Comfort and relieve all who endure long-term illness or persistent handicap [especially ____]. Give thy grace unto all who minister to their needs, that they may be strengthened in their weakness and have confidence in thy loving care; through him who knoweth our weakness and hath shared our sorrows, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

58. FOR A PERSON IN TROUBLE OR BEREAVEMENT

O merciful Father, who hath taught us in thy holy Word that thou dost not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men: Look with pity on the sorrows of thy servant N. Remember him, O Lord, in mercy; nourish his soul with patience; comfort him with a sense of thy goodness; lift up thy countenance upon him; and give him peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

59. FOR THE DISCOURAGED AND DOWNCAST

O God, almighty and merciful, who healest those that are broken in heart, and turnest the sadness of the sorrowful to joy: Let thy fatherly goodness be upon all whom thou hast made. Remember in pity such as are this day destitute, homeless, or forgotten of their fellow-men. Bless the congregation of thy poor. Uplift those who are cast down. Mightily befriend innocent sufferers, and sanctify to them the endurance of their wrongs. Cheer with hope all the discouraged and downcast, and by thy heavenly grace preserve from falling those whose poverty tempteth them to sin; though they be troubled on every side, suffer them not to be distressed; though they be perplexed, save them from despair. Grant this, O Lord, for the love of him, who for our sakes became poor, thy Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

60. FOR PRISONERS

O God, who sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath rememberest mercy: We humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, to comfort and succor all prisoners [especially those who are condemned to die]. Give them a right understanding of themselves, and of thy promises; that, trusting wholly in thy mercy, they may not place their confidence anywhere but in thee. Relieve the distressed, protect the innocent, awaken the guilty; and forasmuch as thou alone bringest light out of darkness, and good out of evil, grant to these thy servants, that by the power of thy Holy Spirit they may be set free from the chains of sin, and may be brought to newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

61. FOR THE RECOVERY OF A SICK PERSON

Almighty and immortal God, the giver of life and health: We beseech thee to hear our prayers for thy servant N., that by thy blessing upon him and upon those who minister to him of thy healing gifts, he may be restored, according to thy gracious will, to health of body and mind, and give thanks to thee in thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also Additional Prayers in The Rites of Healing on pages 231–235

62. FOR THOSE AFFLICTED WITH MENTAL SUFFERING

Almighty God, whose Son took upon himself the afflictions of thy people: Regard with thy tender compassion those suffering from anxiety, depression, or mental illness [especially _____]; bear their sorrows and their cares; supply all their needs; help them to put their whole trust and confidence in thee; and restore them to strength of mind and cheerfulness of spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

63. FOR THOSE IN BONDAGE TO ADDICTION

O blessed Lord, who didst minister unto all them that came to thee: Look with compassion, we beseech thee, upon those who through addiction have lost their health and freedom. Restore to them the assurance of thine unfailing mercy; remove from them the fears that beset them; strengthen them in the work of their recovery; and to those who minister to them, give patient understanding and persevering love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

64. FOR THE UNREPENTANT

Merciful God, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live; and through thine only Son hast revealed thyself as the God who pardons iniquity: Have mercy upon the unrepentant and those who do not believe [especially _____.] Awaken in them, by thy Word and Holy Spirit, a deep sense of their sinfulness and peril. Take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word. Grant them to know and feel that there is no other Name under heaven given among men by which they must be saved, but only the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. And so bring them home and number them among thy children, that they may be thine for ever; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FAMILY AND PERSONAL LIFE

65. FOR FAMILIES

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who settest the solitary in families: We commend to thy continual care the homes in which thy people dwell. Put far from them, we beseech thee, every root of bitterness, the desire of vainglory, and the pride of life. Fill them with faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, and godliness. Knit together in constant affection those who, in holy wedlock, have been made one flesh; turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to the fathers; and so enkindle fervent charity among us all, that we be evermore kindly affectioned with brotherly love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also Additional Prayers in Family Prayer on pages 76-78

66. FOR THE CARE OF CHILDREN

Almighty God, heavenly Father, who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children; Give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

67. FOR A BIRTHDAY

O God, our times are in thy hand: Look with favor, we beseech thee, on thy servant N. as he begins another year. Grant that he may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen his trust in thy goodness all the days of his life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

68. FOR A CHILD, OR FOR A BIRTHDAY

Watch over thy child N., O Lord, as his days increase; bless him and guide him, and keep him unspotted from the world. Strengthen him when he stands; comfort him when discouraged or sorrowful; raise him up if he fall; and in his heart may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of his life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

69. FOR A MARRIAGE OR ANNIVERSARY

O God, who hast so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send thy blessing upon these thy servants [as they begin another year], that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

70. FOR INNER RENEWAL THROUGH THE WORD

Gracious God and most merciful Father, who hast granted unto us the rich and precious jewel of thy holy Word: Assist us with thy Spirit, that the same Word may be written in our hearts to our everlasting comfort, to reform us, to renew us according to thine own image, to build us up and edify us into the perfect dwelling place of thy Christ, sanctifying and increasing in us all heavenly virtues; grant this, O heavenly Father, for the sake of the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

71. FOR CHRIST TO BE FORMED IN US

Lord Jesus, Master Carpenter of Nazareth, who on the Cross through wood and nails hath wrought our full salvation: Wield well thy tools in this, thy workshop, that we who come to thee rough-hewn may be fashioned into a truer beauty by thy hand; who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

72. FOR KNOWING AND LOVING GOD

O God, who art the light of the minds that know thee, the life of the souls that love thee, and the strength of the wills that serve thee: Help us so to know thee that we may truly love thee, and so to love thee that we may fully serve thee, whom to serve is perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

73. A PRAYER OF SELF-DEDICATION

William Temple

Almighty and eternal God, so draw our hearts to thee, so guide our minds, so fill our imaginations, so control our wills, that we may be wholly thine, utterly dedicated unto thee; and then use us, we pray thee, as thou wilt, and always to thy glory and the welfare of thy people; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

74. FOR DESIRING GOD

Francis Xavier

O God, grant that we may desire thee, and desiring thee seek thee, and seeking thee find thee, and finding thee be satisfied in thee for ever. Amen.

75. FOR HOLY THOUGHT

O God, without whose beauty and goodness our souls are unfed, without whose truth our reason withers: Consecrate our lives to thy will, giving us such purity of heart, such depth of faith, and such steadfastness of purpose, that in time we may come to think thine own thoughts after thee; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

76. FOR GUIDANCE

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

77. FOR GUIDANCE

O God, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly: Grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what thou wouldest have us do, that the Spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices; that in thy light we may see light, and in thy straight path we may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

78. TO PLEASE GOD RATHER THAN MEN Thomas à Kempis

Our God, in whom we trust: Strengthen us not to regard overmuch who is for us or who is against us, but to see to it that we be with thee in everything we do. Amen.

79. FOR MERCY

Almighty God, who hast not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities: Grant that we, who for our evil deeds deserve to be punished, by the might of thy grace may mercifully be relieved; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

80. FOR TRUSTFULNESS IN TIMES OF WORRY AND ANXIETY

Most loving Father, who wildest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of thee, and to cast all our care on thee, who carest for us: Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which thou hast manifested unto us in thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

81. FOR HELP TO BEAR BEREAVEMENT

O heavenly Father, help us to trust our loved ones to thy care. When sorrow darkens our lives, help us to look up to thee, remembering the cloud of witnesses by which we are encompassed, and grant that we on earth, rejoicing ever in thy presence, may share with them the rest and peace which thy presence gives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

82. FOR QUIET CONFIDENCE

O God of peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be our strength: By the might of thy Spirit lift us, we pray thee, to thy presence, where we may be still and know that thou art God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Throughout the Day

83. IN THE MORNING

Almighty God, who alone gavest us the breath of life, and alone canst keep alive in us the holy desires thou dost impart: We beseech thee, for thy compassion's sake, to sanctify all our thoughts and endeavors; that we may neither begin an action without a pure intention nor continue it without thy blessing. And grant that, having the eyes of the mind opened to behold things invisible and unseen, we may in heart be inspired by thy wisdom, and in work be upheld by thy strength, and in the end be accepted of thee as thy faithful servants; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

See also Morning Prayer (pages 10–26) and Family Prayer (pages 67–68)

84. GRACE AT MEALS

Blessed art thou, O Lord God, King of the Universe, for that thou dost give us food and drink to sustain our lives and make our hearts glad; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See also Additional Prayers in Family Prayer on page 78.

85. IN THE EVENING

John Henry Newman

O Lord, support us all the day long through this troubulous life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

See also Evening Prayer (pages 41–53), Compline (pages 57–65), and Family Prayer (pages 71–74)

86. FOR SLEEP

Father, in thy mercy dispel the darkness of this night, and let thy servant sleep in peace, that at the dawn of a new day he may wake with joy in thy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PERSONAL DEVOTION

87. FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE PEACE OF GOD

In the Tradition of Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is error, truth; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

88. FOR DAILY GROWTH

Richard of Chichester

Thanks be to thee, my Lord Jesus Christ, for all the pains and insults thou hast borne for me, and all the benefits thou hast given me. O most merciful Redeemer, Friend, and Brother: Grant that I may see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, and follow thee more nearly, day by day. Amen.

89. FOR SEEKING GOD

Anselm of Canterbury

Teach me to seek thee, and as I seek thee, show thyself to me; for I cannot seek thee unless thou shovest me how, and I will never find thee unless thou dost show thyself to me. Let me seek thee by desiring thee, and desire thee by seeking thee; let me find thee by loving thee, and love thee in finding thee. Amen.

90. FOR GRACE TO SEEK GOD IN EVERY WAY

Benedict of Nursia

Gracious and holy Father, vouchsafe unto me intellect to understand thee, reason to discern thee, diligence to seek thee, wisdom to find thee, a spirit to know thee, a heart to meditate upon thee, ears to hear thee, eyes to see thee, a tongue to proclaim thee, a way of life pleasing unto thee, patience to wait for thee, and perseverance to look for thee. Grant me a perfect end, thy holy presence, a blessed resurrection, and life everlasting. Amen.

91. FOR SUBMISSION TO GOD'S WILL

Joseph Mercier

O Holy Spirit, beloved of my soul, I adore thee. Enlighten me, guide me, strengthen me, console me. Direct me in mine endeavors; give me thine orders. I promise to submit myself to all that thou desirest of me and to accept all that thou permittest to happen to me. Let me only know thy will. Amen.

92. FOR SATISFACTION IN CHRIST

Julian of Norwich

O God, of thy goodness, give me thyself, for thou art enough to me, and I may nothing ask that is less than may be full worship to thee; and if I ask for anything less, I shall always be in want, but only in thee have I all. Amen.

93. A COVENANT PRAYER

John Wesley

I am no longer my own, but thine. Put me to what thou wilt, rank me with whom thou wilt. Put me to doing, put me to suffering. Let me be employed by thee or laid aside for thee, exalted for thee or brought low for thee. Let me be full, let me be empty. Let me have all things, let me have nothing. I freely and heartily yield all things to thy pleasure and disposal. And now, O glorious and blessed God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, thou art mine, and I am thine. So be it. And the covenant which I have made on earth, let it be ratified in heaven. Amen.

94. FOR A VIRTUOUS HEART

Thomas Aquinas

Give me, O Lord, a steadfast heart, which no unworthy thought can drag down; an unconquered heart, which no tribulation can wear out; an upright heart, which no unworthy purpose can tempt aside. Bestow upon me understanding to know thee, diligence to seek thee, wisdom to find thee, and faithfulness that finally may embrace thee. Amen.

95. IN TIMES OF SUFFERING OR WEAKNESS

Dear Lord and Savior Jesus Christ: I hold up all my weakness to thy strength, my failure to thy faithfulness, my sinfulness to thy perfection, my loneliness to thy compassion, my little pains to thy great agony on the Cross. I pray that thou wouldest cleanse me, strengthen me, guide me, so that in all ways my life may be lived as thou wouldest have it lived, without cowardice and for thee alone. Show me how to live in true humility, true contrition, and true love. Amen.

96. FOR UNION WITH CHRIST

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O good Jesu, hear me. Within thy wounds hide me. Suffer me not to be separated from thee. From the wicked foe defend me. In the hour of my death call me, and bid me come to thee, that with thy saints I may praise thee for ever and ever. Amen.

AT TIMES OF PRAYER AND WORSHIP

97. PREPARATION FOR PERSONAL PRAYER

Holy Spirit, breath of God and fire of love, I cannot pray without thine aid: Kindle in me the fire of thy love, and illumine me with thy light; that with a steadfast will and holy thoughts I may approach the Father in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ my Lord, who reigneth with thee and the Father in union eternal. Amen.

98. FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF PRAYER

O Heavenly Father, who hast promised to hear the petitions of those who ask in the Name of thy Son: Accept and fulfill our petitions, we pray, not as we ask in our ignorance, nor as we deserve in our sinfulness, but as thou dost know and love us in thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

99. FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF PRAYER

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of thy people; in the multitude of thy mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to thee for help; for thou art gracious, O lover of souls, and unto thee we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

100. FOR THE ANSWERING OF PRAYER

Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of those who ask in the Name of thy Son: We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ear to us who have now made our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which we have asked faithfully according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

101. BEFORE THE READING OF SCRIPTURE

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

102. ON SUNDAYS

O God, who makest us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of thy Son our Lord: Grant us this day such blessing through our worship of thee, that the days to come may be spent in thy favor; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

103. PREPARATION FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP

Guide and direct us, O Lord, always and everywhere with thy holy light, that we may discern with clear vision thy presence among us, and partake with worthy intention of thy divine mysteries; for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

104. BEFORE RECEIVING COMMUNION

Be present, be present, O Jesus, our great High Priest, as thou wast present with thy disciples, and be known unto us in the breaking of Bread; who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

105. AFTER RECEIVING COMMUNION

O Lord Jesus Christ, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of thy passion: Grant us, we beseech thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruit of thy redemption; who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

106. FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Dear Jesus, I believe that thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament. I love thee above all things, and I desire to possess thee within my soul. And since I cannot now receive thee sacramentally, I beseech thee to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself unto thee, together with all thy faithful people [gathered around every altar of thy Church], and I embrace thee with all the affections of my soul. Never permit me to be separated from thee. Amen.

107. AFTER COMMUNION

Liturgy of St. Basil

Finished and perfected is the mystery of thy dispensation to us, O Christ our God: For we have beheld the likeness of thy death, we have seen thy resurrection in the breaking of the bread, and we have partaken of thine inexhaustible and divine delights, of which do thou make us worthy, both now and in thy kingdom and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

108. AFTER PUBLIC WORSHIP

Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day outwardly with our ears may, through thy grace, be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honor and praise of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DEATH, THE DEPARTED, AND
THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

109. FOR WATCHFULNESS

Lancelot Andrewes

Thou, who with thine own mouth hast told us that at midnight the bridegroom shall come: Grant that the cry, "The bridegroom cometh!" may sound evermore in our ears, that so we be never unprepared to meet him, or forgetful of the souls for whom he died, for whom we watch and pray. And save us, O Lord. Amen.

110. FOR JOY AT THE END OF LIFE

Miles Coverdale

O Jesus, be mindful of thy promise; think upon us thy servants; and when we shall depart hence, speak unto our souls these loving words; "Today shalt thou be with me in joy." O Lord Jesus Christ, remember us thy servants that trust in thee, when our tongues cannot speak, when the sight of our eyes faileth, and when our ears are stopped. Let our souls always rejoice in thee, and be joyful of thy salvation, which thou through thy death hast purchased for us. Amen.

111. FOR AN ANNIVERSARY OF ONE DEPARTED

Almighty God, we remember this day before thee thy faithful servant N., and we beseech thee that, having opened unto him the gates of larger life, thou wilt receive him more and more into thy joyful service, that he may win, with thee and thy servants everywhere, the eternal victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

112. THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

O God of the spirits of all flesh, we praise and magnify thy holy Name for all thy servants who have finished their course in thy faith and fear [especially thy servant N.]; and we beseech thee that, encouraged by their examples and strengthened by their fellowship, we also may be found meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

113. THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

O eternal Lord God, who dost hold all souls in life: Shed forth upon thy whole Church in Paradise and on earth the bright beams of thy light and heavenly comfort; and grant that we, following the good example of those who have loved and served thee here and are now at rest, may enter with them into the fullness of thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

114. FOR ALL FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful are in joy and felicity: We praise and magnify thy holy Name for all thy servants who have finished their course in thy faith and fear; at the general Resurrection in the last day, we and all who are members of the mystical body of thy Son may be set on his right hand, and hear that his most joyful voice: "Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world." Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

See also Additional Prayers in Burial of the Dead on pages 263-265

115. FOR THE COMING OF GOD'S KINGDOM

Hasten, O Father, the coming of thy kingdom; and grant that we thy servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold thy Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

I I 6. A LITANY OF THANKSGIVING

Let us give thanks to God our Father for all his gifts so freely bestowed upon us:

For the beauty and wonder of your creation, in earth and sky and sea,

We thank thee, Lord.

For our daily food and drink, our homes and families, and our friends,

We thank thee, Lord.

For minds to think, and hearts to love, and hands to serve,

We thank thee, Lord.

For health and strength to work, and time to rest and worship,

We thank thee, Lord.

For all who are patient in suffering and faithful in adversity,

We thank thee, Lord.

For all who earnestly seek after truth, and all who labor for justice,

We thank thee, Lord.

For all that is good and gracious in the lives of men and women, revealing the image of Christ,

We thank thee, Lord.

For the communion of saints, in all times and places,

We thank thee, Lord.

Above all, we give thee thanks for the great mercies and promises given to us in Christ Jesus our Lord;

To him be praise and glory, with thee, O Father, and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen

117. A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that thou hast done for us. We thank thee for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love. We thank thee for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side. We thank thee for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us. We thank thee also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on thee alone. Above all, we thank thee for thy Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of thy kingdom. Grant us the gift of thy Spirit, that we may know him and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to thee in all things. Amen.

118. FOR THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

Almighty God, who didst send thy Son Jesus Christ to reconcile the world to thyself: We praise and bless thee for those whom thou hast sent in the power of the Spirit to preach the Gospel to all nations. We thank thee that in all parts of the earth a community of love hast been gathered together by their prayers and labors, and that in every place thy servants call upon thy Name; for the kingdom and the power and the glory are thine for ever. Amen.

119. FOR THE HARVEST

Most gracious God, by whose knowledge the depths are broken up and the clouds drop down the dew: We yield thee hearty thanks and praise for the return of seedtime and harvest, for the increase of the ground and the gathering in of its fruits, and for all the other blessings of thy merciful providence bestowed upon this nation and people. And, we beseech thee, give us a just sense of these great mercies, such as may appear in our lives by a humble, holy, and obedient walking before thee all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

120. FOR THE BEAUTY OF THE EARTH

We give thee thanks, most gracious God, for the beauty of earth and sky and sea; for the richness of mountains, plains, and rivers; for the songs of birds and the loveliness of flowers. We praise thee for these good gifts, and pray that we may safeguard them for our posterity. Grant that we may continue to grow in our grateful enjoyment of thine abundant creation, to the honor and glory of thy Name, world without end. Amen.

121. FOR THE DIVERSITY OF RACES AND CULTURES

O God, who didst create all peoples in thine image: We thank thee for the diversity of races and cultures in this world. Show us thy presence in those who differ from us, and enrich our lives with their fellowship, until our knowledge of thy love is made perfect in our love for all thy children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

122. FOR MILITARY VETERANS

O Judge of the nations, we thank thee with grateful hearts for the men and women of our country who in the day of decision ventured much for the liberties we now enjoy. Grant that we may not rest until all the people of this land share the benefits of true freedom and gladly accept its disciplines. This we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I 23. FOR DELIVERANCE FROM PERIL

Almighty God, who art a strong tower of defense unto thy servants in the time of trouble: We yield thee praise and hearty thanks for our deliverance from the dangers which lately encompassed us [and for thy gracious gift of peace]. We confess that it is thy goodness alone that hath preserved us; and we beseech thee still to continue thy mercies towards us, that we may always acknowledge thee as our Savior and mighty Deliverer; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I 24. FOR THE RESTORATION OF HEALTH

Almighty God and heavenly Father, we bless and praise thy Name on behalf of thy servant N., and we give thee humble thanks that thou hast been pleased to deliver him from sickness. Grant, O gracious Father, that by thy help he may live in this world according to thy will, and be made a partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I 25. FOR THE SAINTS AND FAITHFUL DEPARTED

We give thanks to thee, O Lord our God, for all thy servants and witnesses of time past: for Abraham, the father of believers, and Sarah his wife; for Moses, the lawgiver, and Aaron, the priest; for Miriam and Joshua, Deborah and Gideon, and Samuel, with Hannah his mother; for Isaiah and all the prophets; for the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of our Lord; for Saints Peter and Paul and all the apostles; for Saints Mary and Martha, and Mary Magdalene; for Saint Stephen, the first martyr, and all the martyrs and saints in every age and in every land. In thy mercy, O Lord our God, give us, as thou gavest to them, the hope of salvation and the promise of eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the first-born of many from the dead. Amen.

THE CALENDAR of the CHRISTIAN YEAR

AN INTRODUCTION

The Christian Year consists of two cycles of holy days. The first is the Paschal Cycle, which follows the lunar calendar and identifies the first Sunday after the full moon that falls on or after March 21 as Easter Day. (Easter Day cannot occur before March 22 or after April 25.) The season of Lent precedes Eastertide and the Season after Pentecost follows it. The second cycle, the Incarnation Cycle, follows the solar calendar and places our Lord's birth on December 25 (Christmas Day) with the season of Advent preceding it. The season of Epiphany follows the twelve days of the Christmas season (Christmastide.)

SUNDAYS

The sequence of the Sundays of the Calendar depends on the date of Easter, because every Sunday is a celebration of our Lord's resurrection from the dead. Nevertheless, Sundays also reflect the character of the seasons in which they are set. Following ancient Jewish tradition, the celebration of any Sunday begins at sundown on the Saturday that precedes it. Therefore at Evening Prayer on Saturdays (other than Holy Days), the Collect appointed for the ensuing Sunday is used.

PRINCIPAL FEASTS

Easter Day	Christmas Day	December 25
Ascension Day	The Epiphany	January 6
The Day of Pentecost	All Saints' Day	November 1
Trinity Sunday

These feasts take precedence over any other day or observance. All Saints' Day may also be observed on the Sunday following November 1, in addition to its observance on the fixed date. In Canada, when Remembrance Day observances fall on the first Sunday of November, All Saints' Day may be observed on the preceding Sunday.

HOLY DAYS

The Holy Days, traditionally called Red-Letter Days, observed in this church, in addition to the Principal Feasts, are the following:

The Circumcision and Holy Name	January 1
The Presentation of Christ in the Temple	February 2
Joseph, the Guardian of Jesus	March 19
The Annunciation	March 25
The Feasts of the Apostles
The Feasts of the Evangelists
The Visitation	May 31
The Nativity of John the Baptist	June 24
Mary Magdalene	July 22
The Transfiguration	August 6
The Virgin Mary	August 15
Holy Cross Day	September 14
Holy Michael and All Angels	September 29
James of Jerusalem	October 23
Stephen, Deacon and Martyr	December 26
The Holy Innocents	December 28

Any of these feasts that fall on a Sunday, other than in Advent, Lent, and Easter, may be observed on that Sunday or transferred to the nearest following weekday.

The last three Sundays before Lent may be observed as Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima.

No holy day or observance can replace the fixed propers for Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, or Easter Week.

DAYS OF DISCIPLINE, DENIAL, AND SPECIAL PRAYER

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, and Good Friday, the day of our Lord's Crucifixion, are traditionally days of special devotion and total abstinence. Maundy Thursday is observed with rites recalling the Last Supper and betrayal at Gethsemane.

The weekdays of Lent and every Friday of the year (outside the 12 Days of Christmas and the 50 days of Eastertide) are encouraged as days of fasting. Ember Days and Rogation Days may also be kept in this way.

Fasting, in addition to reduced consumption, normally also includes prayer, self-examination, and acts of mercy.

Ember Days are set aside for prayers for those called to Holy Orders, and occur on the following Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays:

After St. Lucy's Day December 13

After the First Sunday in Lent

After the Day of Pentecost

After Holy Cross Day September 14

Rogation Days are the three days preceding Ascension Day, especially devoted to asking for God's blessing on agriculture and industry.

National Days with proper lessons are:

Memorial Day (United States on the Monday closest to May 28)

Canada Day (Canada on July 1)

Independence Day (United States on July 4)

Thanksgiving Day (Canada on the second Monday in October; United States on the fourth Thursday in November)

Remembrance Day (Canada on November 11)

COMMEMORATIONS

The Book of Common Prayer of 1662 appointed days of optional commemoration (Black Letter Days). In this edition of the Book of Common Prayer, two categories of optional commemorations are presented: Anglican and Ecumenical. These commemorations may be transferred or observed as local needs dictate. Collects and Lessons are offered in nine categories: Martyr, Missionary or Evangelist, Pastor, Teacher of the Faith, Monastic or Religious, Ecumenist, Reformer of the Church, Renewer of Society, and any Saint. The daily psalms and readings at Morning and Evening prayer are not usually superseded by these commemorations.

Those preparing weekday liturgies are encouraged to limit the number of commemorations, especially in Advent or Lent, in order that the spirit of the season be maintained.

SUNDAY, HOLY DAY, and COMMEMORATION LECTIONARY

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The public reading of Scripture in the liturgies of the Church is among the most important features of any act of worship. No one should be admitted to this high privilege who has not thoroughly prepared the passage to be read, so that the lesson can be read with clarity, authority, and understanding.

This lectionary provides a three-year cycle of four readings for each Sunday of the Christian Year. Year A begins with Advent Sunday in those years evenly divisible by 3. Thus, Advent 2019 begins a new cycle with Year A. Multiple sets of lessons are assigned for Christmas Day, Easter Day, and All Saints' Day. Also included are single sets of readings for all other Prayer Book Principal Feasts and Holy Days (Red-Letter Days), including Ash Wednesday and the days of Holy Week and Easter Week. Lessons for Ember Days, Rogation Days, National Days, and Commemorations (Black-Letter Days) are appointed as well.

Readings from the Apocrypha are in italics. It is appropriate to conclude readings from the Apocrypha with "Here ends the Reading."

The number of readings on any Sunday or Holy Day may be lessened according to pastoral circumstance, provided the Gospel is always read at Eucharist. The English Standard Version of the Scriptures is the normative text; however, the Psalms should be read or sung in a version intended for that purpose. The Bishop of the Diocese is to be consulted where a regular pattern of fewer than four lessons is adopted as the Sunday customary of a Congregation, or when a pattern of alternate readings or a "sermon series" is proposed. The rector of a Congregation may direct that an appointed lesson be shortened or lengthened, provided the plain sense is retained.

Feasts of Dedication, special observances customary in the local setting, or days of national or provincial mourning or celebration may employ lessons other than those regularly established for a given Sunday.

DAILY OFFICE LECTORY

USE OF PSALMS IN THE DAILY OFFICE

Recitation of the Psalms is central to daily worship throughout the Christian Tradition. Anglicanism at the time of the Reformation established that the entire Psalter should be read in the Daily Office every month. This one-month cycle is printed on the following page, and is indicated within the Psalter itself.

An alternate sixty-day cycle of shorter psalm readings is also printed alongside the readings in this lectionary. Proper psalms for the feasts of Epiphany, the Presentation, the Annunciation, the Transfiguration, All Saints', and Christmas have been included within the sixty-day psalm cycle.

For any day, the psalms appointed may be reduced in number according to local circumstance, provided that the entire Psalter is read regularly. If only one Office is prayed in a day, any of the psalms appointed for that day may be used.

The Gloria Patri (Glory be...) may be said after each psalm, or at the conclusion of all the psalms of the Office. The manner of recitation of the psalms can be adapted to size of Congregation and physical setting: responsive (between leader and people), antiphonal (alternating sides of the Congregation), or in unison, and by whole or half verse. For purposes of reflective pause, half-verse recitation, or musical chant, the asterisk (*) printed in each verse indicates the place where the verse divides.

Verse numbers correspond to the Coverdale Psalter found in this book, which may differ from other translations.

If there is a 31st day of the month, psalms are chosen from among the Songs of Ascents (120 to 134).

ANNUAL CYCLE OF LESSONS APPOINTED

The principle adopted at the Reformation was that “the whole of Holy Scripture (or the greatest part thereof)” should be read each year. This cycle of lessons is based on that principle.

The first lesson is normally taken from the Old Testament or the Apocrypha. The Old Testament is read in its entirety once each year (with the exception of a few passages in Leviticus, Numbers, Joshua, Judges, Ezra, Nehemiah, Ezekiel, and the majority of Chronicles). These readings may be shortened if necessary, as long as the plain sense of the text is not lost. The dagger symbol (†) indicates a way to abbreviate a longer chapter if desired. The Gospels and Acts are read in their entirety twice each year, at Morning Prayer during the first part of the year, at Evening Prayer during the second part of the year. The Epistles are read twice each year in the opposite pattern, except for the Revelation to John, which is read only once, during the Advent season. Less of the Apocrypha has been included than in the 1662 Book of Common Prayer; however, select passages have been retained, in keeping with the classic Anglican principle that “the Church doth read [these books] for example of life and instruction of manners; but yet doth it not apply them to establish any doctrine” (Article VI of the Thirty-Nine Articles).

In general, readings move continuously through books of the Bible, interrupted only by Holy Days. For most Holy Days a single proper lesson is included, usually in Morning Prayer. For major feasts of our Lord, two proper lessons are included. The Holy Days connected to the date of Easter (Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, Easter Day, Ascension, and Pentecost) have a variable calendar date year to year. Proper readings for these days are provided in additional tables in the midst of the lectionary, and are indicated at the earliest possible date with a double dagger (‡).

If Morning Prayer is the principal liturgy on a Sunday, the psalms and lessons appointed for the day should be replaced with the psalm and two of the lessons from the SUNDAY, HOLY DAY, AND COMMEMORATION LECTORY. On other Holy Days, the psalm and lessons from the SUNDAY, HOLY DAY, AND COMMEMORATION LECTORY may be used, if those lessons are not to be used at a celebration of the Eucharist on that day.

When a Lesson begins with a pronoun, the reader should substitute the appropriate noun.

Readings from the Apocrypha are in italics. It is appropriate to conclude readings from the Apocrypha with “Here ends the Reading.” Should an alternate reading be desired to replace the Apocrypha, the reading appointed as the first lesson of the other Office for that day may be divided between the two Offices.

This Daily Office Lectionary may be adapted for use in a two-year cycle (indicated by I and II in the monthly headings) by reading only the two lessons appointed for Morning Prayer in odd-numbered years (e.g., 2019) and the two lessons appointed for Evening Prayer in even-numbered years (e.g., 2020). The two lessons each day may be divided across the two Offices. In this way, the New Testament will be read through once each year, and the Old Testament will be read through in two years.

As the Anglican Church in North America (the Province), being a part of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church of Christ, we believe and confess Jesus Christ to be the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no one comes to the Father but by Him. Therefore, we identify the following seven elements as characteristic of the Anglican Way, and essential for membership:

1. We confess the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired Word of God, containing all things necessary for salvation, and to be the final authority and unchangeable standard for Christian faith and life.
2. We confess Baptism and the Supper of the Lord to be Sacraments ordained by Christ Himself in the Gospel, and thus to be ministered with unfailing use of His words of institution and of the elements ordained by Him.
3. We confess the godly historic Episcopate as an inherent part of the apostolic faith and practice, and therefore as integral to the fullness and unity of the Body of Christ.

4. We confess as proved by most certain warrants of Holy Scripture the historic faith of the undivided church as declared in the three Catholic Creeds: the Apostles', the Nicene, and the Athanasian.
5. Concerning the seven Councils of the undivided Church, we affirm the teaching of the first four Councils and the Christological clarifications of the fifth, sixth and seventh Councils, in so far as they are agreeable to the Holy Scriptures.
6. We receive The Book of Common Prayer as set forth by the Church of England in 1662, together with the Ordinal attached to the same, as a standard for Anglican doctrine and discipline, and, with the Books which preceded it, as the standard for the Anglican tradition of worship.
7. We receive the Thirty-Nine Articles of Religion of 1571, taken in their literal and grammatical sense, as expressing the Anglican response to certain doctrinal issues controverted at that time, and as expressing fundamental principles of authentic Anglican belief.

In all these things, the Anglican Church in North America is determined by the help of God to hold and maintain, as the Anglican Way has received them, the doctrine, discipline and worship of Christ and to transmit the same, unimpaired, to our posterity. We seek to be and remain in full communion with all Anglican Churches, Dioceses and Provinces that hold and maintain the Historic Faith, Doctrine, Sacraments and Discipline of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.

COLLEGE OF BISHOPS RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE NICE N E C R E E D
Epiphany, 2013

RESOLVED,

The normative form of the Nicene Creed for the Anglican Church in North America is the original text as adopted by the Councils of Nicaea (325 A.D.) and Constantinople (381 A.D.). This form shall be rendered in English in the best and most accurate translation achievable.

RESOLVED,

The Anglican Church in North America acknowledges that the form of the Nicene Creed customary in the West is that of the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, including the words “and the Son” (filioque), which form may be used in worship and for elucidation of doctrine.

RESOLVED,

Because we are committed to the highest level of global unity possible, the College of Bishops of the Anglican Church in North America seeks advice of the Theological Commission of the Global Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans concerning implementation of the recommendation of the Lambeth Conference of 1978 to use the normative form of the Nicene Creed at worship.

T H E
A T H A N A S I A N C R E E D

Whosoever will be saved, *
before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholic Faith.
Which Faith except everyone do keep whole and undefiled, *
without doubt he shall perish everlastingily.
And the Catholic Faith is this: *
 That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity, Neither confounding the Persons, *
 nor dividing the Substance.
For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, *
 and another of the Holy Ghost.
But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son,
and of the Holy Ghost, is all one, *
 the Glory equal, the Majesty co-eternal.
Such as the Father is, such is the Son, *
 and such is the Holy Ghost.
The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate, *
 and the Holy Ghost uncreate.
The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible, * and the Holy Ghost incomprehensible.
The Father eternal, the Son eternal, *
 and the Holy Ghost eternal.
And yet they are not three eternals, *
 but one eternal.

As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncreated,^{*} but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty,^{*} and the Holy Ghost Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almhighties,^{*}
but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God,^{*} and the Holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods,^{*}
but one God.

So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord,^{*}
and the Holy Ghost Lord.

And yet not three Lords,^{*}
but one Lord.

For like as we are compelled by the Christian verity^{*} to acknowledge every Person by himself to be both God and Lord,

So are we forbidden by the Catholic Religion,^{*} to say, There be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none,^{*} neither created, nor begotten.

The Son is of the Father alone,^{*} not made, nor created, but begotten.

The Holy Ghost is of the Father and of the Son,^{*} neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons;^{*} one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity none is afore, or after other;^{*} none is greater, or less than another;

But the whole three Persons are co-eternal together^{*} and co-equal.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid,^{*}
the Unity in Trinity and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saved *
must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation * that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and confess, *
that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man;
God, of the Substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds; *
and Man, of the Substance of his Mother, born in the world;
Perfect God and perfect Man, *
of a reasonable soul and human flesh subsisting;
Equal to the Father, as touching his Godhead; *
and inferior to the Father, as touching his Manhood.

Who, although he be God and Man, *
yet he is not two, but one Christ;
One, not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh, *
but by taking of the Manhood into God;
One altogether; not by confusion of Substance, *
but by unity of Person.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man, *
so God and Man is one Christ;
Who suffered for our salvation, *
descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.
He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty, *
from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies * and shall give account for their own works.
And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting; *
and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholic Faith, * which except a man believe faithfully, he cannot be saved.

THE THIRTY-NINE ARTICLES of RELIGION of 1571

I. OF FAITH IN THE HOLY TRINITY

There is but one living and true God, everlasting, without body, parts, or passions; of infinite power, wisdom, and goodness; the Maker, and Preserver of all things both visible and invisible. And in unity of this Godhead there be three Persons, of one substance, power, and eternity; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

II. OF THE WORD OR SON OF GOD, WHICH WAS MADE VERY MAN

The Son, which is the Word of the Father, begotten from everlasting of the Father, the very and eternal God, and of one substance with the Father, took Man's nature in the womb of the blessed Virgin, of her substance: so that two whole and perfect Natures, that is to say, the Godhead and Manhood, were joined together in one Person, never to be divided, whereof is one Christ, very God, and very Man; who truly suffered, was crucified, dead, and buried, to reconcile his Father to us, and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for all actual sins of men.

III. OF THE GOING DOWN OF CHRIST INTO HELL

As Christ died for us, and was buried, so also is it to be believed, that he went down into Hell.

IV. OF THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

Christ did truly rise again from death, and took again his body, with flesh, bones, and all things appertaining to the perfection of Man's nature; wherewith he ascended into Heaven, and there sitteth, until he return to judge all Men at the last day.

V. OF THE HOLY GHOST

The Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one substance, majesty, and glory, with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.

VI. OF THE SUFFICIENCY OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES FOR SALVATION

Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation: so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of the Faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation. In the name of the Holy Scriptures we do understand those Canonical Books of the Old and New Testament, of whose authority was never any doubt in the Church.

Of the Names and Number of the Canonical Books

Genesis

Exodus

Leviticus

Numbers

Deuteronomy

Joshua
Judges
Ruth
The First Book of Samuel
The Second Book of Samuel
The First Book of Kings
The Second Book of Kings
The First Book of Chronicles
The Second Book of Chronicles
The First Book of Esdras
The Second Book of Esdras
The Book of Esther
The Book of Job
The Psalms
The Proverbs
Ecclesiastes or Preacher
Cantica, or Songs of Solomon
Four Prophets the greater Twelve Prophets the less

And the other Books (as Hierome saith) the Church doth read for example of life and instruction of manners; but yet doth it not apply them to establish any doctrine; such are these following:

The Third Book of Esdras
The Fourth Book of Esdras
The Book of Tobias
The Book of Judith
The rest of the Book of Esther
The Book of Wisdom
Jesus the Son of Sirach
Baruch the Prophet

The Song of the Three Children
The Story of Susanna
Of Bel and the Dragon
The Prayer of Manasses
The First Book of Maccabees
The Second Book of Maccabees

All the Books of the New Testament, as they are commonly received, we do receive, and account them Canonical.

VII. OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

The Old Testament is not contrary to the New: for both in the Old and New Testament everlasting life is offered to Mankind by Christ, who is the only Mediator between God and Man, being both God and Man. Wherefore they are not to be heard, which feign that the old Fathers did look only for transitory promises. Although the Law given from God by Moses, as touching Ceremonies and Rites, do not bind Christian men, nor the Civil precepts thereof ought of necessity to be received in any commonwealth; yet notwithstanding, no Christian man whatsoever is free from the obedience of the Commandments which are called Moral.

VIII. OF THE THREE CREEDS

The Three Creeds, Nicene Creed, Athanasius's Creed, and that which is commonly called the Apostles' Creed, ought thoroughly to be received and believed: for they may be proved by most certain warrants of Holy Scripture.

IX. OF ORIGINAL OR BIRTH-SIN

Original Sin standeth not in the following of Adam, (as the Pelagians do vainly talk;) but it is the fault and corruption of the Nature of every man, that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam; whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and is of his own nature inclined to evil, so that the flesh lusteth always contrary to the Spirit; and therefore in every person born into this world, it deserveth God's wrath and damnation. And this infection of nature doth remain, yea in them that are regenerated; whereby the lust of the flesh, called in the Greek, φρόνημα σαρκός, which some do expound the wisdom, some sensuality, some the affection, some the desire, of the flesh, is not subject to the Law of God. And although there is no condemnation for them that believe and are baptized, yet the Apostle doth confess, that concupiscence and lust hath of itself the nature of sin.

X. OF FREE-WILL

The condition of Man after the fall of Adam is such, that he cannot turn and prepare himself, by his own natural strength and good works, to faith, and calling upon God: Wherefore we have no power to do good works pleasant and acceptable to God, without the grace of God by Christ preventing us, that we may have a good will, and working with us, when we have that good will.

XI. OF THE JUSTIFICATION OF MAN

We are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by Faith, and not for our own works or deservings: Wherefore, that we are justified by Faith only is a most wholesome Doctrine, and very full of comfort, as more largely is expressed in the Homily of Justification.

XII. OF GOOD WORKS

Albeit that Good Works, which are the fruits of Faith, and follow after Justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure

the severity of God's Judgement; yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and do spring out necessarily of a true and lively Faith; insomuch that by them a lively Faith may be as evidently known as a tree discerned by the fruit.

XIII. OF WORKS BEFORE JUSTIFICATION

Works done before the grace of Christ, and the Inspiration of his Spirit, are not pleasant to God, forasmuch as they spring not of faith in Jesus Christ, neither do they make men meet to receive grace, or (as the School-authors say) deserve grace of congruity: yea rather, for that they are not done as God hath willed and commanded them to be done, we doubt not but they have the nature of sin.

XIV. OF WORKS OF SUPEREROGATION

Voluntary Works besides, over, and above, God's Commandments, which they call Works of Supererogation, cannot be taught without arrogancy and impiety: for by them men do declare, that they do not only render unto God as much as they are bound to do, but that they do more for his sake, than of bounden duty is required: whereas Christ saith plainly, When ye have done all that are commanded to you, say, We are unprofitable servants.

XV. OF CHRIST ALONE WITHOUT SIN

Christ in the truth of our nature was made like unto us in all things, sin only except, from which he was clearly void, both in his flesh, and in his spirit. He came to be the Lamb without spot, who, by sacrifice of himself once made, should take away the sins of the world, and sin, as Saint John saith, was not in him. But all we the rest, although baptized, and born again in Christ, yet offend in many things; and if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

XVI. OF SIN AFTER BAPTISM

Not every deadly sin willingly committed after Baptism is sin against the Holy Ghost, and unpardonable. Wherefore the grant of repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after Baptism. After we have received the Holy Ghost, we may depart from grace given, and fall into sin, and by the grace of God we may arise again, and amend our lives. And therefore they are to be condemned, which say, they can no more sin as long as they live here, or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent.

XVII. OF PREDESTINATION AND ELECTION

Predestination to Life is the everlasting purpose of God, whereby (before the foundations of the world were laid) he hath constantly decreed by his counsel secret to us, to deliver from curse and damnation those whom he hath chosen in Christ out of mankind, and to bring them by Christ to everlasting salvation, as vessels made to honour. Wherefore, they which be endued with so excellent a benefit of God be called according to God's purpose by his Spirit working in due season: they through Grace obey the calling: they be justified freely: they be made sons of God by adoption: they be made like the image of his only-begotten Son Jesus Christ: they walk religiously in good works, and at length, by God's mercy, they attain to everlasting felicity.

As the godly consideration of Predestination, and our Election in Christ, is full of sweet, pleasant, and unspeakable comfort to godly persons, and such as feel in themselves the working of the Spirit of Christ, mortifying the works of the flesh, and their earthly members, and drawing up their mind to high and heavenly things, as well because it doth greatly establish and confirm their faith of eternal Salvation to be enjoyed through Christ, as because it doth fervently kindle their love towards God: So, for curious and carnal persons, lacking the Spirit of Christ, to have continually before their eyes the sentence of God's Predestination, is a most dangerous downfall, whereby the devil doth thrust them either into desperation, or into wretchedness of most unclean living, no less perilous than desperation.

Furthermore, we must receive God's promises in such wise, as they be generally set forth to us in Holy Scripture: and, in our doings, that Will of God is to be followed, which we have expressly declared unto us in the Word of God.

XVIII. OF OBTAINING ETERNAL SALVATION ONLY BY THE NAME OF CHRIST

They also are to be had accursed that presume to say, That every man shall be saved by the Law or Sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that Law, and the light of Nature. For Holy Scripture doth set out unto us only the Name of Jesus Christ, whereby men must be saved.

XIX. OF THE CHURCH

The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men, in the which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments be duly ministered according to Christ's ordinance in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same.

As the Church of Jerusalem, Alexandria, and Antioch, have erred; so also the Church of Rome hath erred, not only in their living and manner of Ceremonies, but also in matters of Faith.

XX. OF THE AUTHORITY OF THE CHURCH

The Church hath power to decree Rites or Ceremonies, and authority in Controversies of Faith: And yet it is not lawful for the Church to ordain any thing that is contrary to God's Word written, neither may it so expound one place of Scripture, that it be repugnant to another. Wherefore, although the Church be a witness and a keeper of Holy Writ, yet, as it ought not to decree any thing against the same, so besides the same ought it not to enforce any thing to be believed for necessity of Salvation.

XXI. OF THE AUTHORITY OF GENERAL COUNCILS

General Councils may not be gathered together without the commandment and will of Princes. And when they be gathered together, (forasmuch as they be an assembly of men, whereof all be not governed with the Spirit and Word of God,) they may err, and sometimes have erred, even in things pertaining unto God. Wherefore things ordained by them as necessary to salvation have neither strength nor authority, unless it may be declared that they be taken out of Holy Scripture.

XXII. OF PURGATORY

The Romish Doctrine concerning Purgatory, Pardons, Worshipping, and Adoration, as well of Images as of Reliques, and also Invocation of Saints, is a fond thing vainly invented, and grounded upon no warranty of Scripture, but rather repugnant to the Word of God.

XXIII. OF MINISTERING IN THE CONGREGATION

It is not lawful for any man to take upon him the office of publick preaching, or ministering the Sacraments in the Congregation, before he be lawfully called, and sent to execute the same.

And those we ought to judge lawfully called and sent, which be chosen and called to this work by men who have publick authority given unto them in the Congregation, to call and send Ministers into the Lord's vineyard.

XXIV. OF SPEAKING IN THE CONGREGATION IN SUCH A TONGUE AS THE PEOPLE UNDERSTANDETH

It is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God, and the custom of the Primitive Church, to have publick Prayer in the Church, or to minister the Sacraments in a tongue not understood of the people.

XXV. OF THE SACRAMENTS

Sacraments ordained of Christ be not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession, but rather they be certain sure witnesses, and effectual signs of grace, and God's good will towards us, by the which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm our Faith in him.

There are two Sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord in the Gospel, that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

Those five commonly called Sacraments, that is to say, Confirmation, Penance, Orders, Matrimony, and extreme Unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel, being such as have grown partly of the corrupt following of the Apostles, partly are states of life allowed in the Scriptures; but yet have not like nature of Sacraments with Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, for that they have not any visible sign or ceremony ordained of God.

The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about, but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily receive the same they have a wholesome effect or operation: but they that receive them unworthily purchase to themselves damnation, as Saint Paul saith.

XXVI. OF THE UNWORTHINESS OF THE MINISTERS, WHICH HINDERS NOT THE EFFECT OF THE SACRAMENT

Although in the visible Church the evil be ever mingled with the good, and sometimes the evil have chief authority in the Ministration of the Word and Sacraments, yet forasmuch as they do not the same in their own name, but in Christ's, and do minister by his commission and authority, we may use their Ministry, both in hearing the Word of God, and in receiving of the Sacraments. Neither is the effect of Christ's ordinance taken away by their wickedness, nor the grace of God's gifts diminished from such as by faith and rightly do receive the Sacraments ministered unto them; which be effectual, because of Christ's institution and promise, although they be ministered by evil men.

Nevertheless, it appertaineth to the discipline of the Church, that inquiry be made of evil Ministers, and that they be accused by those that have knowledge of their offences; and finally being found guilty, by just judgement be deposed.

XXVII. OF BAPTISM

Baptism is not only a sign of profession, and mark of difference, whereby Christian men are discerned from others that be not christened, but it is also a sign of Regeneration or new Birth, whereby, as by an instrument, they that receive Baptism rightly are grafted into the Church; the promises of forgiveness of sin, and of our adoption to be the sons of God by the Holy Ghost, are visibly signed and sealed; Faith is confirmed, and Grace increased by virtue of prayer unto God. The Baptism of young Children is in any wise to be retained in the Church, as most agreeable with the institution of Christ.

XXVIII. OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The Supper of the Lord is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another; but rather is a Sacrament of our Redemption by Christ's death: insomuch that to such as rightly, worthily, and with faith, receive the same, the Bread which we break is a partaking of the Body of Christ; and likewise the Cup of Blessing is a partaking of the Blood of Christ.

Transubstantiation (or the change of the substance of Bread and Wine) in the Supper of the Lord, cannot be proved by Holy Writ; but is repugnant to the plain words of Scripture, overthroweth the nature of a Sacrament, and hath given occasion to many superstitions.

The Body of Christ is given, taken, and eaten, in the Supper, only after an heavenly and spiritual manner. And the mean whereby the Body of Christ is received and eaten in the Supper is Faith.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was not by Christ's ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worshipped.

XXIX. OF THE WICKED WHICH EAT NOT THE BODY OF CHRIST IN THE USE OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The Wicked, and such as be void of a lively faith, although they do carnally and visibly press with their teeth (as Saint Augustine saith) the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, yet in no wise are they partakers of Christ: but rather, to their condemnation, do eat and drink the sign or Sacrament of so great a thing.

XXX. OF BOTH KINDS

The Cup of the Lord is not to be denied to the Lay-people: for both the parts of the Lord's Sacrament, by Christ's ordinance and commandment, ought to be ministered to all Christian men alike.

XXXI. OF THE ONE OBLATION OF CHRIST FINISHED UPON THE CROSS

The Offering of Christ once made is that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction, for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual; and there is none other satisfaction for sin, but that alone. Wherefore the sacrifices of Masses, in the which it was commonly said, that the Priest did offer Christ for the quick and the dead, to have remission of pain or guilt, were blasphemous fables, and dangerous deceits.

XXXII. OF THE MARRIAGE OF PRIESTS

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, are not commanded by God's Law, either to vow the estate of single life, or to abstain from marriage: therefore it is lawful for them, as for all other Christian men, to marry at their own discretion, as they shall judge the same to serve better to godliness.

XXXIII. OF EXCOMMUNICATE PERSONS, HOW THEY ARE TO BE AVOIDED

That person which by open denunciation of the Church is rightly cut off from the unity of the Church, and excommunicated, ought to be taken of the whole multitude of the faithful, as an Heathen and Publican, until he be openly reconciled by penance, and received into the Church by a Judge that hath authority thereunto.

XXXIV. OF THE TRADITIONS OF THE CHURCH

It is not necessary that Traditions and Ceremonies be in all places one, and utterly like; for at all times they have been divers, and may be changed according to the diversities of countries, times, and men's manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's Word. Whosoever through his private judgement, willingly and purposely, doth openly break the traditions and ceremonies of the Church, which be not repugnant to the Word of God, and be ordained and approved by common authority, ought to be rebuked openly, (that others may fear to do the like,) as he that offendeth against the common order of the Church, and hurteth the authority of the Magistrate, and woundeth the consciences of the weak brethren.

Every particular or national Church hath authority to ordain, change, and abolish, ceremonies or rites of the Church ordained only by man's authority, so that all things be done to edifying.

XXXV. OF THE HOMILIES

The second Book of Homilies, the several titles whereof we have joined under this Article, doth contain a godly and wholesome Doctrine, and necessary for these times, as doth the former Book of Homilies, which were set forth in the time of Edward the Sixth; and therefore we judge them to be read in Churches by the Ministers, diligently and distinctly, that they may be understood of the people.

Of the Names of the Homilies

1. Of the right Use of the Church.
2. Against peril of Idolatry.
3. Of repairing and keeping clean of Churches.
4. Of good Works: first of Fasting.
5. Against Gluttony and Drunkenness.
6. Against Excess of Apparel.
7. Of Prayer.
8. Of the Place and Time of Prayer.
9. That Common Prayers and Sacraments ought to be ministered in a known tongue.
10. Of the reverend estimation of God's Word.
11. Of Alms-doing.
12. Of the Nativity of Christ.
13. Of the Passion of Christ.
14. Of the Resurrection of Christ.
15. Of the worthy receiving of the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.
16. Of the Gifts of the Holy Ghost.
17. For the Rogation-days.
18. Of the State of Matrimony.
19. Of Repentance.
20. Against Idleness.
21. Against Rebellion.

XXXVI. OF CONSECRATION OF BISHOPS AND MINISTERS

The Book of Consecration of Archbishops and Bishops, and Ordering of Priests and Deacons, lately set forth in the time of Edward the Sixth, and confirmed at the same time by authority of Parliament, doth contain all things necessary to such Consecration and Ordering: neither hath it any thing, that of itself is superstitious and ungodly. And therefore whosoever are consecrated or ordered according to the Rites of that Book, since the second year of the forenamed King Edward unto this time, or hereafter shall be consecrated or ordered according to the same Rites; we decree all such to be rightly, orderly, and lawfully consecrated and ordered.

XXXVII. OF THE CIVIL MAGISTRATES

The King's Majesty hath the chief power in this Realm of England, and other his Dominions, unto whom the chief Government of all Estates of this Realm, whether they be Ecclesiastical or Civil, in all causes doth appertain, and is not, nor ought to be, subject to any foreign Jurisdiction.

Where we attribute to the King's Majesty the chief government, by which Titles we understand the minds of some slanderous folks to be offended; we give not to our Princes the ministering either of God's Word, or of the Sacraments, the which thing the Injunctions also lately set forth by Elizabeth our Queen do most plainly testify; but that only prerogative, which we see to have been given always to all godly Princes in Holy Scriptures by God himself; that is, that they should rule all estates and degrees committed to their charge by God, whether they be Ecclesiastical or Temporal, and restrain with the civil sword the stubborn and evil-doers.

The Bishop of Rome hath no jurisdiction in this Realm of England.

The Laws of the Realm may punish Christian men with death, for heinous and grievous offences.

It is lawful for Christian men, at the commandment of the Magistrate, to wear weapons, and serve in the wars.

XXXVIII. OF CHRISTIAN MEN'S GOODS, WHICH ARE NOT COMMON

The Riches and Goods of Christians are not common, as touching the right, title, and possession of the same, as certain Anabaptists do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every man ought, of such things as he possesseth, liberally to give alms to the poor, according to his ability.

XXXIX. OF A CHRISTIAN MAN'S OATH

As we confess that vain and rash Swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord Jesus Christ, and James his Apostle, so we judge, that Christian Religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the Magistrate requireth, in a cause of faith and charity, so it be done according to the Prophet's teaching, in justice, judgement, and truth.

AMENDMENTS OF 1801

The General Convention of 1801 of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America amended the Articles of Religion, chiefly with respect to the Crown and to the provisions of British constitutional government. The amended articles read as follows:

VIII. OF THE CREEDS.

The Nicene Creed, and that which is commonly called the Apostles' Creed, ought thoroughly to be received and believed: for they may be proved by most certain warrants of Holy Scripture.

XXI. OF THE AUTHORITY OF GENERAL COUNCILS.

[The Twenty-first of the former Articles is omitted; because it is partly of a local and civil nature, and is provided for, as to the remaining parts of it, in other Articles.]

XXXV. OF THE HOMILIES.

[This Article is received in this Church, so far as it declares the Book of Homilies to be an explication of Christian doctrine, and instructive in piety and morals. But all references to the constitution and laws of England are considered as inapplicable to the circumstances of this Church; which also suspends the order for the reading of said Homilies in churches, until a revision of them may be conveniently made, for the clearing of them, as well from obsolete words and phrases, as from the local references.]

XXXVI. OF CONSECRATION OF BISHOPS AND MINISTERS.

The Book of Consecration of Bishops, and Ordering of Priests and Deacons, as set forth by the General Convention of this Church in 1792, doth contain all things necessary to such Consecration and Ordering; neither hath it any thing that, of itself, is superstitious and ungodly. And, therefore, whosoever are consecrated or ordered according to said Form, we decree all such to be rightly, orderly, and lawfully consecrated and ordered.

XXXVII. OF THE POWER OF THE CIVIL MAGISTRATES.

The Power of the Civil Magistrate extendeth to all men, as well Clergy as Laity, in all things temporal; but hath no authority in things purely spiritual. And we hold it to be the duty of all men who are professors of the Gospel, to pay respectful obedience to the Civil Authority, regularly and legitimately constituted.

J E R U S A L E M D E C L A R A T I O N

In the Name of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit:

We, the participants in the Global Anglican Future Conference, have met in the land of Jesus' birth. We express our loyalty as disciples to the King of kings, the Lord Jesus. We joyfully embrace his command to proclaim the reality of his kingdom which he first announced in this land. The gospel of the kingdom is the good news of salvation, liberation and transformation for all. In light of the above, we agree to chart a way forward together that promotes and protects the biblical gospel and mission to the world, solemnly declaring the following tenets of orthodoxy which underpin our Anglican identity.

1. We rejoice in the gospel of God through which we have been saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Because God first loved us, we love him and as believers bring forth fruits of love, ongoing repentance, lively hope and thanksgiving to God in all things.

2. We believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God written and to contain all things necessary for salvation. The Bible is to be translated, read, preached, taught and obeyed in its plain and canonical sense, respectful of the church's historic and consensual reading.
3. We uphold the four Ecumenical Councils and the three historic Creeds as expressing the rule of faith of the one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
4. We uphold the Thirty-nine Articles as containing the true doctrine of the Church agreeing with God's Word and as authoritative for Anglicans today.
5. We gladly proclaim and submit to the unique and universal Lordship of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, humanity's only Saviour from sin, judgement and hell, who lived the life we could not live and died the death that we deserve. By his atoning death and glorious resurrection, he secured the redemption of all who come to him in repentance and faith.
6. We rejoice in our Anglican sacramental and liturgical heritage as an expression of the gospel, and we uphold the 1662 Book of Common Prayer as a true and authoritative standard of worship and prayer, to be translated and locally adapted for each culture.
7. We recognise that God has called and gifted bishops, priests and deacons in historic succession to equip all the people of God for their ministry in the world. We uphold the classic Anglican Ordinal as an authoritative standard of clerical orders.
8. We acknowledge God's creation of humankind as male and female and the unchangeable standard of Christian marriage between one man and one woman as the proper place for sexual intimacy and the basis of the family. We repent of our failures to maintain this standard and call for a renewed commitment to lifelong fidelity in marriage and abstinence for those who are not married.

9. We gladly accept the Great Commission of the risen Lord to make disciples of all nations, to seek those who do not know Christ and to baptise, teach and bring new believers to maturity.
10. We are mindful of our responsibility to be good stewards of God's creation, to uphold and advocate justice in society, and to seek relief and empowerment of the poor and needy.
11. We are committed to the unity of all those who know and love Christ and to building authentic ecumenical relationships. We recognise the orders and jurisdiction of those Anglicans who uphold orthodox faith and practice, and we encourage them to join us in this declaration.
12. We celebrate the God-given diversity among us which enriches our global fellowship, and we acknowledge freedom in secondary matters. We pledge to work together to seek the mind of Christ on issues that divide us.
13. We reject the authority of those churches and leaders who have denied the orthodox faith in word or deed. We pray for them and call on them to repent and return to the Lord.
14. We rejoice at the prospect of Jesus' coming again in glory, and while we await this final event of history, we praise him for the way he builds up his church through his Spirit by miraculously changing lives.

THE PREFACE OF THE
BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER
(1549)

There was never any thing by the wit of man so well devised, or so sure established, which in continuance of time hath not been corrupted: as, among other things, it may plainly appear by the common prayers in the Church, commonly called Divine Service: the first original and ground whereof, if a man would search out by the ancient fathers, he shall find, that the same was not ordained, but of a good purpose, and for a great advancement of godliness: For they so ordered the matter, that all the whole Bible (or the greatest part thereof) should be read over once in the year, intending thereby, that the Clergy, and especially such as were Ministers of the congregation, should (by often reading, and meditation of God's word) be stirred up to godliness themselves, and be more able to exhort others by wholesome doctrine, and to confute them that were adversaries to the truth. And further, that the people (by daily hearing of Holy Scripture read in the Church) should continually profit more and more in the knowledge of God, and be the more inflamed with the love of his true religion.

But these many years passed, this godly and decent order of the ancient fathers has been so altered, broken, and neglected, by planting in uncertain stories, Legends, Responds, Verses, vain repetitions, Commemorations, and Synodals, that commonly when any book of the Bible was begun, before three or four Chapters were read out, all the rest were unread. And in this sort the book of Isaiah was begun in Advent, and the book of Genesis in Septuagesima; but they were only begun, and never read through. After a like sort were other books of Holy Scripture used. And moreover, whereas St. Paul would have such language spoken to the people in the Church, as they might understand, and have profit by hearing the same, the Service in the Church of England (these many years) hath been read in Latin to the people, which they understood not; so that they have heard with their ears only; and their hearts, spirit, and mind, have not been edified thereby. And furthermore, notwithstanding that the ancient fathers had divided the Psalms into seven portions, whereof every one was called a nocturn, now of late time a few of them have been daily said (and oft repeated), and the rest utterly omitted. Moreover, the number and hardness of the Rules called the Pie, and the manifold changings of the service, was the cause, that to turn the Book only, was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times, there was more business to find out what should be read, than to read it when it was found out.

These inconveniences therefore considered, here is set forth such an order, whereby the same shall be redressed. And for a readiness in this matter, here is drawn out a Kalendar for that purpose, which is plain and easy to be understood, wherein (so much as may be) the reading of Holy Scripture is so set forth, that all things shall be done in order, without breaking one piece thereof from another. For this cause be cut off Anthems, Responds, Invitatories, and such like things, as did break the continual course of the reading of the Scripture.

Yet because there is no remedy, but that of necessity there must be some rules: therefore certain rules are here set forth, which, as they be few in number; so they be plain and easy to be understood. So that here you have an order for prayer (as touching the reading of the Holy Scripture), much agreeable to the mind and purpose of the old fathers, and a great deal more profitable and commodious, than that which of late was used.

It is more profitable, because here are left out many things, whereof some be untrue, some uncertain, same vain and superstitious: and is ordained nothing to be read, but the very pure word of God, the Holy Scriptures, or that which is evidently grounded upon the same; and that in such a language and order as is most easy and plain for the understanding, both of the readers and hearers. It is also more commodious, both for the shortness thereof, and for the plainness of the order, and for that the rules be few and easy. Furthermore, by this order the curates shall need none other books for their public service, but this book and the Bible: by the means whereof, the people shall not be at so great charge for books, as in time past they have been.

And where heretofore, there hath been great diversity in saying and singing in churches within this realm: some following Salisbury use, some Hereford use, some the use of Bangor, some of York, and some of Lincoln: now from henceforth, all the whole realm shall have but one use. And if any would judge this way more painful, because that all things must be read upon the book, whereas before, by reason of so often repetition, they could say many things by heart: if those men will weigh their labor with the profit in knowledge, which daily they shall obtain by reading upon the book, they will not refuse the pain, in consideration of the great profit that shall ensue thereof.

And forasmuch as nothing else, almost, be so plainly set forth, but doubts may arise in the use and practicing of the same: to appease all such diversity (if any arise), and for the resolution of all doubts, concerning the manner how to understand, do, and execute, the things contained in this book: the parties that so doubt, or diversely take any thing, shall always resort to the Bishop of the Diocese, who by his discretion shall take order for the quieting and appeasing of the same; so that the same order be not contrary to any thing contained in this book.

Though it be appointed in the afore written preface, that all things shall be read and sung in the church in the English tongue, to the end that the congregation may be thereby edified: yet it is not meant, but when men say Matins and Evensong privately, they may say the same in any language that they themselves do understand. Neither that any man shall be bound to the saying of them, but such as from time to time, in Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, parish Churches, and Chapels to the same annexed, shall serve the congregation.

THE PREFACE OF THE
(1662)

It hath been the wisdom of the Church of England, ever since the first compiling of her publick Liturgy, to keep the mean between the two extremes, of too much stiffness in refusing, and of too much easiness in admitting any variation from it. For, as on the one side common experience sheweth, that where a change hath been made of things advisedly established (no evident necessity so requiring) sundry inconveniences have thereupon ensued; and those many times more and greater than the evils, that were intended to be remedied by such change: So on the other side, the particular Forms of Divine worship, and the Rites and Ceremonies appointed to be used therein, being things in their own nature indifferent, and alterable, and so acknowledged; it is but reasonable, that upon weighty and important considerations, according to the various exigency of times and occasions, such changes and alterations should be made therein, as to those that are in place of Authority should from time to time seem either necessary or expedient. Accordingly we find, that in the Reigns of several Princes of blessed memory since the Reformation, the Church, upon just and weighty considerations her thereunto moving, hath yielded to make such alterations in some particulars, as in their respective times were thought convenient: Yet so, as that the main Body and Essentials of it (as well in the chiefest materials, as in the frame and order thereof) have still continued the same unto this day, and do yet stand firm and unshaken, notwithstanding all the vain attempts and impetuous assaults made against it, by such men as are given to change, and have always discovered a greater regard to their own private fancies and interests, than to that duty they owe to the publick.

By what undue means, and for what mischievous purposes the use of the Liturgy (though enjoined by the Laws of the Land, and those Laws never yet repealed) came, during the late unhappy confusions, to be discontinued, is too well known to the world, and we are not willing here to remember. But when, upon His Majesty's happy Restoration, it seemed probable, that, amongst other things, the use of the Liturgy also would return of course (the same having never been legally abolished) unless some timely means were used to prevent it; those men who under the late usurped powers had made it a great part of their business to render the people disaffected thereunto, saw themselves in point of reputation and interest concerned (unless they would freely acknowledge themselves to have erred, which such men are very hardly brought to do) with their utmost endeavours to hinder the restitution thereof. In order whereunto divers Pamphlets were published against the Book of Common Prayer, the old Objections mustered up, with the addition of some new ones, more than formerly had been made, to make the number swell. In fine, great importunities were used to His Sacred Majesty, that the said Book might be revised, and such Alterations therein, and Additions thereunto made, as should be thought requisite for the ease of tender Consciences: whereunto His Majesty, out of his pious inclination to give satisfaction (so far as could be reasonably expected) to all his subjects of what persuasion soever, did graciously condescend.

In which review we have endeavoured to observe the like moderation, as we find to have been used in the like case in former times. And therefore of the sundry alterations proposed unto us, we have rejected all such as were either of dangerous consequence (as secretly striking at some established doctrine, or laudable practice of the Church of England, or indeed of the whole Catholick Church of Christ) or else of no consequence at all, but utterly frivolous and vain. But such alterations as were tendered to us, (by what persons, under what pretences, or to what purpose soever so tendered) as seemed to us in any degree requisite or expedient, we have willingly, and of our own accord assented unto: not enforced so to do by any strength of Argument, convincing us of the necessity of making the said Alterations: For we are fully persuaded in our judgements (and we here profess it to the world) that the Book, as it stood before established by Law, doth not contain in it any thing contrary to the Word of God, or to sound Doctrine, or which a godly man may not with a good Conscience use and submit unto, or which is not fairly defensible against any that shall oppose the same; if it shall be allowed such just and favourable construction as in common equity ought to be allowed to all human Writings, especially such as are set forth by Authority, and even to the very best translations of the Holy Scripture itself.

Our general aim therefore in this undertaking was, not to gratify this or that party in any their unreasonable demands; but to do that, which to our best understandings we conceived might most tend to the preservation of Peace and Unity in the Church; the procuring of Reverence, and exciting of Piety and Devotion in the publick Worship of God; and the cutting off occasion from them that seek occasion of cavil or quarrel against the Liturgy of the Church. And as to the several variations from the former Book, whether by Alteration, Addition, or otherwise, it shall suffice to give this general account. That most of the Alterations were made, either first, for the better direction of them that are to officiate in any part of Divine Service; which is chiefly done in the Calendars and Rubricks: Or secondly, for the more proper expressing of some words or phrases of ancient usage in terms more suitable to the language of the present times, and the clearer explanation of some other words and phrases, that were either of doubtful signification, or otherwise liable to misconstruction: Or thirdly, for a more perfect rendering of such portions of Holy Scripture, as are inserted into the Liturgy; which, in the Epistles and Gospels especially, and in sundry other places, are now ordered to be read according to the last Translation: and that it was thought convenient, that some Prayers and Thanksgivings, fitted to special occasions, should be added in their due places; particularly for those at Sea, together with an office for the Baptism of such as are of Riper Years: which, although not so necessary when the former Book was compiled, yet by the growth of Anabaptism, through the licentiousness of the late times crept in amongst us, is now become necessary, and may be always useful for the baptizing of Natives in our Plantations, and others converted to the Faith. If any man, who shall desire a more particular account of the several Alterations in any part of the Liturgy, shall take the pains to compare the present Book with the former; we doubt not but the reason of the change may easily appear.

And having thus endeavoured to discharge our duties in this weighty affair, as in the sight of God, and to approve our sincerity therein (so far as lay in us) to the consciences of all men; although we know it impossible (in such variety of apprehensions, humours and interests, as are in the world) to please all; nor can expect that men of factious, peevish, and perverse spirits should be satisfied with any thing that can be done in this kind by any other than themselves: Yet we have good hope, that what is here presented, and hath been by the Convocations of both Provinces with great diligence examined and approved, will be also well accepted and approved by all sober, peaceable, and truly conscientious Sons of the Church of England
